The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of Our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

Home strawberries are fine and plentiful. Daniel Showers, of Nittany, was a pleasant caller and admires our new quarters. Miss Ella Twimire returned home Saturday morning from her six-week's tour to California. Mr. and Mrs. George Armor, of Providence, Rhode Island, are visiting their Bellefonte friends. Miss Anna Smith, daughter of Ex. prothonotary W. F. Smith, of Millheim, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. Mrs. Emanuel Noll departed for Lock Haven where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. James Rickard, of that city. Mrs. D. Eber Rothrock, of DuBois, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ott, of East High street. Quite a hail storm passed through this section Sunday afternoon, some quite large hail like hickory nuts fell. Mr. and Mrs. James Lane, of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte Friday evening and will spend the summer with Bellefonte friends. A delegation of Masons, Bellefonte lodge, went to Eagleville Sunday, to take charge of the funeral of F. G. Stover, who died suddenly. Col. Wilbur F. Reeder left on Friday for Chicago and is attending the Republican National convention this week as a delegate from this district. Of interest to persons needing groceries, and an inducement for chickens to lay eggs, is the advertisement of grocer Roan in the Centre Democrat. J. S. McCarger, of Bellefonte, who was the centre pole orator of the recent Republican convention in Centre county, was here on Friday.—Tyrone Herald. Milton Derr, a former assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association at this place, is quite ill with consumption at his father's home in Turbotville. H. S. Ray returned on Monday from a trip to Chicago. Some years ago he resided in that city, and that does not imply that he is "windy," as the opposite is the case. Mrs. Lettie Thomas and her daughter Miss Mary Thomas, accompanied by the former's sisters, Mary and Elizabeth Smith, of Philadelphia, are here to spend the summer. A box of fine and delicious strawberries found its way to the Democrat's sanctum through the kindness of Wm. B. Shaeffer of Zion, who raises the finest of that fruit. Thanks. W. H. Burrows and family, of Baltimore, Md., are moving into the Butts house on East Linn street. Mr. Burrows is the new mail agent on the Lock Haven and Tyrone division of the P. R. R. The new concrete pavement from High street to the Central R. R. of Pa. is being laid. It will make a great improvement on that street. Many question whether the walk will prove durable, as there is only a loose ground filling below it. Jim Furst, with the finest fly, caught a twelve-and-a-half inch trout, in the boro, hooking the speckled beauty just back of the head. We did not suspect that a trout carried a biting apparatus on the back of the head—it must be so, for Jim got him out that way. Benner Graham, local agent and Otto R. Conrad, district manager, of the Germania Life Insurance Company, of New York, paid their respects to the editor. They can give you a good investment as well as protection, in that company. Martin Kane, known in Bellefonte as "Bony," was badly hurt about 3 o'clock Saturday morning at the Nittany Furnace; he was knocked off the yard engine and was dragged. His right limb was dislocated and his body is cut and bruised. He is in a serious condition. He was taken to the Bellefonte hospital. Monday evening the young ladies of the town gave a cotillion in the Armory that proved a delightful social event. Stopper & Fisk's orchestra of Williamsport furnished the music; the interior was beautifully decorated with potted plants and festooned with evergreens. Many visitors from a distance were in attendance. Sunday morning we had a first class excitement in front of the postoffice. Mart Garman's bull-dog came near chewing up a bird dog owned by Ed. Eckenroth. The howling of the brutes could be heard for several squares distant. Finally the brute was kicked in the ribs and pelted with rocks until he gave up his hold. Some day this brute may tear a child to pieces and the community will wonder why it was allowed to run our streets. Better kill the ugly brute now, as people generally are afraid of him, and justly so.

