

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

Happenings of a Week Over Centre County

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE

What Has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Rebersburg.

On last Saturday morning the sad news reached this town that Mrs. D. W. Harter, from Williamsport, had died from a paralytic stroke. About the middle of last November Mr. Harter and wife moved to the above place to make it their future home, leaving a host of relatives and friends at this place. Her remains were brought to this place for burial. The funeral was held on Wednesday forenoon, services in the Reformed church conducted by her former pastor, Rev. Weizel. Her age was about 64 years. Mr. Harter has the sympathy of this entire community in this sad bereavement.

The farmers institute to be held at this place, Feb. 5 and 6, promises to be a success. The committee are doing their utmost to make this the best institute ever held at Rebersburg. Come and see. Admittance free.

Roland Royer and wife, from Altoona, are visiting friends here at present.

The recent rains compelled supervisor J. J. Gramley to open the roads which were badly drifted by the severe blizzards.

Miss Ella Corman is afflicted with rheumatism at this writing.

Our people have no more faith in wire fences along public roads to guard against drifting. It is a fact where wire fences are at such places the snow banks are higher than where the old worm or board fences are.

J. W. Mitterling, from Centre Hall, was through here last week buying a car load of cows.

Clayton Brungart, Clayton Weaver and Wm. Ziegler are at Bellefonte this week serving as jurors.

The democratic caucus on Saturday was well attended.

Milesburg.

Morris Furey, one of the leading farmers of Spring twp., on Saturday last was in the burg on a business trip; come again, Morris.

Miss Bouse, of Tyrone is a guest of Miss Lorene Mattern at this place.

Wm. E. Pritel and son Herbert, of Howard, spent Saturday with his sister Mrs. Sam'l Swarm.

Wm. Treaster, of Lamar, spent a night with his sister, Mrs. Levi Grubb.

Wm. Grubb, of Tyrone, Sunday with his grandmother and aunt, Mrs. McClellan.

Frank Baird is again papa; a daughter was born unto him the morning of the 16th.

A sled load of young folks from Unionville, attended the M. E. revival on the evening of the 15th.

John A. Whiteman and family are returning to A-hatola to take charge of the boarding house again in the near future, as the company are anxious to have them return.

Sam'l Baird has purchased the Whiteman's bakery on Market street. He solicits the patronage of the public; give the young man a trial, he is worthy of your patronage.

A social party was given to 60 young folks recently; the sled load from Buffalo Run added much to the already filled house of Frank Wallace, Sr., and wife; the night passed off joyfully, a more surprised set of persons is not often witnessed as when called to partake of the bountiful refreshments; to use the words of some, immense it was.

Mingoville.

Shuman Zimmerman was one of the committee who inspected the new iron bridge near Ragleville last Thursday.

Myra Peters spent a few hours at home last Saturday night.

C. C. and W. L. Workman transacted business in Lock Haven, Saturday.

On Thursday 21st, at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Jos. E. Herman and Lizzie B. Hinds were united in marriage by Rev. H. Crow, of Hubbersburg. The best man was Perry Hinds, brother of the bride and the bridesmaid was Miss Cora Whitman, of Hubbersburg. Shortly following the wedding a royal dinner was partaken of by the select party of invited friends. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

A leap year party from Bellefonte were very pleasantly entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Workman, last Wednesday night. The evening passed very pleasantly with games of various kinds, music and refreshments.

Last Tuesday evening when the train arrived all the inhabitants of this place were at the depot waiting patiently to welcome home a young man who has been away for almost three weeks, think of it! We are glad to say he is looking well and says he had a delightful trip.

Oak Hall.

Miss Anna M. Dale attended Pomona Grange at Milesburg on Friday.

Messrs David Campbell and Clyde Welland, of Linden Hall, passed through town enroute for Milesburg.

Bessie, the youngest daughter of C. J. Kline, is ill at present.

Mrs. Geo. Bailey and daughters and Mrs. Wm. Kahn, of Altoona, are visiting at John Kline's.

