Young Men Who Cannot Vote.

Don't forget the fact that young Democrats who voted on age last fall, and whose names are not upon the Registry, cannot under any circumstances vote at the coming election. Other voters can qualify to their residence and the payment of a tax, and thus secure their votes whether registered or not, but the young man who voted on age at the election of 1903 will be deprived of this privilege, for the reason that if his name is not upon the Registry there will be no tax assessed against him, and as he has never paid a tax, and cannot until he is properly assessed, he cannot qualify as the law requires and consequently is prohibited voting.

Do not overlook this important fact, some registration assessors are in the habit of "overlooking" the names of Democrats who voted on age and in this way prevent thousands from voting every year.

Hov-Stover.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stover at Pleasant Gap was the scene of a very pretty ceremony on Wednesday evening, when their daughter Miss Mary was given in marriage to John Hoy. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Miss Gherret of Bellefonte, and the bride party entered the parlor where Rev. Stoneycypher officiated. The bride was beautifully gowned in a white French India lawn trimmed in Valencia lace and carried a pretty bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Jane Stonerode of Milesburg and best man was John Fanning of Bellefonte.
Mr. and Mrs. Hoy will go to house-keeping some time during the fall of the year at Pleasant Gap where Mr. Hoy is one of the trusted and efficient employees at the Pennsylvania Fish hatchery.

General Beaver's Illness.

General James A. Beaver, former Governor and Judge of the Superior Court, is seriously ill. Last Saturday he slipped on a register at his residence on Curtin street and injured the limb, which had been amputated near the hip during the Civil War. Abscesses formed and the General suffered considerable pain. Dr. R. G. H. Hayes is the attending physician. Dr. Biddle, of Philadelphia, was called in consultation and with Dr. Hayes they performed an operation on the General's limb which was very successful. The General came out from under the influence of the ether and is getting along nicely. If no complications set in his recovery is a matter of only a few days.

Another Cut in Time.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company is not yet through with its retrenchments in Altoona and that city will feel the effects of the latest plan to cut down expenses. Orders were issued on Monday cutting down the working time in the Altoona machine shops to two days a week of eight hours each. It went into effect on Monday and from what could be learned of the orders it is the intention of the company to work one set of men one day and another set on the succeeding day.

It will be some time before we are educated to look for a model boy in a "model" saloon.

Mrs. MARGARET ROVER—aged about 66 years, died of heart trouble Wednesday morning at the home of her only daughter, Mrs. Philip Beezer, of this place. She had been ailing since last March. She was a former resident of Spring Mills but has made her home in Bellefonte for the past 15 years. Interment in Union cemetery Friday afternoon.

Geo. W. BROWN—after a lingering illness with cancer, died at Philadelphia, on Saturday evening, aged about 65 years. The deceased was a soldier in the rebellion, having been a member of Co. C, 148th Penna. Volunteers, and served during most of the war. He was born at Boalsburg, but for about 21 years has resided in Philadelphia. He is survived by his wife and two children, Mrs. Wm. of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Grant Watkins, who resides in Somerset county. He also leaves a sister, who resides at Scotia.

MARY HUNTER—the little four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hunter died at their home on East Linn street, Thursday morning at 4 o'clock. The little girl had been ill for over a year from various ailments and they expected to take her to a Philadelphia hospital for treatment this week. The parents, two brothers, Graham and Malcolm, and a sister, Nancy, survive. Funeral Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, interment in the Union cemetery. Mr. Hunter was summoned home about a week ago from Missouri, but at no time was such a sudden termination anticipated.

WM. MOTZ—Thomas Motz, of Coburn, received the sad news that his brother, Wm. Motz, had died Thursday at his home at Bainbridge, Ga., and that Annie, his wife, had died the week before, both dying of typhoid fever. Wm. Motz was a native of Woodward, this county. He was married to Annie Harter, daughter of Daniel Harter, formerly of Millheim. In 1876 he moved to Michigan, and lived in that state until last winter when he went with his family to Georgia. Mrs. Motz had been sick a number of weeks with the fever and Mr. Motz, in attending his wife, also contracted the disease from which both died. Five children survive, two sons and three daughters.—Journal.

JACOB LONG—An aged citizen of Howard, died Wednesday night 17th, of a complication of diseases aged about 75 years. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Bertha, now Mrs. Robt. McGhee, of Clearfield county; Elsie, now Mrs. Oscar Yeager, of Bellefonte; Alice, at home; Wm. M. of Indiana; Clyde C., of Howard, and Had, wife of Wm. Aley, of Emporium, who was the daughter of Mr. Long's second wife. The present Mrs. Long is his third wife. Mr. Long was born in Potter township, Clinton county. He was a well known surveyor and possessed a knowledge of our wild lands second to none in the county. He is a brother of Joseph H. Long, the large farm owner of Flemington.

