Taylor, Sheriff of Centre county, died at the Sheriff's residence last Friday evening, 25. a little son having been born just a short time before the death of his m other Our community was shocked when the announcement was made. Mis. Taylor was a model woman, of charming quali-ties, and universally esteemed. Faithful as wife and mother and as a neighbor of uniform kindness to all, she will missed. Her maiden name was Catherine Bauer and was 37 years old. She was the daughter of the late Nicholas Baner, a well known merchant of this place. Nine years ago last November she was united in marriage to H. S. Taylor who was a struggling young law student at the time. She is survived by her husband and the following children : Hugh, Vincent, Frank, Mary and the little one born shortly before her death. She also leaves her mother, Mrs. Marion Bauer and two brothers and one sister, namely, Vincent, John and Josephine, all of Bellefonte. The funeral took place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from St. John's Catholic church. Requiem mass was said by Rev. P. McArdle. Inter-ment in the Catholic cemetery. Wednes-day morning the child died. His domestic relations were that of a devoted husband to a true, amiable and loving wife. By this afflection the guiding hand of a mother will be removed from the care of those little ones for whom she was ever so solicitous. In this sad trial Mr. Taylor has the sympathy of many triends. Licenses Granted. On Wednesday Judge Love approved

THE BOND PROTECTS YOU.

Krumrine Gives Signed Bond, With Mi-o-na the Flesh-Forming Food.

With every box of Mi-o na, the fleshforming food and digestion regulator S. Kromrine gives the following guarantee bond, binding himself to refund the money if Mi-o na does not give an increase in weight and cure dyspepsia and all stomach troubles

CUARANTEE BOND

I hereby agree to refund the price paid fo Mi o na if the purchaser tells me that it has not increased flesh and given freedom from stomach troubles. SIDNEY KRUMRINE.

For years there has been a demand for a natural means for increasing flesh, and Mi-o na has come to supply this need

It is not a cod liver oil preparation, but a combination of flesh forming elements, that regulates and aids digestion and restores health. It mingles with the food you eat, aids its assimilation; tones up and strengthens the digestive organs, and puts the whole system in proper physical condition.

Every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, has that tired feeling, loss of appetite, or is losing flesh or is in a run down condition, should take the guarantee bond to S. Krumrine and begin the use of Mi-o-na at his risk.

Remember the treatment costs you nothing unless it does all that is claimed
