Unionville.

Miles Irvin, son of Lanning Irvin, was instantly killed by a train of cars at or in the vicinity of Pittsburgh and was brought home on last Thursday and buried in the cemetery east of town on Friday afternoon. He was a bright, promising young man and his sad death cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood.

Some thief and vandal entered the stables of Wm. F. Fisher's sons on last Thursday night and stole two pairs of check lines and cut and destroyed a bride and a set of harness.

Little golden haired Malissa Bing, while watching her mother raising potatoes for dinner, discovered a fine, heavy, plain gold ring which the owner can have by proving property and paying $5 for this notice.

Two prospective brides were late arrivals in Union township; one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hossband, and the other at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Haines.

Joe Gill says he has a paper flour sack full of old coins which he will dispose of to the highest bidder.

Pauline Fred Smith is visiting at her uncle's Geo. Lucas, at Philipsburg.

After spending four weeks with friends in Somerset county, Mrs. Sadie Emerick returned home on Monday evening looking as bright and happy as a bride.

A 38 inch pike has been seen several times disporting himself in the Bald Eagle a short distance below the bridge. Boaz Musser tried to capture him with hook and tempting bait, but pike "winked the other eye" and scooted down the stream.

Ira Fisher, of Dunganville, is the successful teacher, that is teaching the young ideas how to shoot, at the Bush Hollow school in Union twp.

Annie Rich spent Sunday in Clearfield the guest of her sister Mamie.

Elizabeth Brown attended the Phi Kappa Sigma dance at State College on Friday evening.

Alice Hensley is confined to her bed with a serious attack of dyspepsia.

Earl Taten, editor of the Bellefonte Republican, transacted business in our town on Saturday. Two young ladies saw him passing along the street one of them exclaimed, "Good, ain't he purty." Now Earl, here's the chance of your life—you can have your pick for the asking and I assure you, that who ever gets a Unionville lass draws a first prize every time.

Harry Lindenmuth has a big black dog which he has named Jeffries because he whipped a little innocent pup. Elsie Bing has a little prize fighter of the bull dog variety; "Lindy" was anxious to have his dog "do up" "Jake's" prize bull "Barkis was willed" so they went down to the "reach," formed a ring and at it they went and in less time than it takes to tell it, Bin's dog had "Jeffries" by the throat and after "chewing" enough meat from the side of his neck for a good square meal, Lindy cried "ruff, ruff take him off" When released Jeffries made a bee line for home, across Fisher's field. Lindy now calls his dog Corbett.

Sugarvalley.

Mrs. John W. Group, (nee Mary Gephart) died in Rauchtown. A husband and three children survive her.

August Geyer, who lives near Logan-ton, is one of the oldest Masons in Clinton county and among the most faithful attendants upon the meetings of the order, and for 40 years he has been a regular attendant at one of these meetings each month. Most of the time Mr. Geyer has walked the distance of 16 miles to Lock Haven, both coming and going, through all kinds of weather, neither rain nor snow interfering with his attendance.

Amos Frank, of Eastville, in Greene township, died suddenly aged 60 years, and 6 months. He is survived by his wife and four sons and five daughters. Mr. Frank was seemingly as well as usual and had just eaten a hearty supper and sitting talking when he suddenly without any warning he fell over dead.

Mrs. Sam'l B. Snook died at her home in Greene township, last Saturday at noon of consumption, aged 28 years. Mrs. Snook was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jameson, of Greene township. She is survived by her husband, her father and mother.

Harry Small visited in Aaronburg, on Sunday.

Maggie Winte rs is able to be on again.

Mrs. John Emerick is seriously sick at this writing.

Quite a number of our people took in the sights of the Lewpsburg fair on Thursday.

W. J. Hackenburg, our genial merchant, was agreeably surprised on Friday evening, when word was sent to him that something was after his chickens. He started home on the run with gun in hand to meet the enemy, only to find his home crowded with friends from this and Penns valley in honor of his birthday anniversary; the evening was spent pleasantly after which all went home wishing him many returns of the event.

Nittany.

Dan. Diehl and wife are mourning the death of their infant son, born on last Thursday, and died on Saturday; was buried on Sunday afternoon.

W. M. Mauk and wife drove to Brookville to spend a week with Mrs. Mauk's uncle Mrs. Sally Alexander, of Millheim, is staying at the home of Mr. Mauk's during their absence.

On Sept. 29, there were nine ladies, with ages ranging from 55 to 83, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tolbert to celebrate the seventy-seventh birthday of Mrs. Rachael Rossman, and also to quilt. Mother Webb was the oldest one present; she is 83, and she did her share of quilting and did it nicely, so did all; those present were Mrs. Gansalus, Mrs. Showers, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Tate, Penina Shields, Mrs. Snavelly, Mother Webb, Mother Young and Mother Rossman; they had a very pleasant time together.

Smithtown.

Smith Bros. have most of the thrashing done in this section; they do good work.

Highvalley.

Henry Fryer, our boss carloader at Coburn played a fine trick on some stock raiser; he cut all the sunac away, and is preparing to cut the hemlock brush.

Ephraim Bartholomew, one of our honorable soldiers, says a poor man can't get any office where there is two cents in it, no matter, a republican or democrat; well he is right, as Bartholomew is honest and industrious, he should be remembered as a soldier; I am a democrat, but when a soldier is a cripple and is fit for a township office he should have it.