LUCIAN FRYBERGER—Wednesday afternoon 17th, Lucian Sylvester Fryberger, proprietor of the Hotel Richelieu at Altoona, died of typhoid fever, after an illness covering a period of nine weeks. Deceased was a son of John (deceased) and Sarah Fryberger and was born a Hecla Furnace, near Bellefonte, on December 27, 1864. He went to Altoona from Irona last April and purchased the Richelieu hotel, which he had since conducted. He was married nine years ago to Miss Georgia Lucas, of Snowshoe, who survives, with two children—Guy and Sarah. He is also survived by his mother, Mrs. Sarah Fryberger, of Williamsport, and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. Lydia Fisher, of Zion, Pa.; Mrs. Sadie Campbell, of Williamsport; Mrs. Annie Garbrick, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Amanda Grimm, of Jasper forly, Mo.; and Charles Fryberger, of Philadelphia.

ELLIS ETTERS—The dead body of Ellis Etters was found Sunday morning, lying along the Beech Creek railroad track near Buttermilk Falls. The only marks on his body were one or two bruises on the head. Ellis Etters was operating a large lumber job near Pine Glenn. Saturday night he left the Cataract hotel and started for his home, which is just across the river, from the town of Cataract, and that was the last seen of him until his dead body was picked up the next morning almost in sight of his home. Some think that he was struck by a Beech Creek engine. Others are of the opinion that he was foully dealt with as it was supposed that he carried considerable money with him. Ellis Etters was the son of Peter Etters and was born at Buffalo Run, Centre county, 55 years ago. He leaves a wife and six children, and the following brothers and sisters: David O., of Bellefonte; William, of Oregon; Reuben, of Pine Glenn; Mrs. Maggie J. Boyer, of Michigan; Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Bellefonte. The funeral took place Tuesday morning. Interment in the Advent cemetery at Pine Glenn.

Mr. Etters had an insurance on his life with agent J. B. Graham of Bellefonte, for $5000, in the Germania Company, N. Y.

FISH WARDEN'S EXPERIENCE.

Fish Warden J. W. Criswell, of Steelton, and a companion last week camped near Marietta and secured evidence against four persons for illegal fishing. Then they visited Washington Borough, and believing that illegal fishing was carried on in that neighborhood, they secured a boat on Saturday and went to Kauffman's island, opposite the toll gate, where they started to investigate. Although Criswell wore a soldier uniform, some persons recognized him, and became suspicious of his mission, for early that evening his boat was sawed in two and set adrift. This left the two men prisoners on the island. All day Sunday they called for help but no one paid any attention to their calls, until late in the day when Raymond Orman, a young boy of Washington Boro who was rowing on the river, heard their cries and going to the island to see what was the trouble, was given a good sum of money to take them to the York county shore.

When Orman learned their identity he expressed regrets that he did not know before, as he surely would have helped them out of their dilemma. The same thing would be done to Joe Rightmire in this county, if there was the least bit of a chance.

EARLY MIGRATION OF BIRDS.

It is a notable circumstance that this summer all the birds have left us some five and six weeks earlier than usual. Robins, and all the rest of the denizens of the air, have migrated, except the festive, or festive, English sparrow. Our attention was called to this fact by ex-senator S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven, who spent an hour with the Centre Democrat the other day, and upon giving it thought, we found he was correct—we noticed no birds in this county for over some five weeks or longer, and the same, the Senator told us, was the case through Clinton county and in other parts according to his observations. Senator Peal is a great friend of the birds—hence observed this early migration of the departure of the migratory birds. He has several cherry trees from which he never allows any fruit to be picked so that the birds may feast while the cherries last. What might this early migration of the birds mean? Is it indicative of an early winter? There must be a cause for it which is instinctive with these birds to know, but which men can not solve.

Auto Stuck in an Apple Tree.

Five people hanging to a large touring automobile, which was wedged fast in the top of a sturdy apple tree on the grounds of the Livingston Manor, near Catskill, N. Y., was a strange sight witnessed the other night by Herman Livingston, owner of the Manor, and Jessie Cole, his coachman. The men had been attracted to the spot by cries of distress, and hurried to the home of the head farmer, where they got a ladder and two axes, rescued the party, felled the tree and released the machine. The occupants of the automobile were Dr. and Mrs. Leonard, of Brooklyn, and George Balfour, Frederick Leland and a chauffeur, all of New York city. On a new section or road the machine got beyond the control of the chauffeur, dashed down a twenty-foot embankment and landed in the apple tree. None of the party was injured.

