THE RACKET

Just in; a complete line of knit goods in handsome designs and colors. Ladies' shawls, children's hoods, toques, waists, leggings, bootees, sacks etc. Also the celebrated Utopia yarns including Shetland floss, Saxony, Scotch knitting worsted, Spanish yarn, Germantown.

All kind of Blankets cotton and wool. Haps from 75 cents to $7. You can do better at the Racket;

they sell for cash.

RACKET STORE CO.

Correspondents' Department Centinued, from page 7.

High Valley.

Seeding is over, here; some are cutting corn fodder, but very little corn, and a small crop of buck wheat.

Did not hear of any fish basket yet, as the license is too high for George Rider; he said he can't see the point to come

Very little talk about the fall election, it seems that no one will take a hand in the matter; well it is just as good, as I never saw a poor man get any benefit, so let them fight. Mrs. Em'l Eisenhuth was laid up for one week, but now is up and around; headache was the trouble; no trouble to Eml. Roads was in the valley to look up his cattle; Eml is a fine man. Jacob Musser and wife were welcome visitors Sunday. Boyd Hoover who was employed in West Virginia, came in to have a chat with the scribe. Last Friday the scribe and Levi Spig-elmyer took a pleasure drive to Millheim to have a look at our Bellefonte

The scribe says it's always cheaper to feed one tramp than to feed two; as all tramps are big eaters.

Daniel Eisenbuth, of Pine Creek, was a caller Thursday,

A letter from A. H. Ulrich, of Altoona, back to Pennsvalley. says business is booming; Mr. Ulrich was one of our High valley gentlemen, was born and raised on the old Ulrich

Traveler's Gap.

Cutting corn is the go now, some are done, others have not started.

High valley scribe, wishing to call your attention, to Dr. Snyder, of High valley, he is a very emphatic man, he made his way to our town last week, suppose he was called, for, what I know, but nevertheless, his medicine is alright. Come again Dr.

I wonder what became of the Spring Mrs. John Haugh, Mrs. Jacob Ghaner, sister.

Mills scribe, is he dead? If he is, we Mrs. Parsons.

Mrs. must call Dr. Snyder because we can't afford to loose him; hello John where

Don't forget the sale next Saturday afternoon.

I. P. Smith made a great improve-ment to his home, by adding a new picket fence along Main street.

Our new fence law should be put in force, so some people would make their

Rev. Bierly, has started his protracted meeting in the Ev. church. It seems that the labor class of men are very scarce this year, you farmers, I guess you must just do like I do, top your corn yourself, and not charge 5cts. more for your wheat, at home, as you can get when you haul it to market.

Mt. Hill.

W. D. Zerby, of Bellefonte, accompanied by E. C. Ripka, were pleasant callers at O. A. Jamison's, on Sunday. Jacob Sanders, our up-to-date carpenter, put a new roof on E. C. Finkle's chicken house. Jerry Rishel and wife and Mrs. Della Wert, were welcome visitors at Elias Confer's on Sunday Elsie Corman, who is learning the milliner trade in Altoona can e home to pay her parents a short visit Ammon Rote accompanied by Perry

Wingard, were up to the Seven mountains at the Faust property, searching for the hidden money of the robbers, who were caught there; but the scribe has not yet heard of the fortune they Roy Hoover was a business caller at this place one evening. Lizzie Wolf, of Sober, was a business caller at Oscar Auman's, on Monday.

Clyde Vonada visited with his sister, Mrs. Andrew Shauver, on Sunday.

Margaret Snavely, was a caller at Jerry Rishels on Friday.

Georges Valley.

Hayes Zettle, of Penn Hall, spent Sunday in Georges valley. Apple picking is all the go Reuben Wert who was recently working at A. D. Auman's left for home Saturday on account of his illness, Cleveland Gentzel spent Sunday at Harvey Wert threshed for James Houser on Saturday.

Well, I wonder what became of Mt.

Union; suppose he is dead.

Milesburg.

Miss Mary Wright, of Philadelphia, was a guest of Miss Lorene Mattern. Mrs. Rebecca Green was summoned to McKeesport last week, her son Bernard's wife being very ill. Charles Lingle and wife returned home to Pitcairn after a pleasant visit Ira Proudfoot and wife, of Altoona, are visiting his mother, Mrs. Nancy Proudfoot.

Mrs. Will Shay and Miss Martha Gingher, of Howard, are guests of Mrs. A. S. Smith. Mrs. Ed. Campbell after a brief visit with Mrs. John Zimmerman returned home to New York City. Miss Edna Bullock, of Huntingdon, is visiting her parents L. C. Bullock and Miss Meda Bryan has resigned the postal clerkship, in the postoffice; Miss Rose Haupt, her successor in office, is now at the helm stamping.

