The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of Our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

Thermometer down about the zeros this morning.

Miss Myra Long, who was visiting in Steubenville, Ohio, has returned home.

Insurance agent F. K. Foster visited at his old home in Philadelphia last week.

Will VanTries who has been teaching in Trenton, N. J., arrived home owing to illness.

Dr. Geo. F. Harris will move his office from the Crider stone building to the Curtin house.

Samuel Campbell, the bustling furniture dealer, of Millheim, transacted business in town Friday.

Lester McClellan, who has been working at Bellwood, came home last week on account of illness.

Fred Chambers was obliged to come home from school since the Christmas holidays on account of sickness, but is able to be out of the house.

Architect Robert Cole, of Bellefonte, was a business visitor in Mill Hill recently. It is probable that he will have some work there in the near future.

The report that Wm. Derstine the tailor, had sold out and would move to Altoona, we find on inquiry, is not correct. We are pleased he will remain.

Miss Margaret McDermott has gone to Charleston, W. Va., to spend the winter with her brother Charles, who is superintendent of the C. and O. R. R. at that city.

Andrew Cruse, who has been located in Denver, Col., for several years, has been transferred by his firm to Omaha, Neb., where he has been given a much better position.

Will Cunningham, who has been working in Beaver Falls, for the Standard Scale Co., has returned home on account of illness. He is threatened with typhoid fever.

Wm. Lyon, the Bellefonte butcher with a generous fund of tales to relate, was down on Tuesday to replenish his meat market from Brown's stock yards.

Mr. Hindman, the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. secretary, is getting up a mock trial to be held in Pettikin Hall, Friday evening, February 5th, that promises to be a good entertainment.

Miss Martha McEntire, of Bellefonte, has accepted the position of private secretary and stenographer for Prof. Pond, of State College. For several years past she was in Zeller's drug store.

Robert Cole has completed a set of plans for a handsome residence to be erected at Mill Hill, Pa., for C. A. Mann, the axe manufacturer, whose home was destroyed there by fire last year.

No-ba-na-ne, the passenger engine on the Central which was seriously damaged by fire several weeks ago, has been repaired and is now out on the regular run, looking as neat and trim as ever. The engine was repaired at this place.

Grant Hoover, the insurance man, has been distributing some fine state, and U. S. maps, bearing the card of "The Title Guarantee & Trust Company" of Scranton who issue all kinds of surety bonds. Of course he left one at our office.

This spring E. H. Richard, will move across east Linn street into the Orvis house; J. W. Gephart has rented the Thomas property on the corner of Curtin and Allegheny streets and L. T. Munson will move into the house on east Linn street now occupied by Gepharts.

Michael Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, gave our sanctum a call. Talking about the recent cold weather, he lived in Penn township in 1858 and in that year or 1859, he tells us that the thermometer registered 34 degrees below zero, which matches, if not exceeds, the record of this winter.

Arthur B. Kimport, of Linden Hall, was in town several days last week interviewing friends as to his candidacy for Prothonotary this year. He met so much encouragement as to call around and have his announcement inserted in the paper this week. Mr. Kimport served as clerk in the prothonotary's office for several years, and the entire legal profession were always pleased with his excellent work and courteous manner.

Robt. Garman, the jeweler of Tyrone, paid friends in Bellefonte a visit over Sunday. He was accompanied by his best friend Miss Virginia Bouse, daughter of yardmaster Wm. Bouse, of Tyrone. When closely questioned Bobby had to admit that their wedding would take place in May next; he has a right to feel proud for she is a worthy young lady. Miss Bouse is a grand daughter of Rev. Bouse, deceased, a prominent Methodist minister who filled several appointments in this county.

"A Royal Slave" at the opera house on Monday evening.

Our sale register this week has quite a number of new ones.

Miss Bessie Sharpe, who was visiting friends in Tyrone, has returned to her home here.

There was a fair attendance at court this week, but no cases of unusual interest on trial.

"A Royal Slave" at the opera house on Monday evening. Manager Garman says it is a good production.

Dr. Barker, veterinarian of Coburn, was in town and illumined our sanctum for an hour with his presence.

William Barner is confined to his home on north Spring street, suffering with inflammatory rheumatism.

Howe Stevens was summoned to Tyrone Tuesday by the sudden death of his mother, Mrs. A. A. Stevens.

Our Rebersburg correspondent mentions the death of Mrs. Daniel Harter, at Williamsport, formerly of Rebersburg.

