

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of Our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

—Trains are still irregular, same as all winter.

—Mrs. Hunter Knisely is ill with erysipelas at her home.

—Joseph Runkle is rejoicing over a boy that came to his home Saturday.

—Some bad blood is brewing among local politicians, for the spring election.

—Abram Valentine has been quite ill at the home of Miss Emily Natt on Curtin street.

—Samuel Ard, one of Coburn's representative citizens, favored our sanctum with a call.

—High school students are preparing for an interesting debate next Monday afternoon.

—Miss Mary Hibbs, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. E. H. Richard.

—R. B. Treaster, ex-collector of Potter, attended court last week and favored the Democrat with a call.

—The attendance upon court this week was confined to litigants, jurors and witnesses, hence not large.

—Remember the Mock Court to be given in Petriken Hall tomorrow evening under the auspices of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A.

—Strohm Loe left for Baltimore where he has secured a lucrative position in the drafting room of the Government Ship Building Company.

—G. W. Marks, of Port Matilda, who by the way is one of our most reliable, versatile correspondents, was in town on Tuesday and paid us a short call.

—Assessor Dan Hosterman, of George town, near Coburn, was a caller, and reports the general health of that part of the kingdom good. Georgetown obtained some notoriety through his pen.

—If you are having sale this season you had better settle on your date and auctioneer at once. During March there will be on an average of four farm sales every day, scattered over the county.

—State Inspector M. D. Howe, of Delmar, Pa., was in Bellefonte last week and inspected Garman's opera house and other public buildings. He pronounced the opera house to be perfectly safe.

—Col. Ed. Chambers has some sporting blood; he now owns a fine stepper with a record of something like 208. Some of the old timers are likely to have dust thrown in their eyes any fine day.

—Rev. M. J. Jameson, pastor of an Evangelical church, of Altoona, made our sanctum a pleasant call. He is a former resident of Gregg twp., and is known as one of the foremost ministers of that church.

—Mrs. G. H. Bartley and family left on Monday for Clearfield where they will reside. Mr. Bartley was transferred from Bellefonte to there last September as a superintendent for the United Telephone Company.

—Harry C. Tibbens, formerly of Bellefonte, and a graduate of the Bellefonte High school in '89, has accepted the position of advertising manager of the department store of Stone & Thomas of Wheeling, West Va.

—Wm. C. Sheesley, of Coburn, Pa., on his way to Durbin, W. Va., to erect a large saw mill for a lumbering firm, stopped in to see us and have the paper follow after. He was going with a party of about a dozen other lumbermen from this county.

—Dr. John Sebring will move into the property now occupied by Dr. Locke. Wm. Dawson will take the property now occupied by Dr. Sebring and Philip Beezer who has purchased the Dawson property on the opposite corner will move into it.

—Last Saturday the new pumping station was started again. Some alterations were made that have increased the capacity of the plant and at present will handle more water than is required for ordinary purposes. With the additional wheel installed at the spring all use of steam power in the future can be avoided.

—The Bellefonte government weather station had the following readings for the months of November, December and January: November had one inch of snow on 30—light snow squalls not counted, and 24 days below freezing. Seven snows, in December, total 15 1/2 inches every day in December below freezing. January had seven snows, total 25 inches and every day below freezing.

—Some farmers are of the opinion that the wheat fields suffered somewhat by the intense cold this winter, mostly where the snow had been blown away by high winds. However, there was no alternating of freezes and thaws, which is most injurious to the wheat plant, the frost raising the surface tears the plant from its roots. That the freeze has been a continuous has served to a good purpose.

—Mrs. A. L. Garman, of Tyrone, visited friends in Bellefonte Monday.

—No marriage licenses were issued this week by Register A. G. Archer. That is an unusual occurrence.

—Abraham Valentine, who is ill at the home of Miss Emily Natt on Curtin street, is poorly with little hope of recovery.

—Mrs. Geo. L. Potter accompanied Mrs. Hastings to Harrisburg, Monday morning, where she will be her guest for a week.

—Landlord Runkle, of Centre Hall, gave the Democrat a call. He purchased the Kurtz lot on Church street at that place.

—Several canning factories that were to have been started in a few towns of this county, from all accounts have been "canned."

—Isaac Bickle, of Milesburg, appreciates the Centre Democrat for he always keeps it in advance and others of the family do the same.

—Farmer's find the Centre Democrat a very useful medium for announcing their sales. Our list is quite large—all leading sales are in it.

—Peter Keichline purchased the Stover property on Willowbank street this week, and will continue to occupy the same as his permanent residence.

