

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired.

—Remember no paper next week. —Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, of Snow Shoe, gave our sanctum a call. —A. H. Spayd and lady, of Hublersburg, gave the Democrat a call. —J. B. Gokeen, of Ferguson, spent a pleasant half hour in our sanctum. —Pork has dropped to 5 cents since close of last week. About the old price. —Town was lively with Christmas shoppers last week—Saturday especially. —If we are to have a "white Christmas" the "white" will have to hurry up. —A sale advertised in this paper will reach more people than by a set of bills. —No paper will be issued next week. Merry Xmas and Happy New Year to all. —Historical Review omitted this issue, will resume same in first issue of 1904—Jan. 7. —Don't overlook that matter about your subscription; let us hear from you before the end of the year. —Mrs. Geo. Blackford moved last week from her home on Lamb street to her former home on Bishop street. —Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker are spending the holiday season at the home of Mrs. Walker's parents at Pleasantville, Pa. —Mrs. Emma J. Vonada, of Coburn, accompanied by Mrs. J. F. Garthoff, of this place, favored the Democrat sanctum with a call. —Secretary Hindman, of the Y. M. C. A., is preparing to give a home talent entertainment on February 5th, 1904, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. —The new gymnasium connected with the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. will be commenced next April and will be rushed to completion with all possible speed. —A lot of appliances for a meat market are offered at private sale at Stover's shop, Allegheny street, Bellefonte. Among them is a large refrigerator, steam engine, power chopper and other articles. —Lee Meyer, formerly of Bellefonte, was married Nov. 2, '03, to Miss Josie M. Crosswhite, of Denver, Col., which will surprise many of his Bellefonte friends. Mr. Meyer will start for Honolulu in the near future. —Harry Schreyer, of Chicago, formerly a resident of this place, is suffering with acute Bright's disease and with the hope of finding relief he and Mrs. Schreyer will spend the winter in Cuba and others of the Antilles. —Wednesday afternoon the Senior class of the Bellefonte High School held their Christmas oratoricals. There are 22 in the class but only eleven took part in these exercises, and the rest will have their oratoricals at Easter time. —James Taylor, a cadet at West Point, was an arrival here Friday afternoon on a three days furlough. He is looking well and straight and prim as a soldier could be. He is making good progress in his class, and gave a good accounting for himself. —A recent ruling in the postoffice department is that a person having mail delivered by rural carrier can get his mail from the postoffice from which the mail is distributed any time he wishes to call for it during office hours. Thus one living on a rural route can get his Saturday's mail in the afternoon when in town and will not have to wait until Monday morning for it. —Bellefonte, or Centre county for that matter, should have a humane society. The humane society, of Pittsburg, have notified teamsters and other horse owners that they will be arrested for cruelty to animals if they leave their horses standing on the streets unblanketed during the cold weather. Pittsburg horses have no more right or need for comfort than horses here or elsewhere, so such a rule rigidly enforced would be good everywhere. —The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. held its quarterly meeting in their office in the Reynolds building on Monday. There was a full attendance of directors. The amount of insurances granted was $110,611; premium notes taken $9,801; cash $487. Cash taken in the past year $2,318 78. The work for the past quarter was highly gratifying. The loss by fire on the Wieland house at Boalsburg, was adjusted by allowing $225, amount of cost of repairs. —Thursday evening of last John Cherry, son of Engineer Theodore Cherry and Miss Rena Black, both of Bellefonte were married at the Methodist parsonage. The Young American Republican Club, of which the groom is a member, took possession of the cab in front of the parsonage after the ceremony and the happy couple were then assisted in the cab and escorted with cheers and blaze of red lights to the home of the bride near Reynolds Mill. It was a great surprise to the young couple.

