

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired.

—Commencement exercises are in full bloom.

—Miss Grace Blackford is very ill at her home on Bishop street.

—The Brockerhoff House office is now one of the finest in central Penna.

—Thomas A. Shoemaker has become owner of a valuable driving horse.

—The first patient in the new hospital, was a young man with a fractured elbow.

—Mrs. Louisa Bush and Miss Louisa Calloway, left for Philadelphia Friday morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, of Harrisburg, arrived in town Friday afternoon.

—The time table on the Lewisburg railroad underwent some changes this week. We have it properly corrected in this issue.

—There was still some corn to plant yet this week, and some corn ground that needed plowing, in some localities of our county.

—The Democratic primaries will be held on Saturday afternoon of this week and the county convention next Tuesday. Keep that in mind.

—The wheat crop, checked somewhat by the dry weather the present month, had suffered to some extent, though there is prospect for a fair harvest.

—McCalmont & Co. have something to say in another part of this issue in regard to binder twine. They will make that point interesting to farmers this year.

—The Bellefonte hospital moved from the old to the new building Thursday of last week. It is the old McKee property on Valentine street and has been fitted up in excellent shape.

—The Pottsville borough council has contracted for lighting of the streets of that town at $65 per arc light a year. Considerable difference between that and what Bellefonte pays.

—General Passenger Agent Frank Warfield of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, returned home on Friday, from Nashville, Tenn., where he attended the funeral of his mother.

—The curb market started in on Tuesday last, with two vendors of plants and a few truck articles. The number will gradually increase as the truck gardens increase in their products.

—Col. J. L. Spangler has purchased the Gray hotel at Spangler for $11,000, without the furnishings. It is stated that considerable improvements will be made about the property by the new owner.

—Miss Lizzie Davis, aged 13, daughter of Thomas Davis, of Tow Hill, was brought to Bellefonte last week and taken to the new hospital where an operation was performed upon her for appendicitis.

—Edgar F. Burkins, of Wilmington, Delaware, having heard Bellefonte highly recommended as a health resort is here to recuperate his health. He may spend the summer here if it proves beneficial.

—Mrs. Wm. P. Kuhn left on Monday noon's train for Pittsburg, as a delegate to the women's missionary convention of the Lutheran church. Mrs. H. E. Duck, of Millheim, left on same train as a delegate from Millheim.

—The Penna. Reserve Corps, of Philadelphia, have forwarded, as is their custom each year, a floral tribute for the grave of the "War Governor" A. G. Curtin. It will be placed in the cemetery on Memorial Day.

—It is coming all right—don't fret—we had some rains of late; there will be hay, wheat, roasting ears, corn, apples, etc., enough, at least, to go 'round. It's the old song of alarm, but there will be the same old result—plenty for all.

—Sunday was an important day at the home of Robt F. Hunter as they had a pleasant caller in a little girl whose name will not be completed until later. Such an event beats zinc dividends for genuine joy. Bob is happy and he should be.

—Prof. Dorsey Hunter, the new proprietor of the book store, has adopted the name of "The Index" for his place of business—that is quite appropriate. Mr. Hunter will move his family from State College to the Potter residence across from the jail, this place.

—A trout with a very black tail, has been noticed above the Bush House bridge on High street, cavorting around. "Can the leopard change his spots?" If not, how can a trout have a black tail without spots? The theory might be advanced that this "speckled beauty" must have run his caudal appendage into a Watchman ink keg, when its basement was flooded. We have been informed that a number of black-tailed trout are to be seen in Spring Creek near the lime kilns.

—Mrs. Frank P. Blair is in Philadelphia visiting friends.

—A new line of wash skirts, duck and pique for $1.98 at Aikens.

—Col. and Mrs. Edward R. Chambers are in Harrisburg this week.

—How about that soldiers monument which was to have been erected?

—Mrs. Walter Lillie, of Lewisburg is a guest at the home of her brother, John I. Olewine.

—Mrs. Mary Peters, of Philadelphia, is being entertained at the home of Cheney Hicklen on East Logan street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey York, of Warriorsmark, will sail for Europe the latter part of this month to be gone all summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fishburn left on Tuesday for Harrisburg, Lebanon and Sharpsburg where they will visit some of their relatives.

—James O. Breuer, book-keeper for McCalmont & Co., was called to his home in Kirksville, N. Y., Saturday, by the death of his sister.

—Miss Margaret Potter returned home on Thursday evening from an extended visit to friends in Philadelphia, Washington and Lancaster.

—Ex-sheriff Cronister, now in the hardware business, at Philipsburg, was in town on Monday. He has a good trade and is getting along nicely.

—The Bellefonte Academy went to Lock Haven and played the Normal, on Saturday, and lost by a score of 4 to 3. It was an exceedingly well played game.

