

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

Happenings of a Week Over Centre County

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE

What Has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Harris Twp.

Services are being held in the Reformed church this week continuing until Sunday evening. Communion service on Sunday morning.

At a meeting held in the school building in Boalsburg on Tuesday evening, arrangements were made for a reading room; the building known as the Methodist church was purchased by Theodore Boal, who will have it enlarged and repaired and will also furnish the literature.

The Odd Fellows celebrated their twenty-ninth anniversary on Thursday evening; a turkey dinner was served.

A party of young people were entertained at the home of Miss Bessie Searson, on Wednesday evening.

A number of people spent Wednesday evening at the Stuart home at State College.

Frederick Myers and wife, of Fairbrook, visited here last week.

Alvin Myers, Wilfred Fry, and Riley Hunter from the mountain city, spent a few days here.

Thomas Gray, of Woolrich visited here.

Miss Maude Irvin of Penn'a. Furnace, was a guest at the turkey dinner on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jacobs are visiting friends in Altoona.

T. R. Weber is visiting in Lancaster county.

W. G. Mothersbaugh is visiting his brother at Williamsport.

John Kimport made a business trip to Penna. Furnace last week.

David Lohr, who spent a number of years in Iowa, is visiting Centre county friends.

Muddy Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Krader, from Coburn, spent the past week with Mrs. H. M. Crain.

Don't forget the caucus on next Saturday afternoon.

J. P. Heckman is still on the sick list.

J. J. Jamison is not improving very much.

A new book was written in our valley. The name of it is punch and Judas; it will be placed on the market as soon as there is enough on hand.

A. P. Heckman and family spent Sunday with his father-in-law, H. Vonada.

Some people act as though they never heard of smallpox before. We had it this winter.

Mrs. James Decker, from a Pine Grove Mills, has been in our vicinity for the past week.

F. B. Herman expects to go back to Altoona this week.

Barbara Zettler is visiting among friends this week.

Edward Lingle expects to commence housekeeping in the spring, where Daniel Minnic lives.

Wingate.

Geo. Summers, of this place, is convalescing after an attack of indigestion. He was very low for several days but at present is doing nicely.

Miss Gertie Summers, of Howard, visited at Huntingdon, her former home, on her return spent a couple of days with her brother Geo. Summers and family, of this place.

There is to be a wedding soon, the contracting parties are John E. Eckert, of this place and Mary Wilson, of Bush Hollow. John has waited a long time for a wife but found one at last—our hand John.

We are sorry to announce that Mrs. Lewis Aikev is confined to the house with sickness; did not hear what the ailment was.

Miss Annie Brown, of this place, is confined to the house with quinsy.

There will be memorial services in the Evangelical church Sunday, Jan. 21st, at 2 p. m. for Emma and Julia Murray.

The P. R. R. Co. has erected a coal wharf at this place, for the purpose of coaling heavy loaded engines west.

Farmer's Mills.

Keep on the lookout, the wedding bells will soon be ringing.

Wm. Keller is in this community sawing wood with his gasoline engine.

Wonder who S. G. accompanied home from spelling school last Tuesday night?

Mrs. D. W. Ziegler spent a few days with M. L. Rishel's last week.

J. F. Emerick, saddler of this section, is kept busy at present.

M. T. Z. next time you go to spelling school hold to what you have got.

H. F. Schreckengost has made a fine robe from coon hides. It contains some 30 hides.

Wonder what attraction A. C. H. has at Spring Mills?

J. H. Rishel is not improving very much at this writing.

The lodge is making lots of progress, it received a new member on Friday night.

Krumrine's Instantaneous Headache Powders will relieve the most obstinate cases of nervous and sick headache. 10 cents.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it today. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! No baking! Simply add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors—Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocer today. 10 cents.

Pleasant Gap.

The sleighing is fine here save for the drifted condition of the roads. Some of them had to be shoveled open to be able to get through. On Thursday evening a party of young and middle aged started down to spend the evening at Epley Gentzels, but only succeeded in getting as far as Spicher's hill, when they turned around and came back to Joseph Tresslers, where they passed a very enjoyable evening. But they did not give up the idea of going to Gentzels, and on Friday evening after the way had been opened they went down to Gentzels. They were royally entertained and treated to all the delicacies of the season.

