

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired.

—The oats crop in this county, on most farms, will be a full average.

—The Reformed congregation will picnic at Hecla Park to-morrow, August 7th.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boal, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mrs. Longwell.

—Blackberries are very plenty in the mountains and fine in quality; they are sold at 5cts per quart.

—Frank Nagney is having a hot water system placed in his new residence, on High street.

—W. H. Tibbens, adm'r, advertises the farm of Jacob Tibbens, dec'd, at public sale, in this issue.

—Miss Harriet Gilbert and Frank Hall, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok.

—Mrs. Thos. Moore and daughter Helen, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends and relatives in Bellefonte.

—S. F. Reasner, of State College, was a pleasant caller, Monday; also Joel Kerstetter, of Centre Hall.

—Misses Roxy and Helen Mingle, daughters of A. C. Mingle, of this city, have been visiting Miss Madge Sholey, of Tyrone.

—Mrs. H. S. Cooper and daughter, Emeline, of New York City, are guests of the Misses Benner at the latter's home on High street.

—Strohms Lose, Charles Anderson and Ben Brown left for Beaver Falls where they have all secured good positions with the Penn Bridge Company.

—A handsome funeral hearse, shipped to Hardman P. Harris, from Cincinnati, valued at $1500, was wrecked on the Penn'a railroad, beyond Pittsburg.

—J. Warren Wood and Miss Martha J. Faxon sprung a surprise on their friends Thursday afternoon, 31st by going quietly to the Episcopal rectory where they were married.

—J. A. Garthoff, the new substitute carrier, has been chasing over the town the past week learning just how the thing is done. As he has good wind and a pair of stout legs he should make a good one.

—Last Friday closed the trout season for this year. Quite a number of anglers were out with their poles to celebrate the event, but the "speckled beauties" were very indifferent and independent—they wouldn't bite.

—Farmer Lewis Rerick expects to start out next week to make a canvass of sections of Clinton county for the purpose of introducing his butter package among farmers and dairymen, who find it an excellent thing.

—C. A. Garbrick has been elected to a professorship in Mathematics and German in Eastern Academy, 700 N. Broad St., Phila. The position is an excellent one and he is well qualified to take it. The gentleman graduated from Bellefonte Academy in 1899 and from Princeton University, this year. Best wishes to him.

—State College, from reliable reports, will not have a new hotel to take the place of the burned University Inn. But the State College hotel has been purchased by a party, who will move the present building to the rear, and erect a large three story building on its foundation; the first floor to be occupied by stores, and the second and third floors be used for hotel purposes. This improvement is to occupy several lots, and have all needed capacity for the accommodation of the hotel trade of the place.

—The Free Methodists having held services in this place, in the open air, within the past ten days, and holding a lively camp meeting at Hunters Park, it may be of interest to many readers of the Centre Democrat to learn a few facts of that branch of Methodists. In 1898 there were 1,028 ministers; 1,229 churches and 28,134 communicants. There are several Free Methodist congregations in Bald Eagle valley. The Free Methodists claim they are the real, original Methodist church, and not seceders, as some are of the opinion.

—To-day state officials will arrive in Bellefonte to execute papers for the transfer of lands and springs near Bellefonte, for the fish hatchery, the money required from the citizens for the purchase of the same having been raised by the local committee. We can now look for work to commence in a short time for the erection of the hatchery. The grounds will be made attractive by ornamentation, and when in successful operation, many visitors, no doubt, will come to Bellefonte to see the fish and mudus operandi of breeding "speckled beauties," and summering a short time in this delightful vicinity. The visitors will be entertained at the Nittany County Club, where the deeds for the property at Pleasant Gap will be turned over to the state authorities.

—Mrs. James R. Pierpont is the guest of Miss Mary Brockerhoff.

—Rev. Miles O. Noll, of Carlisle, formerly pastor of the Reformed church at this place, during the past week visited friends here.

—No business of any special importance came up before last council, except the offering of an ordinance for keeping our streets clean.

—Herb Shaffer, of Pittsburg, spent several days of the past week fishing for bass in this section. He was not heard blowing about his luck.

—Mrs. Wittmer Smith and her son, Russel arrived home last Thursday from an extended visit with relatives in New York and Williamsport.

—Miss Gertrude Confer, of Yarnell, accompanied by a lady friend from Clearfield, called to see how work was done in a newspaper office.

—J. S. McCarger and wife left Saturday for their usual summer outing with the Equitable company's party. They will be gone about a month.

—The coming Centre county fair, to be held Oct. 6 to 9, is engaging the attention of the association in an endeavor to make it the best fair yet held here.

—Hon. A. O. Furst, wife and son James returned home Saturday from Macanaw Island, where they attended the convention of the Law League of America.

—Harvey Hagan, Wilford Luse, and Wm. Hagen, from across the mountain, were employed in Bellefonte last week putting up Mr. Garbrick's handsome porch.

—Miss Elsie Weaver left on Saturday for Philadelphia where she intends to live with her two brothers Harry and Philip who are employed in the Baldwin Locomotive works.