Messrs Lyon and Stewart, of Bellefonte, were in town on Monday.

—Krumrine's Instantaneous Headache Powders will relieve the most obstinate cases of nervous and sick headache. 10 cents.

Let a woman think she is having her own way and she is happy.

Howard.

On last Friday morning our lumberman, John H. Diehl, saw a blue bird. That is a sign of spring.

Daniel Hall, of Unionville, was a visitor at this place last Saturday.

Mrs. Carrie Smith, departed Wednesday for Smithfield, W. Va.

Joseph D. Diehl received a car load of coal on Monday.

Christie Schenck arrived home last Wednesday night.

Misses Maude and Bessie Confer, who are employed at Renovo, are visiting their parents at this place.

Quite a few of our young men attended the opera, "Miss Bob White," at Lock Haven, last Monday night.

Miss Kathryn Confer spent a few days with friends at Bellefonte last week.

Since Vinton has returned from his mountain trip he can speak Hungarian and Slavish. But Tillie and Edna were very sorry to see him start for home.

The Harvy Walker family on Marsh Creek, 3 miles north of Eagleville, who have been under quarantine owing to their having visited the Hannon family who have smallpox have been reported to have the disease. Dr. McEntire was summoned there late Saturday night, but the symptoms would not justify the doctor to pronounce it smallpox, although he says it is suspicious. The entire Hannon family, six in number, are now down with smallpox, the first case is convalescing and their physician is doing all in his power to prevent any further contagion.

Houses will be in great demand this spring.

Ira Johnson is reported to be showing some improvement in health.

Miss Maude Rimert, having completed her term of school at Keating, has returned home.

Miss Josephine McEntire has been quite ill the past week, but is some better.

J. Will Mayes, has been confined to the house the past few days suffering from articular rheumatism.

Thomas Butler, one of our oldest citizens, has been in poor health for some time. His physician Dr. McEntire reports his condition somewhat improved.

A soft coal famine seemed imminent here last week as the supply in both yards was exhausted.

Nittany.

The series of meetings in the Evangelical church closed on Sunday evening; there were seven conversions.

There was a regular break up in the weather the past week.

Miss Bertha Loose has returned to Williamsport to finish her term in the hospital; she has four weeks yet to serve; she had been called home by the death of her mother last week.

H. P. Zerby and wife were to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Came to Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Baker, a young daughter on the 16th inst.

Misses Clara and Edith Weaver, of Hubbersburg, were at church on Saturday evening, also Joe Weaver and Jake Berkstresser.

Mother Young is suffering very much at present with a felon on her left thumb.

Caucus meeting seemed to be a very quiet affair on Saturday evening; the writer not being there, can't give account of what was done.

N. C. Dorman, of Jersey Shore, spent Sunday with his wife and daughter, at this place. Mrs. Dorman being sick at her sister's home since Xmas and is not improving very much.

Miss Minnie Winkleman spent the last week at her home at this place.

Those on the sick list at present are Mrs. Dorman, Mrs. H. M. Long and son Charles, and Mr. Baker's baby.

Farmer's Mills.

They say W. J. G. and L. G. R. had a nice walk, home from spelling school the other Tuesday night.

Wm. Krader, from Coburn, is clerking for J. H. Rishel.

Albert Bradford made a flying trip to Lewistown last week.

H. P. Hagan, from Linden Hall, spent Sunday at home.

Quite a number of our people attended the democratic caucus at Penn Hall, Saturday afternoon.

The spelling school held by M. T. Zabler was not well attended on account of the bad weather.

Dan'l Ream, from Ghost Hollow, was seen along the dam trying to trap ghosts, Saturday night. But as it was growing dark he became frightened and began to run; he suddenly stopped in at a certain place where he was kept all night by the lady of the house.

S. G. says he would much rather live at Farmer's Mills than along the pike. I wonder why?

Mt. Eagle.

We had quite a cold winter until this break up; the fall of so much rain made quite a flood in Bald Eagle creek and several ice gorges; but not much damage done.

