The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of Our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

Main's show will be on the Glass works meadow. Mrs. M. J. Lock and children, are visiting relatives in Philadelphia. Mich. Shaffer, of Potter, and J. A. Hoy, of Zion, spent a half hour in our sanctum. Main's big show will be here on Saturday May 21st. It is one of the best in the country. A fine baby boy now cheers the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Blackford, on Bishop street. Robert Garman, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with his father Mr. Daniel Garman at this place. Daniel Hosterman, of Penn, was up Tuesday to attend—not the show—but the land appeals. Ascension Day services will be held in St John's Reformed church today, Thursday, at 10.30 a. m. Mrs. Rowe, wife of Recorder John C. Rowe, has been quite ill the past week, suffering from appendicitis. The Central R. R. company are having their coaches repainted for the summer. The colors are same as formerly. Mrs. Frances Foster and her daughter, Miss Maize, are guests at Dr. Thomas R. Hayes on Allegheny street. Frank Curtin, assistant book-keeper in the Potter-Hoy Hardware store, is on a brief sojourn at Atlantic City, for his health. Mrs. Louis Hill left Saturday for Bellwood to see her husband who had his foot crushed while at work in the foundry there. S. G. Rote, of Coburn, was a pleasant caller, and informs us potatoes are very scarce down there, and not to be had at $1.10 per bushel. James A. Aull and family, of Germantown, Pa., are pleasant guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards on Lion street. Lieut Samuel D. Gettig left Monday afternoon for Philadelphia, to attend the convention of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Golden Eagles. The Undine Fire Company are preparing for the coming 4th of July celebration, at Hecla Park. They always make that a successful event. John Confer and Miss Sarah Flack were married at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening 4th at the United Brethren parsonage by Rev. Andrew Davidson. Rev. Ambrose Schmidt and Jared Harper are in Lancaster attending the funeral of the late Dr. E. V. Gearhart Ex-president of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster. The colored population of Centre county in 1870, was 266; in 1880, 348; and by a census of 1890, 466. Bellefonte has at least 95 per cent of the colored element in the county. Miss Alfa Hafer, daughter of Dr. A. W. Hafer, has taken first honors of the class of 1904, Bellefonte High school and may well feel proud over it. Trude Bidwell has been awarded second honors. Miss Grace Schreffler, formerly of Bellefonte, who for some time had been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Charles Houser at Sharon, Pa., was married last week to John Englebaugh, of that place. The "C" class at the Bellefonte High school held its contest for the Harris B. Heylman prize of ten dollars for the best orator last Friday and was won by Chas. Barnes. Second honors went to Paul Wetzel. Pawnee Bills show attracted a fair sized crowd on Tuesday. At both performances there was an abundance of empty space. Farmers at this season are busy, or may be waiting for Main's big show on the 21st. On Sunday evening the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows and the Daughters of Ruth attended the A. M. E. church on St. Paul street and listened to an excellent sermon preached by Rev. Morris pastor of that church. Monday evening, May 16th, the Junior Declamatory contest of the Bellefonte High school will take place in Petriken Hall for the gold medal prize offered by Col. W. Fred Reynolds. Chart open at Sheffer's store Friday, May 13. R. C. Burns, of Johnstown, while in town last Thursday on his way home from Selingsgrove, where he had been visiting his brother George, who is quite ill, paid us a call. He will be remembered as foreman of the State College Times office. Monday night and Tuesday morning some persons broke into Lyon & Company's store at this place, by a window in the rear of the store which they pried open. They broke open the cash drawer and took about $5.00 in money leaving some postage stamps; no goods were taken. The thieves also broke into the Pennsylvania passenger station the same night but failed to get anything. A gallon bucket of English sparrows at one shot is what Hard Harris boasts, and this is the way he did it: Noticing that the birds had settled down in great numbers on his lawn to feed, he got his gun loaded with shot, and stealthily placing himself flat on the lawn, he pulled the trigger, and the slaughter was great—four quarts of dead sparrows. We suppose that Mr. Harris has been feasting on delicious sparrow pie since, as the little pests are said to make a most dainty pot-pie.

Gathered From Centre and Adjoining Counties

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events That Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doings of Neighbors. Horace P. Glover, Esq., of Millifenburg, and his uncle, Dr. Thos. R. Hayes, of Bellefonte, took the train for Aberdeen, State of Washington, expecting to be gone five or six weeks. On 2nd inst, squire M. L. Rishel, of Gregg, closed his twenty-fifth year as a Justice of the Peace. That is a long period and testifies to the confidence his neighbors repose in him. His actions as a justice have been marked with impartiality and fairness. Many farmers in this county are at a loss what to do for seed potatoes. The tubers that were buried were reached by the frost and are worthless for seed in consequence. There is great demand for potatoes all over and none to be had for family use. It is likely that the acreage of potatoes will be very scant this year for want of sufficient seed. Samuel Shutt—died at Centre Hill, Sunday 1st, from a complication of diseases. An Idaho editor let his pen loose in this impressive fashion: "A back subscriber told us one day last week that if he lived till Saturday he would call and pay up. We 'sposed the man died. Another man said he would pay in a day or so as sure as we were born. Did the man lie or were we never born? Another said he would pay as sure as shooting. His shooting was very uncertain. It didn't hit us. Another said he hoped to be d—d if he didn't pay within three days. Have not seen that man since; we treat his hope was well founded. Several others said they would see us tomorrow. The annual banquet will take place at 7 o'clock in the evening. Barn Burned. The barn belonging to Mrs. Francis Wakefield, about one and one half miles west of Petersburg, was completely destroyed by fire Friday night between ten and eleven o'clock. It is funny, isn't it? Farmers, when they wish to retire, move to town. Townspeople, when they wish to retire, move to the country. A man has poor health and he moves to town to rest up and get well where he will not be bothered with hard work. The city man, when he has poor health, will go to the country with a tent and pitch it under some shady tree where he may enjoy the mountain scenery and rusticate in the enjoyment of a perpetual picnic. Cyrus H. Sweier, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Nippenose valley, died very suddenly. He was talking to his daughter and a neighbor when he suddenly threw up his arms and fell to the floor unconscious, expiring a few minutes afterward. Apoplexy was the cause of death. The Clearfield county centennial will be held the week of July 4, commencing on that holiday and continuing for four days. The optimist is thoroughly convinced that the best things have never happened. LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS. ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Estate of JACOB RIPPA, late of Gregg twp., deceased.
