

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

—Thus far the Hanover water wheel has not done its work up to guarantees. —J. A. Rearick, of Farmers Mills, and James Grove, transacted business in town Tuesday.

—Samuel Musser, of Scranton, a native of near Bellefonte, was here visiting his son-in-law, grocer Sheffer, and other relatives.

—The entertainment in the opera house this evening will be sure to attract a right good house. Lady minstrels is a new thing on the program.

—Boyd A. Musser and family leave the latter part of this week for York, Pa. Their permanent address will be 614 West King street, York, Pa.

—Rev. C. L. McConnell, pastor of the Lutheran church, of Millburg, preaches every night this week except Saturday, for Dr. Holloway, in the Lutheran church.

—The Hanover water wheel at the Water Works is standing idle these days and the firm has taken no decisive action to make the thing come up to the specifications.

—According to some legal advertisements in another part of this issue it would seem that all the divorce business is not transacted in South Dakota. Centre county has her share.

—All persons who paid subscriptions during the month of March will find the date on their labels changed this week. If you sent us any money for this purpose, look it up and see how your account stands.

—Some extensive improvements were being made about the Brockhoff House past week. The bar room is being remodeled and will be put in tip top shape. We got this bit of news by looking in from the outside.

—Miss Mary Bickford, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bickford, of Lock Haven, and a grand-daughter of the late Daniel McGinley, of this place, died in the hospital at Scranton on Tuesday morning after a long illness.

—The employees of the Standard Scale Works calculate that they will leave here about the first of September for Beaver Falls, the new location for the plant. At present there is no interruption in their work at this place.

—Saturday evening a scrap of small dimensions occurred near the Bush House in which a fellow was dropped, who could not stand straight when not in a quarrel. No police were about at the time or there would have been a pull in.

—Special services are being held every night of this week, in the Salvation Army barracks. Secretary Hindman of the Y. M. C. A. will conduct the meeting this evening, and on Saturday evening a special program will be prepared for the children.

—Rev. Wood, of Tyrone, was assigned as pastor of the Methodist congregation to succeed Rev. Wilford P. Shriner, D. D. Our citizens generally regret the leaving of Dr. Shriner, but the assurance that Rev. Wood is to succeed him is some compensation.

—On Tuesday, John Gingerich, of West Elizabeth, Pa., near Pittsburg, was in town and called. He reports business brisk in that section with work for any man who is willing to take hold. He formerly was of Union Twp., where he has a small farm property that he wants to rent.

—Walter Whippo had arranged to move his family to Pittsburg where he has accepted a position. His furniture, etc., were all packed for shipping, but unfortunately one of his children was taken sick with scarlet fever. The house is quarantined and it is uncertain when he can move.

—Prof. Angel, the well known and reliable eye specialist of Williamsport, will be at the Brockhoff House, Bellefonte, Wednesday, April 8th, hours 9:30 a. m. to 9 p. m. The professor's reputation is well established in Bellefonte and throughout this county, he gives universal satisfaction through his special made glasses for weak eyes, defective vision and headaches.

—Five years ago Ralph Mallory and Samuel Taylor purchased the photograph gallery from H. B. Shaffer, at this place, and since then it has been conducted by them. This week Mr. Mallory purchased Mr. Taylor's interest in the business and in the future will continue it in his own name. Most of the time the business was conducted by Mr. Mallory who has become one of the most artistic photographers in this part of the state. When he began he had little experience in the business but gradually picked up pointers and to day has an outfit that is seldom found outside of the larger cities. Mr. Taylor has been located at Pittsburg for some time with The Titus Supply Co., where he has a splendid position.

—Prof. G. H. Hubbard, of the Unionville schools, was a pleasant caller.

—Want of space obliged us to boil down some of our correspondence.

—C. C. Shuey and Wilbur Twitmore attended the M. E. Conference at Altoona.

—Mr. John Keichline addressed the meeting at the Salvation Army Hall Tuesday evening.