—John Wagner of State College, was a pleasant caller. —H. T. Bartley, of Hublersburg, gave our sanctum a call. —Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler left for Philadelphia to remain until spring. —Squire Sol Peck, of Nittany, always genial, honored our sanctum with a call. —Ben. Lambert and son, tall as his father, were pleasant callers and report all o. k. in North Gregg. —Hon. J. M. Kepler, with his handsome young friend S. D. Musser, of Pine Grove, gave our sanctum a call. —Commencing today—20 per cent reduction on suits, overcoats, housecoats and suitcases. Montgomery & Co. —Mrs. A. I. Roberts is quite ill at her home on North Penn street. Her two sons and a daughter are here from Pitsburgh, Pa. —Miss Virginia Walker who has been spending the summer and fall in Bellefonte left Wednesday for her home in Philipsburg. —Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all our readers, and what few are left of the "rest of mankind"—this greeting to all, without exception. —P. B. Crider & Son will not retire from the retail lumber business on April 1st, as announced some time ago. They have rented the property for another year. —Lincoln J. Carter's productions always rank high for rare scenery and fine mechanical effects. Next Tuesday evening, "The Darkest Hour" will be at the opera house. —Frank Warfield, general agent for the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, presented to each of the train men a big turkey for their Christmas dinner. It was appreciated by all. —Special services in the Lutheran church on Christmas morning at 6:00 o'clock. In the evening at 7:30 the Sunday school will render a beautiful program. You are invited. —Roxy and Helen Mingle, daughters of A. C. Mingle, have returned home from Frederick, Md., where they were attending school. They will remain until after the Christmas vacation. —Rev. George Israel Brown, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, received news Monday that his mother, who had been an invalid for several years, passed away on Sunday at Stanford, Conn. —The Bellefonte Academy basketball team expects to open the season on Friday evening, January 15th. Games have been scheduled with Susquehanna University, Williamsport High school, Lock Haven Normal, State College and other teams. —Edward Robb, merchant of Romoia, accompanied by his uncle Jury Commissioner Frederick Robb, of same place, dropped in to see us on Monday evening. The young man is a hustler and appeared quite cheery, for he had just secured his marriage license and the happy event takes place today. Good boy, you show good sense. —Thursday, 10, Henry Tibbens and Ed Harper met with a mishap. He put his horse in the stable on Mr. Tibbens' farm and returning in afternoon found the animal's hind leg broken between the stifle and knee, from being kicked by another horse, it was a mare and the break was of such a nature that they had to take her out and shoot her. —The first rain for several weeks, set in on Sunday, following a two inch depth of snow after midnight previous. The rain, however, during Sunday was light and turned the snow into slush. The ground being frozen to a depth of about 18 inches, precludes the water from entering the earth, hence springs will not be helped until the frost gets out of the ground. Cisterns will be replenished, however, and relieve farmers from shortage. —Christmas services will be held in St. John's Reformed church, on Christmas day, at 10 am., and 7 pm. The 10 o'clock service will be a service of praise at which time the choir will sing Novello's "Adeste Fidelis," Steane's "Let us now go even unto Bethlehem," the "Gloria in Excelsis" the "Magnificat," the "Benedictus" and the "Nunc De Mittis." At 7 pm., the Sunday school festival service will be held, consisting of Christmas carols and recitations. All are invited. —Lincoln J. Carter's mammoth scenic production "The Darkest Hour" will be seen soon at the opera house on Tuesday Dec. 29. Mr. Carter evidently has not exhausted his ingenuity for unique scenic effects nor has he lost his grip upon the public. The play is enlivened with an unusual amount of comedy, and it never fails to amuse and interest at the clever dialogue. Through it all runs a beautiful love confession which is neatly and artistically brought out by the hero and heroine. The scenic effects are of especial note. —One of the largest donations that the Bellefonte Hospital has received arrived from Boalsburg and vicinity. The donation was the result of a general canvass of all of Harris township and a little corner of College. Miss Nettie McFarlane was one of the prime movers in it and associated in the work were Mrs. A. A. Black, Mrs. Mary Woods, Mrs. John Strouse, of Boalsburg; Misses Ella Ross and Freda Hess, of Linden Hall, and Mrs. Edward Sellers, and Mrs. Green Irvin, of Oak Hall. The ladies are to be commended for their efforts.

