

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings of a Week Over Centre County

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE

What Has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Houserville.

David Keller and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of G. S. Keller.

Earl Tibbens, of Axemann, visited his grandparents Wm. Tibbens west of town.

Wilbur Tibbens and wife and Geo. Scholl and wife spent Sunday at E. J. Scholl's.

The farm belonging to the Jacob Tibbens estate was sold at public auction last Saturday, Mrs. John Osman being the purchaser; consideration $740.

Rev. A. A. Black delivered an able temperance sermon, Sunday morning.

Jacob Houser is improving his property by putting a new roof on the mill.

Mrs. Fish and family, of Lewistown, and Mrs. Tate and family, of Axemann, visited their parents Uriah Stover's during the past week.

Some of our farmers are still engaged in seeding which has been retarded on account of the wet weather.

Benj. Gentzel, of Bellefonte, accompanied by an eastern buyer, were in this section last week looking up fat stock.

Mt. Hill.

John Confer who was visiting his sons George and Wm. in Indiana, returned home again last week.

E. C. Finkle made a business trip to Spring Mills one day last week.

Another free delivery in our town to deliver the children to school, but which we think is not quite right for if they haul some they ought to haul all.

Major Kern was the first one in our burg to cut his corn fodder. Jake knows when it is time.

Quite a few of this place attended granger picnic at Centre Hall last week.

C. O. Vonada spent Sunday with his uncle Wm. at Sober.

Mrs. Lydia Rishel is visiting a few days with her son Jerry.

On Wednesday night the special train which was run from grange park to Coburn killed a valuable cow for Henry Snively, quite bad luck for Mr. Snively as this is the second cow killed for him in a short time.

E. P. Zerby and wife were pleasant callers at O. A. Jamison on Sunday.

Loop.

Oh, say, who was the young couple from the Loop that had that misfortune of stumbling against that lamp post on the picnic grounds till the oil dropped off at his chin?

The scribe of the Loop was to see Wm. Colyer, of Centre Hall on Sunday; Mr. Colyer's health is not very encouraging, he is failing very fast.

Our boys of the Loop are about all ready to go to their places to work on Monday morning.

The old church on Zion hill was pretty well filled on Sunday evening, to hear our always ready Bro. Housman preach. Subject, Christ's Life on Earth, as near as we can get at it.

Solomon King living below the Old Fort spent Sunday in the Loop.

Miss Scarfoss is visiting at Wm. Lee's at Colyer.

Our boss coon hunters from Fruitton, turned their trade to hunting skunks last week by the smell of it.

Traveler's Gap.

John Musser and wife, of Sugar valley, were visiting their daughter Mrs. A. Confer a few days last week.

Charles and Jerry Ripka were visiting their sister, Mrs. W. B. Musser, over Sunday.

Willis Breen was home on Sunday.

William Smith and wife were visiting Mrs. Jamison, on Sunday.

I think there is a privilege given for people to get well educated about the school law which is in force.

The dull berries are about over for this season.

Conrad Auman will have public sale on Oct. 3rd.

Rev. Beirly and George Breen were visiting Conrad Auman, on Sunday.

Beech Creek.

Clayton Linn who was at the hospital returned home last Monday.

The Hubbard school opened Monday, Sept. 14, with twenty-nine scholars and Mr. Brungard as teacher.

If all reports are true there will be another wedding before long. How about it May.

Mrs. Lydia Mentzer is visiting her parents.

Ten Thousand Churches in the United States have used the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints.

Every church will be given a liberal quantity whenever they paint.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy thin paint in a can with a paint label on it.

8 and 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight gallons of L. & M., and mix six gallons of pure linseed oil with it.

You need only four gallons of L. & M. Paint, and three gallons of Oil mixed therewith to paint a good sized house.

Houses painted with these paints never grow shabby, even after 15 years. These celebrated paints are sold by The Racket, Bellefonte; J. W. Glasgow, Coburn.

Rebersburg.

Hettie and Kate Small, of State College, and Mrs. Weaver, from Aaronsburg, spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Gramley, now in her 89 year, and does her own house work.

Ed. Wolf, of Aaronsburg, was seen on our street.

Mrs. Reuben Meyer had a paralytic stroke Friday night.

J. J. Gramley received the sad message on Friday morning, that Hettie, daughter of their son Ammon Gramley, of Jacksonville, had died on Thursday night at the Lock Haven hospital, where her father had taken her to see if there was anything to save her life; the doctor pronounced it appendicitis. Funeral took place on Saturday at 2 o'clock.