Frank Barnes had his lady friend from Bellefonte out to our town to Methodist meeting on Saturday evening.

Mr. Obrien from State College spent Saturday evening at Henry Twitmyer's.

The Methodist revival is still in progress with four conversions so far.

Edward Meese and family, of Coleville, Sundayed at E. K. Kellers.

Mrs. William Bodie has been very ill the past week.

John Larimer, wife and son, were callers at William Florey's Sunday afternoon.

Robert Wasson was a caller at Bell's Saturday evening.

The members of the Lutheran church will begin work on the Sunday school room on Tuesday. They expect to paper it and get new carpet and chairs which will make it much more inviting.

Will Lights expects to start for home this week. Then there will be weeping and wailing.

Matterville.

The sledding party from State College and Fillmore was a failure on account of bad weather and drifted roads; they were going to H. K. Mattern's, at Julian William Wells moved to Dicks run on last Friday.

The sale of Miss Kate Murray was largely attended.

Miss Esther Gray has returned home after spending several weeks in New York state with her sister, Mrs. Hartsock.

Thos. Burns has been laid up with the rheumatism.

Chas. Hartsock and family spent Sunday at George Clark's.

Mrs. Walter Stine was taken suddenly ill from eating canned oysters; she is getting along very well at this writing.

David Steiner after a week's visit at Snow Shoe, has returned home.

JONAS STINE SR.—died on Monday morning of diseases incident to old age, he having passed his 86 year.

He lived in Buffalo Run valley all his life. He was a good friend and neighbor and one of our best citizens as well as a consistent member of the M. E. church at Waddie. Funeral services will be held at his home today, Thursday; interment in Grays cemetery. He leaves a widow and the following children: William, of Johnsonburg; John, of Renore; Jonas, Jr., and George, of Buffalo Run; Mrs. Gates and Thomas, of Elmira; Mrs. Thomas, of Renore; Mrs. Hoy, of Waddie, and Mrs. Sellars, of Daugavrin.

It has been some time since the reporter has made any announcement from this place and I think it is on account of mercury dancing around zero. But if the smallpox will just stay away we will try and breast all other practices that may come in our way.

Mrs. J. E. Welsh is on the sick list, but we are hopeful for her recovery soon.

The young people's society at this place held a box social Friday which was largely attended. The young people of this place deserve much credit for the earnestness manifest along this line.

R. A. Poorman was seen driving out towards Howard.

The saw mill that was to be here came at last and it will not be long till you hear the hum of industry and the daily sound of the whistle. The mill will be run by Roland Mann. Now here is a chance for you to get your sawing done, and with dispatch.

I wonder what attraction Jacob has up the road. Better look out the snow is very deep up there.

A young man from Jacksonville came out here to look after the interest of his brother-in-law. Be careful Clarence.

Romola.

Fillmore.

We are surely having an old fashioned winter such as our grandfathers tell about.

H. C. Huey and family spent Sunday in Bald Eagle.

The entertainment at Sellers' school was not very well attended.

A revival meeting is being held at Pleasant Hill school house.

Boys, keep the roads open or you will get no mail.

We are very sorry to lose one of our townsmen S. K. Wisser as he is going to move to Bellefonte in the spring.

Yarnell.

On account of the snow being so deep quite a few people have returned from the woods, where they were employed.

Frank Jacobs has secured work as fireman on a train running from Jersey Shore to Renovo, and will move soon. We are sorry to lose such a good citizen.

Mrs. Oscar Petzer is on the sick list, also Mrs. Harris Poorman.

Miss Mary Croft has gone to Gorton Heights to care for her sister who is ill.

Miss Olive Watkins will spend the balance of the winter with her sister, Mrs. Thos. Croft.

Beaver Dam.

We are having zero weather right along.

Jacob Jamison and J. P. Hellman are still on the sick list.