—G. R. Loder, of Milesburg, was a caller. —Capt. Fry was conspicuous in town yesterday. —Fine weather this week—all wishing for snow and good sleighing. —Dr. H. M. Hiller, of Philadelphia, is a guest of Mrs. M. H. Wilson. —Mrs. Elmer Royer, of Earlstown, was shopping for Christmas goods. —E. Q. Rishel, of Farmers Mills, transacted business in town yesterday. —Former merchant Vonada, of Coburn, was a caller upon the Democrat. —John T. Lee, one of Centre Hall's representative men, was in town on business. —Geo. E. Wise, of Rebersburg, gave us a call; says they had a little sleighing down there. —Our genial friend, Jno. A. Daly, was in town, greeting and being greeted by many friends. —If you are in arrears on subscription try and remember that, in a substantial manner, before January 1st. —Mrs. Clement Dale came home from Philadelphia Monday after an extended visit among friends in that city. —Linn Bottorf, of Curwensville, transacted business in town while on his way to his parents' home at Lemout. —Farmer Voley Kerstetter, of Centre Hall, was at the county seat yesterday. Likewise James and Mrs. Stahl. —Commencing today—20 per cent reduction on suits, overcoats, housecoats and suitcases. Montgomery & Co. —D. F. Luse, of Centre Hall, was in town in the interest of his enterprise in opening the idle foundry at Centre Hall. —Mrs. W. H. Galway and two children, of Radford, Virginia, are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris. —It is pleasing to note that ladies here and over the county are warmly endorsing the Historical Society movement. —The new round house for the Central R. R. of Pa., is well under way. The brick layers have the walls partly finished. —H. H. Mark, of Clintondale, called on Wednesday. He expects to quit farming in spring to accept a position in the creamery at Salona. —J. M. Ream, of Farmers Mills, gave us a call and thinks the prolonged freeze, there being no snow to protect the wheat fields, will harm the grain. —The holiday assembly, scheduled for the 29th in the Armory, has been declared off. There will be little social stir here during the holiday season. —Nearly all the boys and girls of town who are tending college are home for their holiday vacations. Bellefonte sends quite a delegation to various schools and colleges. —Grant Hoover has moved into the residence on Linn street lately occupied by John M. Shugert, the latter having purchased and moved into the Blanchard property on the same street. —Walter T. Clark, of Pleasant Gap, foreman of the Republican office, left Monday evening for Brockwayville, where at high noon yesterday he took unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Alverna Miller, of that place. —The "Darkest Hour," one of Lincoln J. Carter's late melodramas which scored such a decided hit on its first appearance all last season will be seen at the opera house on next Tuesday evening, December 29th. —On Christmas Day the services in St. John's Catholic church will be as follows: Christmas Mass at 5 o'clock in the morning; low mass at 6 am., high mass at 10:30 am., and vespers and benediction at 7:30 pm. At all these services there will be special music of a high order. —Lincoln J. Carter's great scenic comedy, "The Darkest Hour," will be seen at the opera house on Tuesday evening. It is said to contain a story of intense heart interest relieved by many bright and witty spurts of laughable comedy. We are promised an abundance of handsome scenery, wonderful mechanical effects and mysterious electrical devices. —The Brockerhoff House ordinarily is pretty and tasty in its equipment, but with its Christmas decorations of holly, elegantly and handsomely arranged, the bar-room, we dare say, presents a fine appearance not excelled by any hotel in central Pennsylvania. Neatness, cleanliness and good order prevail at all times, and landlord Ray seems to know "how to keep a hotel." —Last evening County Treasurer Phil D. Foster dined, and we suppose wined, the various county officials at his home, on Linn street. All the offices were represented and the festivities were enjoyed as Mr. and Mrs. Foster are noted for rare hospitality. On this occasion Janitor Thomas Donachy was presented by the same officials with a fine watch and chain, for the courteous and efficient manner he has performed his duties. It was a fine testimonial that he will ever treasure. —Reduced Rates to New Orleans. On account of the meetings of the American Economic Society and the American Historical Society, at New Orleans, La., December 28 to January 1, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets to New Orleans and return from all stations on its lines, December 24, 25, and 26, good for return passage until January 1, inclusive, at reduced rates. For specific information consult Ticket Agents.