

E. P. Irvin

L. C. Irvin

THE RACKET

We have the exclusive agency in Bellefonte for

Lisk's
Celebrated
4-Coat Enameled
Steel Ware

and guarantee every piece for 5 years from date of purchase. Prices are moderate considering quality.

Butterick Patterns

for November. We can show you modes for evening and dressy wear in "1830," and all other current drapings. All the requirements of the day and hour are met in our supply of Butterick patterns.

RACKET STORE CO.

Correspondents' Department

Continued, from page 7.

Coburn.

W. J. Rote who was employed near Lock Haven was compelled to return home because he could not get anybody to feed his stock.

E. M. Boone and wife, Oliver Fiedler and wife, Mrs. Musser and wife, of Smulton, spent one day here the guests of Adam Bartges.

C. A. Weaver, our justice of the peace and family spent several days in Aaronsburg.

R. O. Braucht, wife and daughter Bess, who occupied the Coburn House several years ago but now living in an eastern city are visiting in this section.

Mrs. Sam'l Williams, of Monessen, visited at the home of Thos. Kafer one day last week.

L. L. Weaver, Frank Lose and Harry Snyder who are erecting telephone lines in Bald Eagle valley, were home with their families over Sunday.

A. A. Stover and family, of Fiedler, J. C. Stover and wife were Sunday visitors.

A. J. Everett and Z. A. Weaver, two of our sportsmen went to Brushvalley to hunt.

A new gas well was discovered on Saturday near the iron bridge. It beats Highvalley all to sticks, as this is of the feminine gender and that is masculine.

Mrs. Mella Corman who had accompanied her husband to Duquesne returned home.

Some of the boardwalks in town need repairing especially the one in front of the hotel yard.

Mr. Lee, of — and a crew of men are in town this week doing some surveying.

Mrs. John Rote, an aged lady is on the sick list.

Milesburg.

Mrs. Wesley Crain and daughter, Verna, left for Portage, Pittcairn and other places, to visit her children; she expects to be gone eight weeks.

Mrs. Reddy and Mrs. Musser, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Mary McKinley, returned home to Lewistown on Saturday.

Misses Houser, of Nebraska, are visiting their cousin Mary Johnson.

William Potter and wife, after a summer's vacation, returned home to Philadelphia.

Thomas Shope has laid aside his crutches, and is now able to walk with the aid of a cane.

Mrs. Marge Shope, of Snow Shoe, spent a few days with Mrs. Joseph Baird.

Mrs. Tobias Green, after a brief visit with her son Bernard, of McKeesport, returned home.

Joseph Shope, of Johnstown, arrived home for a short season.

Mrs. Laura Long, of Milton, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Ellis Flick.

John Reese, of Chaleroi was a guest of Wm. Baird.

Benj. Austin left for Grapeville, where he has employment.

Wilson Heston and son are visiting relatives at Brookville and other places of interest—she expects to be gone four weeks.

Fillmore.

The principle occupation of this part of the valley for the past two weeks was wading mud or attending the fair.

Bruce Wasson and George Blair, of Wilkinsburg, spent a few days at their homes near this place.

The social which the Epworth League held at the residence of C. H. Kephart, was a very nice affair. They cleared almost seven dollars.

Game season opened with the usual amount of canooding. Quite a lot of game was killed the first day but no one can beat Andy Rocky, who shot a pine squirrel and all of a grey one except the tail of it which made its escape.

Misses Mattern and Brown, of Philadelphia, are visiting the Kephart's.

Our farmers are busily engaged in husking corn, raising potatoes, making cider and applebutter.

Pine Creek Mills.

Some of our people have brought their cattle home from the mountains.

Grandmother Hishel, near Spring Mills and Bruce Hishel, from Maryland were guests at J. B. Hishel's over Sunday.

Stover Bro's of Aaronsburg, are thrashing for farmers.

Pine Creek Mills people are great church members—when church time comes they go for chestnuts.

Geo. Keister's saw mill is running full time.

Martha.

Samuel Richards is able to be around again.

R. R. Hartssock who is employed in western Pennsylvania is home on a visit. Don't forget the sale of P. C. Hartssock on Saturday.

The other night a crowd of boys in need of recreation, Assembled on the corner To discuss the situation.