—Herbert McIntosh, a student at the Academy, was called to his home in Sharpsburg Saturday by the illness and death of his sister, Miss Margaret McIntosh.

The dedication of the Spring Mills Lutheran church which was to have taken place June 7 has been postponed owing to a meeting of the General Synod in Baltimore at that time.

Tuesday morning as the train on the Lewisburg road was nearing Lemont three deer sprang up in a field close by and watched the train until it was out of sight. They evidently had come into the valley from the mountains to secure better pasture.

The West Branch Medical association met in annual session at the Park hotel, Williamsport, on 19, with Dr. H. G. McCormick presiding at the meeting in the absence of the president, Dr. C. S. Musser, of Aaronsburg. The association will meet the third Tuesday in May, 1904, in Bellefonte. There were about 40 physicians members of the association.

George Holter and Ward Confer, of Howard, on Wednesday of last week, while along the creek they saw a fish in the water and while trying to capture it they both got in the water and would have drowned had not Buddie Schenk a 10 year old boy been nearby, who being a swimmer jumped in and brought the boys out safe, but not until one of them had sank for the third time.

Lieut. Robert Sterret, of Washington, D. C., was married Thursday 21st to Miss Annie M. Hunter, at the home of the bride, in St. Louis. The groom is a son of Rev. J. McBride Sterret, of Columbia University, Washington, D. C., whose father Robert Sterret was a partner of Jno. P. Packer, of Howard, this county; his grandfather, McBride, was the first principal of the Bellefonte Academy.

Some one at Spring Mills has been furnishing various papers of the county with complaints about the lateness of the Centre Democrat reaching those on the Rural Routes, and intimating that the publisher is at fault or indifferent. If the gentleman had only inquired a little and not been so ready to censure, he would have found the cause. The Centre Democrat is printed and mailed the same as for the past fourteen years, on Thursday, on which day the other Bellefonte papers are also printed. The trouble in Pennsylvania is due to the papers lying at Spring Mills from Thursday afternoon until Friday morning until the carriers start out. If any one can do better than we are, without publishing one day earlier, will certainly confer a favor by coming forward.

ACADEMY NOTES.

We are glad to note the progress our Academy is making in the educational world. It has always sustained a high reputation for thoroughness and its students have acquitted themselves creditably wherever they have gone.

The success of the school has naturally attracted many students from far and near, and this increase in students has necessitated a gradual increase in the faculty. A new instructor was added last year and now Prof. Jas. R. Hughes has secured still another for next year in the person of Bayard H. Sharpe, the clever athlete of Penna State College, who graduates this year. Mr. Sharpe, by reason of his excellent scholarship and general athletic ability will, doubtless, prove a card for the Academy. The principal will give up several classes next year to Mr. Wharton, who has been specially trained for classical and historical work, while he himself will superintend the general interests of the school. Mr. Sharpe will assist in the mathematical work. This step on the part of Mr. Hughes from teaching principal to head master is a most important one, ought to elevate the school far beyond any level as yet attained. It means expense, but the new students added under such a system will warrant it. A school that benefits the town intellectually and financially as the Academy does merits hearty co-operation on every hand.

Misses Overton, Hill and Davis and Messrs. E. H. Myer and W. P. Wharton, have all been retained as instructors for next year.

In St. John's Catholic church Friday evening, the fourteen beautiful stations of the cross, presented to the church by Miss Sarah Collins, were dedicated. These stations are placed along the wall on each side of the church. They are pieces of sculpture and represent the journey to, and crucifixion of Jesus, the Christ. They are valued at $500.

In these services Father McArdle, the pastor, was assisted by Rev. Father Boyle, of Johnstown, the Vicar General of this Diocese, and Rev. Father Bowen, pastor of the church at Tyrone.

Father Bowen, made an earnest address, explaining the meaning of the stations of the Cross. He told the story in beautiful language of the crucifixion of our Saviour and stated the Catholic church early in its history had stations erected along the route over which Jesus had traveled on this memorable occasion. Pilgrims from all over the world visited the scene every year, but still there were many good Catholics who would not make the pilgrimage, so early in the 17th century the Pope issued an edict allowing the Catholic churches all over the world to place these stations within their walls.

The closing service of the evening was the Benediction, conducted by Father Boyle. There was special music adapted to the occasion.

Democratic primaries come on Saturday.

Petitions continue to circulate on the change of the location of our postoffice.

Lieut. Boyd A. Musser, of Colonel Elder's staff, has been promoted to captain.

The Bellefonte Minstrels always gave good entertainments and drew large houses.

Communion service will be held in the United Brethren church Sunday morning and evening, May 31st.

Some of you chaps who are getting polite notices from us should open up. If you are in arrears enough has been said.