—A first class Mock Trial is highly amusing to young and old. For that reason go to Petriken Hall tomorrow evening as there will be lots of fun.

—George Waite, Jr., of this place, and Miss Sadie Gray, of Milesburg, were married last evening at the Methodist parsonage, at Milesburg, by Rev. R. H. Wharton.

—A sauerkraut supper and progressive euchre party will be held in St. John's Catholic hall this Thursday evening by the ladies of the Catholic church. All are invited.

—Mrs. G. W. Lingle, of Beech Creek, is seriously ill with heart trouble at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Clark in Bellefonte, where Mr. and Mrs. Lingle have been spending the winter.

—Tuesday was Candlemas day and if predictions are any ways reliable we will have a stiff spell of weather for the next six weeks. Mr. Groundhog certainly saw his shadow early in the morning.

—The first of a series of Basket Ball games between the Bellefonte Academy and the Bellefonte Athletic Club will be played in the Armory, this Thursday evening, February 4th, at 8:15. Admission 25 cents.

—The gloomy appearance about the Brockerhoff House front at night has been dispelled by landlord Ray who had the front illuminated with four additional strong lights and two new artistic lamps on the posts. It is a decided improvement.

—T. A. Hosterman, one of Coburn's active young business men, transacted business in town this week. He reports nothing startling at Coburn, farmers are marketing much grain and everybody is hopeful to see the Wabash engines throw smoke over in Highvalley.

—The announcement of Wm. Groh Runkle, Esq., as a candidate for District Attorney, appears in this issue. Mr. Runkle has been actively engaged in the practice in the Centre Co. courts for some years and is thoroughly qualified. He also has been a staunch and energetic Democrat, from an old-line democratic family and is worthy of support.

—Tuesday evening the ladies of the Reformed church held a Quaker Social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kaup about a mile east of town, that was well attended. Large sleds conveyed the guests from town and the ride was enjoyed, and many were present. The hospitality of the Kaup home cannot be surpassed, and especially upon such occasions.

—The public sale season in this county, lasting to the end of March, is about to open. The number of sales is quite large as will be seen by the sale register in the Centre Democrat—mostly farmers who quit that occupation. Horses, horn cattle, swine, sheep, and agricultural machinery and implements, will be offered in abundance—where one farmer quits or leaves another takes his place and attends the sales to buy his "stuff."

—Rev. Samuel E. Kooz, pastor of the Evangelical church at New Berlin, Pa., attended to legal business, on Wednesday, relative to the estate of his father-in-law, David M. Harter, who died last week. Rev. Kooz and Calvin M. Harter have been made administrators of the estate. Rev. Kooz's father was pastor of the Bellefonte Evangelical congregation some years ago and under his pastorate the church on Willowbank street was erected.

—Thomas J. Sexton, Esq., one of our prominent young attorneys, will leave Bellefonte on Saturday for St. Marys, Pa., where he expects to be permanently located and will continue in the legal profession associated with Francis A. Hauber, Esq., a leading attorney at that bar. Mr. Sexton came here from Tyrone, read law in the office of Orvis, Bowler & Orvis, after which he was continually engaged in the practice in our courts. Mr. Sexton is a steady, studious and able attorney who was considered one of the successful young practitioners at this bar, with a promising future awaiting him. We are sorry to see him make the change, and hope he will prosper in his new field.

Gathered From Centre and Adjoining Counties

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors

Millheim is surrounded by water yet nary a water works. Surely nature is not to blame.

William Walters, of Potter twp., next spring will move to a farm near Burnham, Mifflin county.

The commissioners, of Clearfield, have fixed the county tax rate at six and three-fourth mills. Ain't you glad you are living in Centre county.

G. A. Zerby, of near Wolf's Store, will leave with his family for Berrien Springs, Berrien county, Michigan, this spring, where he will engage in farming.

Having sold the Boalsburg hotel to Theodore Boal, Oliver Gibbons will move onto the farm, near Salasburg, Huntingdon county, he recently purchased from Dr. L. E. Kidder, of Boalsburg.

Peter Ishler, engaged in the lumber business down in West Virginia, is home for a month's rest with his little family in Boalsburg. He expects to cut three million of feet this summer which will employ some 15 or 20 men.

The Hiram Cain farm, one mile south of Spring Mills, was sold to L. W. Walker, of Altoona. Price, $4,400. Mr. Walker is a brother of ex-Sheriff Miles W. Walker, and it is his intention to occupy the premises next spring.

