EDITORIAL.

THE Illinois congressman, Hitt, is likely to be nominated for vice president by the republicans.

HEARST, one of the prominent democratic candidates for President, has announced that he will not bolt, if not nominated. That will relieve our republican brethren of a great deal of concern.

SENATOR QUAY'S health continues to alarm his friends and the politicians. The last few days his condition has not been encouraging. Should he pass away Pennsylvania politics would undergo a change.

THE republicans of Illinois, who got into a big row in their state convention adjourned over to last Monday and the row and deadlock went on. The fight is bitter and is over the nomination of a candidate for governor.

THE rising republican in this county is statesman Chambers, who has had a pull with the higher powers that run the state machine, and has been getting considerable fruit by "shaking of the plum tree." Clear the track, Chambers is coming.

THE latest fish story that comes authenticated as true, is from St. Louis, and will be found in another column of the Centre Democrat. It is to the effect that all the fish sent from Pennsylvania are dying from the effect of having been placed into the filtered alum water of St. Louis, where our state thought of making a big display of its native fishes. If alum water kills the fish may not the fish commission of this state be chargeable of ignorance in not knowing the effect such water would have upon the finny tribe? This surely was an inexcusable mistake by our expert state fish professors. It is said that nearly the entire lot shipped to the great Louisiana Purchase Exposition has been lost and the state will be minus a display.

NATIONAL POLITICS.

Both parties are holding numerous state conventions. The republicans instruct for Roosevelt with some differing platforms in regard to the tariff. Among the democrats there is some activity. The Hearst boom turns up in every state to make a losing fight. Parker sentiment is gaining, but far short of a nomination. Mayor McClellan, of New York, is looming up; and many think that Folk, who prosecuted the Missouri hoodlums, may be selected as he is an able, fearless and successful reformer—clean as a die and courageous as a lion.

The Democratic National Convention assembly first week in July at St. Louis and the Folk sentiment may sweep the convention. The nomination of Folk would put Democracy in fighting trim, something that might not happen with Judge Parker at the head, who is frequently classed as a boodler candidate—whether justly or not we cannot say. The money question will not likely cut any important figure in the campaign, and the issue will more likely be on the tariff and trusts.

Of course the republicans will have to stand the brunt of the scandals in public departments, such as the postoffice steals, the Indian frauds, public land stealing, and other exposures.

Roosevelt may not be able to enlist the same support of boodlers as McKinley enjoyed with Hanna as the political engineer, but available funds will be secured.

It is early to make any reasonable predictions, but some decided changes may come before the campaign is over. One thing is evident, Democrats are growing more hopeful and have reasons for encouragement.

Coburn.

The Ministerial Sunday school and K. L. C. E. convention of the Centre District of the United Evangelical church will convene at this place the 24, 25 and 26 of May. We are unable to give the program but the convention will surely be interesting as about twenty ministers and fifty delegates will be in attendance.

J. R. Corman with a crew of 14 men, is peeling bark in Brushvalley for Meyer Bros.

The teachers' examination for Millheim and Penn township will be held here Wednesday of next week.

The ladies of the United Evangelical church will hold a festival on the evening of June 4.

W. J. Harter and wife after several weeks' stay here, left last Friday for Harters, West Virginia.

J. H. Friar and little daughter, of Sunbury, visited friends here this week. On the sick list are, John Bowersox, Mrs. Mary Meyer and Mrs. Jennie Harter.

W. C. Krader transacted business in West Virginia last week.

The Highvalley scribe was down on Tuesday and lent a hand in laying a stone pavement in front of the Evangelical church. He is always a willing worker in material church work, but somewhat neglects the spiritual part.

SOME of the farmers are done planting corn and others are not ready yet.

The scribe made a mistake, Merly is not bookkeeping at the canning factory. He is now hauling coal ashes for Cal. Weaver.

Bill Harter, our lineman, has not much to do, but lots to say.

J. B. Rishel, wife and Estie, were to Farmer's Mills to see his brother who is ill.

Wooly Jake is busy running his mill early and late.

Reuben Eisenhuth, from Highvalley, was at Pine Creek with the cook over Sunday.

Mrs. Sam'l Snyder and children paid a visit to her parents W. D. Snaveley's one day last week; also Miss Kate Snyder, from Highvalley.

Summer Eisenhuth left Pine Creek and went to Brushvalley to peal bark.

W. D. Snaveley is on the sick list with the French measles.

Miss Kate Barner was a visitor at Emanuel Krader's.

sembly. Col. James Burnside, of Centre, and Lewis W. Smith, of Clearfield; commissioner, Christian Hoffer, of Potter township.

