Highvalley.

Barney, from east end, was a caller on Sunday; he reports business dull at that place. Mrs. S. T. Ginter is visiting in Highvalley the place of her birth, but now at Lewisburg. The scribe had a hand grip on Friday with our fine looking Sheriff Taylor; chat was a short one as he was in the King bus for Millheim; what his business I don't know but expect he was after some poor Devil again; but, laying jokes aside, Mr. Taylor is a fine gentleman. I want a good farmer after the November election to take charge of my truck farm up Salt river; the farm is in a high state of cultivation; the reason for renting the beautiful farm, is, I expect to take charge of the postoffice after the election. Charles Hosterman, of Woodward, was a caller in our valley last week. Mr. Hosterman is an esteemed gentleman; he says there are honest people in Highvalley; yes sir, Mr. Hosterman, but time has made a change like in other places. A fine rain on Saturday night freshened vegetation. Joe Rider called on the scribe on Sunday on his way from East end where he has a contract to cut pulpwood. Dr. Barker was at Cuburn on Saturday for C. D. to hear what Highvalley had to say last week. A. J. Stover said the canning factory pays as well as Geo. Rider's fishing.

The farmers are busy with their oats, some are cutting, while others are hauling in. Miss Rosie Washburn, of Pittsburg, was the guest of Mrs. H. Tressler. Mrs. Bloom, of State College and daughter Emma, of Philadelphia, are visiting relatives in this place. Diphtheria is in the vicinity of Rock Mills; it is in the home of Daniel Shuey. If you want fresh groceries and dried fruits of all kind, and everything good to eat, you should go to J. Harris Hoy's store at Rock Mills. Lawyer has returned from a 60 days' visit to St. Louis. —Men's $3 oxfords now $2.25.—Yeager & Davis.

During the last week: A fine baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Spotts. Miss Alice Henshy was at Howard where she gives lessons to a number of pupils in instrumental music. Mrs. Nannie and Mary Fisher went to State College on last Saturday in the interest of Christian Endeavor work. They will go to Centre Hall and other places before returning home, on the same mission. Our Junior base ball team trounced the Milesburg Junior team last Thursday to the tune 8 to 6. And they say they can do it again. Harry Turner has purchased a brand new horse and he is a slicker, mind I tell you. Master Clark Emerick has a new dog of which he is very proud. He thinks he will raise him on fascinators. Jasper Holt and wife, of Bellefonte, Sundayed with friends in town. The ladies of the Evangelical church will hold a festival on Saturday evening, Aug. 20; everybody cordially invited. Mrs. Wm. H. They will also see Niagara Falls and Buffalo before they return. Their daughter, Miss Marie, will manage the household affairs during their absence. Meals at all hours, says Marie. Spotts Bro's sawmill is running almost full time. To see the immense piles of boards they have stacked about the mill one would think they are running a twenty-gang sawmill. If you want to hear a spicy story ask Geo. Morrison or Charley Potter to relate their escapade with a pretty young gypsy girl fortune teller and necromancer. She wasn't quite smart enough to get their silver coin O. K. Our Athletic Club had another base ball contest on last Saturday with the Curtin team and came off the field with a score of 9 to 17 in favor of Curtin, who had secured the services of three crack players from Bellefonte—Reeder, Pierpont and Curtin. The family cat of Owen Underwood, in prowling about got too close to the railroad and had her tail amputated by a passing freight. The little two year old Marie McClincy who has been adopted in the family, on seeing her pet kitten minus the caudal appendage, looked at her in great surprise for a moment and then asked, "Well, where's the tail that belongs to this tittin'.

When the news was telephoned here that the Italian, Dominick Constance, was on the mountain, the excitement was at fever heat. John P. Harris, Jr., was the first to start out with his double barreled pursuader, followed later by Seth Pratt, Howard Peters who had a gun larger than himself, 7-year-old William Fisher had his pocket knife open, and Johnnie Sicker struck out with a B. B. bat. The game of base ball that was then in progress was stopped at once and nearly all struck for the mountain with various implements of destruction, thirsting for the Italian's gore. Seth Pratt thought he saw him and fired at him; he screamed for help—but none came. Before they returned word was received that his majesty was captured and safely housed.

