

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired.

—“Fatal Wedding” at the opera house tonight.

—Read ad. of attorney Walker, trustee, for sale of the two Lucas farms.

—To-morrow October 16th, is Arbor day. Very few will observe the event.

—W. T. Neff, of Mt. Eagle, was in town to see the fair and favored the Democrat with a call.

—Louis Grauer, a son of Wm. Grauer, of Altoona, was operated on Friday in that city for appendicitis.

—F. S. Bing, of Snow Shoe, came down to see the fair and also looked in upon the Centre Democrat.

—Harry Bair, of Aaronsburg, employed in the Juniata railroad shops was a caller, on his visit to Aaronsburg.

—David Runkle, of Pittsburg, formerly cattle dealer of Potter township, was in town, no doubt on a stock buying trip.

—Calvin Gephart, of Somerset county, a native of Millheim, and a brother of M. G. Gephart of this place, is on a visit to friends in this county.

—Miss Nell Rowe, daughter of Recorder John C. Rowe, of Phillipsburg, spent the past week in town as the guest of Miss Bettie Heinle.

—C. C. Ramsey, wife and daughter Mary, of Pleasant Gap, were pleasant callers, and inspected the manner of getting out a newspaper.

—The fine weather this week promises to bring a large attendance to the fair. A carload of horses, for the fair races arrived on Tuesday, as new entries.

—On account of the illness of his mother, Dr. H. C. Holloway was called to Ohio, and for that reason there was no preaching in the Lutheran church last Sunday.

—Editor Harter has helped himself to a new bird dog, and will make war on pheasants, quail and turkeys to a degree that may overstock the market. Ye birds, fly high!

—Rev. Thos. W. Perks, for the past three years pastor of the United Brethren church, left Sunday morning with his family for his new field of usefulness at Madison, Pa.

—Daniel Nolan, who was firing a freight engine on the mountain between Tyrone and Phillipsburg, is at his home in this place nursing an injured foot received through an accident.

—The Gazette man, and wife, returned from his last week's bass fishing trip at McKees Falls. The only thing he had to boast of was good hotel grub at the Falls—bass were non est—non ate.

—H. B. Bathurst, of Bellwood; J. H. Bathurst, of Sabbath Rest; Moses Beahner, of Johnstown; Geo. Huss, of Spring Mills, were in town attending fair and business on Friday and called to see us.

—Mr. and Mrs. John C. McNaughton, of Philadelphia, have sent out invitations for the wedding reception of their daughter, Jean Kraft, and Dr. Edward H. Harris, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 21st.

—President Roosevelt should see that Billy Garman, the mail clerk, receives an increase in salary as a son has been enrolled on the family scroll the past week. A strenuous life deserves a fitting reward.

—Mr. Snyder, of College township, was a caller. He thinks the potato rot is not caused by a blight that attacks the leaves of the stalk, but it is a poisonous condition of the earth that first attacks the tubers.

—Edward M. Griest, who has been on the road for Platt-Barber & Co., since the Central Supply Co. closed its store here, is to be sent to Clearfield to direct a new branch house Platt-Barber & Co. are opening in that place.

—If some Bellefonte merchants get inched for keeping open doors on Sunday, they will have no reason to plead surprise. The Burgess announces that he will give no more warnings. Watch out if it may go with you like with the lot machines.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Burnside, of Philadelphia, were in town visiting friends the past week. She has an engagement for the winter at Belasco's playhouse in New York and is now studying her lines for a new play that will be put on there.

—Herb. Bartley, for several years pressman in the Gazette office, has accepted a position in a new job office being started at Lock Haven. The foreman in the Watchman office, Samuel Azeel, takes the place of Bartley in the Gazette office Nov. 1st.

—The Bellefonte Academy foot ball team went up against a snag last Saturday when they tackled the Lock Haven Normal team on the latter's grounds and were defeated by a score of 0 to 0. It was a good eye opener and will make the home team more alert.

—If you want to see a “Fatal Wedding” go to the opera house tonight.

—Guess there is no one to growl because there is sunshine and no rain this week.