Said one of these unscrupulous chaps With a mind on pleasure set, I know a plan a good one too;

Your bottom dollar you may bet. Well spit it out said another lad, With mischief in his eye, I'll help to carry her out all right

Or in the act I'll die. I'll find the vacant shanty

If some one finds the bread, Said another dirty rascal

As he scratched his stupid head. Two volunteers at once came forth

With a will to do their duty, To burglarize the nearest cellar

And come back with their booty. They played their part and did it well,

The bread was light and sweet But in the midst of their rejoicing

"That Curt!" they chanced to meet. The bread was of the choicest flour

And raised with magic yeast, The kind that all boys like you know

When they want to have a feast. The old man swore he'd get a gun

And shoot the dirty rascals, For if the scamps were allowed to run

They'd steal a fellow's trousers. He went right to the magistrate

Who ransacked all his books To find a dose severe enough,

For these notorious crooks. The squire he said to him, said he,

These lads were just in fun, And more than that the squire said

It might be your neighbor's son. My neighbor's son the d—l

Said the victim in a rage, I don't care who the rascals were

I'll send them to the cage. Then after the old man's rage relaxed

The squire he said again, We'll charge the kids dollar and half

And not send them to the pen. We held an extra session then,

Our officials to elect, And from the choicest kind of men

The following we did select: There is J. R. he's our president,

And Royer with his pen, Keeps record of the day and date

And every stolen hen. There's Peck and Paul and Chester,

About the hen coops roam, And Frank the poet Laureate

Who wrote this little poem.

Romola.

Were you at the fair?

We wonder how Ed. enjoyed himself at the cave on Saturday.

The farmers brought a large drove of fine looking cattle in from the mountain on Saturday.

H. S. DeLong returned home on Saturday.

Chas. Weaver and T. R. Robb purchased two fine buggies from the Berry Bros.

That the proprietor of the Howard Hastler must be doing a rushing business when the — has to chop the wood.

Col. D. F. Fortney, of Bellefonte, made a welcome address to the grammar school on Friday.

Frank says those boys on the hill had better be on the lookout when they are carrying off those pumpkin's.

Elmer Day and wife, of DuBois, are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Romola has a little boy who says he is going to be a dentist too.

Mrs. Conrad Kreager has been very ill for the past two weeks.

Traveler's Gap.

High winds and cool air makes our town pleasant.

Lots of visitors in our town over Sunday.

E. C. Confer is putting up his new house yet this fall.

Uncle Abe, had the best wheat crop around here, got over 1000 bushels.

Daniel is not scared yet, he says he caught a fish at last.

High valley scribe, you are mistaken about the doctor having no satchel, he had it in his vest pocket.

Mrs. John Young and Grace, from Altoona, are visiting friends in this neighborhood.

John wasn't around last night; guess it was too wet.

A certain young man from our neighborhood crossed the hills of far-away couple weeks ago; not learned the cause yet.

Chestnuts were a failure this year.

Lots of disappointments on Saturday night, on account of the rain.

The prospects are a good crop of corn this year.

Potter Twp.

Farmers are well on with their work, and many had time to attend the fair.

Bang, bang, was heard all around last Thursday, from the guns of hunters after small game—the luck turned out like fishing, good, bad and indifferent.

Miss Ada Stover and William E. Fleisher were married at the home of Benj. Stover at Centre Hill, in the presence of a number of invited guests. Good wishes were extended by all.

Wm. Blosser, of Potters bank, bought J. O. Stover's home.

Henry Pye purchased from ex-Sheriff Spangler the Rockey property, at the mountain.

The court has granted a new road to Mulbarger's saw mill, starting from near John R. Lee's, and passing through the following lands: Frank Lingle, John T. Smith, John R. Lee, Wm. Boal, Wm. Kilmefelter, Peter Phillips, Wm. Jordan, Andrew Jordan, Samuel Swartz, Frank Hosterman, R. Lingle.

VIN-TI-NA the greatest of all tonics restores a weakened nervous system, ex hausted vitality, brain-fag, nerve-fag, nervousness and sleeplessness, by purifying and replenishing the blood supply, Makes pure red blood. Guaranteed. All druggists.

40

Pine Grove.

