

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired.

Our correspondents give mention of hunters' luck.

Edgar Bechdel, of Blanchard, gave our sanctum a call.

C. J. Styers and wife, of Mackeyville, were pleasant callers.

Bear meat at 20 cents per pound, certainly is not dear (deer) meat.

Wild turkeys seem to be plenty, much to the delight of the shootists.

Osmer Auman, wife and son, were callers to see how papers are printed.

J. H. B. Hartman, of Millheim, paid his respects to our sanctum during fair.

Our venerable friend Elias Vonada, of Zion, favored our sanctum with a call.

Jacob Emerick, a well-known citizen of Coburn, favored the Democrat with a call.

A. L. Auman, and son, Allen, of Spring Mills, favored our sanctum with a call.

James Griffin and, son, of Stormstown, was a caller, while down seeing the fair.

Harris Watson, of Clarence, was in to look at the fair, and also gave the Democrat a call.

J. L. Kreamer, of Haines, and one of his neighbors, transacted business in town last week.

J. H. Liddick, of Hecla, gave us a call while here looking in on the wonders of the fair.

Ira Snyder, of near Coburn, was a caller—he is having a demand for his medicine, Electric Liquid.

Sam'l Ard, one of the representative citizens of Coburn, was up to see the fair and also gave our sanctum a peep.

A light sprinkle of snow "big" as pin points, made its appearance Sunday afternoon, but no sleigh bells jingled.

W. H. Corman, of Zion, D. K. Geiss, of Centre Hall, spent an hour in our sanctum. Mr. Corman would like to buy a small farm of 50 to 60 acres.

The Phillipsburg Ledger assures the school teachers in Centre county that they can secure boarding at the hotels at from $1.25 to $1.50 per day and at private homes at $1.00 per day.

Ed. McGarvey, now located at Youngstown, Ohio, superintending the manufacture of some of his electrical patents, spent several days of the past week, visiting at his home in Bellefonte.

Quite a number of bears have already been killed this fall, although by hunters not out after bear. While hunting for smaller game such as wild turkeys, pheasants and squirrels, brain was met in a number of cases and killed with bird shot. This is an unusual occurrence.

L. K. Schreckengast, of Union county, was a pleasant caller. He informs us peaches were a failure through Union county. One farmer at tight end has an orchard of five thousand trees, and his crop of peaches amounted to only ninety bushels. In Snyder county he also informs us the peaches were likewise a failure.

The mountains are presenting a charming appearance. Nature has brought out the autumnal tints upon all foliage, and the entire landscape presents a scene of charming beauty. The lover of the beautiful in Nature can now feast his eyes upon what will delight the soul—and it is open and free to all, rich and poor.

The usual number of hunting accidents, incident to the opening of the campaign, have already been reported from different counties. In our own county thus far there have been no accidental shootings since the season opened on Thursday last. May there be none to report for the balance of the season, and may our nimrods be blessed with good luck.

During the week a convenient blotter on which is some useful information, was printed at this office for free distribution. It was carefully prepared to show the time of departure of all trains from Bellefonte, the time when the mail pouches are closed at the Bellefonte post office, and how far each train carries mail. This information is specially useful to our business men and all were anxious to have the blotter. We have a supply left over, you can have some for the asking, by calling at this office.

Last Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, Charles, a young 14-year-old son of Joseph Wallace, of Weicker, near Pardee, went out to the cornfield in company with his father to watch for a bear that kept feeding on their corn. The two were in different parts of the field and Charles came upon brain first, and at a distance of about 30 feet, sent a ball into brain's neck; the bear toddled off about 100 yards then dropped over dead. The bear was fat and weighed 250 pounds. This item was given us by L. K. Schreckengast.

Chas. Houser's sale—see register.

R. D. Biglow, of Phillipsburg, gave the Democrat a pleasant call.

Mrs. Sankey's sale at Potters Mills will be found in the sale register.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the opera house next Wednesday evening, 28.

Sunday was an autumn day—wind raw and the "sear and yellow leaf" falling.

More concrete pavements, especially along some premises, would be an improvement.

During the last Saturday afternoon two teams played football in the mud on the fair ground. The proper name for football, at its best, would be hog-ball.

About this time o' year the corn husking bees would be arranged—but with many of the good things of ye olden days, they are a thing of the past.

Capt. T. D. Black, of Fremont, Neb., arrived here on a visit to his sister Miss Margaret Black, who makes her home with her cousin Mrs. Clement Dale.

