Phil Wolensdorf, who also got knocked out once will be anxious to try it again. John Knisely, of Bellefonte, is a new aspirant and will make a stab to get recognition.

SAYS the Phillipsburg Journal: It is reported that one of our prominent Democratic business men is being pushed to the front as a candidate for the Legislature. GOV. PENNYPACKER has declined to enter the contest for supreme judge. This he did Tuesday afternoon in a brief letter. Public indignation, from parties all over the state, against this disgraceful Quay-Pennypacker plot led to this forced withdrawal. Quay then fixed upon John P. Elkin for the place and his serfs in the convention this week accordingly nominated Elkin one of the worst of the breed of Quay boodlers and corruptionists.

Somerset is sidetracked for sure. The House committee on military affairs at Washington, D. C., settled the army site controversy in Pennsylvania by selecting Conewago valley as one of the four sites in the country. In this action the recommendations of war department officials and army officers was followed. The committee authorized a favorable report on the Esch bill, providing for the establishment of four military camp sites in the United States. The locations named are Conewago Valley, Pa.; Fort Sam, Houston, Texas; Camp Douglas, Wisconsin, and Nacimiento Ranch, California. The Conewago site lies in the three counties of Lebanon, Dauphin and Lancaster and contains 18,000 acres. The bill appropriates $900,000 for this purpose.

TO SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS.

S. Krumrine Urges Them To Use Hyomei. Willing to Sell It On Approval.

A new and specially valuable use for Hyomei has been discovered, one that will be particularly welcomed by singers and public speakers.

The free use of Hyomei, breathed through the inhaler that comes with every outfit, carries healing balsams to the head and throat, and strengthens the voice. S. Krumrine has had several of his customers speak to him in regard to the good effects following the use of Hyomei for this special purpose, and will be glad to sell it on approval to singer, minister, teacher, or public speaker.

He feels sure that the use of Hyomei for this purpose will make many new friends for the treatment. If it does not give satisfaction, the money paid will be returned promptly and without questions.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of inhaler that can be carried in the purse or pocket, a bottle of Hyomei and a medicine dropper, costs only one dollar.

Many remarkable cures of catarrh and other troubles of the air passages have been made by Hyomei, and he agrees to refund the money to anyone who does not find it a complete cure for any catarrhal trouble.

There is no dangerous stomach druging with Hyomei; simply breathe it through the inhaler, and relief comes quickly.

To stamp out an evil it is sometimes necessary to be well heeled.
