It is handsomely illustrated and tells of the advantages of Williamsport in every way. This publication is only one of the many put out by the Board of Trade of that city. Bellefonters should go down to that town and gather a few pointers. —The Undine Fire Company have engaged an entirely new and novel attraction for the people of Centre county, consisting of a fair and carnival held on the public thoroughfares of this town, giving a continuous show day and evening for one week. It will be a reproduction of the famous Midway Plaisance the unique attraction of the World's Fair at Chicago, but on smaller scale. It will be a collection of novelties, about a dozen different and distinct attractions, each in an individual tent containing something of unusual interest or special amusement. Among them will be: The Beautiful Orient—A collection of natives from Asia in their quaint garb. Amusements:—Shooting gallery, cane racks, bead workers, fortune tellers, magic, etc. Japanese Theatre:—Native actors and agile acrobats, who are artists in their line. Electric Theatre:—Showing all the remarkable electric inventions of modern times, illustrating how man has harnessed this subtle force to do his bidding. Por Ladies:—A special attraction for the fair sex, to which no man will be admitted. 22 Illusions:—All are of great beauty and mystifying, a place that furnishes pleasure and instruction. Balloon Ascension:—Is promised for every day, in which there will be the customary parachute drop. These are only a few of the leading features. It would require a column to enumerate other equally meritorious attractions. Half the world is engaged in an effort to jolly the other half.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors. Harvey Wert, of near Murray's school house, is suffering from sciatic rheumatism. Miss Rose Irene Smith, a daughter of J. C. Smith, of Millheim, was married to C. B. Mallory, of Rebersburg, yesterday. Samuel Woods, one of Sharon's prominent professional men, is spending a few days with his mother at Boalsburg. Mrs. Clarence Walker, of Spruce Creek, is attending District convention of Epworth League held at Curwinstville this week. The Lutheran church at Coburn was cleared of all debt on the 21st ult. and a special jubilee service was held to celebrate the event. Henry McCracken was feeding the stone crusher in Ferguson, when his twenty-five dollar watch fell out of his pocket and was ground to smithereens in the crusher before it could be rescued. Frank Walk, of Hannah, and Miss Florence Round, of Morrisdale, were united in marriage at the Pennsylvania House, Tyrone, at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, 4th, Rev. Mr. Hummel, of Bellwood performing the ceremony. Clarence Walker and brother Harry of Spruce Creek, are taking in the sights of West Va., for a couple of weeks, they will visit their brothers, W. D., and C. A. Walker, formerly of near College, and on their way home will visit Washington, Baltimore and Arlington Heights. A farm house situated about two miles below Aaronsburg belonging to Frank Bower was entirely destroyed by fire Friday night about eleven o'clock. The building was occupied by Cyrus Bower who fortunately saved most of his household effects. The origin of the fire is unknown. John Weber, of Howard was admitted to Lock Haven hospital for medical treatment, and Al. Sweeney of Mackeyville was admitted for surgical treatment. He was driving along the highway, when a dog frightened his horse, and in the accident that followed his knee cap was broken. The Philipsburg High school class this year was composed of five young women: Linda Woomer, Bess A. Reese, Violet Swift, Eva Hasson and Iva Fiegall. Miss Swift took first honors and Miss Fiegall second honors. Dr. Pennepacker, of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, preached the baccalaureate sermon from the text "Be your garments always white." Of A. A. Dale's Decoration day address at Millheim the Journal says: "It was fine. He started with the cause and beginning of the Civil war and ended with the Spanish war and why Memorial day should be observed. He was listened to very attentively by the large audience assembled and a finer oration was never delivered in Millheim on Decoration day." Simon King, of the Musser house, Millheim, went to Philadelphia to have an operation performed on one of his eyes, and since he has suffered greatly and is confined to bed. Mr. King, when a boy, injured one of his eyes and lost the sight of it. The member being dead affected the other eye, and it became necessary to remove it in order to preserve the sight. Green Decker, of Beech, returned from North Dakota, where he took up a quarter section of government land and bought a quarter section. His son Joseph, who accompanied him, also took up a quarter section, all located three miles south west of Pleisher, a new town, through which a railroad is being constructed. Mr. Decker has lignite and mineral coal which makes an elegant fuel, on his section. Joseph Decker remained in Dakota, having hired on a cattle ranch. Mr. Decker will go to North Dakota next fall. We are sorry to lose a good old citizen. Harry R. Bathurst, son of Lawrence Bathurst, of Roland, met with a serious accident at Bellwood, in the foundry, where he was employed, on Saturday, 1st inst. Water in the boiler head caused an explosion of the cupola a few minutes before the metal was melted for casting. A bolt or other piece of flying fragment struck young Bathurst a few inches below the knee causing an ugly flesh wound, he also received some painful burns on both arms. Had the accident happened after the metal had melted, the entire plant would have been set on fire by the molten metal and a number of lives would have been lost. Harry was in Bellefonte on Saturday and locomoted with the use of two crutches. His brother William was in another part of the foundry when the explosion occurred, and at once rushed to where Harry was but the volume of steam hindered him from seeing him until after a few moments when the air became clear enough.