Albert Owen is now able to be about Herbert Campbell met with an accident recently at Lingle's foundry, getting his foot burnt. Dan'l McKinley is papa again-s daughter arrived on Sunday. Miss May Aikey is improving slowly. Wm. Boggs, of Altoona, is visiting his son A. T. Boggs. The young men of the burg entertained on Thursday night, their lady friends at the home of Mrs. John A. Whiteman with an oyster supper; the band furnishing music for the occasion. Fifty persons partook of the eatables; everything passed off pleasantly.

Mrs. Fannie Campbell and Mrs. Susan Kunes, of McKeesport, are guests of her son, W. R. Campbell.

North Gregg.

Hello, here we are once more, not lost yet, still in the land of the living.

Dan Weaver said he will get a good corn crop and a lot of the second crop. Iosiah Rossman did his thrashing; his crop turned out fair.

Ben Limbert cut a bad gash in his thumb last week. Evans Yearick raised his potatoes, they were rotted very badly. Our supervisor is still improving the roads; glad of it, our roads needed it. Corn cutting is all the go; the farmers are well through with their seeding.

John Miller and wife, and Loyd Miller and wife visited Cal. Rishel's on Sunday. They had quite a rumpus down the valley; they took a man to Fort Taylor; that was right, make such come to justice. The Sunday schools are closed in the two churches for this fall, which should

We heard Mr. Musser will vacate the Vonada farm next spring, he will move on Sunday.

J. T. Frederick's came home to see his brother Thomas. J. S. Hov is still keeping bachelor's hall; why don't you get yourself a house keeper, you lost a good one, you ought to have another good one. The school teacher, Mr. Weaver, is Mrs. J. P. Wolf spent Sunday at Penn | well liked in Hoy's School District.

Well, Jack Frost gave us a visit although no damage was done. The farmers are busy cutting off corn. The wheat fields are beginning to look green through this vicinity.

The sick in our town are as follows:

Judson Williams, of Martha, gave us a call on Tuesday of last week.

I. S. Parsons and wife spent Sunday of last week with friends at State Col-

Miss Verna Thomas left on Tuesday

two months Prof. H. M. Miles and wife, of Port Matilda, were guests of Calvin Murtorffs on Wednesday. G. W. Williams and wife and W. H. Farber and wife were guests of Jay Woomer, of Graysville. Alda Stuart accompanied by his lady friend spent Sunday at his home in Port

Miss Grace Farber spent Sunday in

Mrs. John Reed and daughter Grace, of Graysville, spent a few days at the home of R. H. Reeds.

Filmore.

Cool mornings and hot afternoons are the order of the day. We are sorry to say that William Gross is quite ill at his home near this place. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Misses Maria and Harriet Taylor and Mrs. Katherine Burket raised a fine potais crop last Wednesday. They report no rotten potatoes.

Miss Fisher, of State College, visited her friend Miss Holt over Sunday. John Rockey, Sr., was ill for a few days but has almost entirely recovered his usual good health. Last Sunday was the quarterly com-munion services at the M. E. church. Rev. Eslinger preached one of his fine sermons and Mr. Kohn, of Graysville, listening to. Henry Norris was very much surprised and shocked to hear of the death of his youngest brother, George, of Pittsburg. We extend our warmest sympathy to the bereaved brother.

sang two solos which were indeed worth

West Brushvalley.

Fair, fair go to the Lewisburg fair. Nearly all are done sowing wheat. Minnie Grenoble Sundayed at home. C. E. Duck speut Sunday with G. E.

Rev. O. L. Buck preached a very able sermon in the Bethesda church on Sunday afternoon F. A. Yearick spent Sunday at S. A.

Loop.

Mrs. Reuben Boyer and her three children, formerly of Colyer, are visiting around the Loop stopping at John William Ripka and family, of State College, were visiting their friends around the Loop. ver's Saturday.

Mrs. Stewart Jordan is on the sick

Johnny Weaver is nursing a very sore hand brought on by a blood boil.

Say, John, did that fellow say "how do you do" to you tied up at the fence with a "kady" hat on that morning.

By the middle of the week you can see one of those labor saving machines erected on the farm of Wm. Lee.

B. F. Rickert, foreman for Wm. Colyer, has started to repair the old saw mill stand, at Colyer.

Mrs. Wesley Nevil, near Colyer, is reported seriously ill. We think J. T. Smith can beat the Loop for potatoes-for quantity and

William Lukenbauch, formerly photographer of Centre Hall, arrived in the Loop two weeks ago, and is starting in the business again in Boalsburg. Oh say, those merry makers of the Loop, arrived again at the home of John Horner on Sunday evening. R. R. Rickert, Harry Fiese, Fred Brown, Bois Brown, Orvis Horner, Miss Sallie Horner, and others, made the home ring with games and music; the best of all playing, "Button, button, who's got the button;" old and young enjoyed themselves to hear Mr. Horner laugh. Come Coburn.

