Loop.

G. R. Miese beats the band for crowds; there were close to 200 people spending the glorious Fourth at his place of business on the eve of the Fourth, taking in the balloon ascension and fire works, and Mr. Miese was well patronized; his cream stand footed up $20.10, candy stand $15.75, and his store inside $43—good for George.

Our citizens from the Loop are coming to the front. J. T. Smith has found something that resembles coal; it actually burns like coal and it might be, as they got deeper, find coal.

Our people around here are busy cutting their grain and grass which is on an average a good crop.

John Bettleyon is the man; he is out almost day and night through the full moon cutting grain and grass for farmers not having binders.

Miss Mary Moyer spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Nantie Miese, of Colyer.

Squire Housman is beautifying his house and we expect to see a beautiful coat of paint after harvest, to put on the finishing touch.

B. P. Rickert and gang are putting in to operation the stove mill for John Decker, bought of Wm. Colyer, in Decker valley.

Henry, you had better take care if you must have another calling down your heart may get the fiery flops.

Geo. Stover's son and daughter, formerly of Colyer, now living at Aaronsburg, are visiting friends and relatives in the Loop.

Miss Harriet Turner, of this place, was elected principal of the Grammar school of Penn borough, Westmoreland county, at a salary of $50 per month.

This time it was William Bauder that was made happy by the arrival of a fine boy baby at his home—congratulations, Billy.

Miss Elizabeth Brugger, who spent several months at Atlantic City, returned home recently.

Wm. Denlinger, Jr., of Patton, is visiting at the home of the writer. He is a bright, jolly kid, full of vim and ready for any emergency the boys may suggest. He went fishing with Albert and caught three little whales 2 1/2 inches long. They made a nice meal for the family cat.

Our base ball nine came home from Martha on Saturday night, where they met the Martha team in a friendly contest for honors and when they alighted from the train they were hugging and kissing each other and throwing their bats in the air, cause, they won out; score 9 to 7. Can't give particulars but the boys do say that Johnnie McDonnell would make a good foot ball player, he is such a great kicker.

Mrs. W. B. Parsons is off on a week's visit to friends in Jersey Shore and Williamsport.

On last Thursday, Mrs. Black, of whom mention was made in our last, passed peacefully away to that "Unknown Country" at the home of Squire Riley Pratt, and was interred on Saturday afternoon in the Union cemetery west of town. She was 68 years of age, was a most estimable woman, having spent the greater part of her life in the service of the Master. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Luther DeVoe of the 1st Presbyterian church of Harrisburg; assisted by James Pratt. The words spoken by the Rev. DeVoe, eulogistic of this lovely woman, touched the hearts of all who heard them—so eloquent, yet so simple, that evidenced the fact that they came from the depth of his sympathetic heart. Verily, she has gone to her reward; may she rest in peace.

I am just about to give you some valuable information which I do not possess in regard to that Pleasant Gap trip made by Mr. Mulbarger in 3 hours and 10 min. weekly, but meantime want to invite your attention to Hamill Bathgate's musical ability which reminds me of a cow on a typewriter.

We wish to tell you that Irvin Dreese procured two canines from a pup seller and will not forget that characteristic smile of Jiny's given with box of baner lye on week days only via General Grant who disconnects himself, to become a barber once in a while, but he can cut Nutchy's hair to suit me as I so often mistake Mr. Marray for Abraham Lincoln. We make honorable mention of uncle George Martz, for he that sitteth on a red hot stove shall surely rise again in time to see our farmers making hay and cutting grain for if you sow you shall reap. If you want your watch chain "omealed" call with James Schreck, the great baritone of the hay field and, (to be continued).
