

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of Our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

—Mrs. Geo. Taylor is quite ill with heart trouble.

—W. C. Krader, of Coburn, gave our sanctum a call.

—Light flood repairs are being made at the fair grounds.

—Mrs. L. B. Hindman is visiting her parents at Parkersburg, W. Va.

—Many suckers are being caught in the streams in this territory, as per reports.

—Sucker fishermen complain that worms are hard to get—Jack Frost don't let 'em out.

—Howard Gregg left Friday for Altoona where he has accepted a position in the P. R. R. shops.

—Rev. Orner, of Altoona, will occupy the pulpit at the United Brethren church next Sunday morning.

—Miss Mary Crider a student at Miss Shipley's school in Philadelphia is at home for her Easter vacation.

—Miss Edna Williams has gone to Buffalo, N. Y., where she will make her future home with her grandmother.

—Mrs. James A. Stine was to Osceola this week called there by the death of Mr. Stine's sister, Mrs. Mary Hobbs.

—Frank Gross formerly employed at the Scale Works went to Renova where he has a good position in the railroad shops.

—Elmer E. Davis has moved his household goods to Philipsburg where he has been engaged in business for some time.

—Mrs. Leida Snyder and her daughter, Leidzell, of Moscow Mills, Md., are visiting at the Stewart home on Linn street.

—Misses Josie and Helen White, who are students at the West Chester Normal, arrived home Friday for their Easter vacation.

—George Rider and his family have moved to Scottsdale where Mr. Rider has been contracting at his trade as a mason for some time.

—Within a week the lively campaign of public sales and free lunch will end. Then, after a brief lull, fishing, with bottled bait, will be all the go.

—Miss Della, daughter of ex-commissioner Daniel Heckman, of this town, is ill at her home; also Mrs. Sheriff Taylor is ill at her home on the hill.

—There will be a graphophone musical entertainment in the M. E. Chapel at Coleville this Thursday evening. Prof. Smith will preside at the instrument. Proceeds for the benefit of the chapel.

—C. P. Hewes of Erie, formerly a prominent attorney at this bar, arrived in town Tuesday morning. Charles looks thrivingly large, upon which his many friends here congratulate him.

—The Democrat's new quarters are near completion and by end of next week our presses, machinery and material may be in place therein. Come and see us, next door below Oiwine's hardware.

—Mr. and Mrs. William P. Smith and their little daughter, from Wellsboro, are visiting relatives here and at Unionville. Mr. Smith disposed of his photographic studio at Wellsboro and is looking around for a new location.

—A heavy thunder gust set in Tuesday night, after 9 o'clock. Lightning flashes were frequent and rolls of thunder almost continuous; in about two hours the rainfall was 70 inch. Lower Bishop street was badly flooded to the injury of property holders, result of sewer being inadequate to carry off the flow of water from heavy rains. The council should see to this—the property holders along there surely have a grievance. Spring creek was on a tear next morning and as yellow as gold.

—Dr. G. W. Furey has permanently located in Bellefonte where he may be consulted at No. 38 Brockerhoff House, at all hours. His practice is limited to diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat and chronic diseases—particularly those of the stomach and bowels. The doctor is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Wills Eye Hospital clinic, the Pennsylvania eye and ear hospital and has had twenty-four years successful experience in the practice of medicine and surgery.

—Out of the dog tax in Clearfield county after the sheep damages had been paid there was returned to the various school districts, under the act of 1901, $2,405. Clinton county has but a little over $500 in her treasury awaiting the call of the treasurers of the school boards. If all Bellefonte's dogs were taxed instead of gambling over the court house lawn and on the streets, free of tax like bloated millionaires, it would help the borough school fund considerably, and some families might have more to eat than so, if they dispensed with and quit boarding dogs.

—O. B. Eberts, of Martha, was a pleasant caller.

—Wm. Parks and family moved to Beaver Falls, Pa.

—Little Anna Taylor is sick at her home from a heavy cold.

—Prof. Paul Fortney, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

—Our old friend, Daniel Geary, of Penn township, favored our sanctum with a call.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weaver went to Philipsburg where they will make their future home.

—The ladies auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital will hold a progressive euchre party in the armory soon.

—Are you moving? If so don't forget to notify us of that fact before April 1st, then you will get your paper on time.

—Since the weather has been moderating the officials of the steam heat plant, in town, are becoming more agreeable.

