

THE RACKET

Only one more week of our Special Sale.

All goods in store at 10 to 25 per cent. discount. Lots of Bargains at half and less.

80 cents buys a $1.00 worth.

Last day of sale Saturday, June 20th.

THE RACKET

Correspondents' Department
Continued from page 7.

Unionville.

A trio of Julian's prettiest girls, Misses Eva and Nina Davis and Bernice Irwin, did some shopping in town on Wednesday.

Misses Bessie Reeser, of Snow Shoe and Mattie Williams, of Martha, were visitors at the home of Dr. W. U. Irwin a few days last week.

Master Johnnie Wagner came up from Milesburg a few days ago, just to see how things look in his old home town. He positively denies that he came up to see his girl.

Mrs. Reuben Alexander, of Julian, was in town a few days ago, on a shopping expedition.

David McCloskey, the venerable democrat and all-around good fellow of Bellefonte, was a pleasant visitor in our town a few days ago.

Ed. Musser, of Pittsburg, is home on a vacation.

Geo. Brugger has secured a position on an engineer corps at Clearfield.

Billy Parsons is the happy possessor of a pedometer and now walks around the station most of his time just to see how many miles he walks in a day.

A cloud burst occurred in Bush's Hollow on last Monday and did considerable damage to corn fields and other property.

We are sorry to note the fact that Ex-commissioner, Thomas W. Fisher is very broken down in health by reason of stomach trouble. He has been unable to do any work for several weeks but he feels hopeful that his ailment is but temporary.

The junior baseball nine held a festival on last Thursday evening and realized over $5.

The Senior nine that "did" the Stormstown, held a festival in the P. O. S. of A. rooms and realized $36, and now they are open for a challenge from the Boston's and the Phillies or Julian—the latter preferred.

The index finger on the hand of Destiny points squarely to Ellis L. Orvis as the proper man to succeed the Hon. Jao. G. Love as president Judge of Centre county. How many correspondents to the Democrat concur in this opinion?

Howard.

T. J. Moore was called to Keating on account of the death of his brother on Monday evening.

The social held in Lucas' hall Saturday evening was well attended.

Rev. Boggs is all smiles—it's a girl.

Children's day services were held in the Christian chapel Sunday evening; the singing was fine and the decorations beautiful. Time will not permit us to mention names, but we will speak of Nellie Zeigler who recited a recitation and she did finely. The collection amounted to $13.50.

A. A. Pletcher, who is selling farming implements for the Milwaukee people, is doing a fine business.

John Shay and family have moved from town to one of Jenkin's Iron Tool Co's houses at the mill.

The Howard base ball team expect to cross bats Saturday with the Flemington boys.

J. D. Deihl has torn his old home down and has the foundation up for a new home which will cost him $5,000 when completed.

Gatesburg.

Clark Rider, of Denver Col., has stopped over in our town; he has come in to look after his afflicted mother, at Gatesburg; he will return to Denver in a short time.

Gatesburg won. Captain Loyd Barr's men took the game home; at Stormstown on Saturday afternoon, the score being 17 to 7; Loyd Barr was on the slabb for Gatesburg and deserves much credit for his excellent pitching; too bad for Stormstown, they acknowledged that they were up against the real thing.

Miss Jane Markle and Miss Harshberger, of this place, visited friends and relatives in Bellefonte last week.

Mrs. Blair Gates, accompanied by her two children, William and Ruth, visited her brother, Homer, in Boalsburg over Decoration day.

Moshannon.

Patrick Flanagan, of this place, died at the Clearfield hospital, on Monday morning of stomach trouble. He was aged about 50 years, and is survived by a wife and several children.

Mary Culver and sister and two small brothers, of Kylesburg, are visiting at the home of T. D. Weaver, Esq.

Grover Duck and Wm. McKinney attended the festival of the Y. M. C. A. at Winburn on Saturday evening.

Howard Kramer and wife visited the former's mother.

Millheim.

