Lost an Arm.

John A. Kline, of Oak Hall, returned home on Sunday morning from Altoona, where he had gone the Wednesday before to see his son-in-law, Wm. J. Kahn, who had been so seriously injured at Galitzin on Tuesday night, Dec. 1st. While drawing the brakes the brakechain broke, throwing him head first under the moving train; 25 cars passed over his right arm; his head and face were so lacerated that he could not have been recognized had he not been the missing man. He was taken to the Altoona hospital where his right arm was amputated. The surgeons feared be could not recover, but being in good health before the accident he finally rallied, and regaining consciousness, is recovering rapidly, but will have to go through life with one arm. It is very sad, as he was just married five weeks ago to Miss Annie Kline, of Oak Hall. Up to that time he worked at painting, and had been on the railroad only two weeks.

A Big Record.

Simeon Hazard, of Moshanson, was in our office on Tuesday and gave his score for the hunting season. He brought in 230 rabbits and one fox. That is is the largest slaughter of cotion tails that has been reported from any section this season. The largest number killed in a day was 22. That is enough to make some of our Bellefonte sports "go way back and sit down."

The Salva-Christmas will exceed it. In New York of the many Christmas celebrations the great dinner and family visits of the Salvation Army have come to be among the best known mediums for dispensing happiness to thousands who otherwise might not have any Christmas cheer at all. The Salvation Army's officers say that 250,000 men, women and children will obtain Christmas cheer through the efforts of that organization in the United States. In Philadelphia the Graud Central Palace has been leased for the big dinner, for which 180 tables are to be spread. In all other cities and towns the Salvation Army dinners for the poor will be notable events. Bellefonte is upto date too in this regard.