—Esq. Houseman, of Tusseyville, made a flying visit to Bellefonte the other day, on business.

—Peter Corl and W. K. Corl, of College, were pleasant callers, while transacting business in town.

—Wm. Kerrin, of Moshannon, transacted business in town, and gave the Democrat a pleasant call.

—Editor Hosterman, of the Millheim Journal, transacted business in town yesterday, and gave our sanctum a call.

—Quite a large number of patrons perpetrated an April fool on us—they failed to answer an important request before that date.

—C. H. Crebs, of Madisonburg, was a caller; he informs us he never saw the wheat fields of Miles and Walker townships look better.

—April 1 was too lovely to call it April fool's day, and was an ideal day for flittings, which have kept the roads lively all this week and part of last week.

—The production of Faust, at the opera house on Wednesday evening. Manager Garman assures it will be first class—among the very best attractions of the season.

—Ex-Senator W. C. Heinle has secured and presented to the Lock Haven library a complete set of Pennsylvania Archives, for which the Lock Haveners are greatly pleased.

—F. F. Smith, David Kinkhead and S. Batchlet, three horse men, from Phillipsburg, were through here the past few days trying to buy some good horses. They had the price.

—Miss Lizzie Weiland, of Linden Hall, and Mr. Letzler, of Northumberland, Assistant Superintendent of the Linden Hall Lumber Company, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ott.

—Don't forget Howe's moving pictures in Garman's opera house, Bellefonte, on April 7th. It will be for the benefit of the Logan Fire Company, a worthy object. The collection of pictures are entirely new.

—This Thursday at noon Joseph Runkle, of Bellefonte, and Miss Edith Mahaffey will be united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Runkle has apartments elegantly equipped in Crider's Exchange for the reception of his bride.

—Yesterday N. B. Spangler and Thos. Sexton moved their law offices and occupy the suit of rooms, on second floor of Crider's Exchange, formerly held by the late W. E. Gray, decd. Mr. Spangler formerly was in the rooms of W. F. Cohick, decd, whose extensive library he purchased. Mr. Sexton moves from second floor of Eagle Block.

—Ward Kelley's Famous Big Lady Minstrels comes to Bellefonte this Thursday evening, for one performance. With a carload of pretty girls, funny comedians, a performance that is up-to-date in every particular and new costumes, it is no wonder that crowded houses welcome them wherever they go and managers ask for return dates.

—The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on May 6, 1903, an examination will be held for the position of clerk and carrier in the post office service in Bellefonte. This examination will be held in order to give all persons who desire to apply an opportunity to be examined for positions in the Bellefonte office. For information apply to Wm. G. Garman, secretary postal board, at the postoffice.

—The retirement of Arthur B. Kimport as Deputy Prothonotary is due to impaired health and overwork, as the responsibility and nearly all the work of that office was practically left for him to do. It is to his credit that during the time he filled the position the legal profession were always assured that anything left there would be promptly and correctly done. He was courteous and affable in his manner in all cases. Mr. Kimport has decided to engage in farming which is not so confining and will have an occasional hour or a day for recreation, with a good living thrown in, instead of eking out an existence for a pittance. He is right.

—Sometime ago the public school children in Spring township collected the sum of $12.34 for the famous Battle Ship Maine fund and turned it over to the Board of School Directors. The purpose of this fund failed and since then the money has been in the School treasury. The past week it was thoughtfully turned over for the benefit of the Bellefonte Hospital where it will be appreciated and put to good use. As the purpose of the hospital is not confined to Bellefonte, the surrounding districts have a perfect right to take an interest in seeing that it is properly supported. No doubt a great many critical cases will come from Spring township and the benefit they derive will be greater than they anticipate, nevertheless they have shown the proper spirit in this matter and should not stop on this effort.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors

The opening of the spring term of the Rebersburg Academy will be on Monday, April 13.

