

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired.

—For a good milling property, read ad. of J. S. Auman.

—The Bellefonte Reformed congregation have concluded to close a contract for a $1500 organ.

—All of us in Centre county are on gleeful tip-toe over the establishment of a fish hatchery here.

—General John I. Curtin, and Colonel Amos Mullen, were to Williamsport to attend a reunion of their regiment.

—Samuel Hess and cousin George, of Altoona, visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hess at Bellefonte.

—There has been no move yet to build a large hotel at State College to take the place of the University Inn, destroyed by fire this summer.

—The Bellefonte Lutheran Sabbath school and congregation will hold a picnic at Hecla Park, on Wednesday, August 12. All invited.

—The annual picnic of the Sunday school and congregation of St. John's Reformed church, of this place, will be held at Hecla Park, on Friday, August 7th.

—A surprise party was given at the residence of Edward Nolan at Coleville Thursday night in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Nolan. There were about thirty guests present.

—The U. E. church and South Union Sunday school, will hold a festival at Hecla Park, August 16. The Zion band will be present and ice cream and other refreshments will be served.

—George Garbrick, across the way, is about erecting a new and enlarged porch to his pleasant residence, which will add to its out-door coziness these warm summer days when a shade bath is so genial.

—The M. E. Sabbath school of Bellefonte will have its annual picnic at Hecla Park, on Friday, August 14, being the same day the M. E. Sabbath school of Lock Haven will hold their picnic at the same place.

—When the burglars taken from here reached their destination, Williamsport, the big fellow—the one that was wounded—was able to point out to the escort, the courthouse, jail, etc. He had been there before. See?

—Miss Maude Miller is in charge of Geo. L. Potter's insurance office, until arrangements are made requiring a change. Several years experience with the work of the office has made her familiar with its details.

—Prof. Twitmore, a native of Zion, was an arrival here last week; he is well known to many in these parts. He resides in Seattle, where he has charge of the schools of that booming north western city, with its 110,000 population.

—Special services will be held in the Reformed church at Zion during this week as follows: Thursday and Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. On Sunday next the Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10:30 a. m. There will be no services in St. John's Reformed church, Bellefonte, next Sunday, except Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

—The fire escape inspector is going his rounds, visiting the towns for the purpose of finding whether the law directing the erection of fire escapes on buildings of three stories and over, has been complied with. He was in Bellefonte, a few days ago, we are informed, and directed the placing of escapes on such buildings that are without them. Reynolds' mill, and perhaps one or two other buildings, have fire escapes.

—Frank Bible, during his stay here, will busy himself in gathering data for a history of the Bible family. Something no family should neglect—yet so easily kept if facts are recorded from year to year. Some families find it almost impossible to trace to their grandfather or great-grandfather, knowing little or nothing of their ancestors—then comes the agony when some sharper comes around announcing, "there is a legacy in the bank of England," and you see him to look up where you came from. The Historical Review, printed in the Centre Democrat, from time to time, has already afforded many a clue, as to their ancestors, in the lists of names of early settlers we printed. Many of the Democrat readers wisely clipped these lists and pasted them in a scrap book valuable for reference. We could give the name of one reader of our Historical Review who thereby got trace of some valuable vacant lands and became owner of same.

—Apples are offered on wagons at 15 to 20 cents per peck.

—John Kuisley is improving from his illness, we are pleased to learn.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frain expect to go to housekeeping shortly on North Spring street.

—Potatoes are coming down—Saturday curb market they were offered at 20 cents per peck.

—The timothy, now being out, for hay in this county, is a large crop and the quality never was better.

—Callers in our sanctuary: Robert Hoffman, of Zion; James Coakley, of Yarnell; Chas. Shreffler, State College.

—Tomorrow, July 31, closes the trout season. The "speckled beauties" will now be safe to come out on land to eat grass.

—The days are all taken up for various picnics at Hecla Park, some two weeks ahead—mostly Sunday school outings.

—Pleasant callers in our sanctuary were: W. H. Long, of Howard; Mrs. R. I. Snyder, of Niagara Falls, and Mrs. W. L. Cook, of Howard.

—The base ball game at the Logan picnic at Hecla Park between Bellefonte and State College was close and exciting. Bellefonte won by score 6 to 4.

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings and daughter, Mrs. Hickok with little baby arrived home 2 p. m. Tuesday, after a two weeks' stay at Bedford Springs.

—The coming Centre county fair, to be held Oct. 6 to 9, is engaging the attention of the association in an endeavor to make it the best fair yet held here.

—In some of our mountain sections hucksters are buying huckleberries at 5 cents per quart, from the pickers—this is in districts where these berries are plenty.

—Every dashing rain that strikes this town washes down from jail hill several tons of earth. How long will it be until the hill is washed down to a level with the diamond?

—This far this summer our county has escaped fires by lightning, while a number of counties in other parts of the state have had some serious conflagrations from electric bolts.

—Dr. Locke has mechanics at work tearing out the interior of the stone building on Allegheny street, lately occupied by the Y. M. C. A., in order to a remodeling of the same.

—Charles Shreffler, tenant on the Thomas Decker farm near State College, informed the Democrat he harvested 1500 dozen (sheaves) from 42 acres of wheat. Next—who goes ahead of that?

