

THE RACKET

G. R. SPIGELMYER. E. P. IRVIN

Butterick Styles for May:

The New Summer Shirt Waist, Monte Carlo Jackets—Box and Blouse types; Capes for street, church and Dress, Skirts in up-to-date outlines, Commencements, Graduation and May time Ceremonial Dress. All the New Patterns now ready.

New Silks Just in:

Small Plaids, and Fancy Patterns, Crepe de Chien, Foulards, and Wash Silks—Prices from 50 cts to 1.00 per yd.

Kid Gloves for Easter:

Exclusive Sale of the Famous Centemeri—For a cheaper Glove we have the only Real Kid, at 1.00 in town. In this, as well as other lines, we lead.

THE RACKET.

Correspondents' Department
Continued, from page 7.

Woodward.

On last Thursday morning, at 6 o'clock, the old man that Nicodemus Lose found lying alongside of the road a few days before, passed away to Eternity. The funeral service was held in the United Evangelical church; Rev. Sheeder of the Lutheran church officiated. Interment in the Union cemetery. His name was James Thompson, came from England 30 years ago; he was aged 54 years and had two sisters in England, but heard last from them 20 years ago.

The Union meeting of the societies of the Lutheran church, Evangelical church and United Ev. church, held in the U. Ev. church last Sunday evening, was well attended. That shows the Christian love in the different societies of our community.

Adam Weaver bought a valuable cow of Jerry Martini.

John H. Fultz moved in N. W. Eby's house of our village.

James Weaver and family, was down to Coburn last Sunday to visit their daughter Fannie Meyer.

L. L. Weaver sold his hay to the Coburn Grain & Creamery Co.

L. D. Orndorf and family were down to Nicodemus Lose's, on a visit last Sunday afternoon.

Oliver Hosterman left this week for Buffalo, New York, where he will go in the bakery business; success to you, Oliver.

Mrs. Catharine Orndorf is still on the sick list; she is slowly declining.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Mary C. Weaver is able to sit up in bed again.

The farmers are busy getting their land ready to sow their oats, but Rusty says we will have some more snow.

N. W. Eby, our wide awake distiller, is kept busy packing lagrippe medicine. It is good for nerves and bones, and strengthens the whole body; all come and try it if you are sick.

Our boys of town are all glad when the last day of school is here to have a little rest for their minds; next comes fishing, boys.

Milton Barber and his father were here from Sugar valley to fetch his last load of furniture and what other stuff he could not take earlier.

Rusty Sheelsy is fattening his dog on spring chicken; now, how is it, Rusty; Lewis says it shall not happen again.

We are sorry to say that Wm. Snyder and family moved to Union county on Mart Kleckner's farm; success to Wm.

Misses Mary and Jane Eby were over to Rebersburg, on Sunday and Monday, to visit their many friends.

Wesley Hosterman and his lady friend were welcome callers at his parents place, on last Sunday.

WOODWARD NO. 2.

The Kester Lumber Co. purchased the Daniel Engle saw mill building and are moving it on their lumber job, west of town. They have lots of logs ready to saw as soon as they get their mill; they expect to have it in a week or so. That will make some work for our men around this community.

Samuel Orndorf moved in J. L. Kreamer's house vacated by Milton Barnes.

Samuel Ketner and Luther Haines, from Yeagertown, who were home on a visit, started for Yeagertown on Monday morning.

Clayton Boob and family, from Hecla park, were in our village to visit their many friends.

On last Monday morning, Cal Stover and Wm. Lutz started for West Virginia, where they will work for the Harter Bros.

Isiah Boob, who had been on the sick list for the last week, is able to do some little work again.

The P. O. S. of A. added three new members to their list on Saturday evening.

Mt. Eagle.

The farmers are plowing here now, but the ground is not very dry yet.

The wheat looks nice this spring in Bald Eagle valley.

We are told that Miss Pearl Gates is going to school at Spring Mills this summer.

J. R. Pheasant was at conference, at Altoona last week, but has returned home again.

David Tanyer and wife were both sick at one time, but we are glad to say they are much better at this writing.

Jerry Glenn came out laughing all over his face one morning last week about a new born daughter.

