

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

The Centre County Fair first week in October. Progressive euchre at St. John's Hall, this evening. The Centre Democrat to the end of the year for 25 cents. 'Uncle Hex' will be at the opera house next Thursday, September 8th. Good music and lots of fun. The ladies of the Catholic church will give a Progressive euchre party in St. John's Hall this Thursday night. H. C. Quigley, Esq., left on Saturday for a brief vacation with his family, who are spending the summer on Long Island. A Bellefonte tobacco dealer was arrested recently for selling cigarettes to boys under 16 years of age. Mrs. A. O. Furst and daughter, Jennie, returned home Tuesday evening from their European tour, and are in excellent health. Clarence Norris, a motorman for the Pittsburg Traction Company, spent a week very pleasantly with friends and relatives up Buffalo Run valley. J. L. Barton, the righthand man in A. J. Greist's store at Unionville, dropped in to see us on Wednesday and left something to lubricate the machinery. The opening attraction at the Garm opera house this season will be 'Uncle Hex,' a trick pantomimical farce comedy, accompanied by a band and orchestra. The date is Thursday, September 8th, and is under the direction of Frank Adams. A pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Wm. Clark on east Howard street. The contracting parties were Walter Edward Meese, of Coleville, and Miss Isabella Clark, daughter of Wm. Clark of this place. The Knights of the Golden Eagle of Bellefonte accompanied by the Coleville band will go to Lewisburg, on Monday, in a body to attend the K. G. E. gathering at that place. A special return train will be run in the evening. Excursion tickets will be sold that day. One of the prettiest and most picturesque homes between Bellefonte and Lewisburg is that of Dr. Barker, the veterinarian at Inglesby, where he has a little farm. The Dr. is a genius in his tastes and keeps adding with beautiful effect from year to year, to his sequestered home. Owing to some unfortunate complications that have arisen, work on the new Y. M. C. A. gymnasium has been stopped after the brickwork has been about half finished. Available funds are not in hand, but will be forthcoming later, and the contractor decided to await until that time. We are assured that this is only a temporary delay. W. C. T. U. Convention. At the W. C. T. U. county convention in Petrikin Hall Sept. 5, 6, 7, Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, of Boston, will deliver a free public address on Monday evening at 7:30. A reception will be tendered this distinguished woman at its close, to which the board of school directors, officers and teachers of the Public schools, Parochial school and Academy are invited. On Tuesday morning Mrs. Hunt will be present at the convention. Tuesday evening a silver medal contest will be held—the young ladies from different points in the county will contest for the medal and other prizes. Admission free. ADJOINING COUNTIES. The Union County Agricultural Society fair will be held this year beginning Wednesday, September 28th, closing on Friday, September 30th. While a severe electric storm of short duration passed over Jersey Shore on the 22nd, Andrew Ferguson had five head of cattle killed out of his flock of six. By lightning two years ago Mr. Ferguson had two horses killed on almost the same spot. The first annual reunion of the Lyons families of Clearfield, Centre, Clinton and Lycoming counties, will be held in Shencks Grove, one mile east of Howard, Wednesday, September 14th. Music and addresses by able speakers will form a part of the entertainment of the day; the public are cordially invited. JOHN LYONS, Cor. Secretary. The Milfin county Democratic Convention, of which Rev. A. H. Spangler was chairman placed in nomination the following ticket: Assembly, James C. Nagney; prothonotary, Frank B. McCabe; register and recorder, David Sunderland; district attorney, W. W. Utley, director of the poor, Abram Moist; county surveyor, John C. Swigart. Col. William A. Simpson, one of Lock Haven's oldest and most prominent citizens, passed peacefully away at his residence Monday afternoon, of affection of the heart. Mr. Simpson's health had failed perceptibly since the death of his wife, about two years ago, but he was still active for one of his years and continued to take a keen interest in his business affairs. Col. Simpson was born in Lancaster, September, 27th, 1825, and therefore was within a month of reaching his 79th year. Ladies' Corduroy slippers, leather soles 25c a pair. Yeager & Davis.

RECENT DEATHS.

JOHN RINE—died Friday evening at his home near Cedar Springs, aged 74 years, of dropsy. He had been sick for some time. He is survived by his son James, and four daughters. MRS. WESLEY HEVRELY—died Tuesday, 23, at her home in Blanchard after a lingering illness. Last spring she was severely burned while burning rubbish in her yard and she never fully recovered, heart trouble and dropsy developing. Besides her husband several children survive. Her age was about 70 years. CHARLES D. FRANK—of Culver, Kansas, died August 21st at his home, of erysipelas, at the age of 61 years, 5 months and 17 days. The deceased leaves a wife (nee Mary Krape), several children, and three brothers, Isaac S., of Abdera, Pa.; George, of Altoona, and John, of Leavenworth, Kansas. The deceased was an old soldier; served over four years in our Civil war. He moved from Centre county in the spring 18 years ago and with others went to Kansas. His remains were deposited in the Crown Point cemetery, where deceased had children buried. The services were conducted by Rev. Teasley.