C. H. Weaver, our grain dealer at Coburn, showed me a brick that was made out of clay that he took off his land; the brick is a fine specimen, and can be seen at his office at the grain house.

John Stoner fetched his cattle on Friday, all but one, and that one he had to kill; that was in the spring but a sucking calf when he took it to the valley to pasture, and when killed it dressed 300 pounds. That showed that the valley had pasture, and plenty here yet; only keep the fire out and you are all welcome to pasture on my land and no damage asked.

Passing Blue Rock on Saturday. I failed to see the scribe. The Traveler's Gap scribe reminds me of Dr. Snyder; the Dr. understands his business, where he can't sell, no use for any one else to try.

I saw the Georgetown scribe; he is as jolly as ever, but is still sore in one shoulder.

Barnet Eisenhuth takes the lead for the biggest load of lumber that has been hauled to Coburn so far; after counting the number of feet, Henry Fryer says he could not pronounce it, and had to see G. W. Stover to give the definition.

I see in Fiedler items of last week that he mentions the High valley gas well; that is a mistake, for when I got my charter I was informed that the Fiedler scribe took a charter for a flowing well, to include Haines township; so you see I have no right to travel your territory; so if the gentleman you mention was under the influence of gas, he must get it from the flowing well, as that gas is dangerous. He must have had a smell of your breath; watch so it don't get the better of you, as flowing gas must be handled with care, especially when one has strong breath.

Oak Hall.

Jeremiah Zettle and J. D. Wagner made a flying trip to Centre Hall, Sunday afternoon.

STRONGEST EVIDENCE OF FAITH.

Bellefonte Guarantees that Hyomei Will Cure the Worst Case of Catarrh.

When one of the most reputable concerns in Bellefonte guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or he will refund the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of that remedy. It is in this way that S. Krumrine is selling Hyomei, the treatment that has made so many remarkable cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in Bellefonte and vicinity.

Hyomei is not a pill nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wineglass. Just breathe it by the aid of an inhaler that comes in every outfit and benefit will be seen from the first treatment.

It destroys all germ life in the air passages and lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, or of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membrane contains catarrhal germs, there Hyomei will do its work of healing. When using this treatment, the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountain high above the sea level, where grow balsamic trees and plants which make the air pure by giving off volatile antiseptic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs.

Remember that if Hyomei does not cure you S. Krumrine will refund your money. This is a good time to cure catarrh by this natural method and prevent catarrhal colds that are so common at this season.

PLATONIC LOVE DEFINED.

"Platonic affection is the penalty which one pays in old age for procrastination in one's youth. It is the phrase that one employs to restore one's self-respect when suffering from the watchful care of a husband. It is the theory of a Greek Sophist to define the attitude of a sculptor in regard to his marble. It defines the attitude of the marble in regard to the sculptor. It was the attitude of Galatea just before she began to live, and it is the attitude of the moralist just before he begins to die. It is the triumph of Logic over Love. It is the consolation of the man who is content with roses cut out of tissue paper. It is the comfort of the woman who thinks that a quill and a glass of water make an entirely satisfactory substitute for a nightgale in June. It is the banquet of the Barmecides. It is the epitaph on the grave of manhood. It is the slab on the grave of womanhood. It is the phrase that is shrieked out every hour from the cuckoo clock." It is an ode by Sappho written in water. It is the egg-shell that is treasured by a man when some one else is eating the omelet. It is the affection of the Doge of Venice for the Adriatic. It is the shortest way to the Divorce Court. It is a perpetual menace to a man and the severest threat that one can hold over the head of a woman. It is a lion with the toothache. It is the Sword of Damocles. It is Apollo in pyjamas. It is the fence upon which a man sits while he waits to see which way the cat will jump. It is a song the words of which have been lost and the music mislaid. It is entering on a property the title deeds of which are in the possession of some one else. It is offering a woman a loaf of bread when she is dying of thirst. It is offering a man a cup of water when he is dying of hunger. It is the purchase price paid by a fool for the fee-simple of a Castle in Spain. It is the fraudulent prospectus of a bogus company. It is the only thing that Nature abhors more than a vacuum. It is the triumph of the Vacuum over Nature. It is the last refuge of the rone. It is presenting a diet of confectionery for carnivora."

BELLEFONTE, PA.

OUR Millinery Department!

Seven people kept constantly at work makes business in this department boom. Although the weather has been against us during the past week, yet we are still rushed with orders.

Everybody wants their hat first, consequently the rush.

We are making special prices on a great many of our pattern hats. This season our aim shall be to always keep our stock fresh and bright. We don't want a pattern hat in stock over two weeks. If you want bargains in Millinery, come now. $3.50 buys a very pretty hat.

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S CLOAKS

Everything new and bright, and altogether a very pretty showing. We've a great stock of Children's Cloaks this season and we own them at the right price, too. To fit the youngsters we can give you coats in Corduroy, Velveteen or Cloth. For grown people Zybelines seem to be the favorite.

Compare our Ladies' Coats for $5 with those of our competitors.

EVERYTHING in FURS

A little too early to talk Furs, yet we are anxious to show our line. Any kind of Fur you want you will find on exhibition here. The styles this season are a trifle different from last season so let us post you before you buy.

We can give you Furs from $27.50 down to $1.75.