The sale of the N. J. Leathers estate last Wednesday was largely attended; things brought good prices.

There was quite a wreck on the Bald Eagle railroad last week, smashed several cars but no one got hurt; the wreck furnished some people coal for the hard winter.

There are several cases of smallpox in our borough at present, and the board of health are trying to prevent the spreading of the disease.

A sled load of young people started out last Friday evening to surprise some one, but they got the rubber neck; the high water headed them off and they had to come back.

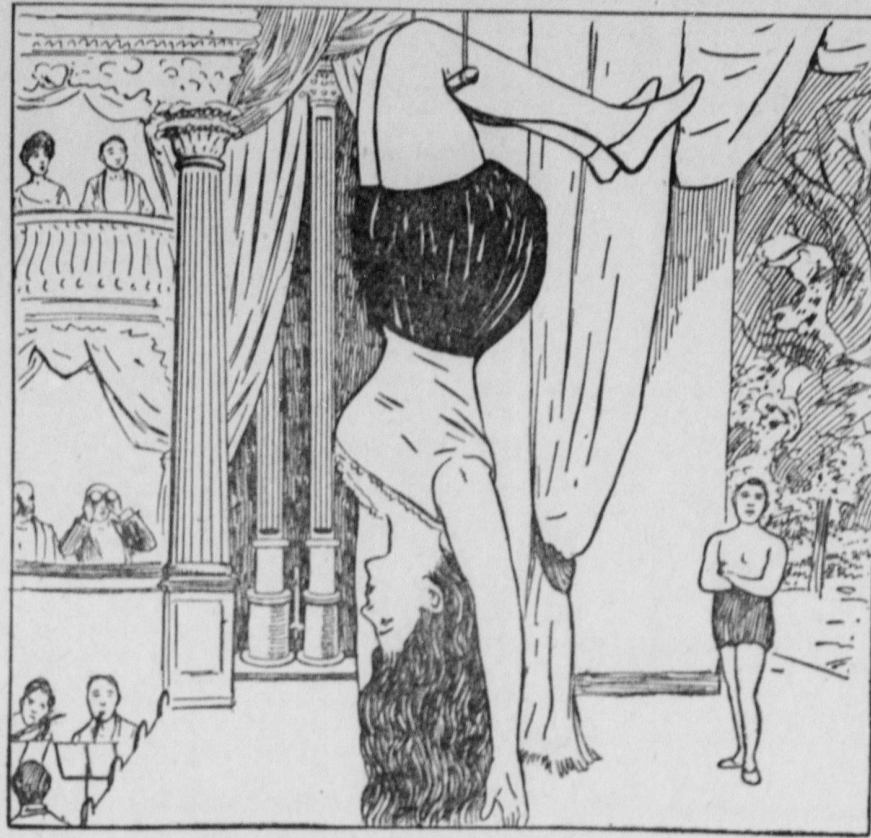

David Tanyer was a visitor at John Turner's on Sunday.

The roads in this valley is very rough and icy; it is hard to drive.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it today. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! No baking! Simply add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors—Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocers today. 10 cents.

PICTORIAL PUZZLE.

FIND HIDDEN ACROBAT AND OPERA GLASSES.

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK'S PUZZLE—Turn left side of picture down. Body of referee is outlined by outstretched left arm of boxer on lower side of picture, his head touching left glove of same boxer. Turn right side of picture down. Pail is between body of same boxer and top of picture, when thus held.

Hubbersburg.

The republican and democratic caucuses were held at Grange hall, Saturday, Jan. 23d.

There was a large sleighing party at the home of J. H. Rothmell, from Mill Hall, last Wednesday night. All report having a good time.

Jacob Bergstresser returned home last Saturday from his trip to the west.

The Rev. H. I. Crow had a spill out of his sleigh last week—cause, drifted road.

The large party booked for Friday night at the residence of Albert Williams failed to come on account of rain storm, try again.