Mrs. Howard Heaton, of Milesburg, spent part of last week in our vicinity. Quite a number of people from this place attended the festival at Fairview, Saturday night. Charles Klingner was called home last week from Youngwood, O., on account of the serious illness of his little daughter Jessie. We are sorry to say she is no better at this writing. Thos. Malone is wearing quite a broad smile at present; all on account of the brand new school director who arrived at his home last week. A party was given last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wm. Shawley in honor of her niece, Miss Beth Hall, of Houtzdale, who was visiting here. Quite a number of young folks were present and report a very enjoyable time.

S. KRUMRINE GUARANTEES MI-O-NA. Cures Dyspepsia Even More Quickly Now Than at Other Seasons. The point of least resistance is the proper place of attack. This holds good either in West Point tactics, or in the treatment of disease. The summer is the best season in the whole year for the treatment and cure of stomach troubles. The outdoor life, the common use of fruits and vegetables, and the lessened strain upon the digestive organs all help the cure. Just take a Mi-o-na tablet after each meal and complete the cure. This remedy mingles with the food you eat and aids digestion, it soothes and heals any inflammation that may be present in the lining of the stomach, gives tone and strength to the digestive organs, builds up the nervous system, and soon restores complete health. S. Krumrine has so much confidence in the curative powers of Mi-o-na that he guarantees to refund its cost in case it does not effect a cure. Two weeks treatment costs but 50c. Use it regularly for a month, and if you are not more than satisfied with the results, take back the two empty boxes to S. Krumrine and he will refund your money without question. A guarantee like this shows the confidence he has in the remedy. Now is the time to get well by using Mi-o-na.

Coburn.

A party of gypsies are encamped near J. B. Rishel's and on Sunday they had more attendants than our churches. On Saturday morning the Highvalley scribe came down early and expected to be congratulated for his cow and for items, but instead of being congratulated he received an unexpected broadside from every person of whom he had looked for praise. We are sorry that the venerable gray-headed scribe received such treatment. Merchant John Rishel, of Farmers Mills, spent a short time at this place last week. Paul and Lizzie Kerstetter spent several days with their sister, Mrs. N. F. Braucht, at McElhattan, and attended campmeeting at Pine on Sunday. We noticed an article in the Highvalley items of last week condemning our people for having their cattle run at large and damaging their neighbors' corn. We agree with the scribe that it is not right to impose upon your neighbor in such away. But there is still another class of people that the alert scribe should not have forgotten. These do not allow their cattle to destroy crops but wait until the farmer has harvested and then buy it by the wagon load and forget to pay for it. While a few cows had gotten into Mr. Weaver's cornfield accidentally and did some damage, we still rejoice that in Mr. Weaver we have a man with christian principles, who, like an open hearted christian laid his complaint before his brother and in three minutes a satisfactory settlement was made agreeable to both parties. He is none of these self-righteous type who stand on the street corners and boast of giving the last dough out of the doughtray to the poor and then turn round and urge his neighbor to go to law with his brother in church without giving him notice of his complaint, nor would he cheat his neighbor of a load of corn. The scribe should read Luke 6: 41, 42.

Misses Jane and Grace Robinson, who had been visiting at Ed. Poorman's, returned to their home at Phillipsburg. Rev. G. A. Sparks preached two very able sermons to large congregations on Sunday morning and evening.

Sugar Valley.

Miss Rosie Boone and Eugene Stamm, G. G. Gramley and Miss Catherine Boone made a trip to Penn Cave on Friday. Last Friday one of Noah Kahles horses committed suicide by getting across the halter chain with his front legs and in some manner threw himself to the floor and broke his neck. The horse was a valuable one. Mrs. C. T. Greninger died at her home in Tylersville, Tuesday morning of drooped aged 63 years. Deceased was an earnest, consistent follower of the Lord and bore her sufferings with christian fortitude. She was a good neighbor and loving wife and for years a member of the Lutheran faith. She leaves a husband but no children. Funeral this, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Grace Berry, of Lock Haven, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Fred Glossner. Some of the farmers have their oats all in and have begun plowing. The singing practice was well attended Sunday evening.
