

E. P. IRVIN. L. C. IRVIN.

THE RACKET

We want to say a few words about our stock of

NOTIONS

We take pride in this department of our store. It is the most complete in town. Some stores don't care to bother with the thousand and one little things that make a good notion stock, but all women know how necessary they are. Try us on your wants in Notions and see how well we serve you.

Racket Store Co.

Correspondents' Department.

Continued from page 7.

We have not heard from some of our correspondents for a long time. If any of them are out of material, inform us at once. We want the news, the people appreciate it; send us the news, we will print it.

Coburn.

Miss Pearl Corman, of Pine Creek, is staying at the home of J. H. Winkleblech, whose wife is sick.

Mrs. J. C. Krumrine, who spent several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hosterman and other relatives in this county, returned on Tuesday to her home at Smithport, McKean county, Pa.

W. E. Meyer, of Philadelphia, is visiting his father P. S. Meyer, and during his stay he will not forget to pay his respects to our girls.

The women folks of this part of Penns valley, are all busy preparing for the reunion and picnic to be held at Sober on Saturday. And well they may for the occasion and as there are many members wide in waist measurement the baskets need to be well filled.

Miss Helen Stonebraker, who had her leg broken, is able to move about with the help of crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Meyer, C. C. Meyer and E. B. Winkleblech will make a visit to the World's Fair at St. Louis.

Pine Creek Mills.

Most farmers are done cutting grain, which is only a half a crop, in this section.

Some of our young people were at the Woodward festival.

Geo. Rishel and family and J. B. Rishel and family were to see their brother J. H. Rishel, who is home from the Bellefonte hospital and is improving very fast.

The ice cream festival at Cloyd Dinges was a great one. Some were full on cider and some on Bully Ram.

Bill Harter, our lime man, is tired of this place; he is talking west, west, west. He ought to try his luck.

The scribe, from Highvalley, was seen at Coburn talking election.

Oats and potatoes are on a fair way. Topsy and Uncle Tom were seen along the creek.

Walker.

Nearly everybody is through harvesting.

Mrs. Frances Michaels, of Mahaffy, is visiting among friends.

Lloyd Homan has left for Williamsport, where he has secured a position in the brickyard.

Several of our young folks attended the festival at Milesburg, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Julia Showers and Mrs. Lot Struble spent Sunday at Milesburg.

Miss Lila Detrick, of Hablersburg, is spending a few weeks at Ad. Reish's.

Collins Bumgardner and family, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at Ad. Reish's.

Madisonburg.

Rev. W. C. Bierly and wife, from Spring Mills, spent a few days of last week with the Rev's father, Jos. Bierly.

W. C. Noll and wife visited friends at Lamar, Sunday.

Miss Valera Brungart left for her home at Millinburg, on Saturday, after a few week's visit with her sister Mrs. Sam Yearick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Housman, from Millheim, were the guests of the latter's sister over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Roush were the guests at the home of D. D. Royer's at Kebersburg, Saturday.

Smulton.

Mrs. C. E. Long, of Mackeyville, and Miss Orpha Breen spent Sunday with their parents, Elias Breen.

Perry Smith and family, of Feldler, spent Sunday with Mrs. A. Brindle.

Daniel Wolf and wife, of Booneville, spent Sunday at Adam Greninger's.

Thos. Greninger and bride, of Nittany valley, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Herbert Small improved the looks of his house by building a new porch.

Harry Small and wife visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Long, at Madisonburg one day last week.

Potter Twp.

PLUM GROVE.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer spent Sunday at the home of Geo. Gingerick.

Quite a number of our folks attended the festival at Egg Hill on Saturday evening, which was quite a success; they raised upwards of sixty dollars.

Palmer Hetzel and mother, from Aaronsburg, Sunday with the formers sister, Mrs. Jacob Sharer.

Mr. Shook, from Spring Mills, spent Sunday afternoon at the fairview farm.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shuyler and little daughter spent Sunday afternoon at the home of W. H. Swartz.

Wm. Kern attended childrens day services which was held at Georgesvalley, Sunday.

George Sharer and Parmer Hetzel, Herbert Klingler and Clyde Shutt, from Bellefonte, all spent Sunday at the home of W. H. Swartz. The two former young men from Plum Grove brought with them a graphophone and gave fine music.

Levi Stump and wife and two grandchildren, of Spring Bank, spent Sunday at the home of Eliza Stump and daughter.

James Keller and son William spent Sunday at Penn Hall with Mr. Keller's daughter, Mrs. Frank Fisher.