ANXIOUS TO WORK.

Clearfield Murderer Wants to Build His Own Gallows. Though he is to be hanged this Thursday, John Williams, alias "Black Spot," the negro murderer, in the Clearfield county jail, is apparently the happiest man in the jail. He sings and eats twice as much as any other prisoner. When he heard the carpenters last week pounding in the construction of the scaffold on which he is to be hanged, he begged of Sheriff Staver that he be permitted to go out and help build it. His request was refused. Up to last week "Black Spot" was terror-stricken at the thought that his body would be turned over to the State Anatomical Society for dissection. He had written to his father at Greenbrier, Va., begging that his body be claimed and taken home and buried. No reply to the letter was received. Then Deputy Sheriff Carlisle wrote, explaining that, if formal application were made for the body, the county would prepay all express charges, buy a coffin and prepare the body for burial. To this letter the father of "Black Spot" replied, saying that he was too poor to pay any of the expenses, but that if the body were sent to him he would give it good burial. This news made "Black Spot" happy, and he asked Sheriff Staver to hurry the job, so that it would soon be over.

WILLIAMS REUNION.

It is estimated that two thousand people attended the fifth annual reunion of the Williams family, at Martha, on last Saturday. It included representatives of the family from far and near and was the most successful gathering yet held. At 10:30 the reunion was opened by a few fitting remarks by the president, W. H. Williams, of Port Matilda; followed by music by Rev. Free's orchestra, prayer by Rev. W. B. Cox, of Bellefonte, and short addresses by others. In the afternoon short addresses were made by Revs. Durkey, of Port Matilda, Lathrop, of Milesburg, Cox, of Bellefonte, and Prof. John D. Meyers of Bellefonte, intercepted by music from orchestra and male quartette. The election of officers resulted in the selection of W. S. Williams, president; J. R. Williams, vice president; Ida R. Williams recording secretary; G. G. Fink corresponding secretary; Maggie Williams, poet; Rev. E. L. Williams historian, and John Q. Miles, treasurer.

Cattle Diseased.

Dr. John Bennett, a Tyrone veterinarian, received a letter from Dr. Leonard state veterinarian saying that word has been received at the Harrisburg office that a fatal disease has broken out in the cattle herd of A. Woodring on the mountain back of Port Matilda, nine yearling cattle having already died and a number of others being quite sick. Dr. Pearson requested that Dr. Bennett make an examination of the cattle and report the result to the state board, and the latter went down to Port Matilda last Thursday afternoon in compliance with the request.

Hecla Park Concerts.

The last concert and dance of the season at Hecla Park will occur Friday afternoon and evening, September 2nd, and on this account the music program will be somewhat more attractive than usual. These dances have been most delightful affairs and as the patronage has been entirely satisfactory to the management the probability is they will be continued next season.

The Mills of the Gods.

Many a foolish and vain woman is dressed in silken gowns and costly plumage, while the husband is driven almost to desperation in a vain attempt to stem the tide of flooding expense. It may do for a time, but let it be remembered that while the mills of the gods grind slowly, they grind exceedingly fine and they are bound to grind a fine brand of retribution sooner or later.

Show at Lock Haven.

The old saying "When you have seen one circus you have seen them all," may apply to some but not to Sig. Sautelle's Nine Consolidated Railroad Shows to be seen in Lock Haven, Saturday, Sept. 3. They comprise the largest, grandest and best circus on the face of the globe. This vast tented amusement institution differs in the most essential particulars from the shows one has been accustomed to, inasmuch as the acts are all new, novel and original. A gigantic gratuitous street parade will be given over the main thoroughfare of Lock Haven at 10 a. m., on the above day and date. The pageant will be a full mile in length and all aglow with brilliant features and more big things than was ever witnessed before in a street procession. Surpassing all others, you should not miss witnessing the grand free spectacle. Remember the day, date and place.

Will Arrest 200 Fisherman.

The State Fish Commission has been notified of a great catch of alleged violators of the fish laws in Cambria county last week. A fishing party was given at Andrew Carl's Dam, near St. Augustine, for which 200 tickets were sold. When the water was drawn from the dam great quantities of fish were taken and divided into 200 piles, on each of which was placed the name of the owner. A fish warden present gathered up the tickets and the party will be summoned before a magistrate as soon as the warrants can be made out. Each man is liable to a fine of $25 and costs and $10 for each fish caught. Arrests on similar charges were made in Anville, but the accused men will appeal to court.