The Whig ticket: John Blanchard, for Congress; William Murray, of Centre, and George Leech, of Clearfield, for Assembly; John Fox, of Howard, for commissioner; auditor, John Louimore, of Harris.

The campaign of 1844 was earnestly fought upon the question of the repeal of the tariff of 1842, Clay and Frelinghuysen being the Whig candidates for President and Vice-President, Polk and Dallas Democratic candidates. At the gubernatorial election the vote in Centre county stood 2384 for F. R. Shunk, 1786 for Gen. Joseph Markle, Democratic majority averaging about 600 on the county ticket. Governor Shunk carried the state by 4283 majority. At the November election the Polk and Dallas electoral ticket had 565 majority in Centre county; in the state, 6332. Dr. Hugh Montgomery was on the Polk and Dallas electoral ticket for Centre county.

Nittany.

Sunday was a stormy day, the rain was needed very much.

Miss Vina Fisher has returned home after spending some time at Salona, with her brother.

Quite a number of our people attended Fawcett Bill's show at Bellefonte, and Lock Haven, last week and report it a first class show.

Most of our people expect to attend Walter L. Main's show in Bellefonte on May 21.

Rev. Smith, of Hebersburg, preached an able sermon in the Ev. church on Sunday at which time he administered the Lord's supper.

Nittany failed to send in items last week but not without a good excuse.

On next Saturday night a week, May the 28, the members of the Ev. church will hold a festival at this place; proceeds for the church; every body is cordially invited to come.

On Sunday quite a crowd gathered out along the pike to see the moving of Gates' house; Tices boys with each an engine had the contract to move the house, which they did in good shape.

Mrs. Newton Dorman's funeral was very largely attended last week; the flowers which were placed on the remains were very pretty and showed the esteem for Mrs. Dorman.

Boyd Whitman and lady friend, Miss Minnie Kerns, of Hebersburg, were pleasant callers at the home of William Garbrick's one evening last week.

THE democratic primaries will be held on Saturday, June 4th, in Centre county.

Our forenoon farmer has his farming all done and you can see him daily on the road to Aaronsburg with his mule team.

Warren Bower, our leading farmer, has purchased a new separator and says nothing to beat the De LaVal separator.

Anybody wishing to purchase a fine lot of nine week old pigs, call at F. J. Stover's.

Frank Katie and Verna Stover were seen passing through Wolfsburg to do some shopping at Aaronsburg.

Henry Bahn says Frank Stover is a frequent caller, but Lizzie says Frank is all right; call again Frank.

WOLF'S CHAPEL. The rain has greatly refreshed everything. Most of the farmers are done planting corn.

Ascension day passed off very quietly at this place; only a few of our boys were out fishing.

Decoration day is fast approaching and it is the request of the Post that the children come out to the cemetery prepared with flowers to decorate the graves of those who so bravely fought for our country and freedom; so please bear this in mind and all come prepared with flowers.

Five Years' Suffering Ended. For five years I suffered acutely with indigestion, my principal complaints being headaches and a feeling of fullness and distress after eating. Combined with this I suffered severely with a belching of gas and a general run down condition. I took the Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets and I cannot say too much for what they accomplished for me. My headaches and all the accompanying ills have entirely disappeared. I sleep well and my general health has improved 100 per cent.—Mrs. J. Strick, 255 Genesee St., Buffalo, N. Y. Price 25 cents. ANYONE Can Meet Our Advertising Talk, But No One Can Meet Our Clothing Values. SIM'S CLOTHING Is Not Only Lowest in Price But Best in Quality as Well. No great success can be built up without a foundation of merit, and it would have been impossible for the SIM Clothing business to reach its present magnitude—larger than any other in Central Penn.—if we had not demonstrated to the satisfaction of hundreds of critical men that WE SELL BETTER CLOTHING FOR LESS MONEY THAN ANY STORE IN BELLEFONTE. Those who buy once buy again, and keep on buying, because they not only save money but get clothing that fits perfectly, holds its shape as long as it is worn, and wears as well as the best tailored clothing can wear. FOR STYLE, THE YOUNG MEN'S TRADE IS CENTERED HERE. Do they go to the store whose clothing is lacking in style? There is no other clothing shown that has the style to please the critical young man as the clothes we are showing. SIX HUNDRED SUITS this week bring this Spring's stock up to the size it was two weeks ago. THREE THOUSAND SPIC SPAN NEW SUITS here await your selection—more than you will see elsewhere, better than you will see elsewhere; FAIRER PRICED. Sim, the Clothier.
