

THE RACKET

You can do better at The Racket - they sell for cash.

White Mountain Refrigerators, coldest, driest, purest, best; $6.50, 8.50, 13.50 and up.

Children's Parasols, 19c. up. Ladies' white China Silk Parasols, special value $1.48; others $1.00, 1.25, 2.00 and up.

New lot Cluny, Maline and Val. Laces at our usual low cash prices.

Wool Batiste, 50c; colors and black, Mohairs, checks, stripes and plain colors, 50c.

Delineator for July 15c., by mail 20c.

THE RACKET.

Correspondents' Department Continued, from page 7.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

In the first item of your correspondence next issue try and give a correct report of the crops and the outlook for fruit. Confine your report strictly to your locality. Be particular to enumerate wheat, corn and hay. Such a report will prove of great interest to our many readers over the county.

Unionville.

Since our last week's effusion, Al. Pletcher, of Nittany, was in town selling lawn mowers and other farm machinery. Master Harold Ward, of Bellefonte, helped celebrate Andrew J. Griest's 10th birthday.

The stork left a dear little 5 lb. boy baby at "Had" Harper's.

Mrs. Mark Hall went to Curwinstown to attend the funeral of her sister's 3-year-old daughter.

Mrs. Jack Nason, of Julian, transacted business in town.

Flora Bruggar, who has been attending school at Atlantic City for the last nine months, returned home.

William Moran came home from Scotia with a badly cut hand. That member is fearfully swollen and it is feared blood poisoning has set in.

John McDonnell has accepted the position of night operator in the R. R. office at Tyrone.

Dr. Ed. Russell, physician and surgeon, engaged in a hospital at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., is home on a visit to his parents.

Cora Hall and Olive Parsons, of Union township, were in town trying to sell huckleberries for future delivery.

Ex-Commissioner Thomas W. Fisher and wife have gone to visit the former's sister, Mrs. Mary Holmes at Riverton, N. J., and will spend some time at Atlantic City before returning home.

Mrs. John Emerick is as proud as a little boy with his first pair of red top boots, because why? Her fine house has been newly painted and now it looks like a brand new house. Jack Shipley was the artist.

John Wagner, the miller, "batches" at the mill house and on last Wednesday his good wife, daughters Mabel and Mira, and sons John and James, came up from Milesburg with a large basket full of roast chicken and other good things, to celebrate his 46th birthday. John said he was so much surprised it almost raised the hair on his head—(he hasn't got any)

The grangers will hold an ice cream festival in their hall at this place on the Fourth of July. Everybody invited—bring an ear of corn with you.

Prof. John A. Williams, of Port Matilda, passed through town on Monday en route to Millheim, stopping long enough to exchange "how-de-dos" with his many friends at this place.

Children's Day was observed in the M. E. church on Sunday evening. The exercises were interspersed with music, recitations, class drills, etc., and were of a highly entertaining and inspiring character, and all who participated in the exercises deserve the highest commendation.

Milton Peters broke a "limb." He was firing the engine at the Spotts Bros' saw mill at the old tannery place and in attempting to adjust a belt while in motion a broken flange on the pulley caught the sleeve of his coat and drew his arm under, breaking one of the bones of his right fore arm. Dr. Irwin reduced the fracture and he is doing nicely.

Martin Hogan bought a wire rat trap at A. J. Griest's store—took it home and caught nine rats the first night and seven the second night. Mrs. Hogan and Ray Weaver exterminated the rodents by drowning them in a tub of water.

Master George Moran is the new clerk and all around chore boy in A. J. Griest's department store, and he is a dandy, active, willing, polite, unobtrusive and genteel, he fills the bill to the letter. Good boys are always in demand.

Sav. Charley, here is a funny story Pat McDonnell tells: "A fellow used to live in this town that moved so often during the year that when they went to catch the chickens, his old rooster came voluntarily and threw himself on his back to have his feet tied."

