

THE RACKET

G. R. SPIGELMYER. E. P. IRVIN

White Mountain Refrigerators

Coldest, Dryest, Purest, Best. Easily cleaned; roomy; economical.

30 lb. Ice Capacity, $ 6.50. 60 lb. " " 8.50. 80 lb. " " 9.50.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

LANSDOWNE.

Only genuine white perforated on selvedge, WM. F. READ. Specially stylish for Spring and Summer 1903.

THE RACKET.

Correspondents' Department

Continued from page 7.

Unionville.

Mira Hall, daughter of A. B. Hall, of Drane, Pa., came home to attend the Geo. Keately wedding reception.

Mrs. I. I. Morrison, who had been visiting friends in Altoona for several weeks, returned home on Saturday.

D. C. Hall, poor overseer, of Union township, took Mrs. Jane Tolbert Hessian to the Insane Asylum, at Danville on Saturday.

Geo. Holt and family moved to Bellefonte last week, we are sorry to state, for Geo. was one of our best citizens, but what is our loss is Bellefonte's gain.

We were honored with a pleasant call, on Sunday afternoon, by the Hon. Barber Beck, of Bellefonte, who was accompanied by a beautiful Bellefonte lady.

John F. Lucas, one of the most popular young men of Moshannon, spent Sunday with a special friend in town.

Harry Black and wife, of Harrisburg, were Sunday visitors at the home of Squire Pratt.

Mary E. Griest, chaperoned by Mrs. E. M. Griest, left on Tuesday for Patton and other points on a visiting tour to friends, and expect to be gone a month.

We are authorized, by Mrs. Chas. R. Eckenroth, to announce that the Centre County Union S. S. convention will be held at Unionville, on Wednesday and Thursday, May 13 and 14.

Joe Stere, one of our town boys, went with Geo. Holt when he moved to Bellefonte. He moved to South Spring street just opposite where the fire occurred.

When the fire alarm was given, Joe was in his first nap and when aroused by the cry of fire, he thought the town was going to burn.

The young men and boys have organized an athletic club in the P. O. S. of A. rooms. The following officers were elected: President, Monte Musser;

sec. treas., Blair Holtzworth; inside guardian, Robbie Hall; referee, Alfred Heaton; timekeeper, Arthur Van. They have the ropes up within which the sparring matches will take place.

Local Charley, in the first column of say items in your last week's issue was an item stating that a lady fell from a step ladder and sustained a fracture of the limb.

The wheat fields seem to be taking on a brighter green and promise a good harvest. Harry Hess left on Monday morning for Michigan, where he will enter a sanitarium for treatment.

The prospect for fruit notwithstanding the recent cold weather still remain promising with, perhaps, the exception of the early cherries, which in this locality seem to be killed.

Andrew Lytle, of State College, was a visitor in town Sunday. Stuart Harter, of Keller's business college at Lewisburg, was at home over Sunday.

T. F. Meyer, wife and son Paul, of Millheim, were Sunday visitors. A. B. Meyer and wife spent Sunday at Woodward.

Chester Kerstetter and family of Lewisburg spent Sunday here. On Friday and Saturday evenings the Cornet band was out serenading some of our new citizens.

Our town will now have three Sunday schools, two in the forenoon and one in the afternoon. Ephraim Bartholomew is attending court as a juror this week.

The C. T. U. had a successful meeting on Saturday evening. Guy Stover, Robt. Stover, Myra and C. C. Meyer, of this place, are attending the Millheim school.

P. H. Stover returned from W. Va., on Saturday. When a woman begins to forget her birthdays it isn't necessarily an indication that her mind is failing.

Woodward.

Last week Israel Runkle, Clayton Sheelsy, Reuben Sheelsy and Fred Styers, started for West Virginia.

Theodore Hosterman, from West Virginia, is visiting here. Crops look very promising for lots of hay and wheat.

The Kister Lumber Co., of near Woodward, have their mill in running order. L. L. Haines, who had been working on the Lewistown & Sunbury R. R. as brakeman has quit his job.

Last week one night Rev. Rishell preached an able sermon in the Evangelical church. Last Saturday John H. Fultz and Elmer Smith were down to Union county, where they purchased a steam engine to take to Brushvalley to finish their job.

L. D. Orndorf and his son Ray were to Union county on Monday. Walter Riffner returned home from Lewistown.

Oliver Edman, from Aaronsburg, was a welcome visitor of C. W. Hosterman. On Tuesday morning C. W. Eby and Wesley Hosterman left for Johnstown, where they will work.

On Monday morning Jack frost was out in full blast; the leaves and grass were frozen and is rather hard on the fruit.