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors. —Wm. B. Schaffer, of near Zion killed a porker that dressed 448 pounds. Almost as big as some of his strawberries. —Gaylor Morrison, of Roland, received his Christmas gift last week by the arrival of a little girl that came to his home on Tuesday. —The ladies of the Reformed church at Boalsburg will hold a supper in the Town Hall on New Year's evening (Friday). Proceeds for the parsonage fund. —Mr. and Mrs. James H. Holmes Sr., will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Saturday evening, January 2nd at their home at State College. —Harry E. Breen, of Axemann, has composed a beautiful March entitled "Education, Pride of the World." A copy will be sent to any address for 25c. —Miss Sara Elizabeth Wieland of Maple Shade Farm, Linden Hall, and Murray E. Leitzel, assistant manager of Linden Hall Lumber Co., were married at high noon on Wednesday, 23rd at the bride's home. —The mother who deliberately sends her children out on the streets in order to get rid of them is unfaithful to a woman's highest duty and loftiest privilege, and is likely to reap a harvest of sorrow before she dies. —The Rock Forge school in Benner township was closed last week because of the prevalence of diphtheria in that community. Four of Frank Shney's and three of William Emswiler's children were down with the disease. —On Wednesday evening of last week the citizens of Howard and vicinity held a public meeting to consider the project of erecting a canning factory at that place. Committees were appointed to investigate the matter and considerable stock was subscribed. —Mary Meek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Demster L. Meek and Francis M. Musser, of Altoona, were married at the family home at waddle on Tuesday morning, December 22nd, at 10:30 o'clock. The bride and groom went to Chicago for their wedding journey. —John Lile, of State College, has done some brag work in shooting porkers at butchering, during this season. His shingle shows 70 notches, and Lile is not near through yet. Never missed a grunter in all this record. Who can beat that? Guess that crop would make several miles of sausages. —Arrangements were completed last week to erect a creamery on the site of the old one burned down some time ago at Howard. D. R. Wilson will be in this enterprise by himself; he operated the creamery there before, and it was a success. Work on the new creamery will begin at once. —Nathan Haugh, of Livonia, changed his place of residence from Livonia to Lock Haven where he first met his good wife and where he enlisted in the army in 1862. His lumber interests at Livonia will be conducted by his sons, who hold authority over about 2,000 acres of good timber land. —John W. Maize, of Hublersburg, while employed butchering at Ad. Rice's at Zion, on Monday 7, was thrown by a mule, causing a broken leg and ankle. He has been lying at Mr. Rice's place, not being in condition to be taken to his home and has suffered greatly from the accident. His improvement is such as can be expected. —Jarvis Harwood, a former resident of Philipsburg, but who has been living in Renovo for some time, was killed at the latter place on being kicked on the head by a horse. He lived only twenty minutes after the accident occurred. He had taken a load of soft coal to a residence on Seventh street and staying rather longer than his employer thought the trip warranted, sent a man to hurry his return. This incensed Harwood and he returned to the stable to quit his job. He was busily engaged in removing some rings from the harness that belonged to him when he slipped and fell under one of the horses. The horse was feeding and as Harwood attempted to rise it kicked him in the temple and he died in a very few minutes. —A South Philipsburg lady whose mother lives in Tyrone, sent her little daughter to visit her grandmother at the latter place. A couple of days ago the South Philipsburg lady left on the 4:25 train to bring her little one home, and the grandmother left for Philipsburg on the train which arrives here at 5 to. As a consequence the two passed on the road. When they got at their respective places, they each found the other at the other end of the line, so the Tyrone lady thinking her daughter would be at Tyrone, left on the 8:13 train, the other coming home on 8:02 and again they passed one another en route. At last the Tyrone lady came up and is now visiting her daughter. Strange, is it not?—Philipsburg Journal.