Last Wednesday morning Mrs. Bloom, Mrs. Hess, Miss Susan Danley and Prof. Rhine left this town to travel west.

Mrs. James Mitchell made a short visit to see her farm which is near Pine Grove and also to see Mrs. John Mitchell.

Squirrels seem to be very plenty in the woods about this place as quite a number of hunters have been seen carrying four or five squirrels.

Paul Bailey and his bride spent a few days of last week at his old home. As the other members of the family were present they had a reception just among themselves. After making a short visit at State College the bride and groom will go to Altoona where they intend to live.

Mrs. Wm. Goss who has been at the home of her son Wm. Goss, of Baileyville, has been sick. Her daughter Saldie has also been sick.

John Goheen, of Worcester, who intends to spend the winter in Tyrone spent a few hours with friends in our town on Sunday. Miss Sara McWilliams accompanied him here.

Miss Kelley, of Altoona, who is a trained nurse is now attending to Miss Ann Clempson, of Baileyville.

Mrs. Bogs, from Indiana, has been visiting her sister Mrs. Timmy.

Mrs. Frye who is living at the D. G. Meek home has been very sick.

Frances Wilson and her sister Mrs. Nixon made a visit to Baileyville to see their aunt, Ann Clempson.

Sober.

Mrs. John Young and daughter, of Altoona are visiting at Wm. Vonada's.

Oscar Auman and wife were callers at U. G. Auman's on Sunday.

Miss Furl Auman visited her grandmother Breen on Sunday.

Miss Mabel Vonada and Mrs. Young and daughter were callers with Mrs. Sarah Jamison on Sunday.

J. J. Gentzel is improving his house by building a porch and summer house.

John Foust, of Georgevalley, made a call with his best girl Bertha Steiger Friday.

The meeting in the mountain is still in progress.

There will be a wedding in the near future; how about it John S?

Miss Susan Snavely called with her friend Bertha Steiger over Sunday.

Mrs. James Zerby called at Ben Shaffer's on Saturday.

Miss Lizie Wolf received on Oct. 15, a very handsome birthday present consisting of a dressing case.

We wonder were Frank C. has gone.

Miss Katie Breen and Willis, of Penn Hall, visited their parents on Sunday.

Wanted to know: the name of the young man that calls at the postmistress' residence.

Livonia.

Geo. Stover and wife, J. A. Bathurst and wife spent part of the week in Bellefonte and took in the fair.

Harvey Douty has contracted for logging and propping job of Laurelton Lumber Co. for the winter.

Thos. Stover intends to go in the shingle business therefore any person in need of same had better call on him as he will turn out No. 1 stock.

Mrs. Etta Kerwell has finished her time cooking in Bathurst lumber camp and has gone home.

Mrs. J. A. Bathurst will commence to cook again in the camp of her husband and all are glad to see her back.

Sam'l H. Slitzer had the misfortune to fall down the mountain after his team, and hurt his arm.

The game season has opened up and now you can see and hear a gun any time of day.

T. W. E. Snyder Sup't for the L. L. Co., was the first to carry a gun in these parts, Thursday last; the writer does not know how well filled his game bag was.

Sam Embeck of the firm Embeck & Co., has hurt himself as to stop the operation of the firm for a few days.

Lumbering will be brisk here this coming winter.

Ferguson Twp.

Our nimrods opened the season with varied luck.

Edna May, daughter of Lewis Barto, two months old, died on the 8th, at their home at Tadpole.

David Krebs is receiving congratulations over the arrival of a fine young son.

A few nights ago Luther Sunday, of Fairbrook, found one of his good horses dead in the pasture field.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss, who was quite ill at the home of her son in Houtzdale, is much improved.

Jacob McClellan has two large coons to his credit in two evenings hunt.

Mrs. J. G. Hess and Miss Sue Danley left for a visit to Medina, Ohio.

Smulton.

Victor Brungart one of Benner township's pedagogues spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Aaron Gift and wife, of Freeburg, spent Sunday with Reuben Smull.

Geo. H. Smull spent several days last week in Philadelphia.

W. J. Hackenburg and C. B. Shaffer spent several days at the Lewistown fair last week.

Newton Brungart made a trip to Pleasant Gap Friday.

Mrs. Ida Bair is on the sick list.

