EDITORIAL.

Quay is spending part of this week at Harrisburg engineering some important legislation—something is likely to drop.

PRESIDENT Roosevelt, in talking high tariff to the western farmers and republicans, was simply blowing hot air. They know how it works.

CARTER H. HARRISON, for a fourth time, on Tuesday was elected Mayor of Chicago on the Democratic ticket. Such things will give Teddy a jolt on his western trip.

TOM JOHNSON made a clean sweep of Cleveland on Tuesday, Democrats carried other important cities in Ohio, all of which is uncomfortable to Hanna's presidential aspirations.

THE recommitment in the legislature, of the Spoon Good Roads bill, probably marks the end of all prospect of the inauguration of a better system of public roads in this state for years to come.

THE good citizens of Philadelphia are more than delighted over the prospect of having a healthy, clean, honest administration in the Mayor's office since Ashbridge went out and Weaver took his place. It would be refreshing to that corrupt city to have an era of good government. There is hope for the city that was the cradle for Independence.

The Pennsylvania railroad will hereafter do its own fire underwriting as well as that of the various corporations controlled by it or affiliated with it. To that end an insurance company to be known as "The Mutual Fire, Marine and Inland Insurance Company," chartered in this state in December, 1902, was formally organized Tuesday at the Broad street station.

ONE of the best combination offers ever made by The Centre Democrat is with the N. Y. Tribune Farmer. The latter is a large illustrated, non-political 20-page, weekly farm paper, ably edited, filled with matter of special interest to the household and farm. We will send the two papers to any address one year for $1.25. Subscribers who are paid in advance can secure the Tribune Farmer by sending us the 25 cts. additional. If you don't have a copy of the Tribune Farmer, ask your postmaster, he likely may have one. Remember, this offer is good only until May 12th, 1903. After that date the price for the two papers will be $1.50.

THE conviction of school officials in Philadelphia for exacting black-mail from female teachers as a condition to secure an appointment, is only a fraction of scores that are equally guilty in that city as well as in other sections of the state. There is an army of much bigger rascals. Besides the money thus exacted from these poor female teachers, another gang, as is well known, withheld the pay from them for a year, and used the fund, upwards of a million dollars, in private speculations. When Quay, a few years ago, was prosecuted for unlawfully using the state funds, to help his son Dick in stock speculations, all of which was proven at the time, the machine boss got clear by pleading the limitation, the rogues act, and soon after the corrupt machine, by bribery, elected him to the U. S. Senate, where he now is in place of being in prison.

THE president is now on his trip to the far west, and in his speeches in the big towns he tells the people that there are two kinds of trusts, the "good trusts and the bad trusts." Well, if he knows there are "bad" trusts why does he not have them wiped out by prosecution as is his duty? How does he know there are "good" trusts? There can't be a good trust, for the reason that all trusts are robber-tariff fraud. If he knows of bad trusts why does he not name them? Ah, he's afraid—the "bad" trusts along with the good trusts make up the boodle funds to elect trust protecting presidents. Teddy is trying to pull the wool over the eyes of the people of the far west. The Sherman anti-trust law has been in force twelve years, and no enforcement of it since it was passed notwithstanding the president is sworn to enforce the laws. "Good and bad trusts," that's Teddy's April fool game.

SCHOOL CORRUPTION.

The public stood aghast at the exposure made in Philadelphia, last week, where school directors practically extorted thousands of dollars from the instructors who received schools. The amount usually was the first month's salary.

This same practice, we are reliably informed, is common in other parts of the state, not alone in the large cities, but in rural districts. This evil suggests other forms of corruption practiced every year, and so common has it become that no one takes any serious note of the act. We mean the methods employed by book concerns and furniture houses to bribe school boards into purchasing their supplies. A large number of our readers at some time may have had some experience as school directors, and they can relate, if they wish, how they secured copies of Webster's unabridged dictionaries, encyclopedias, atlases or even cold cash in hand for favoring some certain publishing house. The charge is too true and we have often heard agents boast of the manner in which they landed an obstinate director or entire board. These things are done year in and out here in Centre county, where we claim to be living in a good healthy atmosphere, and the moral standard is high.

Equally as notorious was the fact that at the election of the last County Superintendent, men boasted publicly how easily entire school boards were changed about by the use of some "long green," when they arrived in Bellefonte.

It is a mistake to set down and heap all kinds of abuse on Philadelphia, when we can clean before our own doors.

Humanity is weak, no matter where found, to the alluring temptations of bribe money. If Centre county knew the extent of bribery practiced in some school boards she would hide her face in shame. Nor is this an exception, we believe there are other sections of the state where such sharp practices prevail to still greater extent.