Nathaniel Shaffer and wife, from Madisonburg, were visitors at the home of John H. Fultz, on Sunday. On Monday morning Prof. Edgar Stover took a flying trip to Monesson.

Austin Meyer and wife, of Coburn, were visiting their parents here. A number of our people attended the Odd Fellow's banquet at Milton.

There will be a number of improvements in our town this spring, James Dawson will have a large porch built around his house and other improvements; Ellsworth Sunday, about the same repairs to his house.

The Axemann Memorial church has been beautifully repainted. D. Steele, wife and two children, of Lewistown, are visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. John A. Wood and C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in our town. Alf Rishel and family, of Zion, spent Sunday at the home of Alvin Stover.

Miss Helen Moore, of Philadelphia, spent several days with her friends. A number of our people attended the Odd Fellow's banquet at Milton.

There will be a number of improvements in our town this spring, James Dawson will have a large porch built around his house and other improvements; Ellsworth Sunday, about the same repairs to his house.

The Axemann Memorial church has been beautifully repainted. D. Steele, wife and two children, of Lewistown, are visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. John A. Wood and C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in our town. Alf Rishel and family, of Zion, spent Sunday at the home of Alvin Stover.

Miss Helen Moore, of Philadelphia, spent several days with her friends. One of our little ladies was to go out driving Saturday evening; she got ready in good time to go; of course it got late but she still hoped he would come; at last she said she supposed he could not get the work done in time and that was the reason.

Wm. Ishler lost a valuable horse last week. Mr. Kerns, who has been working for John Dale, is now sick.

There was a very large cave-in in one of Harry Hoy's wheat fields; it has been only partly explored and is supposed to be 20 or more feet deep. The early cherries are all frozen other than them the fruit is not injured.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Colyer.

C. W. Swartz received his commission and was sworn in last week as postmaster of Tusseyville, his brother Thomas as assistant.

Yes, the subject of the day is rural free delivery which does not prove satisfactory; of course we all stand unanimously for Centre Hall as our distributing office, by May 1 our office will be taken away and our mail come from Spring Mills.

Melvin and Blanche Treaster have gone to Altoona to work. Penn Hall X Road scribe had better live up to the Bible quotation himself; the answer he gave Mt. Union scribe in last week's correspondence "Thou shalt not live alone." Thank you Penn Hall scribe, for the information about that wedding which is brewing in your vicinity.

John Potter, Esq., of Central City, took dinner at our Esq's one day last week. H. J. Weaver and wife spent Sunday at Lemont. They expect to move to West Virginia.

Wm. Lee and Jas. Horner are attending court this week. Rev. Greas, a graduate of Lancaster seminary and other institutions, will preach a trial sermon in the Reformed church at Tusseyville, Saturday evening May 2nd.

Arthur Cummings, of Linden Hall, spent Sunday with his brother. Mrs. C. D. Frazier attended the funeral of Reuben Page at Linden Hall.

R. W. Colyer, of Potters Mills, visited his mother here. A number of our people attended the Odd Fellow's banquet at Milton.

There will be a number of improvements in our town this spring, James Dawson will have a large porch built around his house and other improvements; Ellsworth Sunday, about the same repairs to his house.

The Axemann Memorial church has been beautifully repainted. D. Steele, wife and two children, of Lewistown, are visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. John A. Wood and C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in our town. Alf Rishel and family, of Zion, spent Sunday at the home of Alvin Stover.

Miss Helen Moore, of Philadelphia, spent several days with her friends. One of our little ladies was to go out driving Saturday evening; she got ready in good time to go; of course it got late but she still hoped he would come; at last she said she supposed he could not get the work done in time and that was the reason.

Wm. Ishler lost a valuable horse last week. Mr. Kerns, who has been working for John Dale, is now sick.

There was a very large cave-in in one of Harry Hoy's wheat fields; it has been only partly explored and is supposed to be 20 or more feet deep. The early cherries are all frozen other than them the fruit is not injured.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Pleasant Gap.

A fluttering of a pigeon, and a rustling of paper and the following was "Dis closed." Delegates old boy, they tell me "Zeke" is leaving for the St. Louis Fair as gamester, of Sailors Retreat, and I "heard" our friend Mr. Shaker thinking very seriously of taking his "Trotter" to enter the Get-there-all races.

Say, don't Decker look sporty in his new meal market? O, there's no flies on that gent "bektz" they all left him. But the best thing out is Mr. Bodie and his long eared friends, when the time comes for those "genz" to wear 'em good old fashioned sun bonnets, you won't be able to tell which is what.

Did you hear about our land-lord and his "to matters"? well they almost had their crop of leaves, when along comes Jakey Frosty and gathers them all up in remembrance of the greatest "tomatter" raiser on record. But do you know I was sorter "skeerd" when we came so near losing our Auditor and Deacon! I was sorter skeerish for a week after uncle Jack left.