The Valentine farm, known as the Taylor bank farm, in Spring township, 142 acres, was sold to John A. Armor, late tenant on the farm.

The Passmore House, at Phillipsburg, is being enlarged and otherwise improved. This is made necessary by the largely increased demand for accommodations.

J. W. Ziegler, of Rebersburg, and Mrs. Winifred S. Brungart, of Millburg, are executors of the estate of John Wolf, of Miles, dec'd. The latter is a daughter of the deceased.

Charles S. Bitner and Miss Cora Colyer, of Linden Hall, were married by Rev. J. M. Rearick Wednesday evening, 25, at the home of the groom's father, Samuel Bitner, of Potters Mills.

Farmers from all sections of the county report the grain fields having a most promising look, and fruit not perceptibly damaged. A continuation of these conditions, will bring a bountiful harvest.

C. J. Weaver and wife are spending their honey-moon with the gentleman's parents and friends at Wolf Store. We wish them much happiness in their matrimonial life, and may success always follow them.

Walton Emick, the 13 year old son and only child of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Emig, of Phillipsburg, died Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the result of injuries sustained by falling from a telephone pole.

Tylersville had a mad dog scare a few days ago. The cur frothing with madness started on it's wild career at Ruhl's saw mill and ran from place to place biting at everything along the road. To prevent danger a citizen shot the crazy animal.

Sam'l G. Barger, of Roland, with his family, moved to McKeesport some twelve years and moved back to Roland a year ago, but thinks there are better chances out there hence his removal thither.

Mrs. Margaret Woodring, of Lemont, and John B. Witmer, the White Hall farmer, were married at the Garman house in Bellefonte on Tuesday 24th, by the Rev. Edgar Heckman, of State College. Mrs. Woodring is from Port Matilda but for some time she has resided at Lemont.

Rev. A. A. Black, pastor of the Boalsburg Reformed church, is gradually getting ready to entertain the Reformed Classis which will be held May 20 to 24 inclusive. We don't know a congregation in Centre county more able to extend a hospitable greeting to this ecclesiastical body than just this one.

The northern conference of the Central Pennsylvania synod will convene in the Evangelical Lutheran church at Snyderstown in Nittany valley, on May 13th. The officers of the conference are Rev. W. M. Rearick, president, West Milton; Rev. J. M. Stover, secretary, Snyderstown; Rev. J. M. Rearick, treasurer, Centre Hall.

M. D. Rockey, Esq., of Sugar valley, was 88 years old on March 22. All his children and many friends gathered at the old homestead to join in celebrating the event. Mrs. Jacob Rishel, 82 years old, full of energy, vitality and happiness, was present at Mr. Rockey's birthday party. She had lately returned from a long visit to Madisonburg.

Miss Sadie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Orndorf, of Woodward, died Monday morning 23rd, after an illness of five weeks. She was about eighteen years of age. She leaves to mourn her early departure the following brothers and sisters: Charles and Lewis, at Woodward; Mrs. John Hosterman, Spring Mills; Mrs. Warren Hosterman and Mrs. Daniel Benner, both of Woodward.

Efforts are being made to have the pike from Old Fort to the Union county line vacated, testimony having been taken last week at Millheim. This pike is one of the oldest in the county and was a great and profitable highway to the stockholders previous to the building of railroads in this county, more especially previous to the extension of the railroad from Lewisburg to Bellefonte. The travel over it to and from the eastern part of the state, was large, and the receipts at the tollgates correspondingly large. The railroads have dried up this pike and it is a lonesome road to travel over, scarce a vehicle or footman is met by any one going through the Narrows between Woodward and Hartleton. It is one of the "has-beens" and its days are past; in its prosperous years at the annual elections, there used to be lively scraps between the factions among the stockholders to gain control of the management of the pike. Now there is none to do it reverence.

Elias Snyder, the well known farmer of East Nittany, Monday made the discovery that thieves had visited his smoke-house and carried off sixteen pieces of choice hams and shoulders. There is no clue to the guilty parties.