Auto in a Blaze.

Dr. W. W. Andrews recently purchased an automobile of Callie Armstrong, in that city, and before he got it from the station at his home in Philadelphia, it caught fire and burned up. The auto contained a gallon of gasoline and it was while drawing it from the tank that it caught fire. The conflagration occurred at the Beech Creek station at 10 p.m. Friday night and a large crowd saw the handsome car reduced to ashes.

Patrons of Husbandry Camp.

The 31st encampment and the exhibition of the Patrons of Husbandry of Central Pennsylvania will be held at Grange park, Centre Hall, September 17 to 23, inclusive. Twenty-eight acres are devoted to camping and exhibition purposes. There will be a large display of farm products, farm implements, poultry and fruits.

Big Crop of Peaches.

A wonderful crop of peaches and plums in southern New Jersey will be ready for shipment in about ten days. A commission merchant of Philadelphia, who made a trip through the fruit belt, stated that this year's crop is ten times as large as the crop of 1903, and that the trees are breaking down under the burden.

Smith-Wirth.

On Sunday evening, August 14, at the home of Michael Eby in Haines township, by the Rev. I. N. Bair, of Millheim, Jasper G. Smith and Myrtle C. Wirth, both of Woodward, were united in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have the wishes of their many friends for a long and happy life.

Col. Reeder Ill.

Col. Wilbur F. Reeder is seriously ill at his home on North Allegheny street. He was taken sick while attending court on Thursday morning. He is suffering from lung trouble. He is reported this forenoon as somewhat better.

A REPUBLICAN SPEAKS OUT.

The Howard, Pa., "Hustler" contained another article last week that has set our Republican friends guessing. It was written by a "Republican" and from it we make the following extracts:

As the political campaign in Centre county progresses, the careful observer can daily, more plainly, learn the drift of affairs and the disastrous result that will surely overtake at least a goodly portion of the Republican ticket in this county, and this is all due to mismanagement and boss rule prevailing at the recent Republican convention.

Less than half a dozen years ago the very element, with a few exceptions, which now finds fault with the always loyal Republicans for not submitting to boss dictation, found fault with the same class of loyal Republicans for not joining the ranks of a faction whose sole object was then to disrupt and ruin the Republican party of both county and state.

At that time these same disturbers wanted to dictate and because they were not allowed to do so, they bolted everything and everybody who was true to party and principle and not in harmony and support of the disrupting insurgent gang.

How vast the change! At that time the Centre county Insurgents wanted every Republican to forsake the party to which he had always been loyal, and to join the Insurgents ranks with the idea of disrupting the organization. To-day these very same Insurgents find fault with the hundreds of Centre county loyal Republicans, who this year positively refuse to be led by the nose and dictated to by a gang of Insurgents.

It was a pitiable sight at the recent Republican convention, while with great floods of tears (manufactured for the occasion) rolling down his cheek, the reading clerk during the reading of the resolution came to the point where recounted the worthy manhood, some of his merits and the political virtue of the late Senator Quay, during all of that gentleman's career. Less than five years ago, this same reading clerk and those for whom he pipes the organs of dictation, no doubt sipped just as big tears really never copied, because Senator Quay was living and a political power, which the Insurgents never could subdue.

In fact the Insurgents are never contented unless they can dictate. They want to rule or ruin and they are always quite active in one way or another. This same element temporarily at the head of the organization have saddled a portion of a county ticket on the voters which will never bother them for it will be under so deep that the drift over them will never meet away to find their remains. Others will be attended to by the voters later on.

There is no doubt the Insurgent gang is deceiving him and will burn mental bonfires galore in case his (Judge Love) defeat is accomplished. When good boys like the Judge get into a gang of ruffians they must stand the consequences.

Even the presiding officer was substituted from an adjoining township and egregiously misrepresented the voters of the western precincts of Miles township. The Republicans there wished Daley nominated but the gang was against him and hence this particular substitution.

Thank goodness the day of reckoning is coming. It will be on hand next November and the result will prove that the Insurgent gang must stay away from the Republican party to which it really never belonged. The Republican party of Centre county cannot be completely obliterated as yet, because it has further mission to perform but it cannot do this if dictated to and presided over by a gang of the most unscrupulous ruffians that ever trod the surface of the county.

