EDITORIAL.

It is about time some of those nuisances, the "legal holiday," be clipped off.

The number of persons who wrote it "1903" this week would make an army big enough to lick Columbia.

If our soldiers have a right in Panama, to keep Colombian troops from suppressing a secession, England was justified in aiding the South.

RUSSIA and Japan are still on the verge of war, over the occupation of Korea by Russian troops. The crisis may come any day.

WHILE we are anxious to build the Panama Canal, our method of going about it requires too much apology and explanation to be consistent.

POLITICIANS interested in local offices are getting busy. That means they are looking for the soft snaps at the election in February. It is well for good citizens to keep the same fact in mind.

A HARRISBURG dispatch says that State Treasurer Frank G. Harris, of Centre, it is understood, will be the Republican delegate to the National Convention from the 21st District, which comprises the counties of Cameron, Centre, Clearfield and McKean.

Knitting Factory for Lock Haven. Lock Haven gets a jersey ribbed knit underwear factory. This important and gratifying news came as a New Years gift for the people of that city.

R. O. Hagadone, an expert manufacturer, will be the superintendent of the new factory; he expects to have some machines in operation and making knit goods in about 60 days.

New Industry at Centre Hall. During the past week a new enterprise was organized to engage in manufacturing implements, etc., at Centre Hall, which will be known as the "Luse Manufacturing Company."

Centre Hall. The awful calamity that befel Mrs. John Dauberman cast a gloom over this community. She was a most estimable woman.

North Gregg. We had a wedding here on Jan. 1. The parties were H. T. Bryan, of Potter township, and Miss Nellie Burrell of Spring Mills.

Madisonburg. Those who spent Xmas out of town were W. E. Keller and daughter, Mrs. S. R. Grim, Millmont.

Hublersburg. The entertainment Xmas eve was well attended. Linnie Weaver, of Wolfs Store, and George Witham, of York state, spent a few days here.

Livonia. A large number of people from here attended Cyrus Hickler's sale on Dec. 29th; every thing brought a fair price.

Green's Pharmacy. We desire in this public way to thank our many friends and customers for the liberal patronage they have given us during the past year.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

Dr. E. J. Grey president of Dickinson seminary, Williamsport, who has been in the Methodist hospital at Philadelphia for some time is improving nicely and was brought home the latter part of last week.

The number of deaths in Tyrone during the year just past was exactly the same as the number recorded for the preceding year, sixty-seven. This is a very low rate of mortality, little more than one per cent.

Millhall was greatly surprised and shocked on Sunday morning when the announcement was made of the sudden death of James Stiver, one of the well known citizens of Millhall.

A large barn on the Albert Loomis farm, about two miles from Beech Creek, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night 27. Four horses, several cattle and all the farm implements, together with considerable grain and hay were lost.

In addition to its knitting factory another new industry is announced for Lock Haven, an institution for manufacturing wire wove cloth. The stockholders are local capitalists.

A Farmers' Institute will be held in the Grange Hall, Warriorsmark, January 8 and 9. The following speakers will address the meeting: Prof. R. L. Watts, Clinton, Allegheny county; S. W. H. Waltz, Williamsport; Hon. T. E. Orr, Secretary of the Poultry Association of the U. S., Beaver.

One of Milton's foremost business men, Marshall Reid, passed away at the University hospital in Philadelphia as the result of an operation for appendicitis on the 29th. The deceased was the founder and principal owner of the Reid Tobacco company of that place and also head of the firm of Reid & Company of Buffalo.

An attempt to burn the plant of the North American Tanning company at Lewistown, Wednesday night, 23, was frustrated by the quick action of Charles Wian, night watchman. Wian went to the barkroom to oil the machinery and discovered a large box of packing straw in flames. He promptly threw water on the burning straw and extinguished the blaze.

Last Friday the new mail route from Loganton by way of Carroll to Rauchtown went into effect. George Tibbins is the contractor, receiving $386 per year for his services.

The Cameron House at Lewisburg, under Mr. Burrell, its new landlord, has been handsomely refurnished throughout with elegant carpet, parlor and bed chamber furniture, etc., and table first class in its bill of fare, and all food prepared by the best of cooks.

James Faust, special agent for the Pure Food and Dairy commission, was at Lewistown last week and entered suit against eight of the nine hotel proprietors for violation of the Pure Food laws for selling adulterated blackberry wine.

The late snows afforded fine sleighing; the ground is frozen quite deep. D. F. Luse has succeeded in getting the old foundry into life again. Hydrants, corn planters, plows, and other implements will be manufactured.

The Franklin and Marshall College Glee Club gave one of their excellent concerts Friday evening in the Grange Hall. The building was crowded. There were 16 numbers on the program, but double that number were rendered before the entertainment closed.

Clearance Reduction Sale. Commencing Saturday, January 9th, and ending January 23rd, we will sell our present stock at greatly reduced prices. Held in order to dispose of these goods rather than to carry them over another season and to make room for the arrival of Spring goods. The goods are to be sold at prices the cost and value does not justify, but profits and values are not considered with us when it comes to near the end of the season. We give a partial list of the reduced goods below, and the reductions you will find to be true reductions. The savings denote bigger savings than the difference in reduced and former prices. For instance our $10 Suits or Overcoats—priced elsewhere at $11 to $12. The difference in $10, our regular price, and $7.50, the sale price, is $2.50, the saving over our price and $3.50 to $4.50 over others' prices.