Ed. Sweetwood, of Potters Mills, has the following score for trapping this season: Four foxes, thirteen skunks, ninety-six musk rats, nine opossums, two minks. One of the minks was white as snow, and one of the foxes was tailless.

Thursday, 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Schreckengast at Tylersville, their daughter Margaret was married to Wesley Hosterman of Woodland, Pa. After a bounteous wedding dinner the couple started for Johnstown, where the groom is employed.

State Board of Agriculture met at Harrisburg, on 27. Vice President J. A. Herr, of Clinton county, presided. Gov. Pennypacker made a short address.

Gen. J. A. Beaver extended an invitation to the board to meet next year in Bellefonte, and the invitation was accepted.

The poor overseer of Greene township, Clinton county, has brought suit against the overseer of Haines township, Centre county, for the maintenance of Mrs. Brine and her child, who are living with old Mr. Swartwood for the past several years. The suit was brought before Squire W. C. Weber, but was continued for a further hearing.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society, of State College, will have a fair on Friday, Feb. 19th, at the Kemmerer home on College avenue. The money earned will be set apart for the erection of a Lutheran church in State College. A Lutheran church must soon be erected in that vicinity, because the Pine Hill congregation is without a church building on account of fire.

H. W. Love, who resided for several years in Lewisburg, but at present at Wilkensburg, one of the live and hustling suburbs of Pittsburg, says in a letter he recently had the misfortune to have one of his fingers almost severed by a saw. He also states that work in that section is not very plenty now on account of the extreme cold weather and the strike. Hud is a native of Tusseyville.

Tuesday night, 26th, Elias C. Zerby, of Penn township, was awakened from his sleep by the smell of smoke, and upon investigation discovered that his house was on fire. It is supposed that the chimney had burned during the night and sparks dropped to the lower story igniting the floor close to the cook stove. The fire was extinguished just in time to save the stove from falling through the floor into the cellar. The damage is small.

The Tyrone Herald says: The people of Tyrone and Bellefonte it is understood are agitating the question of better mail service on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad between Lock Haven and Tyrone. They will ask the department to have a mail clerk on the train leaving at 12:10 and also on the train leaving Tyrone at 12:25. A service of this kind will be appreciated not only by the people of Lock Haven, Tyrone and Bellefonte, but by the residents all along the line.

Daniel A. Grove had a miraculous escape of his life. On his way home from the Millheim horse sale last week, the two horses which he bought broke loose from him at Pleasant Gap toll gate. After running some distance they were stopped by some gentlemen until Mr. Grove came up and caught the excited animals by a rope halter, when the animals frightened and started at break-neck speed dragging him over the frozen ground for some forty rods when he managed to extricate himself and the horses ran clear over the mountain and were caught at Centre Hall. That he was not killed outright is a wonder.

A new band of twenty four pieces has been organized in Philipsburg.

Philipsburg Journal says: "It is stated that Hon. P. E. Womelsdorf, of this city, will announce himself as a candidate, on the Republican ticket for the Legislature.

John Rishel, farmer two miles east of Bellefonte, will petition for a free rural delivery route from Bellefonte, to cover his section and accommodate some sixty families. There will barely be any objection.

Logan Grange, of Pleasant Gap, will hold their thirteenth anniversary, Feb. 13, at 2 p. m. Prof. Surface, of State College, Hon. Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, and others will deliver addresses. The public is cordially invited.

The Philipsburg Journal says: "Allen Rumberger left this morning on a several day's trip to Patton, to take the place of his brother, Albert, who is suffering with tonsillitis. Albert is employed with the Denling Bros. Oil Co., at Patton." They are former Bellefonte boys.

James J. Gramley sold his farm in Gregg twp., last week, to Henry Mowery, of Aaronsburg, at an advance of $300 that he paid Mr. Smith for the property last fall. Mr. Gramley has since purchased the Wm. Bickel farm of 125 acres and also 29 acres of timberland adjoining.

Citizens of Philipsburg have contributed over $500 towards making up the loss sustained by Samuel Hess in the burning of his barn and contents on Wednesday last week. Mr. Hess is a most worthy citizen of that section and his neighbors show their sympathy by their proffered aid.

Mrs. Joseph Shoemaker, of Mackeyville, died Monday night at 11 o'clock of dropsy, aged 65 years. Interment at Mackeyville, Friday morning.

CHARLES SMITH—the well known colored porter at the Brockerhoff House, died Friday at the Bellefonte hospital of heart disease. He was born in Virginia and was 51 years old. He was one of the town's characters, jolly and good hearted; he will be missed by a large number of friends.