This year the foot ball game of the season will be played at the Fair grounds next Saturday at 3 p. m., between the Lock Haven Normal and the Academy.

At a late meeting of the Central Penn'a Lutheran Synod William P. Kuhn of this place, was elected a director of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg.

The case of the Centre county post-office robbers was called in the United States Court, at Scranton, Tuesday afternoon, and it is expected to occupy considerable time.

George Armstrong Jacobs, of State College, who is 76 years old and took out a license to marry Catharine F. McElwain, of Howard, who is 67, and now the two are one.

Ex-commissioner H. C. Campbell and wife were in town yesterday, shopping and on other business bent. Mr. Campbell is one of the old commissioners with a good record.

Mr. Broucher, of Millmont, one night a short time ago, had his fish basket, licensed, set in Penns creek, about two miles above Pardee, and caught 900 eels, some were old Penns creek whoppers.

Rumors were afloat to the effect that one or two children of Ellis Horner of South Spring street were ill with small pox. He says there is no small pox in his family and there is no one sick and they have had no doctor.

A woman called at the Prothonotary's office a few days ago and lifted a decree in divorce that had just been granted her and then stepped right across the hall and took out a license to get married to another man.

Mrs. W. P. Kuhn, of Bellefonte, historian of the W. H. and F. M. Society spent Sunday with the family of Rev. W. K. Diehl. She read her report to a special meeting of the local society Sunday afternoon.—Middleburg Post.

Rev. Dr. Holloway is preaching a series of sermons on Sunday night on, "A Study of Luther and the Reformation," which are listened to by large congregations. The subject for next Sunday evening will be "The Rise of the Reformation."

The Phillipsburg eleven drove over to Bellefonte on Saturday and played foot ball with the Academy boys on the Fair grounds. The game was played in the rain before a fair sized crowd of enthusiasts and resulted in favor of the Academy team by a score of 20-0.

Geo. I. Yearick, formerly of Mill Hall, and a Centre county young man, who recently graduated from a medical college in Philadelphia, writes us that he is now permanently located at Brockwayville, Pa., where he will practice medicine and has bright prospects.

The ladies of the Lutheran church are preparing, on an extensive scale, for a bazaar and oyster supper, which they will hold in Petriken Hall, Thursday and Friday Oct. 29 and 30, beginning at 5 p. m. If you want some useful and fancy articles, as well as a good supper then be sure and give them a call.

Juo C. Morris, district manager North Western Mutual Life Insurance Company, after accompanying his mother to Dakota, Ill., where she expects to spend some time with her daughters, Mrs. Thos. J. Shaffer and Rose B. Morris who is engaged as teacher in the public schools at that place, has returned well pleased with his trip.

Relating to the claim of the Moser heirs to a large tract of coal lands in Schuylkill county, and the assertion that Schuykhill Moser was a myth, Mrs. Caroline Musser, of Greenburr, writes the Democrat, Oct. 19, as follows: "In regard to the Moser heirs, I would say that there are two witnesses in Sugar valley, who saw Burkhardt Moser, when he had been to Millheim to see his brother Philip when he was sick."

The True Born American at the opera house, Monday evening, 26, and the Count of Monto Christo on Tuesday evening, 27. The Salem Observer says: Fredrick H. Wilson is one of the most "catchy" comedians, who has dazzled us in some time. His methods are clean cut, and thoroughly artistic. One of the most commendable features of the production of both Monday and Tuesday was the absence of that "ragged edge" style, which is seemingly inseparable from the average traveling stock company. Popular prices—10, 20 and 30 cents.

Ira Bartges sale, see register.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Tracy Strohm of Scranton, Pa., were visitors in Bellefonte.

Marcellus Sankey and his sister, Miss Edith, of Potter's Mills, were visitors here.

Postmaster Montgomery and daughter, Miss Emma, left for a ten days sojourn at Atlantic City.

Ex-commissioner George Swab, was in town yesterday—the county never had a more upright official.

This would not have been a bad fair week. But the same week next year might be awfully awful.

Charles E. Dorworth, of the Philadelphia Press, was an arrival in town the guest of his parents.

Mrs. Mollie Valentine, who has been spending the summer in Iowa and California, returned Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bell, of East Howard street, are visiting friends in Wilkinsburg and Pittsburg.

Mrs. John P. Harris and Mrs. Sam'l Sheffer attended the W. C. T. U. convention at Altoona, last week.