Miss Florence Leathers' school closes on April 8.

Dorothy Dodd shoes for ladies at Yeager & Davis.

Rebersburg.

A man that is tired with home life, should go and get some experience away from home. This is the case with our friend Harry Gephart, who had gone to Illinois a few weeks ago. He came home on Monday, he says he doesn't like the Yanks.

Many were fooled on Wednesday. Everybody was on the look-out for "April Fools."

Rev. Wm. Sholl and wife, from Williamsport, were the guests of his mother and friends last week.

Mrs. Shaffer, who had been visiting at Prof. J. C. Morris, has returned to her home in Dakota, Ill.

Wm. Haines showed the people of this town last week that he has a fast horse.

Uncle Sam's servants should live a life of sobriety.

Some of our people are only great to the extent that they use foul language.

People may hurt our reputation, but our character may remain unblemished.

Mrs. A. J. Ocker and daughter May, were to Sugarvalley last week on account of her sick mother.

James Condo, who has been mentally deranged, has been taken to the asylum.

Most of our schools closed last week, as far as we know our teachers succeeded admirably. This alone should be an incentive for our directors to retain the old teachers.

One sign that the Reformed Sunday school has prospered the past few years is that the members were obliged to enlarge the Sunday school room.

C. C. and W. F. Bierly, Ed. Gramly and A. N. Brungart left for West Virginia on Monday, where they will follow their trade.

A. J. Ocker and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Ocker's mother in Sugarvalley on Monday.

Fillmore.

Well brothers and sisters, that change of weather on Saturday was not favorable for Mr. Knisely's relatives, as it snowed on Saturday. If my ants would lie to me as his did to him, I would have little faith in them.

The grain fields are looking very well.

William Saxton and F. D. Young attended the funeral of Meshick Williams, at Martha, on Sunday.

I went up on the high mountains and looked over and saw that Dallas Cronster had improved his house with a new front porch and it looks nice.

H. C. Huey and wife were to Phillipsburg on Friday and H. C. says the women in south Phillipsburg do have a gay old time, especially when the bell of Chesterhill gets with them.

Abe Bailey and C. E. Lutz dissolved partnership on last Thursday by agreeing to disagree.

Allen Marshall and his brand new wife passed through our town on Sunday on his "Hammer."

Robert Hunter passed through our town Sunday on his "Hammer."

Come brothers, when you trade or swap, as you may call it, you do it for the better every time, but some times it is for the worst. We will mention no names, but a certain party swapped mules on a horse and it did not prove a bargain for the fellow that got the one for the two. So it is, and so it will be.

W. W. Wilmer was to Millheim on Thursday and bought a fine dappled gray horse along home. William can pick a horse.

William Lutz is building a new house for his son James to move in this spring.

Potters Mills.

Wm. Bair and wife spent Sunday evening at Mr. Armstrong's.

Rosie Kritzer spent Sunday at Spring Mills, as the guest of her friend, Annie Reminger.

Several men have been busy engaged in working in his peach orchard at this place.

Frank Armagast spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Koyer at Colyer.

John Curry and May Kritzer, of Centre Hill, were the guests of her sister Roste.

Garden making and house cleaning is all the go now and lots of dandelion.

Quite a serious accident befel Earle Smith on Sunday when the horse kicked him, but hope he will soon be around again.

Ed. Allison purchased two fine horses at the horse sale at Millheim.

The farmers are all busy plowing and getting ready to plant and sow oats.

Mrs. James Armstrong, who had accidentally hurt her leg by falling, has somewhat improved and is able to be about.

Melvin Treaster took a drive to Penn Cave Sunday.

Wm. Allison, of Spring Mills, transacted business at this place Monday.

Reuben Colyer, of Colyer, moved to this place on Wednesday.

Ferguson Twp.

James Portney, of Harris, has moved with his family to Pine Grove Mills.

Hugh McAfee, of Port Matilda, is farming for J. C. Sunday this summer.

Miss Catharine Bowersox attended the M. E. conference held in Altoona.

Henry Bloom moved into Browns tenant house, just vacated by Jacob Neidigh. Neidigh will occupy the J. P. Heberling property over at Tadpole.