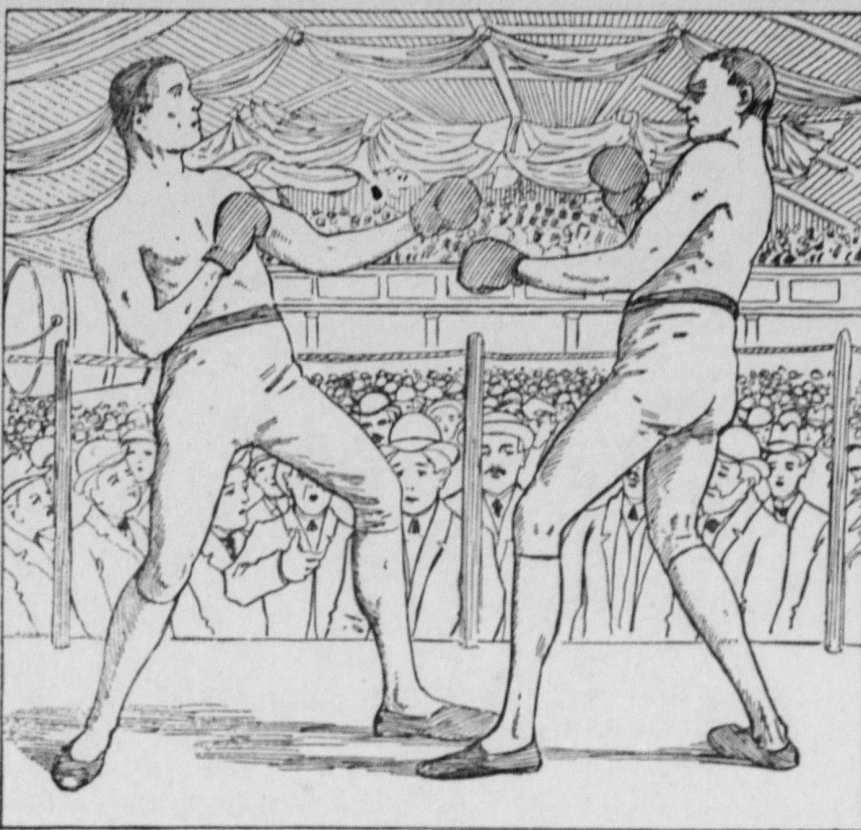

Mrs. Victor Auman is staying with her father, who is seriously ill.

Edwin Zerby was home over Sunday.

Myrrh, the jeweler, is kept busy night and day.

—Men's $3 patent colt shoes, now $2.25. Yeager & Davis.

PICTORIAL PUZZLE.

FIND THE REFEREE AND A PAIL.

ANSWER TO LAST PUZZLE—Turn left side of picture down. Hidden dog is directly behind hunter, its back outlined by the left leg, its nose touching stones behind his feet. Invert picture. First hidden bird is in bushes behind hunter, its breast touching hind legs of hidden dog. Second bird is in front of hunter.

Penn Cave.

Daniel Homan will leave the Luse farm in the spring.

Ham. Schreckengast, the lucky hunter, shot 4 foxes this season.

Rev. Cress, of Centre Hall, had a bad accident while he was out sleighing on Tuesday afternoon. His horse took fright and got the best of him, upsetting the sleigh and hurting him and breaking the sleigh. The animal was captured by Mr. Durst.

The Farmers Mills scribe is a lucky hunter; he reports catching 72 muskrats, 11 polecats and 1 coon.

Charles Reader is all over smiles since that little daughter came to his home.

F. P. Vonada, of this place, is going to move to Coburn in the spring.

A. Lambert started in making logs on Monday, in Little Sugar valley.

Maud Eungard is helping Charles Readers.

Cleveland Eungard had the luck of catching a coon while going home from school on Tuesday evening.

Prof. Wise closed his singing class on Thursday evening.

The spelling school of Prof. J. B. Rossman was well attended.

Penn Hall.

Sleighting is excellent at present.

Amos Koch, wife and daughter Ruth, of Pine Grove, were visiting friends at this place.

Only a few of the teachers from this township attended the local institute held at Aaronsburg on Friday evening and Saturday.

J. C. Condo and the Meyer Buggy Co., of this place, have both disposed of all their sleighs. And there is a demand for more every day.

Mrs. Sara L. Fisher is yet on the sick list.

Miss Lucy Musser went to Altoona on Monday, to attend the funeral of her uncle, Peter Keapick.

James Sheesley is dangerously ill at the home of his father, Geo. Sheesley, with typhoid fever. He came home from Virginia only a few weeks ago.