Robt. Hunter has purchased the handsome property on Linn street recently occupied by the Hoy family.

Miss Romie VanPelt left Saturday for Chambersburg to enter Wilson College where she will continue her musical course.

Miss Nan Collins, a daughter of Peter Collins, of St. David's, is visiting her aunt, Miss Sallis Collins, in this place.

Frank Shugert is now extra passenger brakeman on the Tyrone & Clearfield and Bald Eagle Valley Divisions of the P. R. R.

A. A. Hoffman and wife, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker left for their home at Pleasantville, last Friday.

Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler left last Thursday for Norfolk, Va., to see Ensign Brisbin, their nephew, off on his three years' cruise in the sea of China.

Miss Margaret Sechler, who had been visiting at the home of her parents on Linn street for the past two months, returned to her position in Baltimore on Friday.

A True Born American at the opera house, Monday evening, 27, and the Count of Monto Christo on Tuesday evening, 27. Popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

The Undine Fire company have a new fire patrol wagon which will be used principally for hauling hose. The Logan's are dickering for a conveyance for the same purpose.

Bert Bayard who has been quite ill for the past two weeks with muscular rheumatism and who is threatened with blood poisoning is now in the Bellefonte hospital, and on Tuesday morning was operated on with success.

The viewers appointed to inspect the bridge for the Supervisors of Spring township by James McCafferty, reported at Monday session of Court that they found the same to be according to the plans and specifications of the engineer.

The new state hatchery at Bellefonte will be opened Monday next, when the first eggs will be received and the water turned on. An appropriate celebration will mark the opening. A number of prominent citizens will participate.

S. H. Williams has purchased the stock and fixtures of R. H. Montgomery, paper store, in Crider's stone building and will move from the stand he has occupied so many years to the Montgomery room, as soon as he can arrange matters.

D. W. Harter who is serving his twelfth year as Assessor of Miles township, was in town yesterday making his triennial return for 1903. As a public officer he is one of the best in the county, and always gives prompt and personal attention to matters pertaining to his office.

Harry Clevensine, of this place, and Miss Carrie Gabenslaben, of Hanover, were married at the bride's home at Hanover, on Thursday morning 15. The bride and groom arrived here Thursday evening and have gone to housekeeping in the McClure property, corner of Spring and Logan street.

Of all the dramatic successes known, there are none that equals Uncle Tom's Cabin. It will be presented by an excellent company of fifty persons and with new and elaborate scenery gotten up for this season's tour in the opera house, Wednesday evening, Oct. 28. A grand street parade will be given at noon.

On another page will be found the card of Frederick K. Foster, a young gentleman of Philadelphia, who several months ago purchased the old and well known insurance agency of the late Geo. L. Potter. Mr. Foster is an experienced insurance man and, with his fine line of standard companies, can give you the very best protection. His office is on 2nd floor of Eagle Block where he will be glad to meet all former patrons and new ones as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Kunes, of Eagleville, issued invitations to the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Josephine, to Edward Corson Dyer, M. D., of Quebec, Canada, which occurred 21st, in the Christian church at Eagleville, and it was largely attended.

VARIETY OF LOCAL NEWS

Gathered From Centre and Adjoining Counties

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors.

The frame building in the rear of the opera house, owned and used by Al. Jones, in Phillipsburg, was burned.

David Getz, of Lemont, had his little finger amputated by a pair of square tinner shears while working at his trade.

Albert Bradford, miller for J. B. Fisher's Sons, will move to Willimont, Ohio, where he will work in a large roller mill.

Miss Anna Clemson, of Baileyville, has been quite ill of late. D. H. Kustenbauder, of the same place, is improving in health.

Geo. Kline, of Oak Hall, will succeed Albert Bradford as head miller in the flouring mills of the J. B. Fisher's Sons, at Farmers Mills.

A recital will be held in the Aaronsburg High school Monday evening, Oct. 26, by Grace Baker, of Millflinburg. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

W. H. Noll & Bro., of Pleasant Gap, bought the timber on the Gregg farms near Centre Hall and will do some lumbering the coming winter.

McNitt Brothers & Company have about completed their lumber operations on the Hecla Park tract and will remove their sawmill to Snyderstown.

The John Wolf farm in Miles township was sold at public sale Friday, 9th, Jos. K. Moyer, of Centre Mills, was the purchaser for the sum of $70,430.

Under the direction of Rev. Geo. Stanley West, local talent in Eagleville will produce on Thanksgiving night in the Baptist church the celebrated cantata "Saul, King of Israel."