Dan'l Harter sold his home and 40 acres of land to Henry Meyer and will move to Williamsport, perhaps this fall.

Sam'l Gephart moved to Woodward, where he is teaching school.

The old Evangelical church has been papered and painted inside and a new roof put on, and is a credit to the members.

The Reformed people are doing some repairs work on inside, and Beirly's are also building a woodshed to Reformed parsonage.

Rev. Wetzel's brother and family, from Bellefonte, came on Friday to visit his brother over Sunday.

Ammon Meyer, of Booneville, is here on a visit to his mother who is ill.

Our doctor is kept busy; some few typhoid cases; Mrs. Calvin Weaver is sick and don't seem to get any better.

We had three light frosts but no damage done to the corn, early corn they are commencing to cut.

Rev. Harman preached a very able Harvest Home sermon on Sunday morning.

PICTORIAL PUZZLE.

FIND A FISHERMAN, A PIPE AND AN ANCHOR.

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK'S PUZZLE.—With picture held in proper position white fish will be seen at lower edge in centre, headed down rapids. Second fish just to right has white head and striped body. Basket will be found between tree at upper right hand corner and edge of picture, if one turn to right is made.

Oak Hall.

Mary R. Dale is able to be about after a week's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross, of Jefferson county, Mr. Ross, of Pleasant Gap, and Ira Benner and wife, of Houserville, were recent guests of M. W. Benner and family.

Edwin K. Smith spent Sunday in Philadelphia.

Marian Riddle, of Pleasant Gap, spent last Sunday at the home of Mrs. E. B. Peters.

Pansy Knopf is visiting in Pittsburg.

Sam'l Knopf and wife, of State College, spent Sunday in town.

Margaret Peters was the guest of her friend Alma Homan, on Saturday night.

Anna Kaup, of Bellefonte, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Kaup.

Annie Kline, of Altoona, is visiting at home.

Jacob Rhone, of Pittsburg, was a guest at the home of B. F. Homan recently.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the Orange fair at the home of Henry Homan on Thursday evening, 24. Proceeds to be used for purchasing a library for the Lutheran Sunday school.

G. W. Keichline, of Pine Grove, spent Thursday night at Sunny Hillside.

B. F. Homan, wife and children, visited at John Homan's near Pine Grove on Sunday.

Geo. Scholl, of Houserville, transacted business in town Friday.

Plum Grove.

Grange picnic was well represented from here.

John Musser, of Loganton, visited his cousin W. H. Swartz.

Milton Snyder and family spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Calvin Swartz spent Sunday at Smith-town.

Harry Dinges, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Harvey Swartz received the sad news of the death of her uncle S. Q. Mingle which occurred in New York.

Cyrus Brungard and wife spent a few days with the latter's brother.

As Elmer Swartz and family were attending picnic Thursday of last week some inquisitive person wanted to see what was in their telescope in which they had different articles; they either needed clothes or thought that there was medicine there; beware the fellow is known.

Bruce Crozier, of Mifflin, Ezra Breen and Ray Weber, of Rebersburg, and Elmer Musser, of Zion, spent a few days at Philip Auman's.

Herbert Swartz and Sadie Hazel, of Madisonburg, and Elmer Swartz and family spent Sunday with the former's brother.

Sadie Weaver, of Farmers Mills, spent a few days with her sister Ada.

Amos Koch, of Rock, View, visited his brother.

Milesburg.

Harry Kinnie, of Baker City, Oregon, arrived home on Monday to visit his brother and sisters.

Mrs. Gertrude Martin, of Martinsburg, is visiting her sister Mrs. Allen Swyers.

Mrs. Frank Chapel, of Punksutawney, Andrew Koon and wife, of Rockview, and Mrs. Minnie Raymond, of Bellefonte, are guests of Mrs. Sam'l Swann, were called to the bed-side of Mrs. Nancy Swann who is lying very ill at this writing.

Chas. Zimmerman and family, of Tyrone, are guests of her mother, Mrs. Lucy Johnson.

Mrs. Clara Miles and Mrs. Cox, of Johnstown, are guests of Mrs. Annie Smith.

John Fulton, of Philipsburg, and Lucien Fulton, of McKeesport, after a brief visit to their mother returned home.

Mrs. Benj. Singleton, of Oil City, is a guest of Mrs. Wm. Walker.

Howard Crain, of Altoona, Sundayed with his parents.

A correction; the Evangelical's festival will take place on Saturday the 30th, instead of the 19, as reported to us; everybody invited to be present.

Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. Maggie Fink, of Altoona, and Mrs. Kate Naylor, of Tipton, were visitors in our section.

Mrs. Viola Baney, of Clearfield, was a caller here with her daughter, Mrs. Mable Nearhoof, whose baby is sick.

Mrs. Mary Pink was to Tipton on a visit to her daughter and to Osceola also to visit her son whose baby is very poorly with gastric fever.

Mrs. Lizzie Dixon has come home after a visit to Sandy Ridge.

The thrasher is in our section; some kinds of grain is a splendid turnout while others is poor.

John Nearhoof threshed so dozen wheat which turned out sixteen bushels and a half.

The farmers are kept back with their seeding on account of the wet weather.

Bessie Bltner began her term of school in our district on the 14th.

Cider making and apple butter boiling has begun in our valley—but apples are not plenty.

Nittany.

W. M. Maise, the marbleman of Howard, put up some tombstones in Snyder-town cemetery Monday.

W. M. Rossman accompanied Mr. Maise here Wednesday.

This place was all life on Saturday evening; there was a dog and pony show.

Rev. Price preached a good sermon Sunday evening to a full house.

Rev. Gohre and wife, the gospel workers, held an open air service at this place Sunday afternoon.

George Gates spent Sunday here.

Mrs. B. F. Crawford has been on the sick list.

Howard.

Mrs. Reuben Lucas spent part of last week in Muncy.

Dr. Wm. H. Hensyl left on Wednesday for Philadelphia, to complete his college course.

Mrs. Minor and Nan Lucas made a business trip to Bellefonte, on Friday.

John Robb was a visitor at Williamsport, on Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Weber left Wednesday for Staten Island to visit her sister Louise.

Wm. Long, of Fairmont, W. Va., visited his parents of this place.

Balser Weber and Howard Robb started for Mercersburg on Wednesday, where they will attend College.

Arthur Long, who is attending the Normal, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

Clyde Long returned from Williamsport on Tuesday evening carrying his arm in a sling. He had been severely burned in the rolling mill where he was employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Henderson departed for Windber, on Saturday morning.

Unless appearances are very misleading, the wedding bells will soon sound merrily on Walnut street.

Willie and Irene Strunk and Estella Hagens left on Tuesday evening for Philadelphia where they are attending "The Institute for the Deaf and Dumb."

Miss Mabel DeHaas, of Beech Creek, spent a short time with Mary Wilson.

Mrs. D. A. Artman and children are visiting her mother, at New Ber in.

Bertha Knoll, after visiting her mother for a few weeks, returned on Tuesday to Philadelphia, where she is employed as a trained nurse.

Blair Lathshaw is teaching the Henderson school, near Bellefonte.

Our neighbor, Hon. John A. Woodward, has received the appointment as Penna. Commr., to take charge of the Penna. Exhibits at St. Louis.

Wm. Wilhelm, of Buffalo and John Lauth, of Mexico, were visiting friends at Howard and vicinity.

The brick works are a go. Jess Lucas has been engaged in sinking shafts in different places and reports fire clay in abundance.

Miss Clara Hastings of Mill Hall, is visiting her mother at this place.

A pleasant surprise was in store for Walter Cooke on Saturday evening. On returning home, after closing his office, he found his home occupied by sixty or more guests, who warmly greeted him upon the anniversary of his birth.

The evening was pleasantly spent, and after partaking of a sumptuous repast prepared by Mrs. Cook, at midnight, after wishing Mr. Cook many happy returns of his birthday anniversary, the guests departed with a beautiful Morris chair and other valuable gifts.

J. D. Thompson left for Snow Shoe on Monday evening to visit his son J. A. John Long, of Tyrone, was a visitor in town over Sunday.

Elder J. W. Bush preached two very acceptable sermons, on Sunday in the Disciple church.

Miss Anna B. Lucas went shopping to Altoona, Saturday.

Miss Ivy Brungard, of Rote, who has been visiting Naomi and Charlotte Gross, returned to her home on Saturday.

The Chief Burgess says, "See the Street Commissioners;" the street commissioners say "See the Street Supervisor;" the street supervisor says, Go to Sheol; wonder who is running our town?

Druggist W. N. Leaser and wife, of Sunbury, were in town over Sunday.

The child of Harry Fletcher is dangerously ill.

Henry Thompson reports a heavy frost on the "Divide."

Vinton Schenck left Monday evening for Hayes Run, where he has secured employment in the brick works.

Centre Hall.

Had severe frosts Friday and Saturday last, but no harm done.