Harry Twigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Twigg, of Chester Hill, at Phillipsburg, fell from a 35 foot telephone pole at Ironton, Ohio, and was instantly killed. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Twigg, who survive him, also his wife who lives with his parents.

Judge Martin Bell at noon Monday handed down his decision relative to liquor licenses. Of the eighty applications in Blair county, six were refused absolutely and two are held under advisement, leaving the total number granted thus far seventy-four. All the Tyrone applicants received license. Both Bellwood applicants were refused.

McNitt Brothers & Co. recently purchased 178 acres of land from Col. Coburn, the representative of the estate of Samuel Huston, from the Huston farm, in Potter twp. About 50 acres of the tract purchased by the lumbermen is well timbered, the balance is cleared. It is the intention of McNitt Brothers & Co. to reduce the standing timber to a marketable product, and build improvements on the tract.

John S. Furst, of Mt. Carmel, spent Saturday in town.

$5 value in our $3.50 walk over shoes. Yeager & Davis.

Alec. McConnell has returned to Bellefonte to work again.

Al and Robt. Garman, of Tyrone, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

Business is not very brisk with the Burgess during the past week.

Our Historical Review is crowded out this issue for want of space.

Another sign of spring—Bob Hunter is exercising on his motor bike.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner returned yesterday from their wedding tour.

An infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartsock died at Coleville yesterday morning.

Miss Rebecca Cole, who was visiting her brother in Lewistown, returned home Saturday night.

The mountain scenery with fish pond in Sheffer's show window is an interesting idea in miniature.

Miss Marie Walsh, of Phillipsburg, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Julia Walsh on High street.

Rev. McConnell is preaching some interesting discourses in the Lutheran church evenings of this week.

Archibald Allison can now go to his place of business a few hours each day. For seven weeks he was confined to the house.

On Tuesday evening James G. Taylor and Joseph Shaughnessy were appointed Corporals in Company B 5th Reg. N. G. P.

William McConnell, of McConnell Bros. hardware merchants, Ashland, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guest of F. H. Thomas.

See the magnificent and bewildering scenery in Porter J. White's big production of "Faust," at the opera house Wednesday, April 8th.

Farmer H. M. Snyder, of Ferguson twp., reports his crop so scarce in that section and so expensive as to make farming unprofitable.

Miss Louise Kellerman has resigned her position in the Bell Telephone exchange and entered the hospital to learn the profession of nursing.

Wm. Frazier, of Mill Hall, has accepted the position of baker at Charles Harrison's on Bishop street, succeeding Morris Kreamer who has resigned.

Miss Elizabeth Gephart returned Saturday night, from St. Margaret's school, Waterbury, Conn., and will spend the Easter vacation at home.

Frank Miller, who is holding down a good position with the Adam Express Company at Cumberland, Md., is visiting his mother and sisters on Allegheny street for a few days.

The deciding game of the series of basket ball games between the B. A. C. and Academy teams was played on Wednesday evening, April 1. The first two games were very exciting and resulted in one victory for each team.

Detective Rightnow bagged a board-bill jumper at Clearfield last week; the fellow left Garman's hotel "forgetting" to pay a bill of some $28. The bill was settled after the arrest, with costs. That law justly should apply to "jumpers" of any other bills.

April 1st the Prairie Zinc & Lead Company, at this place, declared a 2 per cent. dividend on their preferred stock. This operation is just developing. The famous Blue Jacket Mine missed a dividend the past three months owing to part of the mine caving in, causing much expense and delay.

In the Altoona M. E. conference on Tuesday morning it was announced that Revs. Richard Hinkle, George Warren and David S. Monroe, D.D., will have completed fifty years in the ministry during the coming year, and a motion was adopted that a place be provided on the program for the celebration of their fiftieth anniversary during the next session of the conference at Harrisburg. Part of Dr. Monroe's ministry was served in Bellefonte, where he has many friends and was beloved by all.