A festival will be held at Walnut Grove school house, on June 13, not on 20 as given in last week's issue. Charles, son of M. M. Duck, of Spring Mills, came home from Clearfield, and is ill with typhoid fever. The residence of Zach Steele at Tyrone caught fire Tuesday morning, but was extinguished, doing some damage. Jack formerly was from Bellefonte. On Saturday evening a small wooden culvert on the C. R. R. of Penna, near Cryders burned out and delayed the trains for several hours until repairs could be made. On Sunday a new railroad bridge was put in across the Bald Eagle, at Milesburg. The former structure would not permit long Pullman coaches to pass without scraping the sides. The Third District of Centre Co Christian Endeavor, will hold its second quarterly meeting in the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church, Thursday afternoon and evening, June 18. Wednesday noon Miss Lizzie Gross, of Azeumann, and Ira Proudfoot, of Altoona, were joined in marriage at the Catholic parsonage by Rev. Father McArdle. Miss Mary Gross, a sister of the bride was bridesmaid, and J. F. Johnston, of Tyrone, was best man. Mr. Proudfoot holds a position with the Railroad Company at Altoona where they will reside. The strawberry festival and bazaar, held in St. Mary's Hall, Snow Shoe, closed last Saturday. It was a success both socially and financially. They realized eight or nine hundred dollars. The money will be devoted to the improvement of the church. Music was furnished every evening by Misses E. V., and May Kelley, and Henrietta Pacini, of Bellefonte; also singing by Miss Lou O'Brien. Jane Lee Fined. Monday evening there was quite a gathering at the Burgess' office at the Spring as Jane Lee, a notorious colored lady, was in the lockup awaiting a hearing. Several ladies, who live in the vicinity of the old house on Logan street, testified that the dusky queen on several occasions last week was intoxicated on the street and the testimony also warranted the belief that she was guilty of other gross immoral conduct. Of course she admitted to doing some drinking. Burgess Walker fined her $2 and costs, the total being $9.70, in default of which she was sent back to the Big Spring Bastile. Her attorney, H. Y. Styler, made some objection to the Burgess' procedure, hoping to take out an appeal, but found his effort useless. Wednesday, some close friend of the unfortunate, whose name should be published, supplied the necessary funds to have the woman released. When Burgess Walker is doing his best to suppress the lawlessness of a notorious gang in our town, people who oppose him, by helping culprits out of trouble, deserve the denunciation of all good people. Who paid Jane's fine, Mr. Burgess? We insist that no secrets should be kept in your department and especially of this kind. The State Educational Association meets at Wilkesbarre on June 30, July 1 and 2. First-rate men have been selected for the general program, and the department conference will be used for special work. Mrs. Dr. J. H. Huston, of Clintondale, had some lady friends out driving when the shafts of the carriage suddenly dropped upon the heels of the horse and it being a high bred spirited one, it became frightened and ran away smashing the carriage and throwing the ladies out. One of the ladies came off uninjured, but Mrs. Huston was thrown upon her head and badly hurt. Sunday evening, during one of the heavy showers that passed over Sugar Valley the farm house of E. M. DeLong, about one and a fourth miles south of Loganston, and occupied by Samuel C. Moyer, was struck by a bolt of lightning knocking off the chimney and passing down the flue tearing its way into the rooms below and damaging the interior of the house to a great extent, but did not set it on fire.

STREET CARNIVAL.

To be Held in Bellefonte From June 29th to July 4th. The Undine Fire Company have engaged an entirely new and novel attraction for the people of Centre county, consisting of a fair and carnival held on the public thoroughfares of this town, giving a continuous show day and evening for one week. It will be a reproduction of the famous Midway Plaisance the unique attraction of the World's Fair at Chicago, but on smaller scale. It will be a collection of novelties, about a dozen different and distinct attractions, each in an individual tent containing something of unusual interest or special amusement. Among them will be: The Beautiful Orient—A collection of natives from Asia in their quaint garb. Amusements:—Shooting gallery, cane racks, bead workers, fortune tellers, magic, etc. Japanese Theatre:—Native actors and agile acrobats, who are artists in their line. Electric Theatre:—Showing all the remarkable electric inventions of modern times, illustrating how man has harnessed this subtle force to do his bidding. Por Ladies:—A special attraction for the fair sex, to which no man will be admitted. 22 Illusions:—All are of great beauty and mystifying, a place that furnishes pleasure and instruction. Balloon Ascension:—Is promised for every day, in which there will be the customary parachute drop. These are only a few of the leading features. It would require a column to enumerate other equally meritorious attractions. Half the world is engaged in an effort to jolly the other half.