Dr. D. H. Kustenbauder has just returned from a trip to Blair county and brought his daughter from Tyrone with him.

Frank Davis lost a valuable horse last week.

While chopping wood Cyrus Snook was unfortunate enough to cut his head badly.

Miss Maud Irvin expects to take the teachers course at Selinsgrove.

Hamil Gohben purchased Howard Musser's driving horse.

Miss Nancy Glenn has been on the sick list for some time.

Krumrine's Instantaneous Headache Powders will relieve the most obstinate cases of nervous and sick headache. 10 cents.

When a man is in the right he is not afraid of being misrepresented.

Unionville.

Don. McEwen will leave on Thursday for Pittsburg, where he will learn the trade of brick layer.

Wanted:—to buy a cheap railroad with all its equipments, apply to Bobbie Hall.

Wanted:—a landlord for our hotel.

The Spotts Brothers are putting in a portable saw mill in addition to the stave mill, on the old tannery ground.

Miss Mary R. Griest anticipates taking a trip to Florida in the near future and in all probability stop off at Tyrone.

The marriage of Miss Anna Morrison to Charles Stover, of Altoona, which will occur on the 15th, has been made public; particulars later.

Egbert Barkle, a popular young man, of Pittsburg, was a welcome arrival in our city a few days ago. Just mention his name to one of our very best young ladies and see her blush.

Prof. Hubbard closed his school on last Friday. His last month's report was a most creditable one. Out of the 220 days, but one absence mark was made, making 219 days attendance by 11 girls—and the boys did nearly as well. Miss Alice Buck's school closed on Tuesday noon; as an evidence of her pronounced success is the fact that she has the support of the entire community, owing to the marked advancement of her pupils.

Elwood Fisher, who has been at the Grand View Sanitarium for about six months, was brought home on last Thursday. He stood his trip home fairly well, but is very weak so that his many friends and neighbors are not allowed to see him.

Miss Annie Rich will, in the future, make her home with the family of ex-commissioner Thomas W. Fisher.

J. G. Alexander has sold his farm to T. V. Stevens. The invincible "Clem" Dale was a guest of Mr. Alexander on Tuesday night, he having come up for the purpose of surveying the said farm, and Mrs. A. reports that she really did not miss any of her spoons when he made his exit.

Harry Lindemuth hurriedly ran to the 'phone the other day, rang up the exchange and said, "send me three plow shares with Thomas Ingram," but the "hello" girl replied in her sweetest tone, "we don't sell plow shares at this office," when he discovered his mistake, then said "please give me Olewine's hardware store;" it was too late the joke's on you, Harry.

Col. Fred Reynolds was a distinguished arrival in our city, on last Friday.

John C. Wagner is keeping "bachelors' hall" since he has moved his family to Milesburg.

A. J. Griest has his store filled "chuck" full of the best selected stock of spring and summer goods that has ever been brought to this town; one can get more for a five dollar bill than he can wheel home on a wheelbarrow.

Mrs. PROBIE SMITH—died on last Tuesday morning at the home of her nephew, Thomas Stere, aged 80 years. Deceased was born and lived all her lifetime in Union township. She was a kind, benevolent, christian woman, who spent many years in the service of the Master, and her work being done, she will gladly welcome the summons, "Well done, come up higher."

Coburn.

On Monday morning A. Harter and W. C. Krader with a crew of men, left for West Virginia, where they will carry on extensive lumber operations.

W. J. Harter spent several days in York this week.

S. S. Weaver, one of our new townsmen, left on Tuesday for Scranton, where he is engaged by a telephone company.

Summer Eisenhuth and Misses Hannah and Lizzie Everett spent Sunday at Spring Mills.

John Musser and wife of Sugar valley, spent several days visiting friends in this valley and were the guests of Reuben Harter's on Saturday.

The High valley scribe is going to do better now. He came down and attended church on Sunday evening to hear the Rev. L. C. Edmunds, who is engaged in Home mission work in the Cumberland mountain.

Nellie Burd, of Aaronsburg, is making her home with her uncle, Ezra Burd.

Wallace Kerstetter, an expert cook, of State College, spent several days with his sister, Mrs. G. B. Shaffer.