Messrs. Hoy and Beck loaded another car with wheat at this place on Friday.

Wheat and corn, like cotton, are up in price in this vicinity, which is gratifying to the farmer.

T. L. Kessinger and family spent Sunday in Bellefonte at his wife's home.

If any of Will Kessinger's friends should meet him, just ask him about the visitor he had last Friday. He'll tell you all about it.

Johnnie Maize has almost recovered from his severe accident, and was able to be brought home last Saturday.

If any of our town people have items of news or interest just hand it to the scribe he will be glad to transmit it.

The Gale Mfg. Co. had one of their agents here last week and established an agency here. If you want anything in the line of corn planters, cultivators or drills, call on Joe Emerick, the agent.

Frank Miller is getting ready to improve his home by putting up an addition to it.

Penn Hall.

The democratic caucus was largely attended at this place.

J. C. Condo made a business trip to Sugarvalley last week.

Luther Musser started a singing class at this place, a large attendance is solicited.

The boys in the cornet band of this place are taking new courage again—boys keep up the band.

Mrs. E. E. Zettle and son, Mrs. F. K. Frank and son, of this place, spent several days visiting friends last week, at Aaronsburg.

David Hennick was forced to change his mind and take to his heels suddenly while assisting Andrew Zettle to chase a made steer, the steer made a rush toward Hennick who had to run to save his life.

Well William, you should electioneer more for registration assessor?

Hurrah democratic brother's, let not a minute pass idle.

It naturally takes a razor to raise whiskers.

West Brush Valley.

Wm. Messimer and family, Mrs. Harvey Wert, Lizzie and Reuben Wert, Kate Jackson, Clyde Duck and Rev. O. L. Buck all spent Sunday at the home of James Wert.

B. P. Grenoble wife and son Charley spent Sunday at H. M. Wert's.

The caucus was largely attended at Penn Hall Saturday.

James Beck and sons transacted business in Millheim, Tuesday.

H. M. and R. E. Wert and Clyde Duck attended the horse sale at Millheim Tuesday.

F. P. Duck and son Dallas transacted business at Millheim last week.

The singing school conducted by Prof. George Wise closed Monday evening with a concert which was a success; the scholars showed the people that they have learned to sing.

The Brush valley scribe stated that the West Brush valley scribe took a visit to Pleasant valley, Starvation Hollow, which is a mistake.

Walker.

Henry Yearick is very ill.

Jonathan Condo, has been confined to bed for several weeks with pleuro pneumonia; at this writing he is slowly improving.

Chas. Sheasley, of State College, was in town last week.

Cal. Garbrick, above Jacksonville, had one of his horses kicked on the knee so badly it may have to be shot, the horse is valued at $200.

A daughter came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Yearick.

Preaching services in the United Evangelical church on Sunday afternoon next at 2:30.

Miss Maime Long has returned home from East End valley where she was working. She is suffering from rheumatism.

Beaver Dam.

W. A. Neese, of Penn Hall, was seen in our vicinity one day last week.

Jas Zerby is engaged in cutting apple wood.

Mrs. Sarah Houtz and sons of Salona, were visiting friends in Penns valley a few days.

Would like to know what became of that Plum Grove scribe last week, some one must have shot at him.

E. C. Zerby, Mr. Sittler wife and daughter, were guests at Wm. Zerby's over Sunday.

Hecla, you and paw had better watch yourselves, George said he had his shot gun ready.

The grass widow is generally in clover.

Fiedler.

Nicodemus Lose was down to Union county to attend a horse sale, but failed to bring any along.

G. W. Wolfe is shipping his staves as fast as they can pack them.

Harry Wartz has purchased a new sleigh.

The R. M. Wolfe estate are closing out their store goods at auction. Everybody should attend, as there are some good bargains.

On Thursday evening as one of our sports was going to see his best girl, two of our young men planned to play a joke on him, but the joke was not so easily played because he was too smart for them. Boys be careful how you fool around that fellow the next time.