A merry sled load of people from Pleasant Gap were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Knisely on Friday evening.

David Glasgow, of Tusseyville, and G. W. Keller, of Altoona, were two pleasant callers in our sanctum. Also A. P. Zerby, of Sober.

Last Friday a span of the railroad bridge over Spring creek leading from the P. R. R. track to the lime kilns of the American Lime & Stone company, along the pike washed away.

Jno. Stewart, one of our bustling democrats of Munson Station, paid us a short call on Monday. He is hopeful of securing a new voting precinct for that part of Rush township.

Amos Oberdorf, of Clintondale, was a caller, and will have sale March 9, when he will make his home with his son, Milton, at Jersey Shore. Mr. Oberdorf was a former citizen of Centre Hall.

The following were pleasant callers in the Democrat's sanctum: Benj. Breen, Conrad Immel and Wm. Ripka, all of Gregg; also E. M. Boone and J. W. Winkieblech, of Haines; Wm. Kaufman, of Nittany.

Saturday evening, the Bellefonte Academy and the Susquehanna University, Pa., basket ball teams had an interesting game in the Army in which the Academy team more than excelled by a score of 20 to 6.

From some of the correspondence this week we are forced to omit items because written with such abominable carelessness that neither head nor tail can be deciphered. Please see that all is put down in readable shape, always.

The revival in the M. E. church, which the pastor, Rev. Woods, has been conducting for nigh three weeks, is attended by large audiences. Sunday night every foot of standing room was taken up. The number of conversions up to Wednesday a member informs us, was forty-five.

Capt. Denton and wife, of Corning, N. Y., the new Salvation Army officers at this place, arrived in town Saturday. Capt. and Mrs. Urban and Lieut. Dorsh, of the Salvation Army, went to Olean, N. Y., to visit friends and will then locate at Corning N. Y. Lieut. Dorsh went direct to her new field of usefulness at Corning, N. Y.

E. T. Baykin, a special accountant connected with the U. S. census bureau at Washington, was at the court house this week gathering statistics in regard to the "Wealth, Debt and Taxation" of boroughs, counties and cities, which is being compiled over the country for publication. He finds Centre county able to make an exceptional showing, probably better than any similar district in the state. His report is made from the year 1902.

The Rev. Frank D. Gamewell, Ph. D. late missionary in Peking, China, will deliver his lecture on "The Seige of Peking" in the State College auditorium next Saturday evening. If a sufficient number go the Bellefonte Central will run a special train, leaving here at 6:30 p. m. and returning after the lecture. Round trip 50 cts. Reserve seats for lecture 25 cts. Chart at Y. M. C. A. until Friday evening.

The outfit of the F. B. Stover meat market, this place, along with some household goods, will be offered at public sale, Saturday, February 27, after which the Centre Democrat will secure possession of the room and work will be commenced at once to fit it up for our future business office and after April 1st, we expect to occupy the residence. Mr. Stover and family, we understand, contemplate moving to Altoona where they will engage in some other business.

No period in the romantic history of Mexico is more interesting than the short and brilliant reign and meteor-like fall of the Emperor Maximilian. It is during this period that the story of "A Royal Slave is laid." The leading characters are of the proud old Castilian stock of the aristocratic families of Mexico, and the Royal Slave himself El Aguilá (The Eagle) is the last descendant of the Montezumas, the ancient Aztec kings, but himself a Peon, or slave of the family Daore. His is a splendid life picture of a race now scarcely more than a memory. A Royal Slave will be at the opera house on Monday evening, Jan. 30th.

VARIETY OF LOCAL NEWS

Gathered From Centre and Adjoining Counties

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors

John Wetzel, of Spring township, is going to retire from farming this spring.

John Gates, of Ferguson twp., is arranging to move to Illinois in the spring.

Rev. W. J. Carson has resigned as pastor of the Milesburg Presbyterian church.

Teacher's local institute will be held at Boalsburg, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 5th and 6th.

The sale of the 20 acre farm of G. W. Young, near Potters Mills, has been adjourned to next Friday 29, at 1 p. m.

The capital stock of the Moshannon National bank of Phillipsburg has been increased to $100,000. It was $50,000.

John Williams, west of Centre Hall, on entering his stable the other morning found one of his horses had a broken leg.

Ellis S. Shaffer has been seriously ill during the past few weeks; he went to Madisonburg to remain with relatives until he fully recovers.

