COMMUNICATION FROM SIDNEY KRUMRINE. Offers to Refund the Money if Hyomel Doos Not Cure Catarrh. TO THE EDITOR OF THE CENTRE DEMO-

I have been asked recently if the advertisements printed in your colums regarding Hyomei were true, where I of fer to refund the money if this treatment does not cure catarrh I wish you would print this letter in as conspicuous a place as possible in your paper, saving that we absolutely agree to refund the money to any purchaser of a Hyomei outfit, if it does not cure catarrh.

This outfit consists of an inhaler of a convenient size to be carried in the vest pocket so that the user can breathe Hyomei air four or five times daily. With this is included a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The outfit sells for $1.00 and is a most economical treatment, for the inhaler lasts a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for more than a month's use, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50c. I trust this communication will settle as the wall was proven by the fact that my willingness to refund the money for they were incased in the wall, with no a Hyomei outfit, in case the purchaser is I wish to say emphatically that my guarantee on Hyomei bolds good, and I will refund the money to any dissatisfied purchaser who simply states that he has used the treatment according to Respectfully yours,

A STOCK OF FRESHNESS

We prepared for this season largely. Counted on increasing this business the usual percentage. We thought we'd have enough clothes to go around.

Six weeks of the busiest selling this store has ever known run the stock lower than we expected in twice the time.

A trip to Eastern markets,-about 550 Suits bring this stock up to its standard size. They represent what is newest and most stylish in Men's and "Young Fellows" wear. Each suit bought at a saving-manufacturers' reduction due to the lateness of the season—is in turn marked at a saving from $2.50 to $6.00. We promise you fully these savings. We are here to live up to our promises.