V. A. Auman and wife spent Sunday afternoon in Georgesvalley with Mrs. Auman's father.

There are a few boys in Plum Grove that watch up the mail pretty close. Boys, don't you know you ought not to stick your nose in other peoples business—take warning in time.

P. A. Auman and son Victor made a business trip to Bellefonte last Wednesday.

EARLYSTOWN.

Michael Decker, of Plum Grove, transacted business at this place, Monday.

Miss Bessie Taylor returned to her home in Bruhvalley, Tuesday, after having lived with L. R. Lingle's for a number of years.

Harry Mader spent Sunday with his parents in Centre Hall.

Most of the farmers are through making hay in this section, and now are busy cutting their grain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tressler, of Linden Hall, were visitors at Cloverdale, Saturday.

Miss Bessie Kooney spent Sunday evening pleasantly at the home of Wm. Shaffer, of Tusseyville.

Mrs. Henry Shaffer, of Elkhardt, Indiana, is visiting with his sister, Mrs. D. L. Barges of this place.

John Kline is busy cutting grain on the farm vacated by him last spring.

FRUITTOWN.

Miss Myra Moyer has taken up her residence with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogdon and daughter, Suste, spent Saturday at the home of Israel Weaver.

Daniel Fahringer, of Yeagertown, spent Sunday at home.

Misses Eva and Viola Bubb, of this place, Ella and Mary Jodon, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday with their friend Lydia E. Ishler.

The funeral of Mrs. William Ripka was largely attended.

George Dunlop, of Burnham, spent Sunday with his friend John Bubb.

Nittany.

C. E. Emert's father of Salona, visited him over Sunday.

Quite a number of our young people attended the festival at Lamar, on Saturday night.

The Nittany cornet band furnished the music for the festival, at Lamar, on Saturday night.

Mittie Winkleman has returned home, after visiting friends in Jersey Shore, the past several weeks.

Some of our people attended the funeral of Mr. Joe Kessinger, at Hablersburg, on Sunday.

Some of our people attended the funeral of Miss Grace Shields, of Lamar, on Sunday.

The Messrs. Harry and Frank Strunk, of Walker, and Jake Weaver, Jr., of Hablersburg, are busy hauling telephone poles to Haston Station for H. N. Yearick, of Jacksonville.

Our farmers are about all through harvesting grain which was a very good crop.

There was a very interesting game of base ball played on the ball grounds here, on Saturday afternoon, between the Star team and the Regular club, the score was 30-32 in favor of the Star team.

We heard the Jacksonville hunting club was going to hold another festival. Now if the club would come to Nittany with a subscription paper they might raise money enough to buy grog and ammunition, without holding a festival.

Linden Hall.

Miss Maud Miller, of Rock Springs, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. E. Wieland.

Anna Lietzel, of Northumberland, is visiting her brother Murray, of this place.

Harry Keller spent a few days at Rock Springs.

Mrs. J. H. Ross and sister, Mrs. A. C. Musser spent Tuesday of this week at the home of Dr. Geo. Woods, of Pine Grove Mills.

Don't forget the festival on Saturday night, July 30, at this place.

Mrs. Wm. Sticker and daughter, of Polo, are visiting Mrs. J. H. Ross for a few weeks.

Missing Man Turns Up.

The whereabouts of Israel Kramer, aged seventy-four years, of Centre county, was not known for several years prior to Saturday and he was thought to be dead. Saturday he turned up at Locust Gap to visit his brother, Frank, and found that he had been dead for a year. Israel is almost broken-hearted over the death of his brother and left Locust Gap to go to Freeland to visit a sister.—Jawisburg Journal.

The woman who puts all her money on her back should put up a good front.

Pine Grove Mills.

Miss Anna Musser and Mrs. Daniel Goss, of Bellefonte, were visiting friends here, Tuesday.

Miss Nannie Thomas, of Latrobe, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gates.

A harvest home celebration will be held at Johnson's grove at Pine Hall, Saturday, July 30. There will be a festival in the evening and refreshments will be served all day and during the evening by the Pine Hall Ladies Aid Society.

John D. Danly and family, of Media, Ohio, are visiting his mother Mrs. Danly on Main St.

Samuel Weber, of Boalsburg, was transacting business here last week.

Mrs. W. P. Smiley returned to her home in Scranton Monday after a week's visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Ard.

Albert Bradford, our progressive miller, visited his sister in the loop Tuesday.

Wm. Port was in Loveville last week helping to erect the iron structure of a bridge.

Charles Kepler is out again after a severe attack of scarlet fever.

A daughter of James Hoover is confined to the house with scarletina.