Last Friday our landlord, Wm. Eckert, lost a valuable horse. He was leading the horse about when the animal reeled on his hind feet fell over and ruptured a blood vessel, which caused his death.

A. J. Harter and wife, of Altoona, are visiting the former's parents and Mrs. Edward Meyer, of Centre Hall, spent Saturday here.

Mrs. John H. Vonada is staying at the home of T. A. Hosterman, whose wife was seriously ill but is improving. Mrs. Virgie Noll and daughter Edith, of Lewisburg, spent Monday at A. J. John O. Bower, wife and daughter Grace, spent Sunday with friends at Aaronsburg. A very quiet wedding occurred here on Sunday evening, Sept. 13. The contracting parties being C. Corman, son of Adam Corman and Miss Mella Meyer, only daughter of Jacob W. Meyer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lauffer, of Aaronsburg. The happy couple went to Duguesne last Thursday where Mr. Corman is employed. We wish them a happy journey through life. R. T. Emerich, teacher of the grammar school, was at his home in Smullton Yarnell.

T. H. Malone and family visited over Sunday at Milesburg. Mrs. D. Boyer, who was attending the U. B. conference at Philipsburg, called home Saturday on account of the ducted the service. illness of her son, Brinsley.

Elmer and Charles Watson, of Moshan-Geo. and Winfield Walker, who are one day last week with Samantha Pow- the milking, on Wednesday of last week. nell, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Geo. McClincy, of Cross Forks, is visiting her father, Wm. Pownell. She was called home by the illness of her

Mrs. Harry Miller and family spent Sunday at the home of Lewis Miller, at Pleasant Valley. An accident happened here last Friday evening which might have resulted quite seriously. Dr. Kurtz was driving from this place to his home at Howard. for Elmira where she intends staying when his horse became frightened and ran away, throwing him out of the buggy. The wheels passed over him smashing his watch and he was considerably bruised. Mrs. John Eckley caught the horse and no damage was done the vehicle. Pine Creek Mills.

The farmers are busy cutting off corn which is a good crop.

The wheat fields are beginning to look Daniel Eisenhower went across the ountain to bring rye; when he got back the boys had wheat sowed. Miss Estel Rishel, Miss Marian Kerstetter, Miss Mary Spiglemyer, all from Coburn, spent Sunday at Mr. Dorman's, Pot Stover, the up-to-date farmer, is busy hauling lumber for George Kiester.

Sober.

Mrs. Johanna Gentzel was a guest of Wm. Vonada on Sunday. Miss Furl Auman spent Sunday at pring Mills. Two young sports, of Georgesvalley, and Lizzie Wolf and Bertha Steiger were out for a drive on Sunday evening.

Willis Breon, who worked for John Hosterman came home to remain. The big meeting has started in the VIN-TE-NA, The Great Nerve Tonic, Body Builder, Blood Purifier. A Specific for All Nervous Conditions requiring a onic-Strengthening Medicine. It makes Pure Blood; gives Strength and Vigor to both the Nervous and Muscular Systems. If not benefited money refunded. All druggists.

The dwelling house of Adam Schroyer in Logan township, near Greenburr, caught fire Monday night from an exploded lamp and burned to the ground, including all the house and effects.

SHINGLES.

For sale first class plastering lath; Guaged Pine shingles also Chestnut shingles. Call on or ad-JNO. I. GRAY & Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Aaronsburg.

Dr. J. D Hubler and wife, of Tylers-ville, spent one day with Mrs. Sara Charles

Mrs. Scott Stover and daughter, of Philipsburg, were seen at George E. Sto-

Mrs. Annie Wylie and daughter Mary have gone to their home in Mifflinburg. Miss Mary just got over a siege of ty-

Mrs. Kizzie Swabb has gone to Balti-more, Md., to buy her fall and winter millinery.

Mrs. Annie Mensch spent Saturday with friends in Bellefonte. Mrs. D. H. Lenker and daughter are visiting friends in Mifflinburg.

Sara Guisewite spent Sunday with her friend Grace Meyers in Millheim. Mrs. Sara Harper returned from a week's visit to friends at Linden Hall and Boalsburg Prof. Edgar Stoyer and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Stover's parents at Woodward.

Curt Karner and wife, of Hublersburg, were welcome guests of Mrs. Karner's sister, Mrs. Charles, over Sunday. Mrs. Clara Burd and daughter Miriam Sundayed with Mrs. Burd's son at Feid-

Miss Eva Meyers has returned to her home at Philadelphia after a few months' stay with her grandmother Musser.