Dr. George Green, formerly of Buffalo Run, but now a practicing physician in Lock Haven, has been elected president of the Clinton County Medical Society.

At the home of J. I. Cheesman, at Altoona, Wednesday afternoon, 20th, Miss Emma Berry, of Altoona, was united in marriage to Christian Schenck, of Howard. They will make their future home at Howard.

The operation on the eye of J. Shanon Boal, of Centre Hall, at the Wells Eye Hospital in Philadelphia, last week was a success. Mr. Boal is an elderly man and for several years was deprived of his sight by a cataract.

Mrs. Stine, formerly of Curtin, but more recently of Pittsburg, died in that city on Sunday, Jan. 17. Her remains were brought to Curtin where funeral services were conducted, interment was made in Curtin cemetery. Two sons and one daughter, all of Pittsburg, survive.

It seems that the project for establishing a cannery factory at Centre Hall was turned down because, upon independent investigation there would be more profit in building the plant than in operating it. In other sections of the county we would advise people to go slow.

Harry Dunkle, of Mingo, who is lumbering in Little Sugar valley, last week found a big wild turkey standing bolt upright in the snow and frozen as stiff as a poker. The bird had flown from a tree, and, landing in the snow, had walked a few rods and then perished.

Dr. C. S. Musser, of Aaronsburg, as stated by John C. Groff, of Lewisburg, a representative of the state board of health, thoroughly fumigated the store and dwelling of J. W. Glasgow, at Coburn, who recently lost several children by diphtheria. Every precaution has been taken to eradicate the disease.

Frank E. Arney, while assisting in the moulding room of the Lose Manufacturing Co's establishment, at Centre Hall, was severely burned last week. For some unknown reason, melted metal from the cupolo spurted in all directions, a portion of which struck Mr. Arney in the eye. He will not lose the sight of the eye.

Mrs. Clara Idings, of Wingate, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. E. Wilson in Coatsville, went to the German Hospital, Philadelphia, to have an operation performed on her right hand and arm, which she has not been able to use for the last two years owing to a bad case of blood poisoning. The operation was most satisfactory.

The United Evangelical church at Lemont will be reopened Sunday 31st. Services will be held Saturday evening previous; three sessions Sunday. Sunday afternoon there will be a platform meeting, at which neighboring ministers will take part. Rev. M. I. Jamison, of Altoona, will be present and have the various meetings in charge. The church has been thoroughly overhauled.

Rev. G. W. McInay, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal society at Spring Mills, is a popular preacher. He was given a birthday surprise party recently when about thirty members of the congregation called without the formality of previous notice, bringing suitable gifts, for each member of the family. He had previously received a splendid storm overcoat and a good piece of substantial value.

The horse sale of Gentzel & Beezer at Millheim on Tuesday 12th, was well attended. They were sold at an average price of $160.03. The following persons were the purchasers: Thos. Brungart, 1; J. W. Grove, 1; A. A. Stover, 1; E. E. Swartz, 2; D. A. Groye, 2; Frank Beezer, 1; Jno. S. Hoover, 2; C. W. Taylor, 1; Geo. Rishel, 2; Thos. Beaver, 1; Jno. Rishel, 2; John Hubler, 1, Harry Pilmore, 1.

William R. Kelly, of Spring Mills, was treated at the Altoona hospital Thursday for frozen feet, caused by exposure.

Joseph Stine, one of the oldest residents of this county, died at his home near Matterville one day last week in his 86th year.

Owing to the thaw last week the famous inland lake, on the Gentzel farms, east of town appeared again, but was not near as large as at other times.

Farmer Ed. Marshall was in on Tuesday to order his sale bills. He reports the roads in his section of Benner township blocked for over a week by drifts and that the mail route for several days was abandoned.

John Ripka, of Spring Mills, met with a serious misfortune while working in the woods for Adam Pinkie. Mr. Ripka was struck by one end of the log with sufficient force to break and splinter the bone near the ankle.

Ammon Gramley and family, of near Jacksonville, will make sale this spring of farm stock, as they are going to Woolrich, Clinton county, where Mr. Gramley and three of his daughters have secured good positions in the factory. For some time he was farming for his father extreasurer James J. Gramly.