Sam Martz was in Bellefonte last Saturday on business.

A daughter of Cyrus Geathart has scarletina.

A surprise party was given at the home of John Miller, at Rock Springs, last Saturday evening. A large number from this place was present.

Dr. R. M. Krebs lost a valuable hound last week in a distressing manner. David Miller was driving down Main St. and not seeing the dog which was in the road run over it, breaking both its hind legs. Mr. Krebs was compelled to shoot the dog to end its sufferings.

Walter Weaver lost a valuable rabbit dog last week by it being poisoned. This is the third dog Mr. Weaver has lost by poison within a year.

A horse belonging to Albert Bradford sustained a sun stroke last week but under the skillful care of W. H. Fry, the horse is getting along nicely.

J. F. Everts and family were called to the College last Saturday by the death of Mrs. Evert's mother, Mrs. Craig.

Oscar Martz has secured a position with the Pine Grove roller mills.

Sam Dunlap claims the belt for shooting ground hogs, as up to date he has brought in seven.

Mrs. Hale Ross was visiting at the home of Dr. G. H. Woods, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughter, of Phillipsburg, are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Krebs. Mr. Vaughter is taking treatment from Dr. Woods for partial paralysis of the lower limbs, which was caused by being hit with a stone on the back of the head while blasting.

Ruth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swab, has a severe attack of scarlet fever.

Milesburg.

Mrs. Wm. Brown, of Clarence, was a recent guest of William Walker and wife.

Miss Kate Shaugnessy, of Bellefonte, was a guest of Mrs. Wesley Crain.

Miss Anna Adams entertained Miss Rebecca Harvey, of State College, over Sunday.

Miss Abbinia Fulton entertained a few friends Friday evening, Miss Mabel Hardy, of Altoona, was the principal guest.

Edward Swyers, of Pittsburg, is a guest of his aunt, Mrs. James McMullen.

Ed. McMullen, of Elmira, is visiting his uncle Henry McMullen.

Miss Ada Haupt, of Tyrone, spent Wednesday with P. H. Haupt and family.

Mrs. John Crumbly, of Unionville, and sister Mrs. Bowman, of York county, were guests of John C. Peters and family.

Mrs. Campbell and daughter, Mrs. Barlean of Blanchard, are guests of W. R. Campbell and family.

Misses Gertrude and Fannie Confer also Miss Kate Malose, of Yarnell, attended the Union Sunday school picnic, held at Hecla park on the 20th.

Miss Myra Poorman, of Tyrone, is visiting her grandmother Mrs. George Taylor.

Al. Beezer, of Bellefonte, held the lucky number for the $25 couch, 194. The boys realized $75 for it. Receipts for the evening $195, for firemen's festival, held here on Saturday night.

Chas. Price left for Altoona on Tuesday, where he is employed on the pipe line.

Saturday afternoon the Howard base ball team came to the burg for the purpose of doing the Milesburg team up. It did it in grand style, taking the life out of them. The score was 33 to 5 in favor of Howard. Our boys are now organizing a team to play marbles. A short time ago our team went to Howard and got it in the neck, score there was 16 to 1 in favor of Howard. This is the third time in succession. At Hecla, the score was 15 to 4 in favor of Hecla.

Miss Gertrude Bouse, of Tyrone, and Miss Mary Wright, of Philadelphia, are guests of Miss Elizabeth Stroop.

Mrs. Jemima Ammerman, of Unionville, is a guest of Mrs. Jemima Parson.

Mrs. Ette Kline, of Bellefonte, was a recent guest of Mrs. Mary E. Kellerman.

Mrs. Mertie Lipton, of Ridgeway, arrived home to visit her parents Benj. Austin and wife.

Harry Austin and wife are visiting in Pittsburg at this writing.

Mrs. Mary Borlean arrived after a pleasant visit to Tyrone and Altoona among her friends and relatives.

RECENT DEATHS

CHARLES PARKER:—an old and well known resident of Loganton, died Thursday night after an illness dating back two years, when he was stricken with paralysis. He was aged 85 years and leaves a wife, two sons and one daughter. Interment in the Evangelical cemetery.

FRANKLIN G. EBERTS:—died at his home in Woodland, Clearfield county, on Wednesday morning July 20th, aged 42 years. He was a native of Martha, this county. He is survived by his wife and two sons; Grover C. and Lester, also a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Heil, Baraboro; two brothers, J. W. Eberts of Clearfield and James A. Eberts of Martha.