Bruce McCormick, who had been living with A. M. Wetzel, left for his home in Georgesvalley.

George Secrist returned from Harter, W. Va., on Friday, where he was working on a lumber job for Harter Bros. & Co.

J. J. Orndorf and wife, of Woodward, were in town Saturday on business.

John Reighard, of Millinburg, spent several days here putting a new roof on his wagon shed on his farm north of town; he left here some fifty years ago.

Mrs. S. E. Alexander has gone to Hughesville on a prolonged visit to her sister, Mrs. Emey Braugard.

John Smith, of Smith Bros. furniture dealer, of Spring Mills, was in town on Friday; the firm has quite a trade in Penn and Brush valley.

Rev. Saml. Smith and wife, of Rebersburg, visited with his brother, W. H. Smith on Penn street, last week.

S. M. Campbell, furniture dealer and undertaker, returned from the undertakers' convention at Pittsburg.

Miss Mabel Brown, of Boalsburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Houtz, on Main street.

The Millheim Water Company has made the following (liberal offer) to furnish a supply of water to the borough, on the following terms: "Said Company to have the right to dig trenches and lay pipes in and on all streets, lanes, alley and public rights-of-way, now in existence or hereafter to be opened and maintained, also the exclusive right to furnish the water for 50 years, or as long as said Company shall remain in existence, for which said Company to make, erect and construct 25 fire plugs, at a rental of $10 per annum per plug, payable quarterly, also to furnish a head for fire purposes so far as the mains and the elevation of the Company's reservoir will P. E. R. M. T. T.

"Also to furnish to one municipal building water free of rent, the amount of water to be used by the borough in said municipal building to be regulated by the Water Company.

"Any water that the borough may use for street sprinklers to be furnished by the said Company by virtue of and under the terms of an annual contract to be made between the said borough and the said Water Company."

This offer has been accepted by the town council, four of its members being interested and prime movers in the Water Company, giving away a franchise and voting to themselves extortionate sums of money for two and a half generations, without any security on the part of the Water Co. for any loss or damages that may result from the opening of ditches or the laying of pipes; this was railroaded through at a special meeting.

Chas. Bassler, wife and son, of Freeburg, are visiting her parents, T. Spigelmyer's.

Herb Rishel came home last week from Altoona, where he was employed by the P. R. R. Co.; he fell in an ash pit and cut his face badly.

D. D. Royer and wife, of Rebersburg, were shopping in town, Saturday.

John Alters, of Pittsburg, is here recuperating on account of an injury to his leg.

J. S. Deitrich and wife, of Madisonburg, had business in town, Saturday.

Robert Smith and wife, of Spring Mills, were in town last week.

S. R. King, proprietor of the Musser House, went to Williamsport last Monday and had his left eye removed by Dr. S. S. Kiser. Years ago a piece of cap lodged in it, which destroyed the vision, and of late gave him a great deal of pain; it was found that the piece of cap was still incased in a gristle.

Mrs. J. H. Reifsnnyder is visiting her daughter Mrs. W. H. Burd, in Philadelphia and son Charles, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

John Boyer returned from Centre Hall, where he was doing some carpenter work and has a house to put up for John Bubb at the Red Mill.

Runville.

Mrs. Mary Heaton is visiting relatives and friends in Clearfield county.

Edgar Shirk fell and broke his arm in such a way that it required an operation, and was taken to the Bellefonte hospital Monday morning.

Miss Mame Lucas, who was visiting at this place, returned to her home at Altoona on last Saturday.

Mrs. Grace Lucas visited friends here a couple days last week.

Katie Daley, of Bellefonte, spent a few days last week with her grandparents.

The farmers are busy ploughing since the recent rains.

Willis Heaton, who is working at Heshbon, spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

The infant daughter of Geo. and Ollie Heaton died Thursday, May 28, aged four days. Was buried on Friday; interment in Messiah cemetery.

Zion.