I noticed the Messrs. George Noll and Harry Tate returned from their sojourn at Winburn, and were looking "all-full" melancholy for the girls they left behind.

Say, isn't J. T. Noll a swell paper hanger? But that helper of his is a terror, he just spits right in the "dough" bucket.

I saw in the Giltown Herald that that man Spiker was going to the city to look for a "ought-to-no better" to haul that mail around that's coming to come—he'll be swimming in the swim, boys.

The grain fields are o. k.; fruit uncertain. The grain and fruit had made good progress and looked fine during March, but the cold and wet during April had a very bad effect and the prospects now are fifty per cent less than they were a month ago.

Lucian Stover and wife were to Madisonburg to see the latter's mother who is sick. W. A. Tobias is adding a new porch to his house.

Wm. Maneh, of Huston, was around on Monday after fat cattle. Those who were in attendance at court this week were J. H. Maize, Lambert Noll and A. F. Maize.

Mrs. Walter Mantou, of Brocton, N. Y., was a visitor in town. Mrs. W. P. Ard and daughter Maud, of Wood ward, were in town Tuesday.

D. S. Kauffman, of Sunbury, died Monday. Several years ago he was engaged in mercantile business here. Mrs. F. B. Luse and son, of Baltimore, Md., are guests of C. W. Hosterman.

Mr. Pearce, of Bilger, Clearfield county, stopped in town a short time last week. He was on his way home from State College.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Parker, a boy, James Parker says that they are going to call this child "Enough."

Among the marriage improvements we have notice of late was that of the Shingletown scribe. Now it might have been a dream, about this Frogs Glory affair, but any way it still rings in our mind "what shall the Harvest be?"

Among the I. O. O. F. who attended the encampment at Milton this week were Sam'l Hazel, Thos. and Wm. Houts, Geo. Keller and a few more we can't mention at present.

Miss Mamie Herman is taking seamstress designs from Miss Kaup, of Oak Hall. Grant Meyer and family were in Bellefonte, Monday, so I guess I'll have to make a "short stop" out of this business. "OLD CRUSTEIGH."

CHURCH CONFERENCE. The official members of the Ev. Christian Church, met at Wm. Reiber's, near Colyer, March 28, 1903, to organize a conference. Rev. A. J. Horner was elected chairman, and S. Brown secretary. This being the first session, there were no minutes to be read or unfinished business to be disposed of. A constitution having been previously drafted, was read for approval. The constitution included rules of faith and discipline, after discussion by the brethren present, the constitution was adopted as a whole by unanimous vote. The conference then adjourned to meet in March 1904.

There has been quite a good deal of speculation regarding this new society, but we want to say that according to the constitution we have a right to worship as seemeth us best. We want to say further, that we have not gone into this work as the unthinking horse, but we have consulted the proper authority. We do not wish to be selfish or unkind, but we do want to correct some mistakes. We wish the public to know that Brother A. J. Horner is a legally ordained minister, and as such has a right to baptize, administer communion, solemnize marriages and perform such other duties pertaining to his office as may be required. In the near future we expect to build a church when we will ask your help financially, as well as your prayers and good wishes. Later we hope to give you a more detailed account of this body of believers and its origin. S. BROWN, Colyer, Pa.

REV. HEPLER GOES ELSEWHERE. About two months ago, Rev. D. E. Hepler notified the Board, of the Lemont Presbyterian church that he would leave his charge about May 1st, 1903 and go to Ansover, Clearfield county. To many of his friends this announcement was a great surprise as they never entertained a thought of his departure. His decision was so strong that the board was finally compelled to accept his resignation and look around elsewhere for another man. Never has there been a minister in Lemont who did so much material good as well as being a spiritual benefactor as Rev. Hepler. He brought the congregation from an almost divided condition to one of sincere oneness, against the moral delinquencies of the world. In his eight years pastorate he has done much to advance the spiritual interest of the church, there being 108 accessions made to the congregation, exclusive of the large number in which he was instrumental in other churches. He and his family left Monday morning for their new location where he expects to deliver his first sermon next Sabbath. The good wishes of all the people of Lemont, irrespective of church affiliation, go with him and his estimable wife to their new field of labor. X

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner entertained Lizzie Slack. Some of the farmers have finished plowing and are ready to sow oats.

Samuel Bitner and wife, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Marion and Ada Meese, of Colyer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Bitner.

John Sheelsy and brother James of W. Va., and Wm. Crader, of Penn Hall, passed through here last week. Isaac Walker, of Penn Hall, visited here Tuesday.