PIG IN A POKER.—Last Saturday one of our farmers Michael Corman started to town with some butter and eggs, a pig and a cat, the latter two each in a separate sack. He said that the cat was too old to be of any use and he didn't like to kill her because she had been very useful in her younger days, so he brought her to Bellefonte to hunt her own living. The pig was engaged by a party in town. When he reached Beaver's farm he grabbed a sack and threw it to the side of the road thinking that it was the cat. All went well until he went to deliver the pig when he discovered that he threw the pig off and kept the cat. Of course he didn't let on that he made the mistake, but it worried him anyhow. He did nothing but walk the streets and think about his pig. Fortunately, some men, who were working on Beaver's farm noticed the bag and for curiosity opened it and found the pig. About the time they opened the bag, Christ Decker happened along on his way to town. They told Christ, whose name was on the sack, that if he saw the owner, he should tell him where he could find the pig. Christ hurried off to town, tied his horse and started off in search of the owner. He found him in front of the Centre County Bank, standing on the middle of the pavement all by himself. How long he was in that condition, we do not know. Then Christ told him where his pig was, with a lighter step and a smile instead of a frown he set out for the lost one. He returned to town exchanged the pig for the cat and returned home a happy man.

Calvin Hoy and wife, of Renovo, spent last week with Mr. Hoy's parents at this place.

C. N. Fisher has returned home from Windber, where he was employed in a store. He expects to resume his position in the future.

Frank Rockey, of Lancaster, spent the week with his parents.

W. J. Transeau has opened a grocery store in Henry Garbrick's store room. Give him a call and you will be convinced.

Quite a number of our people attended the Undine picnic at Hecla on the 4th of July.

Some of our farmers are done making hay while some have just commenced.

Nittany.

Miss Eleanor Shaffer, of Millburg, is visiting her grandparents and many friends at this place.

Quite a number of our young folks attended the festival, at Jacksonville, on Saturday night.

Nittany was very quiet on the fourth, as nearly everybody spent the day with the Undine boys at Hecla park.

The Nittany base ball club realized a nice sum at their festival, which they held last week and have purchased a new outfit for their club, such as gloves and suits.

Miss Lillian McCaleb has returned from Pittsburgh; she was accompanied by Miss Jean Beck, of the same place.

Some of our Nittany boys are good at washing dishes.

Mrs. Huffman and son, from Philadelphia, are spending the warm summer months with their parents, John Holmes and family, of this place. Miss Margaret West, of Bellefonte, is also the guest of Miss Marie Holmes.

Joe Emerick, Jr., of Jersey Shore, spent several days with his parents the past week, R. T. Emerick and family.

Miss Mable Kessinger, for several years living in Philadelphia, is here on a visit.

Miss Mary Tate, of Tyrone, who has been visiting friends here, returned to Nittany after spending several days visiting friends at Hublersburg.

There must be some attraction at this place, for one of the Hecla boys was seen with one of our young ladies on Sunday evening.

Boyd Emerick has just finished giving his buggy a new coat of paint, and on Saturday night he will turn out as sporty a rig as any one in town.

W. J. Mauck, our bustling butcher, has purchased a new buggy, a runabout as they are called, and it is a fine one.

The saw mills are all running full blast again, after being closed down on the fourth.

Lightning struck a large pine tree on Saturday night close to Peck's store.

There is nothing greener in the country than a city girl who has never been there before.

Pine Grove Mills.

June Hammer, of Altoona, was calling on old acquaintances last week.

Chas. Goss, of Scotland, Pa., a student at the soldiers' orphan school, is home on his summer vacation.

Milton Keller and family, of Pittsburg, is visiting his parents.

Edward Moore, of State College, is visiting at the Danley home on Main St.

Charles Stem, of Boalsburg, came near losing a valuable cow last week by the breaking of its leg, but under the care of our skilful veterinary surgeon, W. H. Fry, the cow now has a chance of recovering.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church will hold a festival in the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening. A good time is assured to all who come. Turn out and help the ladies.

Samuel Danlap was transacting business in the county seat last week.

Mrs. Mary Orr, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, left for her home in Clearfield last Tuesday.

John D. Porter, of Mammouth, Ill., and Miss Margaret W. Watt, of Tyrone, were united in marriage two weeks ago at Winona Lake, Ind. The bride was at one time a resident of Pine Grove and has the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy and successful married life.

Word has been received here that Russell Port, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Port, of this place, is very ill with stomach trouble at his home in Baltimore, Ohio.

Julian.

Three very pleasant young ladies from Altoona, are visiting at grandma Faust's.

Aaron Turner, who was working at West Virginia, has returned home again. I guess Aaron thinks there is "No place like home."

Our pleasant friend 'Squire O. H. Wason drove to Unionville one day last week, and after spending a few pleasant moments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Biddle, said the words which united their son Charles and Miss Lizzie Spouts one for life and quickly returned.