Frederick Mover who was housed up nearly all winter is able to be out again.

Miss Mame Rossman spent a few days at Aaronsburg, with her sister Mrs. Nelson Wert.

West Brushvalley.

Those who transacted business at the county seat were the following: B. F. Grenoble and Jas. Duck.

H. M. Wert and family and Mrs. Jas. Duck paid a visit to Wm. C. Barrells on Saturday.

Reuben and John Wert, Jr., and Abner Rossman were pleasant callers to Sam'l Beck on Saturday.

A. E. Lambert is busily engaged in working in Little Sugar valley.

The people are making use of the excellent sleighing hauling sled loads of farm products to market.

A sled load of people from this place were to the Loop to meeting last week.

Hello! Mt. Union scribe! are you sleeping or where are you that we fail to see your items in the paper?

Some of our young folks were to Madisonburg on Saturday evening to attend the exhibition which was held by the town boys.

James Wert transacted business in Penn's valley on Friday.

—Boys' $1.50 dressshoes, now $1.00. Yeager & Davis.

Traveler's Gap.

Fiddler's rest has struck our city, since the last rebellion of these cold winter snaps.

Mrs. James Miller is on the sick list.

Dick was making baskets on Sunday, on account of business being brisk; everybody should come and see his stock on hand.

Professor Willis Breen was a visitor at L. P. Smith's on Sunday.

I wonder who that young man was that came on four wheels to our neighborhood to see his best girl? somebody should be so kind and give him a sleigh, when we have such good sleighing.

Jan. 23, 1904, which comes next Saturday, is fixed to hold the democratic caucus; turn out all of you that have a vote, and do your very best for the East end.

—Men's $3 enamel shoes, now $2.25. Yeager & Davis.

Zion.

I just wonder what has become of our former scribe. Has he fallen asleep or has he been waiting for some other person to take his job? If he has fallen asleep he had better wake up or he might lose his job.

Elma Stein, who is teaching school in Boggs twp., spent Sunday with her parents here.

S. F. Dorman began his auction of store goods and expects to keep it up until every thing is disposed of. Pat Boyer is doing the "crying." He says he would rather train Tippy, as it isn't so hard on the lungs.

The oyster supper Saturday evening was well attended, in spite of the drifting snow and chilling winds.

A sledload of our young people went to Hubersburg Wednesday evening of last week. They all report a good time.

Some of the girls who live at the ridge, said that the oyster supper was all right but they didn't like the idea of wading snowbanks on the way home.

The crossroads and lanes are blocked with snow, which fell on Saturday.

Lulu Hoy, who spent several weeks with her brother Calvin at Renovo, returned last Friday.

Fred Wells will be the next carrier on the R. F. D. route at this place.

Don't forget caucus on Saturday afternoon at this place.

Miss Fairie Shaffer, of Hubersburg, spent Sunday at this place.

It is reported that some of our old citizens will leave this place in the spring.

Communion services will be held in the Lutheran church, Sunday morning Jan. 21.

The schools at this place are getting on with less trouble than for many years. We appreciate the efforts of our teachers.

Brushvalley.

Mrs. Grenoble Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ertel, Mrs. Scott Rachau and Mrs. Sam'l Wise are on the sick list.

The protracted meeting was almost at a standstill last week.

The exhibition at Madisonburg, was a failure.

The West Brushvalley scribe went on a visit to Starvation Hollow, Pleasant valley, on Saturday evening, it began to get windy and as time drew near for him to return home it was very stormy. He went but reluctantly, and had a very hard time till he was at home. After this don't stay so late Clyde.

W. G. L. Crain and son have moved the late residence of George Cornelius which was purchased from Dr. Thompson to a foundation near their place of business. Howard Eyy, of Half moon did the work making a success of it.

John Wizer, who recently moved from this place to Osceola, died at that place January 16th, of pneumonia. Interment was made in the Black Oak cemetery, of this place.

Mrs. George Harsbarger died at her home near this place on Saturday January 16th, of an ailment incident to childbirth, aged 45 years; leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her death; interment made at Gatesburg Lutheran cemetery.

Sheriff H. S. Taylor was a recent visitor to our town.

Port Matilda.

W. S. Williams and Robt. Neil, of Pittsburg, and William Roup, of Spruce Creek, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Williams, of this place.

