

It Wins The Confidence of Women.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription wins the confidence of women because of its "superior curative properties." There is no test which can be applied to this great medicine for weak and sick women which does not increase the esteem in which it is held as a safe and sure remedy for womanly ills. No wonder that "Favorite Prescription" has a large number of friends among suffering women.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is a superior tonic and nerve for weak, nervous, run-down women.

"I do not believe," writes Mrs. C. B. Lind, President of the "Harmony" Woman's Club, Milwaukee, residing at 126 Seventh St., Milwaukee, Wis., "any honest physician who would prescribe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for female troubles and observe the results could help but acknowledge it to be one of the finest remedies on the market to-day. Have tried it myself several times during the past three years, and have found it very satisfactory for a woman's system. A friend who is a chemist analyzed it and gave it unstinted praise as a highly concentrated herbal remedy, having superior curative properties. Your medicine has a large number of friends among suffering women, and I have yet to hear one speak disparagingly of its merits."

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. It is well described as "a highly concentrated herbal remedy having superior curative properties."

Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

What Is Style?

Mr. Goose and Mr. Green Bull Frog chanced to inhabit a pond quite near a fashionable hotel in the country.

Their little pond was not much larger than they needed for their comfort, but on the booklet advertising the hotel it was called "the lake."

Every evening the ladies and gentlemen from the hotel would put on their fine clothes and walk around the pond and say:

"Oh, look at the swan!"

"Oh, see the fine frog!"

Both Mr. Goose and Mr. Green Bull Frog were much pleased at being so recognized and determined to have some style in dress at the pond since they saw so much of it at the hotel. Each was to dress as best became him, and then together they were to decide on the style for the pond people. When each had put on his mannish clothes he hardly knew the other.

"THIS IS THE PROPER THING."

Mr. Goose was rigged out in coat and vest with a tall six story piecailly collar and high hat. Mr. Frog was dressed simply in a low standing collar and sporty derby.

"This is the proper thing," said Mr. Frog. "All the sports wear it." "Imagine what a sight I'd be in that little linen band," said the goose disgustedly. "This neck of mine needs a high board fence about it. And as for that hat—I should be lost to view."

"Think what a figure I'd cut in that collar of yours," grinned the frog. "It might do for a crown, and those clothes—oh, awful! I tell you mine is the style!"

"No, mine is, for yours wouldn't stay on me one moment."

At length the discussion waxed so warm that they came to blows, and the goose all but swallowed the frog.

Then, with collars torn and clothes rent and hats smashed, they sat down on the bank, panting.

"I guess the style," said Mr. Goose, smoothing down his ruffled feathers, "is to wear what suits you best."

"I guess you speak the truth," panted Mr. Frog.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Rabbit's Suggestion

"Is that the same hat you wore Easter?" asked Mr. Rabbit of Miss Hippo, who was going to attend the theater with him.

"Yes," answered Miss Hippo; "this is the same hat, and isn't it beautiful?"

"It is, indeed," replied Mr. Rabbit.

"But don't you think that it would be far prettier if you had a little rabbit

"IN THAT THE SAME HAT YOU WORE EASTER?"

on your hat instead of that feathery old bird? Rabbits are so much more beautiful than birds, you know."

"Do you really think so?" asked Miss Hippo.

"Oh, my, yes!" answered Mr. Rabbit.

"And do you wish me to have a rabbit on my hat instead of the bird?"

"Oh, my, yes!"

"I'll do anything to please you," said Miss Hippo coquettishly.

"I feel flattered," responded Mr. Rabbit.

"And so I shall just run a hatpin through your body and stick you on my hat," declared Miss Hippo as she made a grab for the frightened rabbit.

He gave one jump and barely managed to escape her. Then he started to run, and—well, maybe he is running yet.—Detroit Journal.