Let the Insurgents remain where they belong—all by themselves. The Democrats never wanted them and the good Lord knows the Republicans never had any use for them, so let them stay where they belong in a gang by themselves.

Centre County Veterans' Picnic.

Saturday, Sept. 10th, at Hunters Park is the date and place set for the annual soldiers' reunion and basket picnic in Centre county. Prominent speakers will be present to deliver addresses.

Agents Wanted.

The result of the election will be foreshadowed in the World weeks in advance, exactly as Cleveland's election was foretold and as McKinley's triumphs were. The World giving the electoral vote by States with absolute correctness ten weeks before McKinley's election day.

The World will not only strive to be right, but it will be bright and large; national in its scope and views. Everyone who is interested in this vital Presidential contest will need it every day. No Democrat or Republican should be happy without it.

MORE ANIMALS GO MAD.

Three weeks ago a mad dog came in over the Scootac mountain and bit a calf of John Peters, which had to be killed last week. Three dogs of David Mapes were also bitten and show signs of going mad. The mad animal continued towards the Eagleville station where it bit a sheep and two hogs of J. I. DeLong. The sheep went mad was killed Saturday. The hogs appear to be well as yet, tho' they, and not the sheep, were known positively to have been bitten. Dogs owned by Frank and Wm. Kessinger, Lawrence Nestlerode and Wm. James were bitten. Nestlerode killed his dog Saturday after it became mad. The offending canine was shot and killed along the Bald Eagle Valley railroad—between Beech Creek and Eagleville stations by Millord Strunk a few days before he was injured by the cars at Mill Hall.

Show at Lock Haven.

The old saying "When you have seen one circus you have seen them all," may apply to some but not to Sig. Sautelle's Nine Consolidated Railroad Shows to be seen in Lock Haven, Saturday, Sept. 3. They comprise the largest, grandest and best circus on the face of the globe. This vast tented amusement institution differs in the most essential particulars from the shows one has been accustomed to, inasmuch as the acts are all new, novel and original. A gigantic gratuitous street parade will be given over the main thoroughfares of Lock Haven at 10 a. m., on the above day and date. The pageant will be a full mile in length and all aglow with brilliant features and more big things than was ever witnessed before in a street procession. Surpassing all others, you should not miss witnessing the grand free spectacle. Remember the day, date and place.

Picketpockets' Harvest.

Since the Business Men's Picnic last Thursday, we hear that the light fingered gentry were there and relieved a great many of their purses. In the evening there was the usual rush to get aboard the trains and that is where they operated successfully. As men were getting on the steps the pickpockets would jam around and in an instant they would be relieved of their valises.

The next morning about thirty empty purses, of all sizes and shapes, were found at points near the station. The cash only would be removed. Quite a number of our prominent people were losers, and in addition to the cash, missed valuable papers which afterwards were recovered.

HEADQUARTERS OPENED.

The headquarters for the Centre County Democracy are located this year in the Garman Opera House building, above the Garman House in the rooms formerly occupied by The Centre Democrat. Many of our readers no doubt will frequently be in town and all are invited to call there and make themselves at home. Plenty of chairs to sit down and all the leading papers on hand to read. The rooms were furnished last week, and will be kept open during the campaign.

Crushed to Death.

Leidy Hunter, formerly of Phillipsburg, and whose mother still resides there, was killed at Blandsburg, on Friday last, by being crushed between a couple of piles of lumber that had fallen together. Mr. Hunter was engaged as pattern-maker for the Harbison-Walker Co., and had gone into the dry house to look at some lumber. He walked between two very high piles, and the jarring of the floor by his tread threw them together, burying him out of sight and inflicting injuries that must have proven almost if not instantly fatal.

The Centre Co. Fair.

The Centre County Fair will be held in Bellefonte the first week in October. The final arrangements are now being completed. The committee in charge promise a good program.

Murder at Curwensville.

The people of Curwensville were thrown into a state of excitement shortly after 7 o'clock Wednesday of last week by a murder committed about two blocks from the Park house, the most centrally located hotel in the town. A man named Sheehan, an employe of the Central Pennsylvania Tanning company, and his son, aged 21 years, became engaged in a quarrel at their home after the evening meal. The father drew a revolver and shot the boy four or five times, killing him instantly. The father, after he had committed the crime, walked to a physician's office and sent him to his house to attend his son and then gave himself up to the authorities. The doctor and others arriving at the house found the mother, Mrs. Sheehan, who is blind, seated on the floor holding her dead son. Sheehan, the murderer, is a man about 50 years of age, and bore a good reputation in the town.