The man who will bring some corruptionist to justice, for trying to bribe school directors, will do a valuable service, but the wily book agent is usually sharp enough to cover his tracks and avoid a conviction, though guilty he may be of a most serious crime.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

Mrs. Anna Jones died at Greenburr on 2nd, from a complication of ailments, aged 75 years.

A sixteen months' old child of W. N. Cooney, of Tylersville, died on the 2nd of pneumonia.

There are over forty cases of typhoid fever at Tressler Orphan's home, and the Fritz building is being used as a hospital.

The Snyder county Sunday school convention will be held at McClure Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 11, 12 and 13.

Harvey Long, of Selinsgrove lost his life on Saturday by falling from a bridge on which he was working, between Sunbury and Shamokin.

Victor E. Piolet, president of the State Grange, is now at Wilkesbarre, arranging for the annual convention, which is expected to be held at that place early in December next.

Accounts of smallpox from many sections of the state, especially the central counties, are so frequent as to cause uneasiness, and a disinclination to go abroad. Some towns report an unusual number of cases.

Frank M. Kessinger, a former resident of Mill Hall, died very suddenly at his home in Millinburg, Saturday. He was a veteran of the civil war having enlisted three times in the service. A brother, Joseph, lives at Hubersburg.

Sophia Little went to bed at her home in Clearfield Wednesday night and set fire to the clothing with a lighted cigarette. She was so badly burned that she died in the morning. She was about 35 years old, and was accustomed to smoking in her bed.

An investigation of the methods of the school directors in six of the townships in Schuylkill county schools, has led to startling disclosures and District Attorney Burger is to be asked to take action against them. Some of the directors, it is alleged, live entirely on the income derived by extorting money from the teachers.

It is said Clearfield county will be the centre of railroad building during the coming year. The New York Central will build from Curwensville to Mahaffey and from Burnside to Cherrytree. The Clearfield & Southern will extend its road from Madera to Irvona. The good year people are now building in the eastern side of the county from their road on the Sinnemahoning to Dubois.

Word comes from Ramey, Clearfield county, to the effect that a disease which has been prevalent in that town and also in other parts of that county, has been pronounced small-pox by a representative of the state board of health who has made investigations. Eight cases are reported at Ramey and the schools have been closed. The schools at Houtdale and West Moshannon are also closed, a large number of cases of the disease having been found in those places and guards are now stationed on twenty hours to prevent the spread of the disease.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. SAMUEL MOTZ:—died at her home north of Woodward, on last Friday 27, at the age of 84 years, 2 months and 18 days.

Mrs. MITCHELL BITNER:—residing between Beech Creek and Eagleville, died at 2 o'clock Thursday morning from a second stroke of paralysis, aged about 56 years. Besides her husband, three sons survive, DeLama and Doran, of Bitumen, and Corwin at home.

MISS MARY BARNHART:—at the age of 32 years, 18 months and 27 days Miss Mary Barnhart passed away in the hospital in Wilkensburg on Friday last week. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Barnhart, of Oak Hall, and her body was taken to their home on Monday 30th. Interment was made in the cemetery at Boalsburg.

WILLIAM YEAGER:—a son of the late Daniel Yeager, of Snow Shoe, was killed at Ramie's Mill, near Empire, Elk county, Monday morning 30, in getting off a train fell under the wheels. Deceased was about 50 years old and is survived by his widow and five children. He was a brother of Mrs. John Davis, of Coleville, and has several half brothers and sisters living about Snow Shoe. The interment was made at Moshannon last Thursday.

MISS LULU WALTERS:—a member of the graduating class at the Bellefonte High school died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Walters, near Milesburg, Wednesday morning 1st. She was born in Illinois, and was 18 years of age. Surviving her are her parents, two brothers, John and Sidney, and a sister Alice. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon. Interment in the Advent cemetery. Last Monday she passed the final examination and took ill that evening.