Miss Sara Belle Mohney will give an entertainment in the Presbyterian church Unionville, Thursday evening, Oct. 29, followed by refreshments and social time. Admission 10 and 15cts. Social committee C. E. Society.

Jonathan Condo, of Howard, who has been employed as traveling salesman for A. L. Koons, of Tyrone, has resigned that position and accepted a similar one from Platt Barber & Co. with headquarters at Bellefonte. He will move his family to Bellefonte.

From Houserville: Chicken pox is among the little folks of Houserville. Mr. and Mrs. John Stover are wearing a smile since a little boy has come to stay. Uriah Stover is not improving; he has been sick for some time. Jacob Houser lost a cow on Saturday night.

The marriage of Mrs. Nellie Larimer Woodward and L. G. Wetherley was solemnized in Omaha, Neb., Thursday at noon. After the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's uncle, Judge A. V. Larimer, who formerly was of this county.

Wild turkeys may be legally killed for one month, beginning Thursday 15th. This calls to mind the fact that decoying this game is a violation of the law. It is said by an exchange that trails and feeding pots are established on the mountains. This is unsportsman like, and such a violation of the law should be ferreted out and the offender punished.

Rufus Tracey Strohm, of Scranton, and Miss Emma Litzenberg, of Ardmore, were married Wednesday evening 15th, at Ardmore. Miss Lola Strohm, sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor, and Mr. Wentzel, of Scranton, as best man. The groom is connected with the International Correspondence School, at Scranton and is a son of ex-commissioner James B. Strohm, of Potter township.

Edward Noll, while at work for the Surveyor's Run Lumber company, at Clearfield county, on Monday, was so seriously injured by being struck by a board thrown from an edging machine that he died Tuesday night. He was a son of W. C. Noll, of Madisonburg, and was 26 years of age. His father and brother Thomas went to Clearfield Wednesday morning and brought his remains to Madisonburg that evening. A sorrowing widow is left to survive.

Wednesday evening, Oct. 7, the many friends of Wm. Weiser, of Millheim, met at his home and gave him a complete surprise. The party was given in honor of his 67th birthday. After engaging in social conversation for a while, refreshments were served, after which the guests left for their homes expressing themselves as having enjoyed a pleasant evening. On leaving the friends left with Mr. Weiser many useful presents as a token of their esteem, says the Journal.

C. A. Kerstetter, of Lewisburg, employed on Kulp's mill, had a leg broken by having a log roll on the member. He was assisting in unloading a car of logs which arrived at the mill. In moving around the logs which had been thrown off the car, he was struck by a heavy piece of timber, and had his leg broken at the ankle.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

John Steiger Coburn

Sarah Leigle Spring Mills

Paul Bailey Pine Grove Mills

Jennie M. Froom State College

E. G. Deavmitt Mingoville

Mary E. Kuhn "

H. E. Clevensine Bellefonte

Carrie Gabenslaben Hanover

Geo. A. Jacobs State College

Catherine McElwain Howard

Chas. E. Lambert Aaronsburg

Maggie A. Stover "

Edward O. Dyer Knowlton, Can

Eleanor J. Kunes Blanchard

John T. Jackson Lemont

Minnie M. Whitherite Clarence

John E. Isenberg Philadelphia

Leah M. Herman State College

Thos. R. Buck Berwick

Stella Zerby Millheim

C. D. Sunday Altoona

Annie Burkheart "

John H. Maize, while doing some carpenter work for Henry Keen, at Millheim, on Monday of last week, fell off a porch roof, a distance of 20 feet, to the ground. He landed squarely on his heels and fell over on his back jarring his body so severely that it was impossible for him to move, but he is getting along all right.

The natural gas companies of Potter county are drilling a number of new wells and gas for light and fuel is sold very cheap. One company furnishes gas for household use at 12 1/2 cents per 1000 feet and to factories at 10 cents per 1000. The highest price charged by any company at Coudersport is 15 cents per 1000 feet.

David V. Williams was brought to Lock Haven from near Beech Creek and lodged in jail. The man is demented and attempted to kill his father.

