The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of Our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

—Hi Henry is coming to-morrow. Big musical treat. —Correspondence is sometimes too late reaching us, hence does not appear. —Miss Mame Pacini has returned home from a visit to friends in Bradford, Pa. —Pawnee Bill's show will exhibit on Beaver farm grounds on East Bishop street. —If it is job printing that you need remember the Centre Democrat can supply your wants. —The ladies of the United Brethren church will hold a box social on Saturday evening. —Miss Mary Barber, of Millinburg, is a guest at the home of Prof. and Mrs. James R. Hughes. —Mrs. Harry Clevenstine was called to her home in Hanover by the serious illness of her mother. —Col. W. F. Reynolds and family have returned from an eight week's trip to the Pacific coast. —We are pleased to note that H. C. Campbell, of State College, continues to improve from his illness. —Robt. I. Hunter is at Granby, Mo., looking after the various operations of the Penna Mining & Smelting Co. —General Beaver will move his office from the second floor of Temple Court to the Masonic building on Allegheny St. —Mr. and Mrs. James Pacini, of Johnsonburg, are guests at the home of Mrs. Pacini's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hampton. —Thus far this season the largest trout have been caught within the borough limits of Bellefonte and close to one of its business streets. —Isaac Miller, while doing repair work at a building, on Tuesday, tramped upon a nail and is now suffering from a much swollen and painful foot. —Tuesday afternoon was bright, warm and summerlike. Vegetation is coming right along, and the grass has turned the bleak into most lovely green. —Miss Mary Bradley's choral class will give a concert on Monday evening, May 23, in Garman's opera house; a large number of Bellefonte's best musical talents will take part. —William Frank who has been foreman at the Collins Furnace since it was built has resigned his position there and has accepted the superintendency of the Hollidaysburg electric light works. —H. E. Emerick, lumber operator of Karthaus, who has been stopping at the Brockerhoff House, was taken to the Bellefonte Hospital Friday afternoon suffering with rheumatism in one of his feet. —Col. E. R. Chambers, Esq., while going east on a business trip was taken ill at Lancaster on Monday. He was sent to the hospital, but was able to return home next day and is about again. —Among those who have been in continual attendance at court this week, none was more active than our friend John Daley, of Curtin township. He managed to see about everybody at court and if he don't get that nomination for assembly it won't be his fault, for he is hustling. —With Pawnee Bill's show billed for Tuesday next, and Walter Maine's for Saturday 21, the town is well decorated, in gaudy colors, with what is to be exhibited inside the huge tents. The advance agents of the two shows are having intense rivalry in billing the town, and it may be a bigger treat to look at the bills, in endless profusion, than to see the real thing. Both are good shows and promise to draw large crowds. —Nothing of special interest transpired in court this week, unless it was a crop of costs for somebody. The list of civil cases of late years has been meagre, and the cases in many instances comparatively trifling—quite a contrast with the long lists of civil suits thirty years ago and farther back, where it took a wait of many terms before a case could be reached for trial, and afforded good fodder for lawyers, whereas the legal pastures now are suffering from a prolonged drought. —Primary and junior Sunday school institute under the auspices of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath school association, will be conducted by Mrs. M. G. Kennedy, of Philadelphia, president of State Primary Council, in Bellefonte, Monday afternoon and evening, May 9, at the W. C. T. U. Hall. These institutes have been planned by the State Primary Council. Practical topics only are to be discussed. While the cost of these institutes is defrayed by the State, an offering will be taken at the second session to defray the traveling and printing expenses. —Friday evening a delightful assembly was given at the Brockerhoff House by some of the young men of the town. The patronesses for the event were Mrs. J. L. Montgomery, Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. C. P. Montgomery, Mrs. Sarah Larimer and Mrs. J. H. Lingle. The committee in charge of the affair were Messrs. Frank M. Curtin, Harold B. Lingle and James C. Parst. The following guests were present from a distance: Miss Hess, of Williamsport; Bessie Brown, Unionville; Miss Virginia Lingle, Patton; Messrs. Randolph Hoy, Lee Murray, Arthur Clay, William Riddle, George K. Smith, Ray Smith and J. H. Patterson all of State College.

