

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired.

—When ordering a paper discontinued, see that you are even on arrearsages.

—Judge Gordon, of Clearfield, has been a frequent visitor in town of late.

—Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler left for Bedford to stay a week at the Springs hotel.

—Mrs. Casswell, who spent her winter at Coatsville, has returned to her home here.

—Potatoes under the recent growing weather promise a good crop and are falling in price.

—A thunder gust passed along and grazed us Sunday evening with a fair sprinkle of rain.

—Conrad Miller, completed the erection of four lime kilns for the Walker lime company up Buffalo Run.

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings, with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hickok and their daughter Janie, went to Bedford to spend several weeks.

—O. N. Yarnell, of Nittany, transacted business in town, Tuesday, and reports having none of Monday's hail down there.

—Col. Ed. Pruner, of Tyrone, bought the Hastings farm near Axe Mann, the barn and out-buildings of which were burned July 4th.

—The Hecla club having been revived why not an effort to get a new glass works? Our town was always benefited by the one burned.

—Mrs. Harry B. Stover, nee Lettie Stover, of Hagerstown, Md., is here the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stover, on High street.

—Two more of the robbers who were rounded up in the seven mountains some time ago have been identified as old offenders who have served time in the pen.

—The wheat harvest in this county is over, and the crop is a fair one. Timothy has turned out well and makes up for the shortage of clover in the hay crop.

—The proprietor of the Centre Democrat, this week is touring in Yellowstone Park, and reports "All well," and the excursionists having a fine time all along.

—Recent admissions to the hospital: Fred White of Waddle; Mrs. Gummo, of Roland; Mrs. Hunsinger and Joseph Hunsinger, of State College; Mrs. Condo, of Howard; Mr. Pury, of Bellefonte.

—Miss Mame Ceadar entertained a party of twenty-four young ladies at her home on North Allegheny street Thursday evening. It was a pretty affair and Miss Mame's guests will long remember it.

—Samuel T. Brooks, the liveryman, has purchased the Richards property on Linn and Lamb streets. The price paid was $3,500. It consists of a residence on Linn street and two houses on Lamb street.

—The most stylish and handsomely dressed ladies in this fashionable town are to be seen in the Aikens show window—even if they be dummies, which some of the live fashionables in some instances also are.

—With these frequent rains, if the clouds keep it up until September, with intervals of sunshine, there will be at least an average corn crop in Centre county—providing frosts do not nip it by setting in too early.

—Co. B left for the brigade camp at Somerset this Thursday morning at 9:53. They expect to reach Somerset at 6 o'clock in the evening. The boys are well drilled and along with Capt. Taylor, Lieut. Garbrick and Gettling, will maintain their reputation, as No. 1 in the state N. G.

—B. Frank Bowersox, a son of that well-known Ferguson township farmer, Frank Bowersox, gave our sanctum a call, Tuesday. Mr. B. is a pharmacist and student at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and was home on a visit, and was on his way to the State Pharmaceutical examination, in Williamsport.

—A heavy rain set in about midnight Friday, continuing all day Saturday. The downpour will cause high water and likely some damage, which will be learned later. July may come close up to June for depth of rainfall. We suppose very little, if any, wheat was caught out on shock, farmers having availed themselves of the favorable weather up to last Friday to get their sheaves into the barns.

—The high divers, whose wonderful feats in diving, during the 4th of July carnival in our town, were witnessed by thousands each day, met with an accident in one of his dives at Shamokin a few days ago. A telegram says: Professor William McComb, of the Midway Show, leaped from a platform one hundred feet high into three feet of water. The wind carried him out of his course, and his head struck the side of the canvass water tank, causing internal injuries.

—James A. McClain, of Spangler, spent Sunday with his mother.

—Charles Larimer, of Clearfield, spent Sunday with his parents here.

—Mrs. A. O. Furst departed for Milton where she will visit friends.

—Miss Helen Crissman is making an extended visit to relatives and friends at Sunbury.

—Harry Fenlon and wife are on a visit to friends in Johnstown, Ebensburg and Indiana, Pa.

—E. E. Ardery and wife departed for Punxsutawney where they will visit friends on a brief vacation.

—Mrs. Chas. McHugh with her four children are visiting at Mrs. McHugh's parents, Postmaster Montgomery.