Robt. Bailey, son of Henry Bailey, died at Cedar Springs, Monday of blood poison, age 16 years.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

The heirs of Nathaniel Bowersox, late of Miles township, dec'd, will offer at public sale near Wolf's Store, Centre county, Pa., on a farm situate near Wolf's Store of 130 acres, one half of which is under cultivation and the other half is timber land. The soil is excellent, house and barn almost new and necessary out-buildings. Fine spring near dwelling house, an abundance of fruit of various kinds on the premises. There is a large quantity of fine timber, white oak, rock oak, chestnut and white pine on the tract.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1903,

Sale to begin at 1 o'clock p. m., when terms will be made known. BY THE HEIR,

Wolfs Store, Pa. Oct. 17, 1903.

DOUGLAS, LACY & CO.

DIVIDEND PAYING SECURITIES.

Are you satisfied with 4 or 5 per cent.

If not, write for our booklet giving our plan for safe, legitimate dividend paying Mining, Oil and Smelter Securities, earning from 10 to 12 per cent.

annually, and with absolute protection for your principal and interest. Address

Wm. T. Meyer,

Care of Douglas, Lacy & Co.,

1008 BETZ BLDG.,

Philadelphia, - - Pa.

October days revive the need for warmer clothes; a new suit is in order now.

None can give you more style, better quality, better satisfaction than a Naumburg Suit.

Confidence in them has never failed for thirty years.

Guaranteed absolutely.

Look for the above label.

Your money back for anything not right.

For sale by

M. FAUBLE & SON,

BELLEFONTE, PA.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

RECENT DEATHS.

A. J. GRAHAM—a prominent business man of Phillipsburg, died Tuesday morning in the sanitarium in Buffalo, where he recently went for medical treatment. He was well and favorably known in Bellefonte and other parts of the county.

Workmen employed by county commissioner Dell of Yeagertown discovered flames in his saw mill. After strenuous efforts the fire was brought under control and part of the property was saved. The origin of the fire is a mystery, except that some of the hunters who passed there were careless with lighted cigars or matches. The building which was but recently constructed contained all the latest improved machinery which was irreparably injured.

Weather Report.

Weekly report—Bellefonte Station.

DATE TEMPERATURE Maximum Minimum

Oct. 15, cloudy..... 67 41

16, cloudy..... 70 49

17, cloudy..... 67 51

18, cloudy..... 58 45

19, clear..... 61 38

20, clear..... 71 35

21, clear..... 67 37

Rain.—On 15, at night, 29 inch; on 17, 52 inch.

SALE REGISTER.

SATURDAY, OCT. 21.—Homestead of James Wise, dec'd, 3 miles west of Madisonburg, 7 acres; 1 p.m.

THURSDAY, OCT. 29.—At 10 a. m. E. W. Bartges' sale near Old Fort, 2 horses, short-horn cows, heifers and bulls, 50 hogs, shoats, pig, cream separator, implements, piano, household goods, etc.

TUESDAY, NOV. 10.—At 10 o'clock, 3 miles west of Bellefonte on the Thomas farm; horses, cows, young cattle, hogs, bull, implements and household goods. Chas. Houser.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 11.—3 1/2 miles west of Unionville, H. A. Scholl, will sell 2 horses, cattle, machinery and farm implements, p.m.

THURSDAY, NOV. 19th.—1/4 mile east of Lamar, station, 3 horses, 6 milch cows, 70 head of hogs, 1 bull, fat steer, also a full line of farm implements. B. F. Harris, A. C. McClinch, auc.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Advertisements less than 25 words, from subscribers, one issue free. Additional issues 25 cents. Rate to others, penny-a-word for each issue.

FOR SALE.—Hay horse, wagon and harness, I. W. Fuimer, Millersburg.

MONEY TO LOAN on approved security. J. A. B. Miller, Atty. Bellefonte, Pa. 11

MONEY TO LOAN.—On approved real estate security. N. B. Spangler, Bellefonte. 11

COMPOSITOR.—A girl, about 17 years, residing in Bellefonte, can secure a position at this office to learn typesetting.

WANTED.—Woodlands. Will buy both large and small tracts. Apply to J. J. Hubert, Purchasing Agent, Lock Haven, Pa. 3-45

PUBLIC SALE.—On Nov. 10 1 mile north east of Potters Mills, household goods, horses, cattle, hogs, farming machinery and implements of all kinds. Sale at 10 a. m. Mrs. H. F. Sankey, Wm. Goheen, auctioneer. 3-44

FOR SALE.—Good farm for sale containing 120 acres, situate in College township, Centre Co., Pa., belonging to the estate of Jonathan Treasler, deceased, and which was lately occupied by Isaac Treasler, now also deceased. Good buildings; good supply