W. T. Speer, who had an operation performed in Philadelphia last week, is improving rapidly and is expected home some time next week.

The Y. P. C. U. of the United Brethren church will serve lunch, ice cream and cake on Memorial Day, May 30th in the lecture hall of the church. Your patronage solicited.

The minstrel show in the opera house, June 5th, will be for the benefit of the hospital fund. The cast will contain 55 people, with band and orchestra; street parade at noon.

Corporal James Gilbert Taylor, of Co. B, will deliver the Memorial address on Decoration Day at the graves of Sergeants Showers, Charles Garis and Private James Stine at Pleasant Gap.

Mail carrier John Bair was taken ill quite suddenly on Tuesday and had to lay off. He is about the hardest worked carrier in the crowd. He generally comes up the hill loaded like a pack mule.

We are informed that our friend, G. W. Reese, of the Bellefonte School Board, has intimated that it would be a nice thing for all scholars to come to the hall this evening supplied with flags, and when he comes up and makes his "spiel" to the class the idea would be to wave flags at GEORGE WASHINGTON REESE. There are some chaps who, when they get in a corner, want to fall back on the flag. Why not let them wave some of the "long green"—the same kind of stuff that Prof. John Harrison says GEORGE WASHINGTON REESE flaunted in his face a year ago to withdraw for the benefit of securing C. L. Gramley's election as County Superintendent. Why not?

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

Clarence Riley, a Williamsport boy, while gigging fish as he stood on the chute wall at that place Friday evening, captured a German carp three feet long that weighed 23 pounds. This is the biggest carp caught in that section this spring.

The Lock Haven Paper Mill has been awarded a contract for furnishing 1,900,000 pounds of paper to the internal revenue department this year, a contract that these mills have been filling for ten years past. They also furnish the paper for government stamps.

St. John's Catholic church at Milton was struck by lightning Friday morning and damaged to the extent of $1000. Running from the steeple through the interior of the structure the bolt damaged the organ and choir box, tore out bricks and wrought havoc generally.

A scarcity of water is troubling the operating officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad on the Pittsburg division. It is likely that the water trains to carry the necessary supply from Lilly to Gallitzin will be placed in service. The company has a number of tank cars that are used especially to haul water to points on the main line where the shortage is felt.

The body of L. A. Clinger, Adams Express agent, who has been missing from Milton for a week, was found Thursday evening a mile west of that place by some men who were gathering driftwood. Deceased has been express agent at Milton for 20 years. He is survived by five children, all grown up. One of his children is Mrs. J. A. Winegardner, who formerly resided in the Crider's Exchange at this place, and whose husband fires on the Lewisburg passenger train.

What is believed to be the oldest building in this section of the state, the log house on the farm of John Kuepfer, near Jersey Shore, was torn down last week to make room for a modern residence. The house was built 140 years ago. The interior was finished with split lath, which were put together with nails hammered by a blacksmith. The bricks in the chimney, it is supposed, were products of England. The house has never underwent repairs and was in a good state of preservation.

They have a strenuous Burgess down in West Chester, and he proposes to take decided steps to put an end to chronic drunkenness. He announces that on the first of July he will furnish the hotel keepers with a list of all those who have been before him on the charge of drunkenness, and if after such notice any liquor is sold to them he will prosecute the seller under the law which prohibits the selling of liquor to persons of known intemperate habits. This is a new step in the line of temperance reform, and as West Chester is a small town with only ten places where intoxicants are sold the experiment will be watched with interest.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Half a dozen fishermen, with a seine, secured a whole boat load of carp a few evenings ago in the river below the dam at Lock Haven. Some of the fish were large size.

The Mann Edge Tool company, of Lewistown, will erect a large ax factory at Mill Hill. The plant is to be a large one and will have a capacity of not less than 1,200 axes per day.

Yesterday morning about 4:30 o'clock the house of Willard F. Brown, occupied by Geo. Gobbie, at Clintondale, took fire, and was burned, with little of the contents saved. Mr. Brown estimates his loss at from $500 to $600, with $350 insurance. Mr. Gobbie had $350 insurance.

STREET CARNIVAL.

The Undine Fire Company is preparing for a big event in our town the first week of July next. It will be a Popular Street Carnival that will be in operation for five days. It is a new thing in the line of entertainments and is a sort of a midway, like at the Worlds Fair, only not as elaborate. There will be about a dozen distinct attractions, or side shows, each one having a special attraction with a number of free public entertainments, such as rope walking, baloon ascensions, diving from a high platform, magic etc. We can not give a detailed description, but will furnish same later.

The Undine boys have contracted with a traveling troop of professional people who exhibit exclusively in this line of business. Altoona and Johnstown recently had such a street carnival and it proved entertaining and a success financially.