—H. T. Confer and wife, of Warriors-mark, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guests of ex-sheriff Wm. A. Ishler and family.

—Prof. Kid McComb, the high diver, has fully recovered from his recent accident at Shamokin. In fact he only missed one dive.

—John M. Ward, a native of Bellefonte, the former well known ball player, at Long Branch, won the president's cup at the Hollywood Golf club, making a score of 40 out and 40 in and beating Arthur Lehman six up and six to play.

—D. E. Rothrock, of DuBois, formerly of Buffalo Run, met with a painful accident a few days ago. While running an edger in a planing mill a piece of board hit him on the right shoulder knocking it out of joint, which obliged him to take a vacation which he is spending at home, up Buffalo Run.

—Andrew B. Young, who for many years held the position as foreman on the Centre Democrat and later with the Republican of Bellefonte, has decided to move with his family to Philipsburg just as soon as he can get a suitable residence. He has been engaged as foreman of the Bituminous Record office over there.

—The Chinaman who recently opened a laundry in this place is a devout christian and a member of the M. E. church. In a call at our sanctum we observed he cherished the Bible highly and was concerned about the preservation of a copy of the sacred book he had with him that had been injured in the late fire in the McBride building.

—Because there was no rain on Wednesday, 15th, St. Swithin's Day, tradition has it that we are now to have forty days of fair weather. Well, last Friday night and Saturday blasted that superstition by 2.41 inches of rain—and clouds threatening more. The St. Swithin's Day sign is about as groundless as the ground hog day sign.

—A terrific thunder storm passed over this section at noon Monday. The rain came down in torrents accompanied by large hail. The discharges of lightning were terrific and the thunder was one continuous roar. The gutters of the streets in a few minutes became rushing torrents. The storm lasted nearly three quarters of an hour, the worst downpour of rain being during the first half hour.

—Through the assistance of the Pinkertons two more of the postoffice robbers caught in the Seven Mountains, and now in jail here, have been positively identified. The man who gave the name of James Ryan is James Daily. He was sent to the penitentiary for two years in February, 1900. The man who gave the name of William Palmer is John McCrae and he also was sent up for two years in February, 1898.

—The funeral on Saturday, 2 p. m., of Geo. L. Potter, despite the heavy rain, was largely attended by friends from here and a distance. The services were conducted by Rev. William Laurie, D. D., L. L. D., of the Presbyterian church. The following were the casket bearers: Col. Austin Curtin, Gen. John I. Curtin, John Thompson, J. C. Curtin, Wm. Thompson and James I. Thompson. Many beautiful floral offerings were received. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

—The parade of the Bellefonte fire department on Tuesday evening was quite a fine affair, and the citizens of the town and vicinity showed their appreciation of the treat by turning out en masse to witness the parade. The firemen were in full uniform, with their splendid steamers trimmed and illuminated, hose and hook and ladder carts; fire works were set off along the route of parade by enthusiastic lookers-on. The personnel of the Bellefonte fire companies will vie with any similar body in the state for fine physique and also for efficiency.

—Farmer Isaac FRAIN, who is a practical agriculturist, experimented somewhat last spring in potato culture; he tells the Centre Democrat, a variety called the Blue Farmer potato, a late tuber, he planted early in the spring with sprouts 4 to 6 inches long, and these have come up and are doing remarkably well. Another variety, called the Stray Beauty, were planted by neighbors some with sprouts broken off others with the sprouts on the tuber. Those that had the sprouts on when planted came up and are doing all right, while the seed that was planted with the sprouts broken off, failed to come up. Again—he planted potato sprouts from 4 to 6 inches in length, 12 inches apart, which grew and now are having potatoes as large as hulled walnuts.

—Rightnow got a lot of fish dynamiters right now.

—Mrs. J. A. Aikens was visiting friends at Pine Grove Mills.

—Ollie Meek, of the Philadelphia mint is visiting friends here.

—J. P. Eves, of Stormstown favored our sanctum with a call.

—Dr. Geo. F. Harris had the loss of a horse by death on Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kurtz departed for a month's stay at Warnersville, a health resort in Berks county.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parrish gave a progressive euchre party at their home in Petriken Hall Tuesday evening.

—Delong Stewart has been selected as secretary of the Centre County Fair Association to succeed John Blanchard.