MESHAH WILLIAMS:—died April 2nd 1903, aged 56 years, 1 month, and 26 days; was a son of S. Scott and Ellen Williams. August 22nd 1873 he was married to Adaline S. Ingram of Dix's Run, to whom were born the following children who survive: George S. and Frank L., of Altoona; Judson A. and Alice R. at home, and D. M. Clemson, at Scotia. His first wife preceded him some years since to the spirit land. On September 28, 1893, he was again united in marriage with Susanah Saxton, of Scotia, who survives him. He is also survived by the following brothers: W. Shadrach, Abednego, and Ellis D., all of Martha. The sisters who survive are the following: Mrs. Sarah Holder, Howard; Mrs. Allie Robinson, Martha; Mrs. Mary E. Fahron, Marne, Iowa; Mrs. Harriet Eckley, Pitcairn, Pa.; Mrs. Rachel Bradford, Upper Cross Roads, Md. When sixteen years of age he entered Company O, Battalion of Emergency Volunteers on June 17th, 1863, from which company he was honorably discharged on August 8th of the same year. He enlisted in Company A, of the 45th Regiment of Penna. Veteran Infantry February 27th 1864 and was honorably discharged July 17th, 1865. In this regiment he was one of eight Williams (all of whom were related.) He was the seventh of this number to answer the last roll call, the only surviving Williams of this regiment being his brother W. S. Williams. During his service in the war he was captured and held a prisoner in the prisons at Salisbury and Andersonville. While at Homestead during the strike a few years ago he was one of those whose food was poisoned, and who fortunately survived that severe ordeal. On Sunday afternoon services were held in the Baptist church at Martha, of which he was a member. The bearers were members of the Odd Fellows organization, of Scotia, where the deceased was a member. Rev. A. C. Lathrop of Milesburg, officiated, assisted by Rev. Berger of the Port Matilda Presbyterian church. Interment was made in the cemetery at Martha.

Hubersburg.

H. H. Noll was to Lock Haven on business one day last week.

Howard Best, of Clearfield, visited his parents at this place over Sunday.

The stork visited the home of John Weaver last Thursday and left a little boy and since then Mrs. Weaver has been seriously ill.

J. R. Kessinger went to Millinburg on Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother Frank.

A small fire at the home of T. L. Kessinger on Saturday morning caused quite a scare in that part of town. It was discovered before it had done much damage.

Prof. A. P. Weaver went to his home at Wolf's Store on Saturday to spend his vacation. He will open his spring term of school on the 20th of this month instead of the 13th as before announced.

C. E. Zeigler, dealer in organs and pianos and S. L. Condo, agent of the Millinburg Buggy Co., of Spring Mills, were callers at the home of J. D. Miller one night last week.

Charles Myers, of Conemaugh, is circulating among his many acquaintances here.

—Weather cool and damp.

—The different churches of the town will be beautifully decorated and have appropriate Easter services, Sunday.

D. R. Wilson, the creamery man, formerly of this county, recently burned out at Lewisburg, has moved to Hanover, Pa.

Are obliged to lay off Hist. Review for next week, for want of space.

COSTS NOTHING UNLESS CURED.

Fair Offer Made by Sidney Krumrine to All Sufferers From Catarrh.

Sidney Krumrine is selling Hyomei on a plan that has caused considerable talk amongst his customers.

The plan is different from that followed by other remedies, but the remedy itself is different also. This treatment for the cure of catarrh has such an unusual record of cures to its credit that Sidney Krumrine offers to refund the money if it does not give the desired benefit. This is certainly one of the fairest offers that can be made, and anyone who has catarrh and does not take advantage of it is doing himself or herself an injustice.

The Hyomei treatment consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The complete treatment costs but $1.00 and as the inhaler will last a lifetime and there is sufficient Hyomei for more than a month's use, the medicine is very inexpensive. Many people who have used it write that for the good Hyomei has done them they would willingly pay thousands of dollars.

Extra bottles of Hyomei can be procured for use with the inhaler at 50c.

Do not suffer any longer with tickling, smarting, irritating, burning, eye-watering troubles that afflict those who have catarrh. Hyomei will cure you, but if you should not find it adapted to your case, Sidney Krumrine will return your money.

There's Something

About Sim's Clothing by which you may identify them even more certainly than by the label. It goes into them before the label. It is a style, a quality, a tailoring-by-hand touch to them, a harmony of fabrics, linings, etc.; a thoroughbred look about them almost never found in other ready-made clothes.

Drawn from life. A wearer of the Clothes we sell. It shows how our clothes look. No need to make the picture better than the Clothes.

to make you look as you ought to look and want to look,—to put you in the very front rank.

The fact that we can't describe it don't make it any less real. You can see it without fully realizing what it is. We can't show it or tell you fully about it until you wear the clothes, then we don't need to. Its one of the things that make Sim's Hand-tailored Clothes more valuable to the wearer than the ordinary ready-made.

Easter day is parade day for good clothes. We've the fixings—Hats, Shirts and Neckwear just as well as the Clothes you ought to look and want to look,—to put you in the very front rank.