J. F. Garthoff, of Bellefonte, was in our town on Tuesday.

Cyrus C. Meyer, who was seriously ill with an abscess on his neck, is on a fair way to recovery. J. W. Glasgow was also on the sick list several days.

Lemont.

James Lytle moved his household possessions to the vicinity of Centre Hall on last Thursday.

George Ralston clerked in the post-office several days last week.

Misses Nannie and Nellie Herman were out driving Sabbath afternoon.

Dr. Meyer, of F. & M., after spending his Easter vacation at home, returned to college last week.

Lloyd Houtz says "that Mrs. Krebs has been working miracles throughout the regions of the Brushvalley road, leading from Oak Hill to Centre Hall. She evidently protects herself from the cold by an umbrella.

Miriam Dreese and Maud Mays, of the C. S. N. S. of Lock Haven, spent their Easter vacation at home.

If nothing happens, we contemplate giving you an Easter edition next week, so if you wish to be represented in this why don't fail to be so quiet this week.

"SOUBROX"

Reduced Rates to New Orleans.

On account of the meeting of the National Manufacturers' Association at New Orleans, April 15 to 17, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to New Orleans and return April 11, 12, and 13, good going on date of sale, and good returning to reach original starting point not later than April 19, from all points on its lines at reduced rates. By depositing ticket with Joint Agent at New Orleans between April 12 and 19, and payment of fee of fifty cents, an extension of return limit may be obtained to reach starting point not later than April 30.

A person who has been stung by a bee doesn't necessarily suffer from bites.

Shingletown.

Cold weather has not forsaken us.

Mr. Tressler, wife and daughter Bertha, spent Sunday with D. B. Thomas at the Branch.

George Kline and Miss Gertrude Homan, of Oak Hill, are at present employed with Earnest Hess.

Wm. Hoover and daughter Jessie, attended James Portney's moving, last Tuesday.

Orlando Thomas is at present confined to the house with a severe cold.

D. B. Thomas and wife transacted business in Bellefonte, last Wednesday.

John Osman and Frederick Gearhart departed for Windber, on Monday, where they expect to engage in carpenter work.

Mrs. Margaret Lytle called at the home of Lewis Thomas, on Sunday.

S. M. Bell accompanied by his wife spent Sunday with the latter's sister Mrs. Jennie Thomas.

Mrs. Hiram Zones and Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas spent Sunday with the farmers son, John Zones, of Scotia.

Wm. Hoover and wife transacted business at Houseville, on Monday.

John Leech, Jr., called on friends on Monday; come again John, you are always welcome.

James Peters and wife passed through town, on Sunday.

John Wagner and bride spent Sabbath at the home of Earnest Hess.

Mrs. Jennie Thomas, who has been confined to the house with a complication of diseases for the past twelve months, is slowly improving; her friends all wish her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Jeannette Kline and family are visiting Mrs. Kline's parents, Orlando Thomas.

Miss Roxanna Bell spent Sabbath afternoon at D. B. Thomas'.

Charlotte Swartz is spending a few days with parents.

The mountain is at present filled with arbutus seeders.

Miss Helen Duff is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Daniel Swartz.

During the absence of our school teacher, Miss Belle Miller, her place was amply filled by Chas Moore.

Bruce Miller, wife and baby, visited Mrs. Miller's parents, George Jordan, of near State College.

We think Julian must have just awakened from a long and peaceful slumber.

Colyer.

Grealy and J. J. Jordan were to Lewis town, last Thursday.

Dora Wingard went to Bellefonte, last Thursday where she must stay a week to take treatment for her eyes.

Mrs. J. H. Ishler, the new bride of our esteemed John H. Ishler, and Mrs. John Shutt, both of Lamar, visited last Friday at the home of the former's husband.

Mrs. Julia Ishler is on the sick list.

Squire J. S. Honsman was doing some surveying for Wm. Colyer, at Centre Hall, last Wednesday; his daughter, Miss Blanche, accompanied him and spent the day as the guest with Carrie Spicher.

Wm. Shadow, a conductor for the Traction Co., of Chicago, and the oldest son of Henry Shadow, of this place, who left his home, some twenty years ago, arrived here unknown to his parents last Friday evening which proved a great and happy surprise to his beloved parents.

