Democratic Primary Election and County Convention.

The Democratic voters of Centre county will meet at the regular places for holding the general elections, in their respective elector districts, on Saturday, June 4th, 1904, to elect delegates to the County Convention.

Under the rules of the party, the officers for holding the primaries will consist of the Committeeman and two assistants in each district, and the election will be opened at 3 o'clock, p. m., and close at 7 o'clock, p. m.

The delegates chosen at the above stated time will meet in the Court House in Bellefonte, on Tuesday June 7th, 1904, at 12 o'clock noon, and nominate the following:

One candidate for the office of President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County.

Two candidates for Assembly.

One candidate for the office of District Attorney.

One candidate for the office of Prothonotary.

One candidate for the office of County Surveyor.

Said delegates so chosen will also at the same time elect:

Three conferees to the next Congressional conference of the Congressional district of which Centre County forms a part.

A Chairman of the County Committee to serve from the 1st day of January 1905 to the 1st day of January 1906, and transact such other business as may come before the Convention.

APPOINTMENT OF DELEGATES.

The number of delegates to which each election district is entitled based upon the vote for Governor in 1902 and as apportioned by the County Committee in 1903, is as follows:

Table listing election districts and their respective number of delegates, including Bellefonte, Centre Hall, Howard, Millersburg, etc.

BELLEFONTE, PA. MAY 14, 1904.

EDITORIAL.

THE WAY THE PENNSYLVANIA and some other railroad companies are throwing men out of employment by the thousands, shows that "prosperity" has gone to the dogs and that there is nothing left of it but several scores of millionaires.

Where is your share of it, reader?

Common steel is now down to 8, while the preferred is 51. Much was said about the advantages of "economic conditions" resulting from consolidation and such like when Morgan and Schwab were bamboozling the public.

Our republican friends prefer to talk about something else now.

AMONG the new aspirants for political honors we hear of the announcement of Newton S. Bailey, of Bellefonte, who wants the republican nomination for prothonotary.

He has the prohibition nomination for that office already. With Bailey on the ticket to draw the prohibition sentiment and the Judge to line up the liquor forces, they could "carry water on two shoulders."

Love and Lamb would be one-sided.

THE Gazette became nettled last week upon reading the letter from "North Ward Republican" and at once accused the editor of this paper "staying up at nights writing" this letter.

Now, don't get funny, just because it hit a bulls eye. The fellow who wrote the article is not the editor of this paper, but a prominent citizen of Bellefonte, classed as a hidebound republican.

He ranks high in the councils of republican organization in the county, and Bro Harter needs only travel about a square from his residence to find the author, or the real "North Ward Republican."

There is your pointer; better have Judge Love hunt him up, as he is likely to write again, and the columns of this paper will be open to him.

-We will give to every lady who visits our store, free of charge, a very useful fly exterminator—Yeager & Davis.

Spring Humors

Come to most people and cause many troubles, pimples, boils and other eruptions, besides loss of appetite, that tired feeling, fits of biliousness, indigestion and headache. Mrs. Wm. E. Parsons is off on a two weeks' visit to friends in Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mrs. A. J. St. Clair left on Saturday to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law Zachariah Ogdon, at Clearfield.

Miss Gurtie Tobias, of New-Millport, is visiting at the home of her Uncle E. E. Erhart.

If Miss Jessie McPherson, who is the guest of Misses Alice and Mary Buck, is a specimen of the average Clearfield girls, then that ancient town has the prettiest and brightest young ladies in the state. For further evidence inquire of Charley Griest.

Mrs. Daniel Hart and her son Eugene will leave for an extended tour in different parts of the west on June 4th and will visit the World's Fair at St. Louis before returning home.

One day last week Mrs. Wm. Keatley narrowly escaped being run down by the 1:05 train due here on the crossing at Geo. Morrison's, so near that she was nearly drawn under the train. The engineer said he closed his eyes, so as not to see the horrible sight of her mangled body. On the same day, as Jim Holt was driving Bruger's cattle across the track, the 5:38 train came very nearly running over him at the crossing one street below.

The happiest man in our town just now is Irvin Alexander, after 3 weeks of temporary widowhood his good wife returned from her visit to their daughter, Mrs. Pat Loughry, at Philadelphia.

We now have four daily mails. Elsie Hall and Eloise Buek are expert fisher-girls, recently they each caught about 20 whoppers; some of them must have measured at least 2 inches in length.

Mrs. Amanda Moran and Mrs. Jode Eckenroth have cleaned and beautified the old Alexander store room for an ice cream parlor and will hereafter sell the famous Cedar's ice cream every Saturday evening, also on Decoration day. Mrs. Albert Hazel has also reopened her parlor and will again supply the public with that delightful dish.

If anybody tells you that Phillipsburg is a slow town, just mark him down a back number. I visited that town on last Saturday and in the evening the principal business streets were so crowded with shoppers that one could hardly elbow his way through the crowd. On the day Main's show exhibited in that town 12,000 fares were collected on the street cars and from Winburn. This was the star day for trolley travel. Through the courtesy of H. D. Rumberger we took a trolley trip to Winburn a distance of 13 miles, passing through Hawk Run, Morrisdale, Airport, Munson and a host

For the Outing Man YOU KNOW, without our telling you, what is meant by "outing clothes": coat and trousers usually to be worn with a neglige shirt; to loaf in, or go summer resorting in; or maybe on sweltering days, to wear to business. They will be popular for men at summer resorts which is one of the reasons they will be popular for wearing at home. The outing suits we are showing are something more than thin, cool clothes; you may as well get style in your outing suits as to buy clothes that are merely put together. You may as well have them fit your body, and made so they will keep shape through the season, instead of hanging like a string in a couple of weeks. You'll get such outing suits as you ought to have if you come here. Words wont do it, better let us show you the suits—ready when you are.