—G. W. Rumberger, Unionville's genial townsman, called into the Democrat office just a minute, "to see the girls."

—Miss Edna, a daughter of J. C. Meyer, Esq., is visiting friends in Danville and other points.

—Charles E. Dorworth, of the Philadelphia Press staff, was a guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Dorworth.

—Mrs. John McSuley and three children returned home on Saturday, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, at Williamsport.

—Miss Gussie Smith upon whom an operation was performed a week ago, her many friends will be pleased to learn is improving.

—What's struck the matrimonial business—is the material run out? Register Arches only sent us two applications for the past 8 or 10 days.

—Clarence McClellen, a son of Charles McClellen has secured a good position in the erecting shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Altoona.

—A picnic cab now set struck almost any day at Hecla Park. The Sunday schools of Centre and Clinton counties are having a goodly share of them.

—Rev. E. H. Gearhart and wife of Ansville, former Lutheran pastor at Aaronsburg, were the guests of Prof. Garthoff on Bishop street, Monday and Tuesday.

—The members of the soliciting committee for the Fish Hatchery, take this method of thanking the citizens of Philipsburg and Snow Shoe for the substantial contributions in aid of the scheme.

—The Logan boys had a big turnout to their picnic yesterday. The crowd from this town and vicinity was unusually large. The day was excellent, a breeze going, no dust, and lots of amusements—day and evening.

—Mingle's great shoe sale is proving to be the shoe-selling event of the season—yesterday the crowd was larger than ever and as the week progresses it may become unweildy. When Mingle advertises a sale the people expect bargains and are not disappointed.

—A good opportunity to purchase excellent roller mill plant is offered by J. S. Auman, of Centre Hall, who desires to retire from business. The Centre Hall mill is one of the best plants in the county, having the trade of a large scope of country—see ad in another column of Democrat.

—Miss Minnie Grenninger, of Philadelphia, a pleasant and intelligent young lady, is visiting at Frank Galbraith's. Miss Minnie was a compositor in the Centre Democrat some four years. She now holds an excellent and lucrative position as operator of a monotype machine in a printing office. She is a daughter of A. M. Grenninger, dec'd., a former merchant of Coburn.

—Walter Garrity of the Seven Mts. was over shaking hands with his numberless friends. He had charge of the nitro glycerine and dynamite that he found in the Foust stable when the burglars were arrested, and took the explosives along to Williamsport for the hearing yesterday; however Walter did not have a hankering for hugging the stuff as closely as a fellow will his sweetheart.

—The burglars recently put into jail here, are getting anxious as the day of judgment approaches. It is settled that the United States will be the first to take the gentlemen in hand for trial for robbing postoffices. This will save Centre county the expense of trying them under the laws of the state for robbing citizens in this and Union counties. The wounded burglar, we are informed from the sheriff's office, is improving right along by the healing of the bullet wound he received when sheriff Taylor made the arrest of the burglars in the Seven mountains. The belief of many that this "quarto" were greenhorns at the business of safecracking and robbing, is not well founded. Identification within the last two or three weeks, of at least three of the caged birds, establishes the fact, that they were in states prison before. The wounded man is becoming abusive to the prison keeper, as time for trial closes in on them, and has even threatened to toss turkey Jerry Condo down over the banisters. Their treatment by the jail authorities is kind, however, but upon such characters it is as pearls thrown before swine. Prison knives belonging to plates of food sent to their cells, have been found turned into sawblades, of course with the intent of using same to cut through bars and rivets to make their escape. These discoveries had the effect of putting extra watch over them.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors.

A pretty lawn party was given at the home of Earnest Hess at Shingletown.

The annual harvest home picnic will be held in the Pine Hall grove on Saturday, July 25th. It will be a basket picnic.

Mrs. Miles Matters while stepping off the platform of the cistern at her home in Patton township, broke her left ankle in two places.

The Grand Island Presbyterian Sunday school of Lock Haven has arrangements made to picnic at Hecla Park on Thursday, July 30.

Married July 4, 1903, at Rebersburg, by Rev. S. Smith, John C. Frank, of Clinton county, and Lizzie M. Reninger, of near Rebersburg.