Fred Malone wears a broad smile because it's a boy.

A. A. Stover purchased a fine horse at the Gentzel and Beezer horse sale at Millheim.

Nearly all our townspip roads were drifted shut.

The much looked for rain arrived at last.

Minnie Lukenbach, Stella Martin and Mary Rupp had a fine time on Saturday afternoon, taffy, hickorynuts, cakes and cider were some of the refreshments.

Lewis Snively is still without a cook.

Madisonburg.

Lea Swisher entertained a few of our young people Saturday evening at the hotel.

Claude has made a change; he is going to work for Mr. Stover.

Harry R. has received a position at the City Hotel for the coming summer.

The Comedy Co., of this town, will hold an entertainment in the Millheim town hall Saturday night.

John Rishel is going to work for the Klinefelter Milling Co.

Jacob Frank, Lloyd Miller and Mrs. Spayd are on the sick list. Geo. Miller who was severely burned is slowly improving.

H. Hockman and J. Rishel are about ready to start for St. Louis.

Dr. Smith is kept busy waiting on his many patients, almost day and night.

Hazel & Co. are doing quite a business at present.

Lemont.

Wm. Glenn, of Pine Grove, passed through our town on Thursday.

The ladies of the Evangelical church will have an oyster supper at the home of Mrs. J. E. Lenker on the 29; everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. John Bumgardner, of State College, spent Saturday with her parents, A. Holderman's.

Mrs. Julia Shuey is spending a few days with her brother D. A. Grove.

An entertainment will be given in the Presbyterian church of this place on Friday evening, the 23, by Rev. Myer, of Phillipsburg; we hope everybody will attend.

Tom Williams, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Maggie Armstrong.

Andrew Hassinger who has been suffering with rheumatism, is improving slowly.

Guyer Centre.

Good sleighing here for the last three weeks.

They had a surprise party for P. S. Gray; there were quite a number of folks there from Tyrone to see him.

Mart Smith is hauling mongolo wood for Mr. Baret; he has a brag team.

A big girl came to James McCool the other night, and he says he is going to keep it.

Mr. Miller is loading a car of wheat this week; he is a hustler.

Audy Smith is busy shoveling roads.

Zion.

Last Sunday Michael Corman, while on his way to church had the misfortune of breaking his sleigh.

Last Saturday night one of our men tried to stir up a fight with one of our boys; but he had better look out. He might be sorry for boasting about his fame in such a manner.

Pawny was electioneering after the auction on Saturday night. Guess he'd like to be a police, but he can't handle the mace yet.

RUTS!

The walking sick, what a crowd of them there are: Persons who are thin and weak but not sick enough to go to bed.

"Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.

To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.

Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.

There's new strength and flesh in every dose.

We will be glad to send you a few doses free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.
SCOTT & BOWNE,
Chemists,
409 Pearl St., N. Y.
50c. and $1; all druggists.

Aaronsburg.

Wm. Jamison, of Lock Haven, and Mr. Baker, of Lewisburg, were the guests of the Kline sisters one day last week.

Miss Maggie Roush, of Penn Hall, is visiting her sister Mrs. Annie Detwiler.

Harry Mensch, of Bellefonte, was home over Sunday.

Thos. Weaver and family has gone to Cresson, where he is engaged at plastering.

Julia Kreamer, who has been housed up the greater part of the winter, is not improving.

Daniel Wolfe, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, is confined to his bed at this writing.

Miss Jennie Rupp is down at Feidler nursing her sister, who has inflammatory rheumatism.

Ed. Swarm and family, of Ocean, N. Y., are visiting at Frederick Lambert's parents, of Mrs. Swarm.

Centre Line.

Walter Chronister, near Warriors Mark, is about ten inches taller—they have got a young daughter.

Godlieb Rabold was buried last Monday; he was 67 years and 5 months old; he was an old veteran, he belonged to company I, 5th reserves.

There is a certain young gentleman around this community likes to go sleigh riding and the girl is not much better; if they go these cold nights I