—Chestnuts are small and not plenty enough to break Sunday hunting for them.

—The Coleville band is doing the music for the fair this week—and it knows how.

—Mrs. T. P. Carlin, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Claude Cook.

—Col. John A. Woodward was a business visitor in Bellefonte Monday and a caller in our sanctum.

—Michael Kelly, of West Beaver street, is confined in his home by serious illness of rheumatic fever.

—Mrs. Eber Rothrock, of DuBois, was an arrival on a week's visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ott.

—Sheriff Taylor was slightly under the weather several days of last week from a bad cold, but is about again.

—Misses Mary and Henrietta Butts, Emma Montgomery and Lulu Harper, were guests of Mrs. F. K. Lukenbach in Tyrone over Sunday.

—Dr. Seibert has been making improvements on his home, on north Allegheny street, among which is a concrete pavement now being laid.

—Christ Decker, of near Zion, was in town the other day. He is one of the few blessed with an abundant crop of apples in his orchard.

—W. J. Singer, Esq., took his departure on Wednesday for New York City where he expects to remain this winter. He has much improved in health during the past summer.

—We are told that the fair management will hereafter fix the fair dates one week later, hereafter, because of the earlier week almost invariably being more or less wet.

—Tuesday evening a mere handful of people went to the opera house to see the “Parrish Priest” and listened to a fine production. It was one of the best attractions of the season.

—Sam'l H. Williams, the long established paper hanger, has purchased the stock of Robt. Montgomery in the basement of Criders' stone building and will move there before long.

—Manager Garman has been giving the public some choice attractions this week. “Lovers Lane” and “Taming of the Shrew” were exceptionally fine. Better cannot be expected for this community.

—M. Guiser, of Kumundy, Marion county, Ill., is visiting friends in Nittany valley, his former home. On Wednesday he was in Bellefonte and accompanied with John Guiser, of Hecla, paid us a short call.

—Irvin Gray, of Stormstown, has several horses entered in the races at the fair this week. They were at Milton last week but rain prevented their racing. Other horses from other fairs are also here.

—Herman K. Robb, who presides over the repair department of A. C. Mingle's store is compelled to be off duty on account of an ulcer on the right eye. It is somewhat improved but has caused him considerable trouble.

—Prof. Angel, the eye specialist, will be at the Brockerhoff House, from Tuesday noon to Wednesday evening, October 20th and 21st. He has been meeting with much success in this community, and is highly recommended.

—The ladies of the Lutheran church are making great preparations for the fancy bazaar and oyster supper which they expect to hold in Petrikin Hall on the evenings of October 29 and 30. Give it your patronage—for the benefit of the church.

—The council has notified some of the town property owners as to grade for pavements now down. Some are not pleased with a change of grade as notice calls for. One thing is certain, some walks need looking after to have them decently passable.

—Picked winter apples are selling at 40 to 50 cents per bushel in this county; potatoes about the same—the rot used up many of the tubers, but for it, the crop would have been abundant and prices low. Corn is fairly well matured and under an average crop.

—The fair is under full swing now, with new entries and other expenses added—making it better than it would have been last week with all its good points. The management has all the needed snap to place the fair on a high plane, sparing no expense to make it so.

—The late rains with clear and warm sunshine now will be all that farmers could wish for. The fields are green and have a promising look. Fall work on the farm is also well on, notwithstanding farmers felt gloomy when the wet spell set in some three to four weeks ago. The season, later, helped them out, and favorable weather may last several weeks yet.

—The admissions to the fair last week, considering the very unpropitious weather, proved that the attractions were more than ordinary, since, as barely no attendance was expected, the admissions on Tuesday were up to 500; on Wednesday 3500, and on Friday 1500. The excellence of all about the fair has thus gone abroad and this week will bring large crowds in consequence.

VARIETY OF LOCAL NEWS

Gathered From Centre and Adjoining Counties

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors.

Geo. B. Simler, Sr., of Phillipsburg, has been an Odd Fellow sixty-three years.

John Nale, of Zieglerville, lost three cows last week by breaking into a corn field and getting an overdose of fodder.