The members of the Evangelical church will hold an ice cream festival in the P. O. S. of A. Hall on next Saturday evening. Everybody come.

When a girl expects a young man to propose and he doesn't she naturally attributes it to heart failure.

Rock View.

The oats and corn look more favorable since the rain.

Some of the farmers are helping to crush stones at Rock View church.

Miss Margaret Breon has been working for her aunt, Mrs. Noah Breon, below Bellefonte.

Nathaniel Zettle lost a valuable cow last week.

Miss Helen Zettle, of this place, is taking a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Coldren.

Charley, the next time you frighten that lady's horse, you know what you will get.

Miss Margaret Keen was seen passing through our vicinity last week.

I wonder what it all means? Dunk says that it looks exactly like home where Uncle Sam lives.

Quite a number of the people attended commencement at State College.

Charley and Ed. look sleepy, since their journey Sunday; Charley said he would sleep going to the creamery, Monday morning; Ed. said he would sleep plowing.

Herbert Klinger spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

Waddle.

Gypsies are the latest visitors at this place.

Wm. Baisor and Mr. Sailor, of Altoona, paid a brief visit at G. W. Baisor's.

Miss Elsie Sellers is visiting her uncle, Rev. Robert Stine, at Muncy.

Miss Gertrude Wilson, of Altoona, is visiting the Meek home.

Jones Bailey and wife, of Bellefonte, spent several days with Wm. Curry.

Miss Minnie Snyder, of Pittsburg, visited at J. W. Hartsock's.

Last week supervisor J. W. H. had several men working on the road near the Tompson saw mill, where one of the men took a fall very severely, and made an effort to reach home by railway; he was accompanied by the supervisor but to their great surprise Parker would not stop the train, so they both consented to take a long walk, but they wished the train would run off the track; it did the next day.

Potters Mills.

Clark Bible, of Burnham, came home Saturday with two fingers smashed; also J. O. Stover from the same place had his left foot smashed; both are very painful injuries.

Children's day service at Sprucetown was a success.

Now Carson is attending commencement at State College.

Miss Jennie and Mame Condo have returned to Bellefonte after a few days visit with their parents.

Roy Burns, of Burnham, spent Sunday with his sister.

Misses Cora and Sallie McClenathen are home from Altoona.

There was quite a lively combat in Em'l Smith's store, Saturday evening; they should have had more sense than to fight inside and smash things; no doubt they are wiser now and will do their next fighting outside.

Greenbrier.

On account of some interesting news we will open a new field here, at Drum Station.

What is the matter with our drum corps? We don't hear any sound of the drum since Danie was painting at Coburn. By all appearance they got the wrong oil in their paint and couldn't endure the smell of it. Boys, next time don't try to doctor hogs.

Crops look favorable since this wet weather came on.

Moode Auman is home from the Laurelton lumber job.

There is quite a discussion here on the school business, since the directors planned to haul the mountain scholars up to Getzeldistrict. It is the talk that Ben Wingard is going to do the hauling. (Whoa Harry, now stop).

Coburn.

C. F. Kerstetter visited his parents during the past week.

A. M. Harter, of West Virginia, after visiting here a few days, returned home.

Mrs. J. Harter is very ill with stomach trouble. Bertha Hosterman who was very sick last week is able to be around. Dan'l Friar and Mrs. H. Kremer are also improving.

Mrs. E. C. Charles went to her home in Millinburg on Tuesday, accompanied by her grandson Robert Stover.

H. Grove and Perry Wingard made a business trip across the mountain on Tuesday.

The members of the Lutheran church put down the pavement in front of their church this week. It is of Ohio sand stone.

Nittany.

Mrs. Sides, nee Snavelly, of this place, visited her parents, Henry Snavelly's.

Mrs. R. B. Boarder, of Altoona, visited her mother, Mrs. Tate.

Wm. Garbrick is visiting friends in Pittsburg.