Miss Jennie Irwin and Miss Florence Denius are visiting at Turbotville, Pa. Garden truck of the finest growth is now in abundance at the curb market. Amateurs get the best results from our roll films and supplies. The Mallory Studio. Home strawberries scarce ever were finer than are now brought to the curb market. Fred Hosterman, one of Potter township's most esteemed citizens, was in town Tuesday. If you are in need of plants, cabbage, celery, etc., Mr. Haag has the choicest of all kinds. Mrs. D. F. Luse, of Centre Hall, has the thanks of this journal for a bunch of rare flowering plants. Will Van Tries, who is teaching school in Trenton, N. J., has arrived home for the summer vacation. For home grown strawberries inquire of H. L. Truckenmiller, at the regular Bellefonte curb market. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lounsbury, of Elmira, N. Y., are visiting their son, Louis Lounsbury engineer on the C. R. R. of Pa. The thunder showers Monday afternoon and evening gave the ground a thorough soaking causing a great growth among vegetation. There will be an ice cream and strawberry festival in the lecture room at the Methodist church this evening to which everyone is invited. There may be some points about having your photographs made which you do not know. Send to the Mallory Studio for booklet, "20th Century Portraiture." Some villain poisoned two cows belonging to Wash Irvin of Reynolds Ave. on Sunday. The cows were valued at $100. The guilty brute should be sent to the penitentiary. Rev. R. Lewis Erhard, of Clearfield, will preach in the United Brethren church on Sunday morning. Rev. Erhard is well known in Bellefonte, as this was formerly his home. Richard Brouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brouse, as a cadet on the School Ship "Saratoga" will take a four month cruise in foreign waters. He went to Philadelphia on Saturday. On Friday evening a festival will be held at Pleasant View. Ice cream, strawberries and other delicacies will be served. They extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend. The state factory inspector was around one day last week and inspected the Centre Democrat establishment. After having gone through it all he pronounced it the best and most complete of newspaper plants. The Fourth of July is close at hand and the only great celebration in these parts will be that of the Undine fire company at Hecla Park. The gallant Undine boys are leaving nothing undone to make it a grand affair. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bottorf, of Lemont, are at the Bucknell Commencement at Lewisburg this week where one of their daughters graduates from the ladies' seminary; Mr. and Mrs. Olewine of this place accompanied the first named, the graduating lady being a sister of Mrs. Olewine. John Wagner, on Monday, received a copy of the Daily News published at Shanghai, North China, dated May 23rd. It was sent here by his son John K. Wagner, now a gunner on the U. S. protected cruiser Raleigh. The sheet is filled with war news and contains advertisements of many familiar American products. Many corn fields are now showing the first and second plantings. The first planting, it would seem, did not come up because of the cool weather when planted, which retarded the sprouting, and farmers attributed it to the seed having been frozen before matured last fall; hence two-thirds of the farmers replanted. Now both plantings are coming up side by side, and causes the plants to be too plentiful which is likely to tax the nourishment of the soil to an extent to affect the stalks. We have observed quite a number of fields in this condition. A foot race took place on Saturday between an aggregation of the famous Roosevelt club of our town and the sporting fraternity from Milesburg. Some say it was a game of ball, but when you read the score 43 to 23, it would be a libel to associate it with the National Game. They must have been marvels in batting and running. Of course the namesakes of Teddy won out. Now if these teams would only advertise their next game business in town would be suspended and the gross receipts would be sufficient to run the Bellefonte hospital for a year to come. A quart of young ladies, just ended their term at the Spring Mills academy, illumined the Democrat's sanctum on Saturday afternoon, on their way to their homes. They were desirous to top off their education by having some knowledge as to how a paper is printed, hence, being very pretty and amiable young ladies, we were only too delighted to show them around, and the pretty damsels left believing printers are not a bad set and a printing office worth visiting. The names of these pretty callers, were: Kathryn Turbidity, and Jerusha Daugerty, of Moshannon; Jennie Graham and Jennie Park, of Snow Shoe.

J. H. Hoy, of State College, gave our sanctum a pleasant call. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Goheen, of Ferguson, were very pleasant callers. Job printing turned out from the Centre Democrat office is always right. The opening dance at Hecla Park, last Friday evening, was well attended. The park is in fine shape. The new pump at the spring is throwing over 100,000 gallons of water per day. It is doing more than was guaranteed. The children's day services in the United Evangelical church on Sunday evening were of an exceptionally high order. The District Sunday school convention met at Pleasant Gap, Tuesday, June 21st, the exercises were interesting and largely attended. Harry Benner, of Roopsburg, who was successfully operated upon in St. Lukes hospital, Philadelphia, for deformed limbs, returned home this week. Charles E. Dorworth, son of Dr. Dorworth, of this place, now on the Philadelphia Press staff, has reported the Chicago convention proceedings for the Press and in creditable manner. The report is current that the plant of the Philipsburg Water company has been purchased by the Citizens Water Co. It is expected the deal will be closed and the transfer made by July 1st.