GEORGE W. MILLER:—died at his home in Altoona, Friday evening, of dysentery. He was born at Milesburg, July 4, 1842. When the civil war broke out he enlisted in Company A, 49th regiment Penna. Vol. The deceased was twice married, his first wife, Anna Rachel Price, of Warriorsmark, dying 21 years ago. His wife and two children, John Charles and Josephine, at home, survive him. Interment in Fairview cemetery, Altoona.

MRS. NANCY A. CRAIG:—died Wednesday afternoon the 20, in State College of dropsy trouble. She had been ill since last fall, being abed most of that time. Interment in the Boalsburg cemetery. Mrs. Craig was 70 years old. Her maiden name was Nancy Shirk. Her first husband was John Herman, who has been dead 43 years. Later she married R. K. Craig of Pine Grove Mills. She leaves a brother, Wm. Shirk of Foxsawtawney, and a sister, Mrs. Lot Kimport of Boalsburg, also three children, Mrs. J. N. Everts of Pine Grove Mills, Robert Herman of Tionesta, and Jacob Herman of Lemont.

MRS. REID:—wife of Jacob Reid, died at her home in Aaronsburg, on 14, after suffering two weeks, from a broken limb sustained by a fall, and dropsy. Her age was sixty-one years and twenty-eight days. Funeral took place Sunday forenoon, Rev. Lauffer, of the Reformed church officiating, and Rev. Sheeder and Rev. Bright assisting. Mrs. Reid's maiden name was Lydia Winkleblech, a daughter of Adam Winkleblech, de'd. and for twenty years was a resident of Aaronsburg. She is survived by her husband and two daughters—Elizabeth, wife of Ernest Homan; Rebecca, wife of Ernest Glover; and one son, Jefferson, of Johnstown.

MRS. REBECCA KRYDER EVANS:—died on Sunday, July 24th, at the home of her son Rev. John M. Evans, at Hawthorne, Clarion county, of heart failure. She had attained the ripe old age of 86 years, 1 month, 6 days. Mrs. Evans' death was unexpected as she left her home at Spring Mills on Thursday last, to visit in Clarion county, and stood the trip nicely. She was the wife of the late James O. Evans, and a daughter of Judge Jacob Kryder and wife Elizabeth, and was the youngest of thirteen children. She was married in 1835 and to them three children were born: Rev. L. Kryder Evans, D. D., pastor of Trinity Reformed church, Pottstown, Pa.; J. Wells Evans, Spring Mills, and Rev. John M. Evans, pastor of Red Bank church, Clarion county, Pa. The interment takes place at Salem Reformed church, Penn Hall, 9 a.m., Thursday morning.

SARAH MILES:—relict of the late Joseph W. Miles, died at the home of her son, Lincoln Miles, in Allegheny, on last Wednesday of congestion of the brain and was brought to Fleming on last Thursday and was buried in the upper graveyard on Friday. The funeral was held from the home of the late Andrew Thompson and was quite largely attended. Deceased was a daughter of the venerable Wm. Boggs, of Milesburg, who survives her at the age of 87 years. Her husband was a captain in the Civil war and preceded her to the grave 31 years ago. At the age of 16 she consecrated her life to the service of God and became a member of the M. E. church and died in the full assurance that her faith in Him was not misplaced. She was aged 62 years and leaves to survive her only son Lincoln; her aged father, her brother A. T. Boggs, of Milesburg, and two sisters: Mrs. Kepner and Mrs. Dr. Arney, of Altoona, all of whom attended the funeral. Services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Peiper.

ADJOINING COUNTIES

This week Clearfield county's centennial is in full blast and the attendance is quite large.

Lomire, the man now in jail at Clearfield charged with the killing of Harry M. Shoff, declares that he will neither hang nor go to the penitentiary. He will starve himself to death before suffering either punishment.

Ira Micheltree, who is getting out wood on the Bald Eagle mountain near Lock Haven, stepped on a big rattlesnake the other day and was bitten in the ankle. His leg swelled to large proportions, but he is now out of danger.

During a thunder storm last week, the barn on the farm of John Strunk, at McAlevy's Fort, was blown down flat to the ground with his horses, calves and pigs all under it and by a miracle nothing was killed. This disaster was followed by lightning striking the house.

Through the liberty of friends, an electric light plant, from which all the buildings and campus will be illuminated, is being installed at Bucknell University at Lewisburg. It is expected that the plant will be ready for use at the opening of the fall session, September 22.

Hon. James Kerr and A. E. Patton have shown their generosity and public spirit by taking upon themselves payment of the expense of dinners to the pioneers and veterans who attend the centennial at Clearfield. Mr. Kerr will settle for the pioneers and Senator Patton for the soldiers.