Charley Young, of McKeesport, is visiting his parents at this place.

Mrs. Paterson, of Castanea, visited her parents over Sunday.

Mrs. Harpster, of Hublersburg, was the guest of Mr. Young's on Saturday.

There was a young merchant came to the home of H. M. Long's on Thursday night.

Frank Carner is crushing stone opposite Mr. Peck's residence for the road; our supervisor is prompt in filling roads.

Zion.

Sam'l Clevestine and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

Everybody says that there never was more music in the air than there has been during the last week.

J. W. Eby has a large force of men employed on his new house.

Woodward.

There is quite a lot of scolding done about our turnpike through the Pennsylvania narrows. It is so rough that a man ought to get his life insured before attempting to go through.

W. W. Eby took a business trip to Union county on last Friday.

W. P. Ard and wife took a trip to Lewisburg, on Tuesday, to visit his son, Joseph Ard.

Wm. Glenn and wife, from Wilcox, Elk county, who had been visiting at E. Stover's for the last week, returned home on Wednesday.

The Children's Day Exercises held on Sunday evening in the Ev. church, was very entertaining. The children recited their pieces finely. The crowd was not very large on account of the rain.

John J. Orndorf bought a valuable cow of Warren Hosterman last week.

Mrs. Wm. Noll, son and daughter, of Jeanette, are visiting at the home of our wideawake distiller.

John Smith, of Lewisburg, was here buying up cattle.

C. C. Orndorf lost a valuable steer last week; also E. M. Boon, of Piedler.

Yank was as jolly as a bird on Sunday night when he saw those pretty girls come into church; he could hardly wait until the meeting was over, but after the meeting he got there just the same.

Austin Myer and wife, from Coburn, were visiting in our village on Sunday.

Isiah Boob and family went to Union county on Saturday to visit friends.

Luther Kremer says he gets tired waiting on his bees to swarm; if they don't soon swarm he will give them more work to do.

A. M. Kremer, of Penn Hall, made a short call on his parents, on Monday.

Charles Kremer left for Mingoville on Monday morning, where he intends working for the Huyett Lumber Co.

Ralph Stover, from Aaronsburg, purchased a cream separator from L. D. Orndorf, on Monday.

John McIntire and family, of Athens, Pa., is visiting at Abram Treaster's.

Mrs. Wm. Snyder and son, of near Laurelton, was seen in our town, on Monday.

Harris.

J. N. Moyer, of Rebersburg, a representative of the Myers Publishing Co. of Harrisburg, transacted business here last week.

Rev. A. A. Black attended the jubilee of F. & M. college.

Sam'l Weber, Jr., of Raleigh, N. C., is visiting here.

Helen Hosterman, of Centre Hall, visited at Maple Shade Farm.

Mrs. Ellen Young spent a few days in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Irvin, of Oak Hall, spent Friday in Boalsburg.

Dr. Kidder and wife were at Centre Hall on Friday.

Some of our young people attended the Children's day service at Rock Hill Sunday.

The picnic in the Shingletown Gap on Saturday was an enjoyment to the people despite of the rain.

Albert Allen and Reuben Stuart attended the festival at Walnut Grove on Saturday.

P. H. Meyer was the guest of J. J. Tressler on Sunday.

Claudia Wieland and Beulah Portney returned from their visit in Huntingdon county.

Centre Hall.

The cry for rain has ceased.

Some of our people are attending the Lutheran dedication services now being held at Spring Mills.

Tom Bariges, who was ill of typhoid fever in the western part of the state, is fairly recovered.

Harry Condo and wife, nee Pearl Runkle, were visiting here last week, at the hotel and visited among friends. Their home is in York.

The grange festival last Saturday evening was fairly patronized, considering the weather. The ladies of the grange know how to get up a festival and make it pleasurable and inviting.

Prospects for all crops look fair since last week's showers.