J. C. Wason's residence was entered by burglars last Wednesday night about 11 o'clock; Mrs. Wason was aroused by a queer noise, on listening discovered that it was at J. C.'s safe; J. C. being absent, the responsibility of investigation laid on Mrs. Wason and her grandsons Charles and James; armed with a shot gun and two revolvers they quickly entered the room and found everything in readiness for a clean robbery. The silver case open, the safe in readiness, the furniture all moved back and both doors open ready for their escape; on calling the next day we did not find Mrs. J. C. anyways excited but she said if she would have had a minute to think she would have had her boys in better picket they would likely 'sopped to close the doors behind them.

Mr. Gray moved to the Way farm, which he lately purchased.

J. C. Andrews sold his fine big bay team to a Mr. Taylor of Clearfield. We won't be surprised if the Colonel takes a trip and returns with another fine team.

We understand that John Milton was held up by three armed men last Sunday night, but when they found he had no money they told him to pass on.

Bird went to Martha last Sunday night to see his best girl, and it took him until Monday to hunt his horse and buggy.

We hear the clatter of Mrs. Groe's loom and have already seen many yards of very pretty home made carpet.

Filmore.

The festival at this place was largely attended and every one had a pleasant time.

Farmer's Mills.

Most of the farmers were kept back from making their hay by the heavy rains the past week.

Harry Mauke and wife, from Salona, were entertained by J. M. Goodhart over Sunday.

Wm. Krader was a caller with J. H. Rishel, at Bellefonte. Mr. Rishel is much improved.

Wm. Sinkenbine and family spent Sunday with the latter's parents, M. L. Rishel's.

Jerry Corman and wife, the new bride and groom, spent part of their honeymoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Emerick.

H. E. Shrenckengast who is working at the carpenter trade in Altoona, came home to spend a few days with his family; he expects to return next week.

When you hear those wedding bells going a-ting-a-ting get your guns and your whole serenading outfit and fall in line.

Coburn.

On Wednesday July 6, occurred the death of one of the oldest and earliest residents of this place, John Bowersox. He has been sick since New Years day suffering from dropsy and other diseases peculiar to his age, which was 79 years 2 months and 8 days. Funeral services were conducted in the Lutheran church on Saturday and interment was made at Wolf's chapel in afternoon of the same day. He is survived by a wife who is in her 81st year and whose maiden name was Frederick, two sons and two daughters, namely: David of Aaronsburg; Adam, of Seano; and Mrs. Adam Maze of Millheim, also by seven grand children and five great-grand children.

Solomon Wise, who for many years has made his home in the State of Missouri, has for the first time since his departure west come to this state to visit his relatives, and in order to afford him the opportunity of seeing as many friends and relatives as possible during his short visit they have decided to hold a Wise-Stover reunion in Jacob Gentzel's grove near Zerby Station on the 16th day of July.

RECENT DEATHS

ARTHUR ROYER.—Little son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Royer, of Bloomsdorf, died Sunday afternoon 3rd, of neuralgia after a week's illness, aged three years. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon. Interment at Pine Hall.

WILLIAM SPANGLER.—Died very suddenly Tuesday 28, at Beech Creek and was buried Friday morning. He leaves to mourn their loss two sons, George and Henry and three daughters, Mrs. Albert Kunes, Mrs. Tacy Martin, and Mrs. John Campbell, also one brother Samuel Spangler.

NELSON CALDWELL.—The body of Nelson Caldwell, who died at Tyrone, was taken to Salona for burial. He suffered from a complication of diseases. He was born at Salona, and at death was aged 72 years, 5 months and 21 days. Much of his active life was spent at Beech Creek, where he was a useful and active citizen.

MISS LORNA MAY CULBY.—Died July 2nd, funeral at Cedar Springs cemetery, July 2nd. Her age was 22 years, 5 months and 4 days. She leaves to mourn her loss Samuel and Clara Culby, three brothers, Charles at Howard, James at Rote, Daniel at Cedar Springs, sisters, Meranda and Bessie at home, and Rachael at Mill Hall.

ABRAHAM BRINDLE.—Died on Sunday, July 3rd, at Smulton, after a short illness caused by a sprain. Mr. Brindle was 63 years old. He was an old and respected citizen of that place. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, two sons and two daughters: William and John of Francesville, Ind., Lizzie at home, and Mrs. Perry Smith, of Fiedler.

ISAAC MERRYMAN.—Of Pine Grove Mill, died at his home in that place last Friday evening 1st, at the age of 50 years. His death was due to infirmities incident to old age. He was buried beside his father and mother in the new cemetery at Pine Grove, Sunday afternoon. He was a member of the Lutheran church. He served in a cavalry command during the latter part of the war.

WILLIAM MICHAELS.—Was killed at Hyer, Clinton county on Monday morning, by a runaway team attached to a loaded bark wagon and was found dead sometime after the accident occurred. He was married to Regina Rhoads, a daughter of T. H. Rhoads of Bellefonte, who with five children are left to mourn his death. He was about 45 years of age. The body will be brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday morning and the interment was made in the Union cemetery.