—The Howard Creamery Company will move their main office in Bellefonte to a room on the second floor of Temple Court.

—Harvey Ginter, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Philadelphia, has been visiting relatives here for the past few days.

—Harry McCoy, who is working for the Adams Express Company in Virginia, is home on a short visit to his parents on Thomas street.

—Joseph Runkle, the plumber, will locate at Mahaffey, Clearfield county, by the 1st of April. Mrs. Runkle's home is in that section.

—Walter Clark, foreman of the Republican office, accompanied Mrs. Clark to Philadelphia Saturday where she will undergo a serious operation.

—Mrs. Farish's singing class is preparing to sing the comic opera Pinflore some time in the spring. Miss Bradley's class is at work on an oratorio.

—Last year, about middle of March, we had quite mild weather, with buds coming out freely on the trees, and overcoats transferred from shoulders to closets.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. Bruce Garman returned Saturday from Philadelphia. Mrs. Garman underwent treatment at the University Hospital and is much benefited.

—With the close of the present week the public sale season over the county will practically be at an end. They were averaging four and five a day for some time.

—John W. Lose, for the past eleven years a citizen of Bellefonte, a cabinet maker by trade, has gone to Joliet, Ill., where he secured a position. He is a native of Millheim.

—The smallpox situation in Benner and Spring townships has put the local authorities to work. They are determined that there shall be no spread of the disease through carelessness.

—The office formerly owned and occupied by Dr. Locke was sold to Wm. McClure who is moving the same to his vacant lot on Spring street, and his harness establishment will be found there later.

—Rev. Wm. H. Brown and family left last week for Wrightsville, York Co., where he was assigned by the recent conference as pastor of the United Evangelical church. Rev. Brown did a good work in this community. He is succeeded by Rev. W. B. Cox, of York, Pa.

—The best advertised sale of the season was that of Geo. G. Hastings, of Benner township, who had in addition to his large bills a list of all articles published in the leading town papers. On Saturday he stopped the writer and with a smile on his face, remarked, "advertising pays; it was a good investment."

—James A. Feidler, the Curtin township pedagogue, was in town on Saturday and frequently was hailed as "Dr." by his friends, and the honor was gracefully accepted. On Arbor Day, Friday, April 8th, that event will be observed at his school with special exercises. H. S. Taylor, Esq., of Bellefonte, will be present and deliver an address.

—A few days ago 1,150 trout, none of which weighed less than a pound, were sent from the state hatchery at Allentown to the new hatchery at Bellefonte, which was completed a short time ago and is now in operation. They are fine specimens of the speckled beauty and are to serve for breeding purposes. The hatchery is advancing towards its desired success.

—Where they were visiting: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clemson and family are spending a few days at Scotia. Harris B. Heyman spent Sunday at Millinburg. Col. James Coburn spent Sunday at Aaronsburg. Graham Ferguson spent Sunday with friends in Altoona. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhoads, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. Harry Showers, of Altoona, was a visitor in town.

—Gottlieb Haag's golden wedding will come off next November. May he be there to help celebrate it along with his betterhalf. When he held his slyer wedding there were 350 of his friends present, and there was a big, good time, and since a golden wedding is one of double time as compared with a silver one, there will be double the number of congratulators, of course, from the very nature of things. Long may Gottlieb live beyond the golden blowout in November.

Gathered From Centre and Adjoining Counties

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Centrally and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors

Enos Hicklen was stricken with paralysis last Thursday at his home at Mt. Eagle.

Wm. Kessler, a former resident of Philipsburg, died at his home in Bradock, on Friday, aged about 45 years.

F. G. Hosterman has retired from the lumber business in West Virginia and returned with his family to live in Coburn.

It is expected that the Commercial telephone line will soon be extended to Wolf's Store and the east end of Brush valley.

Miss Effie R. Moffett and W. C. Murthoff, of Benore, Centre county, were married at Tyrone last Thursday by Rev. J. H. Daugherty.

James C. Goodhart and Miss Sarah M. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lee, both of Potter township, were married on Wednesday evening.

Jackson Sheesley, of Woodward, while driving near Ingely, was thrown from a buggy, the result being a broken arm. The accident occurred by the horse falling on ice.

The family of John Herman located near the Weaver school house near Pleasant Gap was quarantined Saturday, some of the family are reported down with smallpox.

The State College Times appeared last week in a bright and clean form. The Times now consists of 12 pages and is printed on fine paper, and has our best wishes for its continued prosperity.