The First Baptist Sunday school of Lock Haven will picnic at Hecla August 5. All the parents and friends of the scholars are cordially invited to go along and enjoy the day.

Harvest hands are hard to get, even at $2 a day in Centre county, and some women have been impressed into the service. So say some of our exchanges, it's not true—the women are "pressed" to a more agreeable purpose.

The ladies of the Pleasant Gap Lutheran church will hold a festival Saturday evening, 25 inst. The Zion band will be present, and all the refreshments of the season will be served. Festival to be held in Noll's grove. All invited—for a good cause.

The citizens of Centre and Clinton counties, near the line will hold a picnic on Friday August 21st, in the grove one and one-half miles west of Blanchard. Refreshments, horse feed, lodging, etc., will be furnished. Everybody is invited, so have a good time, as great preparations are being made.

Rev. George F. Boggs, of Howard, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Mill Hill, was painfully hurt in an accident while driving the other day. One of the wheels came off the buggy which frightened the horse and threw the reverend gentleman to the ground. The horse stepped upon his leg and bruised him in other ways.

Mr. Patterson Supt. of the College farm reports a phenomenal crop of timothy and clover hay cut during the past week. From an eight acre field 21 loads were taken to the barns or an average of 3 1/2 tons per acre by weight. It is well known that two tons per acre is a good yield and the average for the State is about 1 1/2 tons per acre.

The Philipsburg Ledger says: John C. Row and John Van Pelt has purchased the piece of ground located on Pine street, opposite G. G. Parker's new property, size 615 feet on Pine street, which they intend to lay out in building lots and sell. This is one of the nicest pieces of land in this place, an elegant place to build. The purchase was made from Mrs. Austin Atherton.

The heavy storm which passed over the Pine Creek region Monday afternoon was attended by much havoc and destruction. The hail which fell at the time also did considerable damage. The barn of Alex Martin, near Larry's Creek, was struck and was consumed by flames. All of his live stock together with his farming implements and the crops, which were stored in the barn at the time, were totally destroyed. There was no insurance on the building and the whole thing is a loss. Lightning from the same storm struck the large barn of Dan'l Klingler, near Milton, which was destroyed by fire, including adjoining buildings, several head of cattle, pigs and chickens.

About seventy-five Italians, working on the electric railway, under Serranni, pardone, quit work on Tuesday and left for Clearfield to work in a fire brick plant over in that place. This leaves sixty left, who positively refused to follow the padrone. Mr. Scanlon, of the Scanlon Construction Co. says that about 150 more men, under an American foreman, will arrive in Philipsburg some day this week, and will be taken to a point near Munson where a large shanty has been built for the accommodation of 160 men.

According to the Chicago Tribune, which has tabulated the returns after the manner of those of an election, this year's celebration of Independence Day resulted in 53 killed and 3,665 injured; the loss of property, chiefly by fire, amounting to $400,625. In no battle of the Revolution did the American casualties approach these figures: Lockjaw brought on by injuries from toy pistols on the 4th must have killed close up to 100 boys.

—Rev. McArdie, of the Bellefonte Roman Catholic church, pays a deserved tribute to the deceased Pope Leo XIII, in another column of the Democrat.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

James Cummons, of Patton, sold oleomargarine without a license, and it cost him just $100 and costs for his fun.

A few days ago Harry Eyer, son of W. H. Eyer, of Bald Eagle, was accidentally shot in the left hand by a blank cartridge while handling a revolver.

The Emanuel Reformed church at Booneville in Sugar valley, having been remodeled and beautified at a cost of $1,350 will be formally rededicated next Sunday, the 26th inst. On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Rev. H. I. Crow will conduct the dedicatory services, assisted by Revs. Wetzel and George.

William Sleigh, of Gehartville, supervisor of Decatur township, was bitten by a rattlesnake while picking berries near Sandy Ridge. It appears that he had already cut the snake in two when he went to feeling in the grass to get the rattles from the snake, when he was bitten on the hand by the head half.

First National bank of Tyrone has purchased from the E. L. Study Estate, the important and valuable property occupying the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Tenth street, and taking in so much of the eligible town block at this location as to include extensive frontages on Pennsylvania and Blair avenues and Tenth and Herald streets. The consideration was $22,500.