Much wheat was blown down by the storm on Sunday.

Some people glory in minding other people's business and not their own.

The festival Saturday night turned out to be a success and a nice sum was realized.

The scribe who gave a recent account of himself is a slick fellow, as he has no fingers and does his writing with his toes.

Evangelical church service was postponed on account of rain.

Keturah Long, accompanied by Bessie Sholl, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday here.

Horace Kauffman, our up-to-date farmer, has a little corn ground plowed he will get it out till the fourth of July.

Mt. Pleasant.

The rain of Saturday night and Sunday improved the growth of everything.

J. T. Merryman wears a large smile since the arrival of a young daughter at his home.

Edward Orwig has been hauling ties along our roads the last few days.

There is a plum tree and a pear tree standing in B. V. Pink's yard, they both have nice sized fruit on them and they are both in full bloom.

There were no services at our church on Sunday morning or Sunday night, on account of the rain.

Coburn.

Miss Lizzie Kerstetter and her sister, Mrs. Gertie Weaver, spent several days in Bellefonte last week.

On Thursday, Mrs. Mary Vonada and her two daughters, Mrs. D. G. Mingle and Mrs. Thomas Vonada, of near Woodward, visited at the home of J. W. Hosterman.

The band festival was well attended on Saturday evening and the boys realized a neat sum.

Among many visitors who spent several days here we noticed the following: Mrs. C. Charles, of Millinburg; Chas. Wagner and family, of near Lewisburg; Misses Maud Ard and Lizzie Luse, of Woodward; Mrs. Maggie Hosterman and two sons, of Millheim, and Mrs. Mollie Starcloth, of Northumberland Co.

L. L. Weaver, who is engaged by a telephone company in the eastern part of the state, was with his family over Sunday.

Rev. Laufer will deliver his first regular sermon in the Reformed church on Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

On Saturday three men with two large cinnamoa bears passed through this place. The High valley scribe remarked that the bears would make a dandy team for the Georgetown man to haul milk and eggs.

R. F. Vonada, wife and daughter, Alma, left on Monday for a place near Reading, where they will make their home this summer.

J. E. Harter and wife left for Ohio on Monday to visit Mrs. Harter's brother, William Hosterman, and other relatives. During their absence J. F. Garthoff and wife of Bellefonte, are having charge of Harter's store.

Jesse Kaler is the happiest man in town since that little female visitor arrived last week.

On Tuesday Mrs. N. F. Braucht and two sons, who had spent several weeks in this community, went to their home at McElhattan. They were accompanied by Miss Elsie Kerstetter.

J. W. Waite, wife and two sons, and Mrs. J. C. Krumrine, of Smithport, McKean county, arrived here on Tuesday morning to visit Mrs. Waite's and Mrs. Krumrine's sister, Mrs. Bertha Hosterman, who is seriously ill suffering from hemorrhages.

T. H. Motz and family, of Woodward, were down on Tuesday to visit Mrs. Motz's sister, Bertha Hosterman.

Plum Grove.

Amos Kauffman spent a few days with his tenant, Mr. Gingrich.

J. P. Coburn and nephew, Coburn Rogers, from Bellefonte, spent Wednesday with his tenant, W. H. Swartz.

John Hoy and wife, from Hubersburg, spent a few days at the home of Jacob Sharer's.

Messrs. George Sharer and Wm. Keller spent Sunday with their friend Maurice Breon, in Georges valley.

Harry Dinges and family from Centre Hall, spent Friday evening with W. H. Swartz and family.

Roy S., how did you enjoy the half way drive on Friday evening with your lady friend, Annie W? but next time train your horse better that Wm. K. will not need to lead him.

Milton Snyder expects to leave for Jeannette, Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Swartz is afflicted with rheumatism.

Thomas Alters, from Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his lady friend, Miss Stump, instead of Mr. Norris, which was stated in last week's items.

Linden Hall.

Samner Miller, of Rock Springs, spent a few days last week with his sister, Mrs. Frank Wieland.