PHILO WARD.—Died Saturday afternoon at the home of W. I. Fleming, on north Penn street. He had attained his 56th year and his death was due to infirmities incident to his accumulating years. For years he had made his home with his daughter Mrs. Fleming. Surviving him are the following children: Mrs. Frank McCumpey, of Renova; Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Mrs. Wilson I. Fleming, of Bellefonte, and J. Monte Ward of New York city. Interment in the Union cemetery, Monday afternoon.

WILLIAM T. LEATHERS.—A well known citizen of Mt. Eagle, met with an accident that resulted in his death. Mr. Leathers is the proprietor of a handle factory and a manufacturer of roof paint at Mt. Eagle. About 8 o'clock Friday morning he was leaning out the second story window of his residence talking to John Wetzel whom he had engaged to repair the boiler at the handle factory. He had finished his conversation and Mr. Wetzel had turned to go away when Mr. Leathers plunged headlong out the window landing on the stone steps leading down into the cellar 15 feet below. His skull was fractured and he lived but a short time after the accident occurred. The doctor in attendance thinks that his fall was due to a rush of blood to the head. W. T. Leathers was born in Mt. Eagle, and would have been 48 years old next September. He was the son of J. B. Leathers, deceased. He was married to Miss Eva Bathurst, who survives him with the following children: Tracie, Earl, Clarence, Ruth and Gertrude. The funeral took place Monday morning from the home. Interment in the Curtin cemetery.

MRS. JOSIAH JACKSON.—Who was the mother of Prof. J. P. Jackson, of the State College faculty, was killed by being thrown from a wagon at Madison, Wis., on Friday 1st. She had made her home with her son at State College, and was visiting at the home of another son, Prof. Dugald G. Jackson, of the Wisconsin university. Prof. Jackson with his family, his mother and a sister of the latter, were out driving, and from some cause Prof. Jackson tumbled while trying to turn around on a hillside and the team ran away, throwing the six occupants of the carriage heavily to the ground. The dead woman suffered a fracture of the skull by striking the sharp stump of a small tree and lived only a short time after the accident. Prof. Jackson sustained a fracture of one of his arms. His 11 year old daughter had her collar bone broken and Mrs. Milo Cravath, of Nashville, Tenn., widow of a former president of Pisk university and a sister of the dead woman, sustained a compound fracture of one of her arms. Mrs. Jackson was 50 years old. Her remains were brought east for burial.

J. H. REIFSNYDER.—Died at his home in Millheim on Friday afternoon, July 1st. On Monday evening June 10th, he was stricken with a serious ailment at Lock Haven, that affected him much like apoplexy, from which he never fully recovered, and taken to his home where he died. John H. Reifsnyder was born near Annville, Lebanon county, Pa., July 18, 1837. His father Wm. Reifsnyder located at Aaronsburg, Centre county, in 1841. The deceased received his early education in the public schools at Aaronsburg. When a young man he followed the butchering trade, taught school, later learned surveying, served several terms as County Surveyor. Other business enterprises in which he engaged were as treasurer of the Millheim Building and Loan Association; an incorporator of the Millheim Turnpike road from that place to Coburn; he was at one time a stockholder in the Millheim Bank; was the owner and operator of the Keystone Cement & Lime Co. In January 1861, Mr. Reifsnyder was married to Mary L. Kreamer, of Miles township who died July 23, 1892. Two children survive this union, Jennie K., and Joseph W., both of Millheim. Later he married Mrs. Mary Woodling, of Rebersburg, who survives him with one son. Mr. Reifsnyder was a staunch Democrat. From 1862 to 1866 he was tax collector of Penn township. In the fall of 1869 he was elected justice of the peace and served continuously until 1896. He owned a great deal of valuable property in and about Millheim. He was a man of more than ordinary ability. He had good business qualities, and was successful in his undertakings. Several years Mr. Reifsnyder was in critical health from which he rallied. He was a useful man in that community and will be missed.

SIMON DUCK.—86 years old, born in the Warriorsmark valley, never married, and made his home with his brothers and sisters, left home a mile west of the Cross Rhoads, 6 ult., intending to walk to Philipsburg, but only got as far as the orchard on the place where he was evidently stricken with paralysis and died. His body was found about 9 o'clock Friday morning. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, 2nd.

MRS. DANIEL MCCLELLAN.—Mrs. Sarah E., wife of Daniel W. McClellan, died Wednesday morning, 29th at Philipsburg the result of heart trouble, dropsy and consumption. The deceased was born at Snow Shoe, and had she lived until the 23rd of August, next, would have completed her 29th year. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lorrach, of Snow Shoe, and was married to Mr. McClellan about nine years ago. Beside her husband, she leaves four children, the oldest seven years and the youngest nine months. Her parents and three brothers and five sisters also survive. Interment at Snow Shoe.