John S. Auman, proprietor of the Centre Hall flouring mill, for the past two weeks has been ill with typhoid fever.

In the Lutheran church at Snydertown, communion will be celebrated on Sunday, Oct. 25 at 10:30 a. m. by F. M. Stover pastor.

J. C. Goheen, son of J. J. Goheen, of Rock Springs, was injured by a street car in Philadelphia. He is home at present, for “repairs.”

Ira C. Corman and J. W. Sunday, of near Pine Grove Mills, each lost a horse by being kicked. In both cases the legs of the horses were broken, and the animals had to be killed to end their misery.

Mrs. Hattie Walkey, of Hublersburg, was operated on one day recently for a tumor which was successfully removed by Dr. P. S. Fisher, of Zion, assisted by his nephew Dr. W. A. Caven, of Pittsburg.

The extensive lime kilns and quarries located in Benner township, formerly operated by W. H. Walker, now owned by the Centre county Lime company, are being enlarged so that the capacity will be about doubled.

Miss Harter, daughter of the late Dr. John F. Harter and Mrs. Charlotte H. Harter and Robert W. Salisbury, of Pittsburg, were married on Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's mother at Millheim. They will reside at Pittsburg.

W. C. Rothrock, proprietor of the People's restaurant, Lock Haven, and Miss Birdie Woodring, of Port Matilda, were quietly married at the home of a relative at Huntingdon. Rev. S. S. Birgen, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Port Matilda, officiated.

William Lytle's little 5 year old daughter Myrtle died on 5, at Mackeyville, of meningitis and her body was taken to State College, their former home for burial. The little girl's mother is very ill and unable to be out of bed and consequently could not attend her child's funeral.

J. F. Rearick, of Spring Mills, has gone to Lewisburg, where he will look after the interests of Sober's acetylene light machines. His wife and daughter next week will leave for Pasadena, California, where they expect to make their future home, and where Mr. Rearick will join them next spring.

Ralph Houck was out in the barrens hunting some cattle and his horse became frightened, throwing him off. His foot caught in the stirrup and he was dragged a considerable distance. He was badly used up and if it had not been for the assistance of Colonel Beck's men, who were working near by, he would very likely have been killed.

Phillipsburg is elated over the prospects in securing a hosiery and knitting factory. The Board of Trade, through its officers, is actively engaged in arranging all the details. William Wolf, the miller, at Phillipsburg, has agreed to lease his mill at a nominal rental for a term of five years. Phillipsburg people are contributing very cheerfully towards raising the necessary bonus required, and it now looks as though the plant is a sure thing.

At Pine Grove on Wednesday evening of last week, J. C. Eiters, D. D. G. M., and brother J. C. Wasson, of Lemont, installed the officers elect of Penns valley Lodge I. O. O. F., 276, for the coming year. They were Homer Walder, N. G.; Harry McCracken, V. G.; M. E. Heberling, secretary; John E. Bressler, assistant secretary; J. G. Heberling, treasurer; Dr. R. M. Krebs, chaplain; Wm. H. Fry, warden; J. B. Heberling, conductor; J. W. Fry, R. S. to N. G.; George Irvin, L. S. to N. G.; W. S. Ward, R. S. to V. G.; Alf Bowersox, L. S. to V. G.; Mt. Harpeter, R. S. S.; William Irvin, L. S. S.; G. E. Harper, I. G.; and A. J. Tate, O. G.

The workings of the Aaronsburg high school are summed up as follows: The principal Edgar S. Stover, closed his first month with an attendance of 21—males 5, females 16; per cent of attendance males 93, females 98. The secondary school, attendance 29—males 16, females 13. The primary, Wm. Mingle teacher, attendance 45—males 27, females 18. The teachers join in giving the directors credit for the grading of a township high school, as tending to much good. Looking back into Haines township's history, we find that men of note and distinction had secured their early training within the very walls which have lately been converted into a township high school, but then known as the Aaronsburg Academy.

Governor Pennypacker appointed Austin Curtin, of Roland, one of the members of the Vicksburg battlefield memorial commission.