—The equipments for the Bellefonte post office, will soon be on, when we may expect as handsome and convenient a post office as any town in the state. Dr. Brockerhoff, manager of the estate owning the building intends it shall be up to the times.

—An improvement well under way is the remodeling of the old Methodist church, with a brick casing, to be fitted up for the occupancy of two or three families. It will be an ornament to jail hill, where the unsightly church was a disfigure.

—Misses Edna Clark and Alice Davis, two young ladies of Williamsport, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Reamer. Miss Clark was a former teacher of the Coleville school, and has been engaged to teach one of the Williamsport schools for the next term.

—Col. E. J. Pruner purchased the "Black barn" farm, recently the property of the late Gov. Hastings, who purchased it from Robert Valentine for $9,000. Col. Pruner paid $6,500 for it, but it will be recalled that the barn was burned on July 4th decreasing the value of the property.

—While at work in the furniture shop a short time ago, John Lose, of this place, received an accidental blow on the joint of the first finger of his right hand, which at the time seemed to be harmless; now his entire hand to back of the wrist is badly swollen and he suffers a pain in the shoulder.

—Centre county pig raisers may feel refreshed over the following item—it is a grunter: At a two days' sale of Poland-China hogs at Macy, Indiana, the other day, 96 head brought over $60,000. One hog, "Idol Sunrise," brought about $17,957. The sum of $5,300 was paid by the Wilkinson Brothers, of Cynthiana, for a half interest in "Majestic Perfection."

—The report that scarcity of hands in Kansas was leaving the wheat crop unharvested and spoiling in the fields, and that farmers were offering $3.50 per day for harvest hands, proves to have been a hoax, and many who drifted to Kansas from the east to get the big wages now find themselves out to the amount of their expenses for trip—some were students. Whether any Centre county lads were hoaxed we did not learn. Guess hardly.

—The following patients were admitted to the hospital during the past week, John Shope, of Milesburg; Mrs. Augustina Laugher, of Scotia; Mrs. Lizzie Burkholder, of Centre Hill and Wm. Lyman, of Bellefonte. Morris Purey, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Margaret Amey, of Loveville, and Mrs. Frank Hunsinger, of Buffalo Run, have been discharged as cured. Cordelia Sager, the young girl who was injured on the Central railroad, underwent an operation for skin grafting Monday which proved quite successful.

—Miss Mildred Smith is visiting Mrs. Charles Trout at Tyrone.

—A heavy thunder gust set in yesterday noon with most rain outside of town.

—Miss Overton of the Academy is spending her vacation in New York City.

—Mrs. Jas. H. Mitchell is visiting at the home of John Mitchell at Pine Grove.

—John S. Auman advertises his grain house and coal yard, at Centre Hall, for rent.

—Nights and mornings have been quite cool this week—afternoons' sun warm.

—Rev. McArdie, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, departed for a week's sojourn at Atlantic City.

—The Christian Scientists, of Lock Haven, Bellefonte and Howard on Tuesday picniced at Hecla park.

—Charles Harrison has sold his well known bakery on Bishop street to Prof. John P. Harrison who took possession at once. The former has purchased the State College bakery and will locate there.

—The widow of Geo. L. Potter on Monday received a life insurance check from the Royal Arcanum for $3,000. We are informed the total life insurance, in various companies, will be about $10,000.

—Some weeks ago we printed an announcement of the organization of a new religious sect in the Loop, south precinct of Potter. We have not heard of the matter since—has it collapsed, or has it been postponed for mature deliberation on account of the gravity of the subject?

—A wall is now in course of erection along the banks of Spring Creek on Water street, from a short distance below the Potter-Hoy store to near the Central P/R. R. The wall is intended to protect the road against the ravages of floods; the washouts in times of high water having caused the bore considerable expense for repairs in past years. Stones for a heavy wall are convenient in the stream as well as along the street on either side.

—A correspondent of the Scientific American says: Let anyone who has a case of lockjaw take a quantity of turpentine, warm it, and pour it on the wound, no matter where it is and relief will follow in less than a minute. Nothing better can be applied to a severe cut or bruise than cold turpentine. It will give certain relief almost instantly. Turpentine is also a sovereign remedy for croup. Saturate and place the flannel on the throat and chest, and in each case three or four drops may be taken inwardly on a lump of sugar.

—We do hope that the readers of this paper will kindly remember that absolutely we will not publish "Resolutions, of respect" in these columns. It is an obsolete custom that is avoided by all modern publishers who place any value on their space or endeavor to fill their paper with interesting news. Don't send it to us, neither obituary poetry, which is another abomination. We owe it to our readers to furnish them with news, and propose to do so. We make this mention because several such communications went to the waste basket this week.

The department has refused to supply the city stores with names of the people along the mail routes.

The people of Philipsburg, says the Journal, were shocked Friday evening when the news spread that Robert Jordan, porter at the Continental hotel, had dropped dead while on duty. He served a penitentiary sentence of five years for the crime. Ryan, then giving his name as Charles Daley, was also arrested by Captain Barr for robbing the freight station and E. M. Swoop's store at Petersburg in January, 1900. He was in the penitentiary two years for that escapade.