On account of the heavy rain on Sunday evening, the U. E. have postponed their children's day services until next Sunday evening.

Edwin Carper returned to Clairton on Tuesday, after spending a week with his parents.

Mrs. Annie Rupp, of Altoona, was visiting her mother, and also attended her grandmother's funeral.

S. E. Goss, insurance agent, of Bellefonte, was in town last Thursday evening.

Misses Lizzie and Katie Zeigler were visitors at the home of William Brooks, on Sunday.

Mrs. Aaron Thomas and daughters, Jennie and Ruth, of Centre Hall, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Thomas' sister, Mrs. John Felding.

Boalsburg.

Thos. Riley and wife returned from Altoona Monday.

Beulah Fortney is visiting in Huntingdon county.

P. S. Ishler was called home from Virginia on account of the serious illness of his little boy, who, we are glad to say, is now recovering.

Mrs. Susan Rankin returned from Altoona Monday.

Dr. Samuel Woods, of Sharon, is on a short visit to his mother.

Sallie Keller left for Lancaster to attend F. & M. commencement.

W. A. Murray made a business trip to Bellefonte Thursday.

L. Mothersbaugh and wife visited at Pleasant Gap several days.

Reuben Stuart, of Pittsburg, formerly of this place, is visiting here.

Lemont.

Sun dried ice cream for sale at Evey's on Saturday evening.

Miss Maud Moore, a student of Maryland college, came home with her grandmother, Mrs. Ella Moore, who had been visiting her son in Phillipsburg last week.

David Getz has a boil on his cheek, "just now."

Geo. C. Williams and wife returned home from Clearfield and Blair counties where they had been to the installation of Rev. Hepler and to visit friends in Altoona.

Everybody please excuse such a short speech as we have examinations this week, and it is now very late in the day as I am yawning and the Presbyterians are running down over my cheeks so I am afraid of high water and thus am obliged to stop.

Potters Mills.

Children's service in the M. E. church at Sprucecreek, Sunday, 14, at 10 a. m.; it promises to be the best service held there for some time—come one and all.

J. O. Stover was home for a few days from Millin county, where he is employed at the Burnham shops.

Among the sick are Mrs. Workinger, Mrs. Clark, and Mrs. Motera who is slowly improving.

Emmanuel Smith's ice cream parlor was crowded all Saturday evening; Mrs. Smith knows how to make cream; if you don't believe it ask William Bare.

Miss Mame Condo and friend, Miss Edna Wilson, of Bellefonte, are spending a few days at her home.

If you want to see a fine flock of chickens and ducks, call on merchant, T. A. Carson, he is now building a fine chicken pen and will be already to supply the market by the holidays.

Beech Creek.

George Strawcutter, while at work along the tram road on Twin run, killed a rattle snake which measured four feet six inches in length and carried 17 rattles.

While standing on a board above a barbed wire fence Saturday evening, Mitchell Bitner fell upon the wire, and was badly lacerated on the lower portion of the abdomen. He suffered much from the injury.

The two cows and one bull which were killed by a passenger train last week at McCalmot's crossing a mile east of here, belonged to Mr. Yarnell, tenant on the J. T. Fearon farm. Only a few days before the accident he had an offer of $45 for one of the cows.

Harry, the oldest son of John W. Waite, is now in Bellefonte where he will clerk in a cigar store.

Harris Twp.

Mrs. Katharine Wagner visited here before going to her new home at Buckhorn, Columbia county.

Sarah Keller is attending the Golden Anniversary of P. & M. college at Lancaster.

Mrs. Sparr returned from Brush valley Noah Korman and wife, of Rebersburg, visited in Boalsburg.

Mrs. Burkholder and son Harry, of Centre Hill, attended the funeral of Mrs. Lena Carper.

Mrs. Annie Rupp, of Altoona, and Mrs. Maggie Zeigler, of Potters Mills, attended the funeral of their grandmother.