HYOMEI A RECORD BREAKER.
Novel Method of Curing Catarrh. Sold on Approval by S. Krumrine.
The popularity and remarkable sales of Hyomei have broken all records. In nearly every city and town in the country, this guaranteed cure for catarrh has given most astonishing results.
The leading druggists are so enthusiastic over the remarkable percentage of cures following the use of Hyomei, that with hardly an exception, they advertise to their customers that Hyomei will be sold with the understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures.
In Bellefonte, S. Krumrine is endorsing it and guaranteeing to refund the money unless Hyomei cures catarrh. He has sold a great many Hyomei outfits, and to day, no other treatment for the cure of catarrh has as many friends in Bellefonte and vicinity as Hyomei.
It is a scientific, yet common sense method of treating and curing this too common disease. It sends by direct inhalation to every cell of the air passages in the head, throat and lungs, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs, purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes a complete and lasting cure of any catarrhal trouble.
The complete outfit costs but $1, and includes an inhaler, medicine dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment.
You take no risk in buying Hyomei. S. Krumrine positively guarantees to refund your money unless it cures.
Council Meeting.
In addition to routine business the following matters of special importance were considered.
A new sewer will be put down on Thomas street from High to Lamb. The Penna R. R. will pay $300 citizens of the west ward $200 and the balance by the borough.
The list of delinquent water taxes for 1902 turned in by J. K. Johnston as uncollectable were turned over to borough Solicitor Fortney for collection.
Collector S. D. Ray's offer for settlement of taxes was accepted by council.
The question of accepting Col. Reynolds's pumping station came up. Some thought that the time should be extended to the summer season, to see what capacity it will develop when the streams are lower, several propositions were made and finally by the Finance Committee was directed to consult further with Col. Reynolds' and report at next meeting.
—Mrs. J. Fred Kurtz, of Lewisburg, is visiting the family of the editor.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

A large number of pigs in Clinton county have died recently of a peculiar disease, which has some symptoms of cholera.
Owing to the building of 2000 houses in Altoona, carpenters and painters are in great demand. At least 1000 will be furnished with employment at once at good wages.
A public meeting is to be held in Clearfield town soon to talk over the advisability of having some sort of a demonstration to celebrate the one hundred anniversary of the county's erection.
George G. Hutchison, of Warriorsburg, resigned last week as clerk to the State Economic Zoologist, to accept a position as special agent of the Secretary of Agriculture. It is a cold day when he is out of a job.
Mrs. John Smith died at her home in Sugar valley, near Eastville, aged 73 years. She is survived by a number of children, among whom is Oliver P. Smith, of Lamar township; Mrs. Smith has not been in good health for a couple of years.
One of the big New York Central locomotives broke all records last week by pulling a train of 121 empty coal cars from Cammal on the Fall Brook railroad to Oak Grove yards. The engine is of the class G No. 4 type and is a powerful piece of machinery.
The Lancaster county farmers who are now shipping their fat cattle to market are in few instances getting more per pound than they paid last fall for the lean steers, their sole profit coming from the increased weight, which is a small price for the grain fed.
Howard Leslie Steward, who graduated at the Spruce Creek high school two weeks ago, last Sunday morning committed suicide at his home at Eden Hill, two miles east of Birmingham. A rifle was placed at the right under jaw, the contents of the weapon passing upward through the head and killing him instantly.
John Wall is a prosperous farmer in Clearfield county, near Sabula, is looking for a wife. He prefers one Boston bred and consequently wrote the postmaster at Boston to secure him a life partner. Postmaster Cole is anticipating that the Sabula office will soon be swamped with letters of acceptance coming from marriageable spinsters, maids and widows. Meantime John is going ahead with the spring plowing just as though his fame had not penetrated from one end of the county to the other.
Theophilus H. Nicewonger, politician and pension attorney, died at Altoona on Friday, his wife declared "the Republicans had killed him." His death was sudden and followed a brief illness. He was a candidate at the Republican spring primaries for the nomination for Assembly. He was so certain of his election that his defeat was a crushing blow. He worried over the fact that the party was not nominating the right kind of men to office. Nicewonger was 57 years of age. He served in the Civil War, and was active in patriotic and secret societies. "Republicans are the soldiers' friends."
Presiding in the Clearfield court, Judge John G. Love has entered a decree for $372.85 in favor of the bondholders of the Altoona and Philipsburg Railroad company. The decree sets forty that, unless the sum is forthcoming on or before June first, the road is to be sold at public auction at a time to be fixed later. The sale will likely take place at the bourse in Philadelphia. Of the sum allowed the bondholders by Judge Love, $25,000 represents the principal and the remainder the interest due on the bonds, which are first mortgage bonds, at the par value of $1,000 each. The road runs from Philipsburg to Ramey, a distance of twenty-one miles. The Philipsburg interests desire it to convert it into a trolley line for daylight operation and to haul coal over it at night.