Misses Rites and Gentzel, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of Mrs. Maggie Love, at Tusseyville.

Wm. Boal and David Young have been prospecting for coal along the south side of Tussey mountain; prospects are good; more orders are coming in than can be filled on account of rush of business.

Wm. Lingle has the contract to deliver all coal and fill all orders; Davy, don't spare the pick, sock her in, Billy be a, on the shovel handle; don't lean on it too much—roll 'em out, coal is in demand.

Hurrah for another wedding at Colyer this week.

Hello, "X Road" scribe, how about that wedding that is brewing along your mountain?

Rev. Crumling, P. E., will preach in the United Evangelical church on Thursday evening.

Boalsburg.

The weather man is giving us great extreme in weather. The thermometer registered 75 on Friday, while on Saturday it was below the freezing point.

An Easter service will be held in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening.

Dr. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, spent a day recently with friends in town.

D. K. Mothersbaugh and wife will leave this week for Williamsport where they expect to make their home.

J. M. Goodhart, of Farmers Mills, was a visitor in town during the past week.

Communion services will be held on Easter Sunday. In the Lutheran church in the forenoon and in the Presbyterian in the afternoon.

Miss Rose Woods is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. Bryson, of Flemington.

Com. P. H. Meyer, of Bellefonte, who is organist of the Reformed church in this place, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Theodore Boal returned on Saturday from a visit to Denver, Col.

Miss Priscilla Stuart after spending several months with friends at Muncy, has returned to her home.

Prof. S. W. Gramley will open a spring term of school on Monday, April 13th.

Runville.

Mrs. Sadie Poorman, of Jersey Shore, visited a few days last week at her parental home, this place.

George and Jackson Heaton Sundayed with their brother Miles, at Yarnell.

Mrs. Ida Poorman returned home on Tuesday from her visit at Corning N. Y., and Austin, Potter county.

E. R. Hancock, of Phillipsburg, spent Sunday with his family at this place.

Mrs. Nannie Walker is on the sick list.

The seats in heaven will not be assigned by the size of our heads.

EASTER NOVELTIES
Easter Clothing Easter Hats
Easter Neckwear Easter Shirts
All the Newest Things Up to Last Minute.

THE USUAL BUYER
of Ready-made Clothing starts out fairly well dressed, but alas for the fallacy of usual ready-made. His suit soon loses its shape, his overcoats its hang, because neither of them was ever anything but ironed into place. The very same money he paid, NOT A PENNY MORE, would have bought him the world's best MONTGOMERY & Co. Clothing, which keeps its air of distinction, shape and style until worn to shreds.

MONTGOMERY & CO. CLOTHING can be had only from Montgomery & Co

Beautifully Trimmed Hats For Easter.

This year our greatest efforts have been given to our Trimmed Hat department. The range of styles, their richness and beauty have created a furore among the best dressers. Although the styles are better, the materials richer than ever, our low prices still prevail.

Hats That Would Elsewhere Cost You $10.00, 12.00 and 15.00 Are Here For $4.50, 6.00 and 7.50.

Our store is distinctly ahead in all that is attractive in Easter Millinery. If there is anything that isn't here it is because it isn't stylish. On all sides we hear praise about our beautiful Hats and surprise at our extremely low prices. WE CLAIM TO SHOW THE SMARTEST EASTER MILLINERY SHOWN IN BELLEFONTE.

The Newest Spring and Summer Styles in Wool and Wash Dress Goods.

Printed India Silks, fine mercerized White Madras Cloth, Corded Batiste, Satin finish Madras Cloth, Printed Batise, Black Peau De Soie, colored Taffeta Silks, Silk Gingham—in fact, everything new in the Eastern markets is now shown on our counters.

A sample line will be sent you if you designate what you want.

The Carpet and Matting Season Is Here.
The styles, the weight and the quality of our Carpets, combined with their lowness in price, has already proven to us that we may expect this to be our "Cracker-Jack" season. We are showing a great line of Matting in plain colors and carpet designs.

We are now offering wonderful advantages for home furnishers in this department.

THE GLOBE.....Katz & Co
BOTH TELEPHONES.