The prolonged freeze is reported by some farmers as telling upon the wheat fields—hardly necessary to feel alarmed yet.

Dr. C. E. Emerick, formerly of Centre Hall, writes from Preport: I am improving in health, has been cold here, 18 degrees below zero; good roads, snow fine 6 in.; like the place.

C. A. Walker, of Shelton, W. Va., formerly of Boggs twp., is home for the holiday season. He is a hustling young lumberman who is succeeding in his business. That section is booming at present.

A crew of 18 men are cutting ice on the lake at Hecla park. The house at that place was filled and ice shipped to Bellefonte for hotels. About 25 car loads will be shipped to State College. This ice is about 12 inches thick.

Miss Katherine Bierly left for Williamsport, where she will enter Dr. Donaldson's private hospital as trained nurse. She was a clerk in the department store of Innes & Shannon, Jersey Shore, and is a daughter of Joseph Bierly, of Madisonburg.

The ladies of Centre Hall are going to have the Franklin and Marshall glee club give a concert in Grange hall in that place New Years night for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital. The young ladies of that section have done some very creditable work.

W. A. Schreyer, of Milton, head of the largest mercantile establishment in Northumberland county, died Tuesday evening, 15th.

On Monday forenoon, December 7, the dwelling house of Henry Lingle situated in Poe valley, was entirely destroyed by fire together with all its contents. Mr. Lingle is entirely destitute as he had no insurance.—Journal.

Robert Hamill Goodheart and Ella Donithen, of Altoona, were married in Pittsburg, Wednesday evening of last week, at the home of the bride's uncle. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bernette, of the Wilkensburg Presbyterian church.

Pete Miller, a naturalized Hungarian, who resides near Tyrone, killed two rabbits Friday, three days after the lawful season had closed; so a hearing was a natural consequence and Peter was obliged to pay a fine of $20 and costs amounting to $671. They were the most expensive bunnies of the year.

A number of poultry shippers in Millfin county have been put to considerable trouble by suits being brought by an agent of the Philadelphia society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, charging them with shipping poultry in crates made contrary to law, or as they are called "closed crates." Their fines were $50 each, with costs.

The date of the next meeting of the central Pennsylvania conference of Methodist Episcopal church which will convene in Harrisburg, has been postponed from March 16 to 23. This conference will be held in the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal church. The presiding elders of the conference have received word to this effect from Bishop C. C. McCabe.

It is reported that the strike of the Harbison Walker Refractories company's employes, which has been in force nine months, will be ended officially in a few days. The strike was ordered to enforce the payment of more wages and recognition of the union. In all 35 plants were tied up for a time, but stockades were built about many of them and foreign labor imported and employed.

Next week the teachers of Centre county will hold their annual institute at Philipsburg, Pa., a complete programme of which was published in our last issue. We understand there will be a good attendance, though many will remain away owing to the expense of getting there from the distant parts of the county. Others are complaining on same account but will attend, for fear of incurring the ill will of County Superintendent C. L. Gramley by remaining away.

This is the first time that institute was taken from the county seat, and persons who are acquainted with the bargains made to re elect Supt. Gramley, understand why he took this step—it cost him nothing, but is mighty expensive to several hundred teachers.

A fire broke out Monday morning after 5 o'clock in the Sigler Estate Stable in Lewistown and destroyed six stables. The fire also spread to six brick houses on Marble street, owned by John Kline, all of which were destroyed.

Some Foolish People Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it will wear them away. Could they be induced to try this successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 25c and 50c. Trial size FREE. At all druggists. 4 ft
