Zion.

The Union Sunday school at this place will hold a basket picnic at Hecla Park, Saturday Aug. The school should meet at the station not later than 8 o'clock.

The band festival on Saturday evening was quite a success and a nice sum was realized.

If you want to know whether there are any huckleberries on the ridge just ask Cora C. and Lettie M.

Miss Vernie Taylor, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Grace Sharer.

Last Wednesday night some one noticed a light in Boyd Noll's store room. Boyd was immediately notified about it. He then aroused several of our brave citizens and told them to go and see whether there was anyone in the store. He and his father-in-law got their revolvers and stood at the upper end of town watching for some one to be chased out of the store. But upon investigation it was found that Boyd had forgotten to turn out the light.

Edward Cole holds the record; his wheat threshed nearly 35 bushels to the acre.

Roy Hazel, who had lock-jaw, is improving.

Calvin Hoy, who is employed in the car shops at Renovo, spent Sunday with his parents.

Last week the Italians working at Gatesburg mine banks tried to run the Americans from the cuts but were driven themselves.

C. W. Fisher has accepted a position of clerking at Windber.

Fiedler.

Plenty of dry weather.

Warren Smith has his thrasher re-modeled by taking the blower off and putting a stacker in its place.

Henry Zerby and wife, Perry Winters and daughter Maggie, spent Sunday with Adam Winters.

Mrs. Franklin Weaver is spending a week with Mrs. Chas. Wolf.

The festival was well attended and the boys behaved well; but at the other one some of them had too much bully rum or bay rum.

Charles Zimmerman is running W. J. Smith's sawmill at Millheim.

Some of the Woodward girls had the misfortune of falling over a stump at the festival.

David Dorman and wife spent Sunday visiting at Coburn.

Geo. Spade and Miss Mabel Arney and her sister Ella, spent Sunday in Brushy Valley.

Ernest Stover, of Aaronsburg, was in our vicinity with his steam thrasher.

Clayton Bower, of this place, entertained the crowd of the P. O. S. A. festival very pleasantly by his phonograph, last Saturday.

Sam'l Kremer and son Milford went on a fishing trip to Cherry Run last Wednesday and Thursday.

We hear our schools will be supplied with Dorell and Robbin's arithmetics this coming term.

W. M. K. says he likes to sing "We'll not go home till morning" when Saturday comes. He must have a mighty sweet honey where'er she be.

Smithtown.

Messrs. Stover and Musser were after huckleberries and report them plenty.

Chas. Frankenbarger claims to be the champion stock raiser.

Clyde Lever, wife and two pretty little daughters of Johnstown, and Elsworth Bing and wife and little tot of Pittsburg, are resting at the home of Mrs. Bing.

Flora Brugger returned to Atlantic City to remain another year when she will graduate from the High school at that city.

The ladies aid society of the M. E. church realized $16 at their festival Saturday evening.

There was another wreck on the railroad on this side of Julian Tuesday, by which one car was destroyed and the track torn up about 600 ft.

Poor overseer, D. C. Hall, on Monday last, took a dear little boy baby, nine months old, child of the late Sherman Bennet, to the township home for the poor, where it will be reared and educated unless he can find a home for it in some private family. This is the third inmate to the Home, the first having been Jona Boney and wife, the former now deceased, and the latter will leave in a short time. The citizens of the township are highly elated with this new method of providing for the papers and they believe it will prove to be eminently successful.

Nathaniel Lindemuth, who lives about 4 miles west of town, lost a valuable cow a few days ago from a snake bite.

Wm. B. Turner is responsible for the following: He said he had about 100 young chickens, and for several weeks he discovered that that number was gradually decreasing. He laid the blame on the rats and concluded he would set a trap for the thief, but imagine his chagrin when next morning, he found a dead chicken dragged on and the trap sprung as much as to say, "there Billy, I recon' when you catch this rodent you'll catch a weasel asleep."

Our base ball team had another victory. They downed the Snow Shoe 9 to the tune of 15 to 10. They report it to have been a very close contest for the honors. Our boys speak highly of the manner in which they were treated by the Snow Shoe team and hope to return the compliment in the near future.