—Philipsburg Journal. Doll's Bakery on Bishop street installed a new four-horse power gas engine the past week for driving their new machinery for making ice cream. It will enable them to turn out a superior quality of cream in wholesale quantities on short order. J. C. Meyer, Esq., and Robt. F. Hunter left Monday noon for Joplin, Miss., where they expect to meet F. W. Crider, who is on his way home from the Pacific coast. While in Joplin they will inspect the zinc operations owned by the Penna Mining & Smelting Company of Bellefonte. Miss Grace Vallmont, of Pine Glenn, who has been attending Potts Business College at Williamsport for the past season, while on her way home for a brief vacation, stopped in Bellefonte and was a pleasant caller at our office. A number of Centre county students are attending the same institution. The quarterly meeting of the board of directors and officers of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. was held on Monday, in their room in the Reynolds bank block. Applications for insurance to amount of about $2,000 were passed, and premium notes to amount of over $9000 were received. On Sunday J. Kennedy Johnson, Esq., shot at a rat with a small rifle. The ball struck a stone, rebounded and cut a gash in his face near the eye. Had he been a better marksman the rat would have suffered from the shot instead of himself. "Brother Johnson" should not shoot rats anyhow on Sunday. The accident might have been more serious. During the week Detective Joseph Rightmire, of this place, has been quite busy yanking in fellows on various charges, and especially those who had violated the fish laws. Two lads from the vicinity of Snow Shoe Intersection were brought before Justice Keichline on the charge of dynamiting the Baldeagle creek. They were Oscar Summers and Henry Estridge, they plead guilty to the charge and will have to pay a heavy fine. Another lot were arrested for laying outlines in a trout stream, but at the hearing the witness would not stand up to the rack and it fell through. Another fellow was put in jail for stealing a watch and the same charge was made against another. These days Joseph is busy and he intends to take up all the business that comes his way, and he is right for he says that after this year he may not have the job—that is quite possible too. A Bad Prisoner. Dominick Constance, the Hungarian charged with burning Rothrocks' building, has been a very unruly prisoner the past week. He raved and cursed in his cell, broke up the furniture until Sheriff Taylor found it necessary to confine him in the dungeon. That subdued the lad and he has been real good since. Dr. R. G. Van Valzah, who lately lived in Springfield, Oregon, will become a citizen of Centre Hall. He is a son of the late Dr. Sheppard Van Valzah. J. M. Garbrick, of Linden Hall, who graduated from Franklin and Marshall college last week, has been elected principal of the Fleetwood, Penna., High school. Griffin & Young is the name of a new lumber firm in Lock Haven. The members of the firm are P. P. Griffin and E. H. Young. The firm has purchased of Paul L. Lingle and C. S. Harter, 1,537 acres of hard wood timberland near Marlinton, Pocahontas county, W. Va., on which a new steam saw mill was recently erected. The mill which has a capacity of 12,000 to 15,000 feet per day was put in operation for the first time last Friday. The timber tract is located along Greenbrier river. The main office of Griffin & Young will be in Lock Haven in the same office as that occupied by P. P. Griffin, on Grove street.—Express.

Misses Margaret Mothersbaugh and Marion Fortney won the prizes offered by Theodore Davis Boal for the best two papers on the local history of Boalsburg. The prizes consisted of two scholarships in the Boalsburg select school under Prof. Ward S. Gramley. About 4 o'clock Monday afternoon the lightning struck the large barn on the farm of Robt. H. Mann in Curtin township and it was totally destroyed with a large amount of hay, grain and valuable agricultural implements. The live stock was saved. The loss is quite heavy. The Alpha Fire Company of State College is preparing for a big time at the Fourth of July celebration. There will be a great big prize fantastic parade and several bands, also an exciting ball game between the Fats and the Leans. Other sports and amusements will make an interesting program for the day. Children's Day services were held last Sunday evening in the United Ev. church at Curtin. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers and was crowded to its utmost capacity. It is said that the services this year were the best ever held as every one who took part and also the audience were well pleased; the children all did their part well and those who trained them deserve much credit. Many thanks are also tendered Miss Alma Stein and Miss Elgie Barger who presided as organists. A Blair county road case can be read with profit by supervisors of Centre and other counties. John Lloyd, Jr., charged Ira G. Robeson and Reuben Delozier, the Blair township supervisors, with neglect of official duty in not repairing the township roads and removing the loose stones. The supervisors claimed that they had paid laborers to repair the roads. The justice found that the supervisors had been neglectful and directed that they pay fine and costs amounting to $27.86. Under the law supervisors may be sued once a month for neglecting the roads. Sunday evening June 12th, Wm. Homan's hired boy on returning from children's day services, found some one endeavoring to enter the house a short distance east of Centre Hall. He quickly remounted his bicycle and went to meet his employer, who was driving a span of spirited mules. The mules took fright at the approaching bicyclist and started to run away. Some of the occupants of the spring wagon jumped for their lives, and others, among them Mrs. Homan and baby, remained on the vehicle until it was upset in a fence corner, and received slight injuries. The mules ran home. The Bellwood Bulletin says: "Mrs. Daniel Brungart, of Rebersburg, Centre county, and Mrs. Grieb, of Loganton, Clinton county, are visiting their sister Mrs. Wolf, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. D. M. Weaver on third street, south side. Mrs. Wolf has been in delicate health for the past six months and at present is weak, but in cheerful spirits at the advanced age of 82 years. The combined ages of these three sisters are 238 years.