Johnny Stover, of Wolf's Store, spent a few days with his sister Polly last week. Paul Swabb returned to Holsopple after a few weeks' stay with his mother. Miss Lisle Acker has gone to spend an ndefinite time with friends at State Col-

Fiedler.

Wallace Breon met with quite an accident while crosscutting on the mill of G. W. Wolf, cutting his two middle fingers very badly. Dr. Braucht dressed the David Leitzel spent Sunday with A. W. Winters.

The High valley scribe must have been in this part of the country selling some of his gas, as a certain young gentleman had a little too much on Thursday evening. Such people ought to join the W. Y. O. B. society and not accuse other ones when they are innocent.

Mrs. Sarah Lietzell is very poorly. Miss Annie Wolf, who had a slight attack of typhoid fever, is slowly improv-Mrs. W. I. Smith, who spent two weeks visiting in Downingtown, returned home again.

its a little giri. Mrs. William Smith is on the sick list, Levi Spigelmyer and family, Samuel Ard and family, spent Sunday visiting David Dorman's.

M. O. Stover is all over smiles, he says

Miss Minnie Grenoble and lady friend from Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of John Grenoble, also Thomas Miller, from Collens, W. Va. Death :- the death angela gain quietly visited our community, taking with i the soul of a well known and respected citizen, John Neidigh, aged 58 years, 7 months and 8 days. Rev. Loufer con-Daniel Neidigh and wife, of State Col-College, attended the funeral of his brother, John M. Neidigh. Mrs. Eml. Wetzel had the misfortune employed at Port Matilda, returned to have both bones of the forearm fractured, by being attacked by a vicious Lona Brown, of Plum Grove, spent bull, while in the barnyard trying to do

> John E. Rupp, of State College, paid a visit to his sister, Mrs. E. J. Hinds on last Monday. Mrs. Cornelius Musser, from Centre Mills, was pleasantly entertained at the > home of her mother, Mrs. Ambrose Haines, on Monday. Thos. Wolf, of Battletown, recently purchased Elmer Bartley's farm. Mrs. David Mingle and son, and > day at the home of Wallace Breon. Mrs. Joseph Leitzel, and Moses Stover continue to be very low with no hope for recovery in either case. Mrs. Leitzel suffers with cancer of the stomach, while Mr. Stover is helplessly paralized.

VIN-TE-NA for Depressed feeling, Exhausted Vitality, Nervous Debility and Diseases requiring a Tonic Strengthening Medicine. It cures quickly by making Pure Red Blood and replenish-

Frank Confer, of Woodward, spent Sun-

ing the Blood Supply. Benefit Guaran-teed or money refunded. All druggists.

Centre Hall.

All quiet since the picnic. Raising potatoes has been engaging farmers hereabouts of late. Many rots are found. Our town has turned out not a few doctors, and will have another to its credit in Hoffer Dale, who is now attending lectures in the medical college.

Dave Runkle, of Pittsburg, a former drover of Potter township, has been around here buying horses.

A stone walk is to be laid in front of the Lutheran church. Mrs. Annie Widder, nee Harpster, of Harrisburg, is visiting friends in her native home.

The flower bed in the upper side of Runkle's hotel is admired by all and the most beautiful plot of the kind in the vallev. Who will make a move to secure a few new industries for the town? Wake up; and put some substantial effort to the front-there is much favorable in our location and the need is apparent.

is the New and Better Breakfast Food, so different from all others that it pleases everybody. Get a package to-day at your grocers. THE GENESEE PURE FOOD CO., LE ROY, N. E.

Benore.

Rev. Eslinger delivered a fine address on Sunday evening in the M. E. church. John Haugh, wife and son Hubert were visiting friends over Sunday.

Mr. Kopp and family were visiting in Bellefonte one day last week.

Mr. Douglas, wife and daughter Sarah are visiting at Gatesburg. Mr. Lykens and family were visiting at Dungarven over Sundry. J. W. Baisor and wife were visiting at Dungarven.

There was a young couple thought they would take a stroll for chestnuts on Sunday; they came to a tree full and the young man said he was afraid to climb and the young lady said she was not and she went up the tree like a squirrel and trimmed the tree.

We have news that we are to have a new store at this place.

NEXT WEEK!

GREAT

Centre County fair.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

October 6th to 9th.

Special Return Trains

to Coburn----Thursday and Friday Evenings.

Evening Trains

to State College and down Nittany Valley each day after the Races.

All over the Store this week--particularly in our DRESS GOODS and CARPET Departments.

Dress Goods in Cheviots, Poplins and Granites, all wool material, formerly sold for $1, now at 50 CENTS.

Short lengths of Carpet at 1-3 OFF REGULAR PRICE.

New Fall & Winter Coats and Suits coming in every day.

KATZ & CO