Miss Grace Barber of the Philadelphia school of Oratory, will give a recital in the Presbyterian church at Boalsburg, on Oct. 22nd, at 7:30 p. m. All are invited. Proceeds for missions.

On account of several cases of small-pox the schools at Oak Hall have been closed and every precaution is being taken to stop the spread of the disease. It is said to be in a mild form and an epidemic of the disease is not feared.

The number of miles of public roads in Lycoming county is 1836 as reported to the commissioners. By the tabulated list printed in the Centre Democrat last week, this county has 1144 miles of roads in addition to 30 miles of pike.

There will be German preaching next Sunday 18, at Madisonburg in forenoon at 10 and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock; in the Yearick church in German by the pastor. Rev. I. E. Spangler, of Baltimore, will preach at Rebersburg, at 10 a. m., and at Wolf's Store in the evening at 7:15. Revival services at Wolf's begin on Wednesday evening and will be continued for several weeks. All are invited to attend.

Phillipsburg Stabbing.

Tuesday evening Thomas Cole and John Erb met in front of the American Hotel Phillipsburg and started a quarrel. In the scuffle Cole fell to the pavement bleeding from many wounds. He was conveyed to the hospital where his condition was found very serious, suffering from numerous knife wounds.

Erb has offered to give himself up and telephoned for District Attorney Spangler to come out and investigate the case. Cole is a married man and the son of Henry Cole, of Phillipsburg. Erb is also married and is in the restaurant business at that place.

Game Season Opens.

This morning Bellefonte nimrods were seen striking for the woods in every direction, and there was a large bunch of them. Everybody that had a gun and time to spare took to the woods, and the banging echoed from hillside and valley. The legal season opened for all kinds of game, except rabbit, deer and elk, which are protected until November 1st.

—Mrs. Clement Dale is in Philadelphia visiting friends.

—Katz & Co. are in need of an errand boy. Apply at once.

—Special trains every ten minutes today from the Central R. R. to the fair ground.

—James A. Pieder, one of Curtin township teachers, attended the fair yesterday.

—John Kaup, who has been working in a large machine shop in Monongahalia City, has returned home.

—Mrs. Sarah Hartman, of this place, is quite ill at her home on South Potter street with typhoid fever.

—On Monday the post office robbers captured in the Seven Mountains, will be under trial in U. S. court at Scranton.

—Rev. T. J. Askew, pastor of the A. M. E. church is attending the General Conference in session in East End, Pittsburg.

—During the past week many small-pox rumors were afloat about town—as a result of investigation we found everything grossly exaggerated.

—Wednesday evening some new horses arrived in a special car that will be in the races today and tomorrow. It is said there are a few rare ones in the bunch.

—Mrs. Abram Frey, of Pittsburg, stopped in Bellefonte today with J. W. Houser and family while on her way home after a visit to Centre county friends.

—Joe Thompson, while driving Robert Morris' mare yesterday, went through a tumble and smash up. Joe and the mare escaped unhurt, but the buggy was a sight.

—John Gaisewite, Tuesday afternoon while at work at the Lingle foundry, was moving a heavy casting when he strained his breast and shoulders causing excruciating suffering.

—Editor Bressler of the Lock Haven Times came up on Wednesday on business and incidentally took in the county fair. Lock Haven people certainly do like to seek the horses go.

—Robert Moyer, baggage master on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, is off duty as a result of caring for a crushed thumb on his right hand which occurred on Saturday while coupling cars.

—Gilbert Beaver, son of General Beaver, met with a serious accident Saturday afternoon in New York City. Mr. Beaver is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in that metropolis. Saturday afternoon while riding his bicycle on one of the thoroughfares of the city he attempted to pass between a trolley car and a wagon. The space however, proved too narrow and he was thrown first against the trolley car and then to the ground sustaining serious injuries. He was removed to his home and his parents Gen. and Mrs. James A. Beaver were telegraphed for, they leaving at once for his bedside. At first it was reported that his skull was fractured but such was not the case and he is much improved.
