Trend of Civilization in All Lines From Week to Week

POLITICS and GOVERNMENT

General.

An Ex-President's Confession.

"The Cleveland Bond Issues" is the title of a very unusual deliverance from former President Grover Cleveland in the Evening Post.

Grover Cleveland.

Without shame and without repentance I confess my share of the guilt, and I refuse to shield my accomplices in this crime, who, with me, held high places in that administration.

Hearst Makes Gains.

By a majority of more than 150 of the 897 delegates comprising the Iowa Democratic convention at Des Moines May 4 the presidential candidacy of W. R. Hearst was approved and the Kansas City platform was endorsed.

The Walker Democratic Tip.

Editor John Brisson Walker of the Cosmopolitan, who has been identified with the Bryan wing of the Democracy, made an address in Cooper Union, New York, last week, outlining a Democratic platform which, he said, has been approved by the leaders of the opposing factions.

The five issues of postage stamps to commemorate the Louisiana purchase were put on sale the day the fair opened.

Socialists Name Debs.

The national Socialists' convention, which was in session at Chicago last week, nominated Eugene V. Debs for president and Benjamin Hanford for vice president.

Parker's Views Secondhand.

Elliot Danforth, a close friend of both David B. Hill and Judge Parker, gave to the press Friday a detailed account of a conversation he had recently with the judge, setting forth the latter's opinions on current issues.

Notes.

Speaker Cannon announced that he would not accept the nomination for vice president if offered.

Foreign.

Crimes Act Still Exists.

By a vote of 197 to 124 the British House of Commons rejected a motion by John Boland for the repeal of the crimes act in Ireland.

Dutch Defeat Atchinese.

Holland has had her war troubles too. A Dutch column captured the Atchinese position at Tjanote after a fierce fight in which 190 Atchinese were killed. The Dutch lost seven men.

Colonel Younghusband Stalled.

Colonel Younghusband's political expedition in Tibet has been obstructed by a line of 1,500 Tibetans, which fired upon the British in the Karo pass on the direct road to Lassa.

Castro Regime Extended.

The Venezuelan congress, after having declared itself a constitutional assembly, May 5 conferred on General Castro full dictatorial powers for a year, with the title of provisional president.

Russians Massacre Jews.

It was reported from Vienna May 3 that an anti-Jewish riot had taken place at Rander, in Bessarabia, near Kishineff, which resulted in the death of three men and two women and wounding of many more.

Executive.

New Naval Engineer Corps.

The navy department has concluded that the policy of having no special engineers to look after the machinery of warships is not wise.

Peril of Smokeless Powder.

The most important lesson to be learned from the recent accident on the battleship Missouri, judging from the report of the court of inquiry, is the conclusion of Admiral Barker that the properties of smokeless powder are not fully understood.

The five issues of postage stamps to commemorate the Louisiana purchase were put on sale the day the fair opened.

The national Socialists' convention, which was in session at Chicago last week, nominated Eugene V. Debs for president and Benjamin Hanford for vice president.

RELIGIOUS

Negro Troubles Methodists. One of the first questions of general interest which came before the Methodist general conference after the opening ceremonies at Los Angeles last week was the proposition made by Dr. George Elliott of Detroit looking to the election of a negro bishop as a means of holding the 300,000 colored membership.

EDUCATIONAL

Cleveland's Princeton Lecture.

As a teacher and interpreter of political history Grover Cleveland has again illustrated an appropriate function for an ex-president of the American republic.

Two Gifts For Columbia.

President Butler of Columbia university has announced the gift of $60,000 from Horace W. Carpenter of the class of 1848 for a chair in the medical school and an anonymous gift sufficient to establish a new professorship of philosophy.
