Katie Meyer was a visitor at the home of P. C. Bradford over Sunday.

Sumner Miller, of Rock Springs, spent Tuesday with his sister, Mrs. Frank Wieland.

Ferguson Twp.

Farmers made good use of last week's fine weather husking corn. The little rain Thursday morning was welcome.

There was more corn husking than voting on election day.

The home of Newton C. Neidigh had an enjoyable birthday celebration on Wednesday evening the 4th. So well were the plans laid by Mrs. Neidigh that the house was filled with merry people before it dawned on Newt's mind that he had reached his 36th birthday. A fine lot of presents were left for him. Mrs. Neidigh and her assistants served refreshments.

John B. Goheen and wife returned from their extensive visit through the far west on last Saturday much delighted with their trip.

Smullton.

Sidney Douty and family are visiting at Vintondale.

Henry Winkieblech and wife were called from Renovo last Thursday on account of their daughter Sallie who is suffering with melancholy.

Among the visitors in this place during the week we noticed the following: Frank Houseman and wife, Miss Mame Mench, of Millheim; Clarence Eisenbauer, Earl Wert, of Aaronsburg; Mayme Wolfe, of Lamar; Elmer Confer and family, of Sober, and Stewart Weber, of Washington, D. C.

Rev. McIlwray has been conducting revival services in the M. E. church.

On Friday morning our community was startled by the sad news of a shooting accident, which resulted in the wounding of Merrill Winkieblech. The young man was accompanied by Nevin Fiedler, who was walking along side of him, and having his gun cocked with the expectation of seeing game, accidentally touched the trigger sending the full charge of fine shot through the right leg of Winkieblech, below the knee, breaking the small bone. The young man dropped but arose again walking a few steps when again he dropped. Fiedler summoned aid, taking him to the house of Henry Stitzer close by, where his wound was dressed by Dr. Bright, of Rebersburg. The young man was then removed to the house of Luther Miller. Mr. Fiedler being worried, shows his sympathy for his wounded companion by giving all assistance he can. Winkieblech is getting along nicely at this writing, and hopes are entertained for his complete recovery.

Sober.

Corn husking is over and housed up for the winter feed.

Wm. Auman was home over Sunday but left again for his work.

The R. R. surveyors are still here surveying, and the talk of the people is all about a new R. R. to be built.

C. K. Sober, from Lewisburg, was a caller at this place.

Ben Shaffer says he is going to Slate Run to work; there is nothing for him to earn here.

Mrs. Andrew Zerby is living with U. G. Auman this winter.

The Sheesley & Smith saw mill is running only about one day in a week.

John Ebert, the game warden, is cutting cord wood.

U. G. Auman says he got eleven pints of chestnuts this year, all nice and large of three grafts, that Mr. C. K. Sober, of Lewisburg grafted for him several years ago.

Rabbit hunting is the go now.

Mt. Eagle.

The farmers here are busy with their corn.

Dory Bathurst who has been on the sick list is improving.

James Smetzler is seriously ill at this writing.

The hunting crew from Mt. Eagle came back and they say if it were not for the bad luck they had, they would not have had any luck.

E. E. Heverly lost another cow; he certainly has had luck, as he has lost quite a lot of stock the last few years.

There is some talk of the M. E. church beginning protracted meeting this week; all come, join and take part.

R. C. Leathers loaded a car load of sand this week, the first one since harvest; it looks as if the sand would go again.

Wolf's Store.

Wm. Wolf, wife and daughter, were visiting at the lady's parents over Sunday.

Joseph Corman is on the sick list.

J. R. Corman who was working in Duquesne is at home again.

T. B. Motz caused a new walk to be built at the hotel last week which was a necessary improvement.

Thomas Stitzer, of Brushvalley, was visiting his sister Mrs. J. W. Glasgow this week.

Mrs. C. D. Motz and sister Mrs. Mabel Fiedler, of Woodward, were here on Tuesday to do some shopping.

Spring Mills.

Last week some miscreant poisoned a valuable dog belonging to Ida Condo, of our village. The dog was a great pet very gentle and a friend to everybody, and the act is regarded as simply a piece of vile scoundrelism.

The supervisors are busy on our roads. The approaches to town are now in a very fair condition, and the traveling community can well rejoice.

Election day here was remarkably quiet—no one seemed to take an interest in it and of course the vote was light.

Hunters in the neighborhood are meeting with some success in a small way. Rabbits seem plentiful, but as yet no large game has been secured, of course the old "fish story" of, I shot at two bears, but they were too far off, and I came near capturing a big deer (only didn't) are the yarns frequently reported.

Next month Wagner Duck will move his roofing and spouting business to the building formerly occupied as a meat market, on the main road to the R. R. station, a very desirable location.

TO ALL CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Hyomei Guaranteed to Cure by Sidney Krumrine, or Money Refunded.

The popularity and increase in the sales of Hyomei are unique in the annals of medicine. Such astonishing cures have been made by this remarkable remedy that the proprietors have authorized Sidney Krumrine to sell every package of Hyomei under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh. If it does not the purchaser can have his money refunded by Sidney Krumrine.

Hyomei is no ordinary remedy. It is the only method of treatment that sends by direct inhalation to the most remote part of the air passages, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs in the breathing organs, enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes permanent and complete cures of catarrh.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of a pocket inhaler that can be easily carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei sufficient for several weeks' treatment.

Breathe through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day and your catarrh is cured. That's all.

If not cured Sidney Krumrine will refund your money.