J. M. Garbric returned from Lancaster, where he had been a student at P. & M. college.

H. K. Hoy, of Benner twp., visited here last week.

Martha.

R. G. Williams, of Altoona, was called home by the illness of his father.

G. C. Pink has made a large increase in area of his farm by cleaning out fence rows and removing stone piles.

Corn is all planted and the farmers are rejoicing over the rain.

Joseph Williams expects to send three teams of horses to the Tioga log jobs this coming fall.

E. M. Kyler, our operator, is beginning to feel tired of single life and thinks he will wed in the near future, if John will only consent.

There is a "moonshine" back in the hills some place which is turning out some bad whiskey, which is making regular maniacs out of the boys.

Shingletown.

Jessie Hoover is slowly recovering.

Agnes Bowman and friend of Altoona, visited the former's sister recently.

The missionary meeting held at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hess was well attended.

Boyd Hoover, of Allegheny, is at home nursing a sore hand.

Perhaps the Lemont scribe thinks he has conquered that Frog Glory concern, but he must understand every body don't live in Frog Glory. The scribe was just trying to give Lemont a chance to catch up.

WALKER NO. 2.

The opinion of the people throughout our community is that the corn crop will be a failure. Some are replanting, others are talking about it and some are doing nothing.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Reformed church of Jacksonville, met at the home of Mrs. Will Holter, of Howard. The majority of the members were present.

Mrs. Will McDowell, of Abdera, has gone to Lewisburg to spend a few weeks with friends.

Chas. E. Yeasick spent several days in Williamsport last week.

Weather Report.

Weekly report—Bellefonte Station.
DATE	TEMPERATURE
	Maximum	Minimum
June 4, clear.....	87	47
5, cloudy.....	83	55
6, cloudy.....	79	60
7, cloudy.....	80	63
8, cloudy.....	75	59
9, cloudy.....	84	59
10, cloudy.....	79	58

Rain: On 7, from 11 in., eve., 27 in. On 8, 50 in. On 9, 53 in. On 10, afternoon 25 in. Thunder gusts, 7, 8, 9 and 10.

is the New and Better Breakfast Food, so different from all others that it pleases everybody. Get a package to-day at your grocers. THE GERBERE FOOD CO., LA ROY, N. Y.

TRY A PAIR

OF OUR

$1.50

OXFORDS

FOR

LADIES

Made of all kinds of Leather, light and heavy soles. The very best value ever offered for that price.

YEAGER & DAVIS,

The Shoe Money Savers,

BELLEFONTE and PHILIPSBURG.

THE GLOBE

DRY GOODS. MILLINERY... CARPETS.....

The Shirt Waist Season is Here

Another importation of Shirt Waists and Shirt Waist materials enables us to offer you the newest fabrics now selling in the Eastern markets.

Shirt Waists daintily made with tucks and insertion; Shirt Waists of all over embroidery; Plain Tucked Waists and Linen Dotted Waists make a showing here that will tempt the most conservative buyer.

We have just received a new line of Brocaded Linens—something entirely new and novel this season,—adapted especially for Waists and Shirt Waist Suits. Samples of these sent on application.

Our Sorosis Skirt sale was a great success. There are more of these Skirts here for you now. Why not buy these now at bargain prices?

Matting Porch Rugs

What is nicer for the home than a nice Rug for the porch? Three bales of Sangor Rugs just received, and the price is low enough so that everybody can afford one. $1.50 buys your choice of these Rugs. Beautiful designs and beautiful colorings.

The Millinery Season is Drawing to a Close

You can't buy a Hat any cheaper in July or August than you can buy one now. We do not wait until the tail end of the season to close out our Millinery. We begin right now, so if you have not bought your Hat yet give us a call. Our low prices will surprise you. Prices in this department are cut in half and more than half. We want you to compare our goods and prices with those of our competitors.

The truest test of value is comparison of goods. That we urge.

The Globe...Katz & Go