

An Animal Story For Little Folks The Lazy Lion

There was once upon a time a young lion who often went out in the fields and watched the larger lions play baseball, and he often thought how happy he would be if he was only big enough to take part in their games.

boughs of the tree, but there was not a single one of them on the ground. "Now, it is entirely too warm for me to spring up there and knock one of those coconuts down," he said.

An Animal Story For Little Folks The Sparrow's Revenge

One day the squirrel was feeling in a bad humor, which is not nice in little squirrels any more than it is in little boys and girls, and when the sparrow was trying to take a little nap on a twig of the tree the squirrel shook the limbs so hard that the poor sleepy head could get no rest.

A PROBLEM IN SAVING.

Suppose a man who has accumulated three hundred dollars in savings by putting away one dollar each day begins to draw out two dollars at night for each dollar he puts in the bank in the morning, how long will it take until his money is entirely gone?

That's a problem of figures. Here's a problem of fact. If a man uses up in a day twice the strength which food supplies his body how long before he becomes bankrupt in health? That problem can't be figured exactly, but the result is absolutely sure—physical bankruptcy.

When the normal supply of food eaten does not keep up the normal strength there must be a loss, from some cause, of the nutrition contained in the food eaten. The common cause of this loss and its resulting weakness is disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I cannot express my gratification in words. I had been suffering from indigestion so badly that I could not work more than half the time," writes Mr. Victor L. Hayden, of Blackstone, Nottoway Co., Va.