The Bellefonte carnival for week of 29 inst. to July 4th, is putting many of our folks on tip-toe, and say, "we'll all go."

Wm. Stiver, of this place, a veteran of the civil war, and wife, were at the county seat on Tuesday.

Fillmore.

The long drought has at last been broken, and every one is rejoicing over the abundant rainfall.

Miss Myrtle Lucas, of Tyrone, is visiting at the home of C. H. Kepheart.

Gilbert Parsons, of Dix Run, visited friends at this place on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Tressler and little daughter, of Altoona, are visiting at Joseph Tressler's.

There will be preaching services at the M. E. church on Sunday morning, at 10:30.

The children's Day services were held in the M. E. church on Saturday evening, June 13. Among the visitors from a distance we noticed: Miss Ida Way, Gray Way, Herbert Way, Mr. Jones and J. F. Ebbs, from Waddle; Misses Bessie and Eva Tressler, of State College, and William Straw, of Julian.

Smullton.

Miri Winkleblech, who has been going to school at Rebersburg, left for Renova, his home, last Saturday.

W. E. Bair has his new barn under roof.

A. E. Strayer is busily engaged in painting Mr. Emerick's house.

Geo. H. Small remodeled several of his rooms and hallway.

The rainy weather aroused our fishermen, the creeks were lined with them.

Victor Brungart left for Philadelphia on Tuesday.

Robt. Hackenburg and family visited merchant W. J. Hackenburg on Friday.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Carolina Geary, of Coburn, and Mrs. Julia Brungard, of New York City, visited friends and relatives in town.

Ross Mowery and wife, of Lock Haven, were the guests of Mrs. Sara Leitzell.

Mrs. Lavina Lenker and daughter Sue, are taking in the commencement exercises at State College; from there they will visit at Lemont.

Jared Harper and family, of Bellefonte, were seen in town last week.

J. W. Forster, accompanied by his mother and sister, attended the wedding of Elizabeth Forster, at Carlisle.

O. H. Wolf and wife, of Wolf's Store, visited last week with Mrs. H. H. Weaver.

A. C. Mingle, of Bellefonte, visited his aged mother at the residence of E. G. Mingle's.

Sara Guisewite, of Coburn, Sundayed with her parents.

Miss Jennie Hull has gone to Bellefonte to attend the wedding of her cousin Lida Bell.

Henry Kayler, of Coburn, had his gramophone to the residence of Jesse Wert's and entertained quite a number of people.

E. R. Wolf has gone to Axemann to spend a few weeks with his sister Mrs. Meyer.

Catherine Bower has gone to Altoona to spend a few weeks.

Yarnell.

Children's Day exercises were not very largely attended, on account of the bad weather.

Miss Maude Zimmerman, of Pine Glen, visited Gertrude Confer over Sunday.

Miss Tressie Eckley, of Milesburg, visited here last week.

L. M. Butler spent Sunday at his old home; we are always glad to see him.

James Croft, of Pittsburg, arrived Saturday to visit his parents here; Mrs. Croft and son have been here for some time.

Misses Ella Confer and Stella Heverly, of Moose Run, attended children's services held here.

Mrs. Rachel Walker, of Cato, who is past eighty four years of age, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Confer.

John Eckley is quite happy the past week—says it is another boy.

Harry Miller now has his chop mill in operation.

The S. S. of this place have been invited to help sing at the Grange memorial services to be held at the Advent church, June 28, at 2 o'clock.

Mt. Eagle.

Misses Pearl Gates and Maude Dietz have returned from their term of school at Spring Mills.

The M. E. church had a fine Children service on Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. C. Leathers and son Clair went to Jamestown last week, to spend part of the summer with her husband.

Mrs. David Allen and daughter Kate were visitors at T. I. Lucas', Wednesday.

B. F. Kline was to Lock Haven over Sunday to see his sister.

The farmers in this valley are not pleased with the corn and oats, as these did not come up well this spring and the wire worm is very hurtful in some places.