The remains of Amos Colby were taken to his former home at Coburn, Thursday, for interment. He had died at the age of 78 years at the home of E. C. Harter, in Lewistown, Tuesday 15.

Mrs. Hettie Gramley 88, Mrs. Susan Strohecker 86 and former judge Samuel Frank 83, are a trio of remarkable old people who live in Rebersburg, apparently as young as some people of 40.

The venerable John Foreman, of near Centre Hill, now aged 85 years, has been in feeble health for several months, with little or no improvement up to this time. He lived over the allotted time for mortals and has been an upright man in all his years.

A large barn belonging to Wm. Powell situated on Marsh Creek back of Millburg was burned to the ground Thursday evening about 6 o'clock. All the contents except the live stock were destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. No insurance.

Never, perhaps, has business been quieter in and about Philipsburg than at present, due to the scarcity of cars for the last couple of months and somewhat the uncertainty as to the outcome of the mining situation. People won't admit the possibility of a strike, but like doubtful things, it's mighty uncertain.

Last Thursday morning about 1:30 o'clock a wreck occurred on the Bald Eagle valley railroad near Snow Shoe intersection, which derailed and badly damaged 13 cars. The wreck was caused by the train breaking in two and then coming together. Luckily no one was injured, but the road bed was badly damaged.

If frosts kill potato bugs, last winter's record-breaking freeze may prove a blessing that will reach even deeply frosted Centre county. It is predicted by naturalists that Berks county farmers will not be plagued with potato bugs next summer, as most of the pests have been frozen to death. The frost extended two or three feet in the ground during the winter.

The Y. M. C. A. building in Eagleville has been seized by the sheriff of Centre county and advertised to be sold at public outcry the 25th inst., to satisfy a mortgage held by John Bowers for $400. Irvin Wagner holds a second mortgage for $200. This association has accomplished much good in Eagleville and it is a matter of regret that a declining interest has rendered it impossible to raise sufficient money to pay off these debts.

We do not think that Centre county is near enough to Jersey to drink its whisky, in which they are more fortunate down by Readingtown, where they already see serpents, as it appears from this item: "What is said to be one of the largest blacksnakes ever seen in Berks county was killed Sunday on an island in the Schuylkill river by John Henderson. Henderson says it measured eight feet two inches in length."

—Ex-sheriff Brungart began his flitting from Bellefonte to Centre Hall, the other day. The Frank Stoyer family ship their household effects to Altoona next week.

—A special song service will be rendered in the Presbyterian church on Easter Sunday evening. In the choir are twenty young ladies and gentlemen who are among the finest vocalists in the town. Fred Weaver, the young organist, will handle the pipe organ.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. LEVENIA P. SCHREFFLER:—died in Altoona last Thursday. Interment in the Pine Hill cemetery on Monday.

S. B. ROW:—died Sunday at his home in Philipsburg of a cancerous affection of the stomach. Interment was made at Clearfield on Wednesday. Mr. Row was one of the leading citizens of that community.

LAWRENCE STOVER:—died near Stovers, in east Miles township, Monday morning from heart trouble, aged 71 years. He will be buried this Thursday forenoon. Services at the Reformed church at Stovers.

LAWRENCE STOVER:—of near Stovers, in eastern part of Miles township, died Monday morning from heart trouble aged 71 years. He will be buried this Thursday forenoon. Services at the Reformed church at Stovers.

WM. STRUBLE:—formerly of Bellefonte, but late of Olean, N. Y., was instantly killed at the latter named place on Friday. His mother lives on Howard street. The remains arrived in Bellefonte Monday and were taken to his mother's home on East Howard street.

MRS. WILLIAM EARNSHAW:—widow of Rev. William Earnshaw, died recently at her home in Dayton, O. Mrs. Earnshaw was born and raised at Warriors-mark, her husband was chaplain of the Soldier's home. She was a sister of the late A. C. Hutchinson and Mrs. Samuel T. Gray and is survived by several children as well as a number of relatives in Halfmoon valley.

JULIA T. CURTIN:—wife of Dr. Roland G. Curtin, died at their home in Philadelphia, Friday evening, March 18. She was stricken with paralysis Sunday previous while on her way home from church. Her maiden name was Taylor and she was a prominent society woman in Philadelphia. She was 59 years of age. The remains arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday morning and the interment made in the Union cemetery.

