Accused Labor Leader Quits.

Philip Welselmer, head of the Building Trades alliance at New York, resigned last week for fear that his being arrested on a charge of bribe taking might injure the cause of labor.

Industrial.

Rich Gold Strike in Japan.

On government lands in Iwate province, Japan, the discovery of gold mines capable of an annual yield of $15,000,000 and a total of $500,000,000 is officially confirmed.

Alternating Electric Equipment.

The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company of Pittsburgh has begun the construction of apparatus to equip two electric lines with the single phase alternating current system connecting points in Indiana and Ohio.

Big Railroad Freight War.

The announcement that railroads, headed by the Union Pacific, had reduced freight rates on wire and nails between Chicago and Colorado points from 70 cents a hundred to 45 cents, which went into effect Aug. 26, was believed to be the beginning of the steel trust's war on the Colorado Fuel and Iron company for the purpose of absorbing it.

The Erie's Falling Off.

The preliminary statement of the Erie railroad shows that the gross earnings for the last fiscal year were $45,201,163, a decrease of $620,250. This was due to increasing expenses in running and taxes, besides extensive improvements.

Profit Sharing Plan Off.

The decline in gross earnings of the United States Steel corporation is expected to seriously affect the profit sharing plan begun for employees in 1902. There will not be enough surplus to permit the payment of the lowest percentage, but officials say that the plan will be resumed when earnings are better.

Big Mercantile Agency Fails.

The International Mercantile agency, a $3,000,000 concern, incorporated in 1902 and operated on the same lines as Dun's and Bradstreet's, went into the hands of a receiver Aug. 29.

Labor.

Tailors Against Socialism.

The United Garment Workers of America, just before the end of their recent annual convention at Buffalo, voted down, by a large majority, a resolution committing the organization to Socialism.

Government Bars Out Strikers.

The bricklayers, who struck on the army war college building at Washington several weeks ago because a nonunion negro workman was employed and who recently voted to return to work, were notified that their names had been dropped from the rolls and that it would be necessary for them to pass the civil service test before they could again become eligible for employment.

RELIGIOUS

English Primate Here.

Archbishop Davidson.

Archbishop Davidson. The archbishop said that he had undertaken the journey in the hope of promoting unity in the work of his church in England and America and in combating the evils in both countries.

Kansas Church Combination. A movement has been started by the Rev. Fred Grey, Congregationalist, at Stockton, Kan., to organize a federation of churches and Christian workers throughout the state of Kansas.

French Bishop Submits. Mr. Geny, bishop of Laval, one of the prelates who refused to go to Rome, thus causing the rupture between France and the Vatican, has now gone in person to submit to the authority of the pope.

SOCIOLOGICAL

Midweek Pay Day Better.

Agents of the Massachusetts bureau of labor find the tendency of employers to adopt a pay day in the middle of the week instead of Saturday has greatly reduced the number of absentees on account of drunkenness.

The Basis of Arbitration.

Considerable light has been thrown on the underlying principles of labor arbitration, or on the lack of principle shown in various efforts at arbitration, by a series of interviews with managers and union leaders in the Chicago stockyards which are presented in the Outlook by William Hard and Ernest Poole.

Miscellaneous

Olympic Games at Fair.

Among the more important results of the athletic contests in the Olympic games at the world's fair last week were the Marathon foot race, with thirty-one entries, over a twenty-four mile course, won by Thomas J. Hicks of Cambridge, Mass.; the hammer throw record of 168 feet 1 inch by John Flanagan of New York; the standing broad jump of 11 feet 4 1/2 inches by Roy Ewry of New York.

Artful Wins Futurity.

In the race for the Futurity stakes, the richest prize of the American turf, at Sheepshead Bay Aug. 31 the greatest racing stables of the country captured every dollar of the big stakes, Herman B. Duryea winning with the filly Artful, Sydney Paget second with Tradition and James R. Keene third with Sysonby.

McCALMONT & CO., BELLEFONTE, PA.

"SAY, PA!

It seems as if all the boys and girls in our school are wearing Mingle's Shoes. So many have on their Rock Oak Shoes. Said they paid only $1.00 a pair for them. They are just dandies, and I am sure they will wear well--cause all of Mingle's shoes do. And I heard some of the boys and girls telling each other about the splendid stout sole shoes that they get at Mingle's. Said they sold them $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 per pair, and they're beauties, too." This is the way the children talk it at home about our excellent School Shoes.