The last snow falling here has drifted in the roads badly, making it impossible for C. M. Chase's teams to make their regular trips from the mountain with paper wood.

W. G. L. Crain and son have moved the late residence of George Cornelius which was purchased from Dr. Thompson to a foundation near their place of business. Howard Eyy, of Half moon did the work making a success of it.

John Wizer, who recently moved from this place to Osceola, died at that place January 16th, of pneumonia. Interment was made in the Black Oak cemetery, of this place.

Mrs. George Harsbarger died at her home near this place on Saturday January 16th, of an ailment incident to childbirth, aged 45 years; leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her death; interment made at Gatesburg Lutheran cemetery.

Sheriff H. S. Taylor was a recent visitor to our town.

Coburn.

Tuesday morning 20° below zero.

Many of our people attended the horse sale at Millheim Tuesday.

J. M. Baker, of Igleby, was a Sunday visitor at the home of G. B. Shaffer.

W. E. Hosterman and wife and Mrs. T. H. Moz, all of near Woodard, visited their sick sister Miss Bertha Hosterman on Saturday.

Harvey Vonada and Frank Confer, of near Woodard, visited here on Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Rote (nee Snavelly) died on Saturday at the age of 62 years, 1 month and 6 days. She is survived by her husband, John Rote, and several brothers and sisters. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday by Rev. Lauffer, of the Reformed church, of which she was a member. Interment in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg.

Those on the sick list are Miss Mary Spigiemyer, Mrs. J. E. Harter and John Bonersox.

James Auman is still boarding at the old place. Harry couldn't oust him. He and Harry earn the flour and George the applebutter.

Lemont.

Phoebe Miller, of Shingletown, is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. Herman.

Frank Holderman, of Bellefonte, spent Friday evening with his grandparents, A. Holderman.

Myrtle William, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Rishel.

Mrs. James Williams, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. John Glenn.

The social that was held at Mrs. John Glenn's on Tuesday evening was largely attended.

John Weaver, of this place, died on Saturday evening; he had been sick all winter; he leaves a wife and nine children, 34 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren to mourn his loss. Interment was made in Tyronne on Tuesday afternoon; he was 76 years old.

Mrs. Linn Bottorf, who has been visiting here for several weeks, has gone to her home in Curwensville.

Andy Hassinger who has been housed up with erysipelas is able to be out again.

Cornelius Dale is seriously ill with pneumonia, we hope for his speedy recovery.

Madisonburg.

K. A. Miller and D. C. Carls took a business trip to Bellefonte on Wednesday.

Jacob Long and wife spent Tuesday evening at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Alice E. Duck, from Rebersburg, was the guest of her father a few days last week.

A. Guiser attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Mary Loose, at Snydertown, on Friday.

Mrs. J. E. Reber left for her home at Vicksburg, Pa., after a few weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. Catherine Pledler.

C. R. Miller had quite an accident on Friday while hauling logs on the Pledler farm south of town, by a log striking one of his ankles in such a way as to house him up for a few weeks.

E. D. Miller, from Rebersburg, was in town on Monday.

—Men's good all solid $1.75 working shoes, now $1.25. Yeager & Davis.

M. & W. Naumburg & Co. MAKERS NEW YORK.

The full Box Overcoat is modelled on the newest New York and London patterns, 45 inches long, broad shoulders, ample spread of skirt; very graceful, very stylish; best linings, best trimmings; hand tailored, dressy and serviceable, and very moderate price.

Look for our label. Your money back for anything not right. For sale by M. FAUBLE & SON, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Buffalo Run.

Jonas Stine, one of our oldest citizens, died this week from infirmities of old age.

Miss Esther Gray has returned from visiting friends in New York.

J. L. Mattern spent Sunday in Lemont, Mr. Wells recently moved to Bald Eagle.

Messrs Harry and Gyer Stine are home again for a few days, but will return to Pittsburg for their work again.

—Ladies $3 patent colt shoes, now $2.25. Yeager & Davis.

Advertisement for Green's Pharmacy featuring a cartoon of a man with a large stomach and a child. Text includes: "Company, Attention!", "The Human Locomotive.", "Price 25c at our store OR BY MAIL. GREEN'S PHARMACY, DRUGGISTS."