The fourth anniversary of the Williams' re-union has been fixed for August 22. Committees on music, transportation, entertainment, and preparations of grounds are appointed. The invitation is general. The Williams re-union is a large affair and a notable local event. For information address Ida R. Williams, Martha, Pa.

Richard Schmidt, aged 17 years, with his father Charles Schmidt, of Elmira, N. Y., boarded an eastbound freight train at the water station east of Tyrone with the intention of beating their way to Harrisburg, when near Birmingham the boy lost his hold and was thrown falling on the tracks. The wheels caught him at the hips crushing him in two.

Playing with matches in a haymow, Edgar Bonham, aged four years, son of John Bonham, of Millersville, started a fire in which he was burned to death. Mrs. Bonham was taking a nap at the time; awaking and missing the boy looked out and saw the barn burning. Neighbors responded to her alarm, but the Bonham barn and an adjoining barn, belonging to Philip Ulrich, were completely destroyed.

While Charles Young and family were out for berries Tuesday afternoon, their house and barn at White Pine were struck by lightning, and together with their contents, burned to the ground. While living in the farm house of Dr. Ritter, which was burned in April, they lost nearly all of their household goods and had just gotten in shape for keeping house when they were again thrown out of a home.

A great strike of lead and zinc on the Federal Lead & Zinc company's mineral lands known as the Bridesbaugh farm, in Sinking Valley, is reported. The president, F. Bowman, of Williamsport, and six of the directors of the Federal Lead & Zinc company have been telegraphed for by their mining engineers who had struck a large vein of lead and zinc in shaft No. 9, after going down twenty-seven feet.

Harry A. Goss, a brakeman in the Altoona yard was jolted from the car on which he was riding and was rolled along the track for a considerable distance. The accident occurred shortly before 6 o'clock Sunday morning. His chest was crushed and he was dead when discovered. He was 21 years old, was born at Wigton, Clearfield county, and his mother, Mrs. A. Goss, and one sister, living at Osceola, survive.

J. L. McNitt, of Milroy, was convicted Monday for selling a deer to a party of hunters. The purchasers were from Coatsville. McNitt claims that the deer had been run by dogs and was played out, he then caught it and sold it to these hunters. He further says that he will pay $25 but not the $100 fine imposed by the magistrate. He has made an appeal to the county court. The deer cost the hunters $175, and they had paid $25 for it and were fined $100.

A few evenings ago two young men who were in an intoxicated condition stopped in front of W. H. Mann's residence in Mill Hill and began talking to a number of ladies who were sitting on the porch. Not knowing them, Mrs. Mann called for help, when a number of citizens went over and learned that the men had made insulting remarks. Hot words were passed between these peace disturbers and the citizens. The men, who were strangers, were given a good flogging and in a very short time disappeared.—Lock Haven Express.

Maggie Hunter, aged 15 years, of Williamsport, became ill on the street on Monday morning and was taken to the home of Mrs. Mary Stahl. She was later removed to her home. The girl says she took an aunt to the street cars, putting her on a car at Fourth and Hepburn streets, and immediately after leaving the car she was met by a stranger, who hypnotized her with a motion of his hand. They went into a hotel nearby, and took a drink, soon after which she was taken very ill. She suffered convulsions and was supposed to have been drugged.

State Commissioner of the Dairy and Food Department Warren stated that he had received some reports on the tests of the milk at Sunbury and Shamokin, and that sixteen suits had been ordered against milk dealers whose product had been found to be adulterated. Some of the samples had been "preserved" by the use of formaldehyde, a fluid containing material used in embalming, and was unfit for use.

Monday's hail storm struck many parts of the state, doing damage. Dr. N. Palmer Hoffman, of Philadelphia, had his hearing almost totally destroyed on Saturday. He was talking over a telephone during severe storm. When lightning struck the wire. He was knocked down and his ear drums were badly injured.

The wheat crop of Sinking valley, Blair county, has been the best in several years. The greater part is in the barn. Little hay has been made on account of the late growth of grass, which has been much benefited by the late rains.

THE perfection of fine engineering skill is evident in this: When the two headings of the new Galitzen tunnel met a few days ago, it was found that the work of the engineering corps had been so closely followed by the workmen who dug the excavation that the two openings lacked only one and one half inches of forming a perfect connection.

In politics nothing succeeds like a man who is his own successor in office.