—Quite a number of Bellefonters attended at Lakemont Park, on Methodist day, last Thursday. The Bellefonte people on their return gave glowing accounts of the grand affair.

—Sumner Hosterman, Esq., a member of the Lancaster bar, was visiting his parents at Centre Hall, and gave the Democrat sanctum a brief call while in town on Monday. He was accompanied by his lady friend.

—Miss Mary Dougherty, of Lock Haven, returned Saturday from a visit to State College and Bellefonte. Shortly before taking the train at this place, she lost her pocketbook but did not discover her loss until she was on the train. In the pocketbook was all of her money, her baggage checks and some papers and visiting cards.

—The Democrat was pleased to have a call from Henry S. Emerich, of Chicago, accompanied by John Swartz, of Hubersburg. Mr. Emerich left Snyderstown in 1864, and is a son of Daniel Emerich, dec'd, of the latter place. It is now 32 years since he was here last, and he intends to remain as long as good grub holds out, of which he is the recipient constantly in this land of "milk and honey."

—Why not have something like the following in Bellefonte? The Altoona Times says: Mayor Hoyer will be asked by the board of health to carry out the provisions of the ordinance prohibiting spitting on the sidewalks. He will also be asked to give instructions to all patrolmen to warn each spitter he catches in the act that he is liable to a fine of $5, and to instruct the patrolmen to continue this for one week, and at the expiration of that time arrest every man caught using the sidewalk for a cuspidor. Fines and publicity are expected to do the rest.

—The Free Methodists have been holding open air services in town, on the sidewalk by the fountain, in the evenings, attracting quite an attentive crowd. Their presiding elder, with a staff of assistants in song and relating of experiences, were present. The Free Methodists have been holding a camp meeting at Hunters Park some two weeks, and find time to come down to Bellefonte and exhort in behalf of Christianity. Their songs are inspiring and of lively verse, to please the ear and awaken the heart. The Free Methodists have several congregations in this county.

—Last week Barber Beck made a trip to Philadelphia, and that is not an unusual thing these days, but the fact that a particular interesting young lady resides down there has aroused speculation. The result is a rumor that Beck "doubled up," which he denies. Now it is nobody's business what Beck did on the trip and he authorizes us to say emphatically that he is "not guilty," and just as soon as it takes place he will duly inform all his friends. Just at what stage matters stand, we can not say, only we notice that Brother Beck is an extremely happy man.

—Friday Co. B arrived home from their annual encampment near Somerset, Pa., at 11 p. m. They had fine weather for the outing and all were in best of spirits and good health. The boys came home elated for the reason that they took first rank in the 5th Regt. for general excellence and on last Thursday were awarded the D. H. Hastings gold medal. This trophy was presented to the regiment in 1882 when the late ex-Gov. D. H. Hastings was its Colonel and ever since has been the object of friendly rivalry at every encampment. Under Capt. Taylor's command, our company has always held a high position and the boys now are determined to assist the Captain in maintaining the same.

—Sheriff Taylor has eight boarders in his castle.

—Al. and Robt. Garman, of Tyrone, spent Sunday in town.

—J. H. White advertises a choice home, at Hecla park, at Private sale. See ad.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker returned the past week from their visit to Pleasantville, Pa.

—Remember, we have excellent facilities for turning out all kinds of job printing on short notice.

—Work on the new stone retaining wall along Spring Creek, is not progressing, as might be desired.

—The opera house is undergoing some needed repairs at present, and will be much improved when the season opens.

—James G. Parsons, who is employed in the Baldwin Locomotive Works at Philadelphia, is visiting friends in this city.

—R. F. Hunter and J. C. Meyer, who are out in the zinc fields of Joplin, Mo., have sent encouraging news home the past week.

—Paul Holloway connected with a drug store at Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Holloway.

—Mrs. A. S. Williams, of Port Matilda, was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital yesterday, for examination, by the physicians.

—Treasurer Philip D. Foster and family are having a summer outing by camping at a picturesque nook up along Spring Creek.

—Thursday's heavy rain—over an inch—did not raise the streams, as it came down moderately and was absorbed by the earth.

—Miss Charlotte Mackey and brother of Philadelphia, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker on East Linn street.

—Mrs. Sophia Hall, of Delaware, nee Keller, of Boalsburg, whose husband is an Episcopal minister, was a visitor in Bellefonte, yesterday.

—Frederick K. Foster, of Philadelphia, has purchased the insurance agency of the late Geo. L. Potter and will continue the business.

—Extra Boney, employed on Kramer's sawmill in the eastern end of Nittany valley, had the first and second fingers of his right hand badly lacerated Friday by a saw.

Application has been made for a charter for the new association to be known as "the Nittany Country Club," the successors to the Nittany Rod & Gun Club, at Hecla Park.

Tuesday morning, 28th, the large dwelling of S. D. Tice, about two miles west of Howard, was entirely destroyed by fire, including most of the contents. Loss $3,600, insurance $1,000.