MRS. ELIZA McCLOSKEY:—died at Potters Mills on 18. Deceased is the widow of Henry McCloskey, whose death occurred about four years ago. She is also survived by three daughters, all of Potters Mills—Ellen, wife of John F. Miller; Laura, wife of W. W. McCormick, and Caroline, at home. Her age was 79 years. Death took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. McCormick. Interment took place Wednesday at Sprucetown.

MRS. ROBERT HOMAN:—died at Lewistown on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. She had been ill several months of stomach trouble and other complaints. She was formerly from Farmers Mills. Her age was about 24 years. Funeral this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the cemetery at Farmers Mills. A husband and two little daughters are left to mourn her loss. Mrs. Homan was a kind christian woman, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and a member of the U. E. church.

ISALC H. CLEVELAND:—of Hublersburg, died very suddenly Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock while at work in his carpenter shop at that place. Deceased was born in Walker township and was aged 59 years. He is survived by his wife, whose maiden name was Mary Walker, a sister of Henry Walker, of this place; also two sons, Harry E., of Bellefonte, and John S., at home. One daughter, Cora, a very charming girl died about 13 months ago, aged about 18 years. The funeral will take place Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the Reformed church at Hublersburg; interment in the cemetery at Hublersburg.

DANIEL HESS:—died at his home at Linden Hall, on Sunday at 7:30 a. m. He was a native of Penns valley, and a merchant all his life time up to within a few years when he retired; he located at Linden Hall many years ago, established a store, and through his enterprise it became a village. He was a life-long member of the Lutheran church, and when the Lewisburg and Centre railroad was projected, he was one of the most ardent supporters of that improvement. He amassed quite a fortune by his industry and business tact. Some six months ago he sustained a fracture of the shoulder by an accidental fall, which laid him up for a time, and several weeks ago again had a fall which with a general breaking down of his system, confined him to his bed, until the reaper, death, called him hence. Mr. Hess was a useful citizen and a gentleman of many excellent qualities. His age would have been 86 years on the 16th of next September. A widow, and a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Hines, of Osceola, mourn his loss. A son, Edward, preceded him many years ago. Funeral on Tuesday morning. Interment in the Boalsburg cemetery.

—Friday evening the Academy basketball team defeated the Bellefonte Athletics.

—A good gas or gasoline engine, 5-horse power, used several months, for sale at this office. It is a Fairbanks, and one of the best.

—The Blanchards, who, a few days ago, left their law office on High street, for a location in Temple Court, occupied the first named no less than a third of a century. In the same locality was the law office of their distinguished grandfather, Hon. John Blanchard, a member of the 29th congress.

—The smallpox trouble in and about Howard and in the districts near Bellefonte, mentioned in our last week's issue, is somewhat less alarming, yet precaution should be had until the disease is thoroughly stamped out—there has been sufficient proof as to the necessity of this, the public health demands this. Quarantine at Howard has ended.

—Dr. Geo. B. Klump has decided to leave Bellefonte and will discontinue his practice here April 1st, having disposed of his office, etc., to Dr. W. H. Feidt, of Williamstown, Pa. Their household effects will be moved at once, but Mr. Klump will remain about three weeks with his successor to assist him. After that Dr. Klump will be associated with his uncle John A. Klump, a prominent physician of Williamsport. Mr. and Mrs. Klump are natives of Williamsport and naturally, when a good opportunity was presented to return, they accepted.

TO SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS.

S. Krumrine Urges Them To Use Hyomei. Willing to Sell It On Approval.

A new and specially valuable use for Hyomei has been discovered, one that will be particularly welcomed by singers and public speakers.

The free use of Hyomei, breathed through the inhaler that comes with every outfit, carries healing balsams to the head and throat, and strengthens the voice. S. Krumrine has had several of his customers speak to him in regard to the good effects following the use of Hyomei for this special purpose, and will be glad to sell it on approval to singer, minister, teacher, or public speaker.

He feels sure that the use of Hyomei for this purpose will make many new friends for the treatment. If it does not give satisfaction, the money paid will be returned promptly and without questions.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of inhaler that can be carried in the purse or pocket, a bottle of Hyomei and a medicine dropper, costs only one dollar.

Many remarkable cures of catarrh and other troubles of the air passages have been made by Hyomei, and he agrees to refund the money to anyone who does not find it a complete cure for any catarrhal trouble.

There is no dangerous stomach grugging with Hyomei; simply breathe it through the inhaler, and relief comes quickly.