All is quiet again since the close of the picnic, which had a damper by the rain on Thursday.

Mrs. John Odenkirk was knocked down while crossing the street, by the carelessness of a bicycle rider, with painful effect.

Will Smith, living with Mrs. Barefoot, had a fine cow die a few days ago from some cause.

The familiar face of former barber Jerry Miller, now of DuBois, was seen here and during picnic and all glad to shake hands with him.

A mean sneak thief has been helping himself to some of the effects in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Love deceased, robbing drawers of linens and other articles. Even the homes of the dead are not spared in the eyes of some or safe against the long-fingered tribe.

Mrs. Goss, widow of Cyrus Goss, is in charge of Dr. Emerick's home since the death of Mrs. Emerick.

Boalsburg.

Mrs. Scott, of New York, spent a few days with L. Kimpfort and family.

Mrs. A. A. Black left Tuesday for Mercersburg.

Mrs. Geo. Widder, of Harrisburg, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. Barr.

Wm. Goheen and wife spent Friday at Spring Mills.

Mrs. Wierback, of Monessing and Mrs. Alfred Fisher and daughter, of McAllistersville, are visiting Mrs. Amanda Fisher.

Mrs. John Wieland and Mary Reich spent Saturday at State College.

Georges Valley.

Cleveland Gentzel, who was recently working at Penn Hall, is out of work for the present.

Harvey Wert is threshing in this vicinity for the last few days.

Reuben Wert is on the sick list, also Mrs. Wanne.

D. W. Sweetwood and wife spent Sunday at the home of Jeremiah Zettle.

Well, Jack Frost gave us a visit although no damage was done.

Cleveland Gentzel was helping A. D. Auman on Monday to pick apples.

Men of Oak

Timbers of oak keep the old homestead standing through the years. It pays to use the right stuff.

"Men of oak" are men in rugged health, men whose bodies are made of the soundest materials.

Childhood is the time to lay the foundation for a sturdy constitution that will last for years.

Scott's Emulsion is the right stuff.

Scott's Emulsion stimulates the growing powers of children, helps them build a firm foundation for a sturdy constitution.

Send for free sample.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409-415 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; at druggists.

Yarnell.

Merrell Butler, teacher of the Moose Run school, Sundayed here.

Rev. G. A. Sparks preached his farewell sermon on Sunday evening.

Those added to the sick list are: Mrs. Hannah Petzer, Mrs. Ira Confer and Miss Amber Confer.

Arthur Confer, of Milesburg, spent Sunday here.

Messrs. Ammon and James Klinger attended the grangers' picnic.

Misses Nancy and Irene Bailey visited last week at their home.

Mrs. Mary Walker, of Williamsport, and Etta Huffman visited here last week.

Toner and Martin Petzer left Monday for Mahaffey.

Wm. Shawley had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot, which is causing him much pain.

Mrs. Jonathan Packer is visiting at Karthaus.

Alfred Shank and wife spent Sunday at Bush Hollow.

Reval meeting will begin at the Baptist chapel the 13th of October.

Charles Klinger visited last week with his father-in-law, Mr. Woods, at Boalsburg.

Miles Walker, of Cato, passed through our town last week.

Israel Confer spent last week at his home in Zion.

The scribe will close this letter like the Irishman did, "If you don't get this let me know."

Potter Twp.

Our former residents George Stover and wife, of Altoona, were visiting old friends here.

We had several doses of frosts end of last week but no serious harm done.

Thomas Bartges, wife and two little girls, now living in Pittsburg, are visiting his parents on the farm at Earlystown.

The picnic last week engaged the attention of many, while others thought attention to their beated farm work was of first importance.

HAMLIN'S WIZARD OIL

FOR RHEUMATISM, LAME BACK, NEURALGIA, HEADACHE, EARACHE, CUTS, WOUNDS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, BURNS, SCALDS, SORE THROAT, DYPHTHERIA AND ALL PAIN LAMENESS, SORENESS, SWELLING AND INFLAMMATION.

50 CENTS ALL DRUGGISTS USED INTERNALLY AND EXTERNALLY.

A GOOD RUBBER HOT WATER BOTTLE

Is not simply a luxury, it has become a necessity in every well regulated family. If you suffer with cold feet or have neuralgia, or a pain in the shoulder, back or limbs. It is wonderful what relief you will get by laying a bottle of hot water along side of it. When you think of purchasing one, let us show you what we have. We know we can please you in both price and quality.

Green's Pharmacy,
Bush House Block,
BELLEFONTE, PENN'A.