J. R. Pheasant's daughters, families and sisters, had a birthday party for their parents on last Saturday.

David Tanyer and wife were guests at Robt. Lucas' on Monday.

Centre Hall.

Clay Reeseman is at home nursing a sore hand, he is in the employ of the Pa. R. R. at Pittcairn.

Interesting Children's day services were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Also by the Evangelicals in their church in the evening.

Philip Durst is having his house, east of town, beautified by a coat of paint.

Miss Annie, daughter of Joseph Lutz is visiting in Lewisburg.

The boro schools will open Aug. 31.

Mabel Keller is now at Bellefonte in the Commercial Telephone Exchange.

Fiedler.

The festival at Wolf's chapel was well attended.

W. I. Smith has moved his sawmill from State College to Millheim where he will saw for Eby & Zimmerman.

We have heard Freddie was going to start a band when he gets his new horn.

Sam'l Gephart and wife and little daughter are visiting Mrs. Gephart's parents.

Some of our boys had a little too much rum at the festival; I don't know if it was bay rum or bully rum.

Weather Report.

Weekly report—Bellefonte Station.
DATE	TEMPERATURE
	Maximum	Minimum
June 11, clear.....	76	58
12, cloudy.....	69	53
13, cloudy.....	56	51
14, cloudy.....	57	49
15, cloudy.....	71	53
16, pt cloudy.....	82	55
17, cloudy.....	75	53

Rain: On 11, evening and night, .87 inch; on 12, at night, .26 inch; on 13, evening, .26 inch; on 14, day .51 inch; on 15, evening, .32 inch; on 17, day, .02 inch.

is the New and Better Breakfast Food, so different from all others that it pleases everybody. Get a package to-day at your grocers.

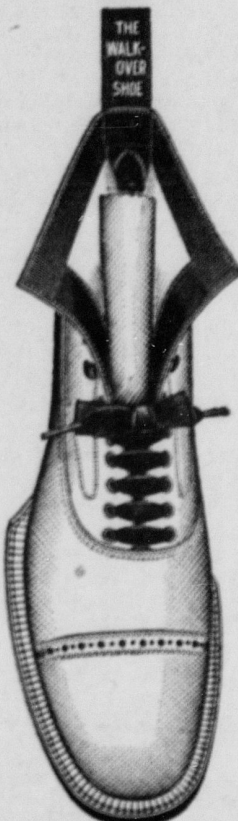

THE GENUINE PURE FOOD CO., LE ROY, N. Y.

THE KEY TO FOOT COMEORT

is found in shoes that conform to the outlines of the foot.

THE WALK-OVER SHOE

does this—and more; it fits the foot accurately and gracefully, smoothly and without pressure. It combines a wonderful amount of foot comfort with the height of shoe elegance and the longest shoe service.

$3.50 and $4.00

SOLD ONLY BY

YEAGER AND DAVIS

Shoe Money Savers.

SALE OF MILLINERY

JUST RECEIVED FROM AN EASTERN MANUFACTURER 5 CASES UNTRIMMED HATS, ALL THE VERY LATEST SHAPES,

250 HATS IN ALL,

REGULAR PRICES ON THESE WERE 75c, $1.00, $1.25 & $1.50; NOT ONE IN THE LOT WORTH LESS THAN 75c,

YOUR CHOICE NOW 25c

ALSO 20 BOXES OF FLOWERS COMPRISING 300 IN ALL, REGULAR PRICES ON THESE WERE 50c, 75c, 1.25 AND UP TO $2.00 A BUNCH,

YOUR CHOICE NOW 25c

WE TOOK THE WHOLE LOT AND BOUGHT THEM CHEAP. THEY GO TO YOU THE SAME WAY.

All Trimmed Hats 1-2 Off Former Price.

THE GLOBE, - Katz & Co