

BIG TENT BLOWN OVER

8,000 Christian Endeavor Delegates at Denver in Panic.

SCORE OF PERSONS INJURED

Hundreds of Men Held Up Poles and Canvas and Prevented Many From Suffocating—Many Women Fainted and Were Rescued With Difficulty.

Denver, Colo., July 14.—The big tent Endeavor, where the Christian Endeavor convention has been held for the past four days, was blown over, more than 8,000 people being in the tent at the time. The injured numbered nearly a score, but fortunately none of them was seriously hurt. Mrs. Jessie M. Thornburgh, of Denver, was the most seriously injured. Her nose was badly gashed and she suffered several scalp wounds.

The presence of mind of A. M. Ramsey, of Chicago, who sprang to a chair and called to the people to hold up the canvas and poles, undoubtedly prevented many from suffocating. As it was, many women fainted and were extricated from the folds of the canvas with much difficulty.

Mrs. Winifred Sleep, of Denver, who was in charge of St. Mark's hospital tent, seeing the accident at the big tent close by, telephoned to the electric light company to shut off the current. This prevented any damage from the live wires which had fallen with the tent poles.

A feature, which showed the religious nature of the participants, was seen when the majority were extricated from the canvas folds. Led by an eastern delegate all gathered round in the open air and an impromptu praise service was held in the open air.

The convention was in full progress at the time of the accident, and although there were signs of rain and some wind blowing, no trouble was anticipated by the management. The sides of the tent had been raised to admit air, and this enabled the wind to lift up the big canvas as if it were a balloon. The gust that turned the tent over came so suddenly that no preparation could be made to forestall the consequences, and when the wind swept under the tent the top puffed out like an immense sail, the smaller guy ropes were pulled from their places, and in a moment more the big poles were drawn from the ground.

Immediately the 8,000 occupants of the tent were in a panic, heightened by the screams of hundreds of women. It was then that Mr. Ramsey sprang to a chair and called loudly on the men to hold up the canvas and catch the large supporting poles as they fell. Hundreds of men sprang to their feet and successfully carried out the Chicago man's suggestion and thus averted serious consequences. More than 1,000 people who had been seated near the walls of the tent escaped the folds and these immediately formed themselves into a rescue corps. Those who had fainted and those suffering from slight injuries were quickly removed to the hospital tent.

MINERS IN SESSION

District No. 1 Expended $756,669 For Relief During the Year.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 14.—The fifth annual convention of the Mine Workers of District No. 1 convened at Plymouth. There were 200 delegates present, representing some 400 local unions. Secretary John T. Dempsey submitted his annual report, which showed that the treasurer during the past year received $808,116.10. Expenditures were $793,302.45; balance on hand, $14,813.65. In his report he made known that there was but one single defalcation, and that the sum of $756,669.60 was expended solely for relief purposes during and since the last strike.

President Nicholls in his address referred to the ventilation as it now exists in the mines, which he claims does not fully meet the expectations of the miners. He illustrated to the convention that the laws of the state demand that there should be plenty of free air in the chambers for the miners as well as the laborers. He prevailed upon the men that it is their duty to see that the law is carried out as far as they are concerned.

Yesterday afternoon while they were engaged in an altercation on the second floor of the house Mueller shot the woman twice and then sent two bullets into his head. Mrs. Weiss died shortly afterward, but Mueller died almost instantly. He was 38 years of age and the woman 50.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

The Little Bear's Idea

"Oh, how unhappy we are!" exclaimed Mr. Bear, making a very long face. "We had better be dead," agreed Mrs. Bear.

But the little bear took a much more sensible view of things and he was convinced that his papa and mamma were wrong for once.

"See here," he cried; "why don't you try to make yourselves happy? Why don't you forget your troubles and look at the bright side of things?"

"How can we do it?" wailed Mr. and Mrs. Bear together.

"Why, simply shake off the ugly feeling you have and make up your minds to enjoy life," replied the little bear. "Tell us how to do it," they cried.

"Suppose you begin with a dance and a song."

The old bears did not think very much of that, but they agreed to try

FLYING AROUND LIGHT FOOTED AND LIGHT HEARTED.

it. Up they got on their hind legs and began to dance around and sing, while the little bear whistled a tune that he had learned at school.

And the first thing they knew they were flying around light footed and light hearted and feeling ten years younger. They laughed and forgot their troubles and were as happy as a bride and groom. Of course, the little bear was very much pleased with the success of his plan.

"This life is not so dreary, after all," exclaimed Mr. Bear.

"Indeed, it is not," agreed Mrs. Bear. "Moral—You can be happy if you try to be.—Detroit Journal."