Game is not very plenty in this section with the exception of wild turkeys.

Sugar Valley.

Thomas Weaver, of Tylersville, has had his pension increased to $12 per month.

El Wolfe, who lives one mile west of Loganton, went to the woods to cut some wood when he was cutting a limb from a tree flew up and struck him in the right eye, causing a dangerous wound. It is uncertain whether or not the sight is destroyed.

is the New and Better Breakfast Food, so different from all others that it pleases everybody. Got a package to-day at your grocers.

THE GENUINE PURE FOOD CO., LA ROY, N. E.

Moshannon.

Jackson Watson is on the sick list.

Miss Edith, who has been visiting her brother C. C. Lucas, of Howard, has returned home.

John Hollibaugh and Miss Mildred Hollibaugh, both of Phillipsburg, are visiting at the home of Brady Beightol.

T. D. Weaver spent Thursday and Friday in DuBois.

Mrs. Kate Groc is visiting her son, of this place.

Mrs. A. A. Groc has returned home after visiting in Philadelphia.

Charles Yeager, of Jersey Shore, was a pleasant caller here on Monday.

Wm. Lomison and wife are visiting friends in Williamsport and Allenwood.

Mrs. John Confer and son DeLau, of Clearfield, spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Holt of this place.

Misses Mabel and Rhoda Weaver and Charles Weaver, spent Sunday with friends in Kyertown.

J. A. Shugran and wife are visiting the former's parents in Canada.

Mrs. Maude Rankin spent Saturday in Clearfield.

Mrs. Parker and daughter, Anna, of Owasso, Mich., visited friends here.

Mrs. Elmer Shangrew took a trip to Phillipsburg last week.

A "sewing bee" was entertained at the home of Wm. Lomison, and as usual a good time was reported.

Elmer Shangraw, wife and daughter, Cynthia, left for a trip to Canada this week.

We understand that there was a party at the home of Frank Turbidity this week; all say they had a fine time.

T. D. Weaver attended synod in DuBois.

Thomas Fleming was in town on Friday visiting his home folks, after which he proceeded to Clearfield.

Mrs. Sarah Cartright and daughter, of Xaine, visited friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Sophia Yaudes is spending a few days in Howard.

Levi Quick is spending a few days abroad.

Quite a law suit was held in the office of T. D. Weaver, J. P., it being about shooting on Sunday.

Lewis Culver and son William, are visiting friends here.

Plum Grove.

Roland Keller spent a few days in Union County.

James Durst and wife, S. E. Sharer and wife, spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Sharer.

Daniel Bradford and sister and Miss Long, from the Old Fort, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Annie Auman.

John Corman, wife and child, and Gertrude Auman, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of W. H. Swartz.

Wm. Homan, wife and Miss Anna Carper attended the Bellefonte fair.

Mrs. Victor Auman and sister Miss Bertha spent Sunday with their sister at Georges valley.

Joseph Brooks, from Linden Hill, spent Sunday with his lady friend, Miss Anna Carper.

Solomon Lowery is visiting in the neighborhood of Plum Grove and Kellerville.

Philip Auman is hobbling around with crutches; he is suffering with rheumatism.

There was quite an accident occurred at the home of Oscar Homan last week one day; Harry Bechtol, Mr. Homan's hired boy as he was currying a horse, it kicked him on the head; he was unconscious for some hours and on Friday he was taken to his home at Smith town.

Mrs. N. B. Shaffer had been on the sick list but is improving. N. B. Schaffer and son Roy are also on the sick list.

Rock Grove.

Mary and Grace Neff are on the sick list.

Jacob Royer and Annie Kritzer spent Sunday at Penn Hall.

Ruth Bower entertained Clair Durst on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Bower and three daughters spent Sunday at the home of Frank Bodgan.

Mrs. James Durst visited Mrs. Geo. Bitner one day last week.

John you had better get your horse finished or you will freeze in the old house.

Hello, Loop are you sleeping, or did you forget yourself over the arrival of the young wood chopper?

The Rockgrove school had quite a large day for speeches and dialogues.

Mrs. Geo. Bitner and her mother Mrs. Meise spent Sunday at Sam'l Slack's.

Mrs. Solomon Lingie and