Attorney General Carson instituted quo warranto proceedings in the Dauphin county court against the Spangler and Hastings Electric Railway company of Cambria county, to show by what authority the company exercises the rights and privileges of a corporation. A writ returnable on July 30 was issued by the court.

July 14, at a meeting of the Loganton school board the following teachers were elected for the coming term of seven months, to open September 5: Prof. A. T. Igen, for the grammar room, at a salary of $40 a month; George G. Gramley, for the intermediate room, at $35 a month; Hattie H. Heller, for the primary room, at $35 a month.

An Italian, who received a bad gun shot wound in the leg, at Gilettown, was taken to the Lock Haven hospital Saturday, and was operated on at noon. While several companions were shooting at mark, he ran in front of the target. The ball severed an artery near the groin. Since the above was in type we learn he got his wound in a carrousal.

Some men look for a job as though they were afraid they might get it.

Big Snake.

The Howard Hustler is responsible for the following: "For a number of years past people traveling to the forge below town have reported that they saw a blacksnake of tremendous size but could never get a chance to kill it; one day last week George McKinley saw it and after a hard fight killed it, the reptile measured 13ft. 6 inches which is the largest snake the writer has heard of being killed in this section of the state.

Weather Report.

Weekly report—Bellefonte Station.

DATE	TEMPERATURE
	Maximum Minimum
July 21, cloudy	82 60
22, pt. cloudy	80 60
23, clear	87 60
24, cloudy	82 60
25, cloudy	77 59
26, cloudy	74 58
27, cloudy	84 65

Rain—On 21st, .17 inch; on 22nd, .24 inch; on 27, eve. .51 inch, with hail.

The girl who has the most rings isn't always the belle.

Woman's Ills

How rare a thing to find a woman who is perfectly healthy. Fully seventy per cent. of the sex suffers from ailments which often render life a burden. These afflictions cause nervousness, irritability, melancholia, hysteria, etc. They entirely unfit a woman for life's work and deprive her of most of its joys.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea WOMAN'S SAFE GUARD.

Those suffering with disordered menstruation, female weakness, prolapsus, etc., will find immediate relief from the use of Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea and in the majority of cases it will bring about a complete cure. It is a positive cure for chronic constipation, sick headache and indigestion. In case of nervousness and sleeplessness this tea will be found indeed a boon. It has a soothing and quieting effect on the nerves and invariably induces sound, refreshing sleep. A cupful at bed-time is all that is necessary to make a woman well and keep her well.

Marysville, B. C., Dec. 1, 1903.

Hamilton Winder Oil Co., Chicago, Ill.

Two years ago I suffered with female complaint and used your Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea with great success. I have just begun taking it again and I feel much younger and stronger. If every woman suffered could know the relief this would experience by using your Herb Tea she would never be without it. It is a most wonderful remedy and I take pleasure in recommending it to every lady who is suffering with female troubles.

Now, Lee County, Ark., Dec. 1, 1903.

Hamilton Winder Oil Co., Chicago, Ill.

I am greatly pleased with your Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea. Indeed I think there is nothing like it for headache and stomach troubles and I find it especially good for clearing the complexion. I would not be without it. Yours truly,

Miss Vera McCordle.

Prepared by Hamilton Winder Oil Co., Chicago, Ill.

HAMLINS COUGH BALSAM

Keels the Lungs. Wards Off Consumption. Etc. and So.

HAMLINS BLOOD & LIVER PILLS

Regulate the Liver. Cleanse the System. Etc.

FOR SALE AND RECOMMENDED BY

C. M. Parrish, - Druggist

Bellefonte, Pa.

Special Announcement

Last call for Summer Millinery.

ANY HAT IN OUR STORE $1.50

This offer includes Hats sold heretofore from $3 up to $12.50

SEE SHOW WINDOW!

These Hats sell themselves at this price.

SALE LASTS FOR ONE WEEK ONLY.

California naval oranges are just now in their prime; we have fine qualities in all sizes, and prices are quite moderate. We have bananas, fine fruit, and lemons of exceptional quality.

SECHLER & CO.

Special Announcement

Last call for Summer Millinery.

ANY HAT IN OUR STORE $1.50

This offer includes Hats sold heretofore from $3 up to $12.50

SEE SHOW WINDOW!

These Hats sell themselves at this price.

SALE LASTS FOR ONE WEEK ONLY.

California naval oranges are just now in their prime; we have fine qualities in all sizes, and prices are quite moderate. We have bananas, fine fruit, and lemons of exceptional quality.

SECHLER & CO.