The item taken from last week's issue of the Centre Democrat is not correct, as to the new individual communion set, recently purchased for the Lutheran congregation at Boalsburg; it was paid for by members of the congregation and not by Mrs. Henry Gingerich, Mrs. Gingerich held the subscription paper, says a letter.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Sarah Wilson on Tuesday 19th, the contracting parties were John Eckert, of Williamsport, and Miss Sarah Jane Wilson, of Unionville, -66 and 65 years. A number of the neighbors were invited and a very nice dinner was served. The happy couple have the best wishes of all.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Peters, with their baby girl, arrived at Pine Grove from Downs, Kansas, last week to visit their parental homes in this county. Mr. Peters went west with his father when a lad of eight years. They were married only a few years ago and have since been living near Downs, where he is a very successful farmer.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hines, at Mingo, on Thursday, Jan. 21, when their daughter, Lizzie, was united in marriage to Joseph E. Herman. Promptly at twelve o'clock the contracting parties, with Miss Cora Witman, of Hublersburg; as bridesmaid and Perry Hines as groomsmen, appeared before Rev. H. I. Crow who pronounced them man and wife. A sumptuous dinner was in waiting which all enjoyed. The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for Millheim. Their future home will be at Mingo.

President of the Bellefonte School Board and United States Deputy Revenue Collector George Washington Reese, of the west ward, was a candidate for re election to the school board. His masterly oratorical effort at the last commencement inspired him to make further sacrifices in behalf of the rising generations. The Young Men's Republican Club thought he was entirely too progressive (?), but Wash claims to have "licked them to a stand still," but an unexpected dart killed Cock Robin. The Revenue Department heard of George Washington's escapades and achievements, and promptly notified him if that he wanted to be a politician and School Director he must give up his collectorship. That was the blow that finished his lofty aspirations. Who reported him to the Department? Who killed Cock Robin?

The following are the nominations: Democrat: Office: Republican: NORTH WARD: J. C. Harper, Judge of election, S. B. Miller, J. P. Smith, Inspector, W. H. Musser, J. P. Smith, School director, H. C. Quigley, Daniel Heckman, councilman, Harry Keller, councilman, S. A. Bell, councilman.

BOROUGH TICKET: Geo. R. Meek, assessor, H. B. P. of us, Thos. Howley, overseer of poor, John Love, auditor, C. K. Hicklen.

Benj. Breen, of Sober, served as juror and favored the Democrat with a call.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

- J. H. Reinsnyder to H. T. Zerby, Nov. 23, 1901; land in Haines twp. $243 30. Jacob Herman to Mingo, Lizzie C. Hines to Phillipsburg, Edward Farber to Phillipsburg, Emma Burge to Bellefonte, Joseph Nolan to Bellefonte, Rebecca Gardner to Julian, Calvin Hale to Julian, Nora M. Adams to Fleming, W. R. Potter to Fleming, Lizzie Shipley to Fleming.

EDWARD GARRETT DROWNED.

Friday night at bridge No. 9, crossing Beech Creek, on the New York Central railroad, a short distance above Hayes run, Edward Garrett, of Mill Hall, formerly of Bellefonte, met a tragic death while Charles Hunter, also of Mill Hall, and Charles Peters, of near Beech Creek, were severely injured.

The men with others were at work on the bridge, which is being reconstructed. The ice had been broken up in the creek and had jammed to a height of twelve feet and for a distance of half a mile against the false work above the bridge. As it appeared to be solid, with no signs of giving way, Foreman Charles Hunter put a crew of the men at work removing the valuable timbers, in order to prevent them being torn out and carried down stream. The men had taken out two car loads of the false work, when without warning, the jam suddenly started. Edward Garrett, who was standing on the timber work, was swept away in the high mass of rushing ice and was carried down stream. Up to the present time his body has not been recovered. Foreman Charles Hunter and Charles Peters also had narrow escapes from being carried to death, but by great efforts both managed to save themselves. They were, however, caught in the falling timbers, which severely bruised Mr. Hunter on the body, while one of Mr. Peters' hands was badly bruised and sprained. He was brought down the road at an early hour Saturday morning and was taken to the Lock Haven hospital.

Mr. Garrett, who lost his life, was about 30 years old. He leaves a wife and child, whom he bade good bye at his home in Mill Hall Friday morning as he left to go to the bridge to work. He was the son of Samuel Garrett. A few years ago he was married to Miss Deborah Rhoads, a daughter of the late George Rhoads of Half Moon Hill. He also leaves three brothers and one sister, namely: Collins, of Niagara Falls; Will and Harry, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Harper Hoffman, of Williamsport. Mr. Garrett moved to Mill Hall about two years ago. He was a member of Bellefonte Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle.
