

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Miss Charlotte Crittenden left Saturday for her home in Waterbury, Conn. —Geo. Bushman, jeweler of Centre Hall, gave us a call on Tuesday. —Andrew Harter, one of Coburn's representative citizens, gave our sanctum a call. —The "Two Johns" at Garman's this Thursday night should draw a large house. —Miss Eleanor Harris returned to Baltimore, Md., to resume her studies in that city. —Charles McClure went to Philadelphia last week to enter the law department of the University of Pennsylvania. —William Hess, of Philipsburg, who spent a few days at Bellefonte, and gave us a call, returned home Saturday evening. —Mrs. Harry Keller and three children have returned home from a pleasant visit to Westhampton Beach, Long Island. —Miss Grace Witmer left this week for Williamsport where she will attend a business college the coming year taking a complete course in stenography and bookkeeping. —Lawrence Hoover, who is working for the Adams Express Company with headquarters at Huntingdon, was a visitor at his parents' home in this place over Sunday. —Miss Mary McQuiston started to the St. Louis Exposition last week, and after spending ten days there will visit relatives in Iowa and other points, and expects to be gone for some time. —Hon. Seth McCormick, of Williamsport, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte looking after matters pertaining to the organization of the new "Bellefonte Trust Company." He is one of the principal stockholders. —Dr. Louis Tyron, of Philadelphia, has decided to locate in Bellefonte for the practice of his profession. He has rented the John Harrison house, on east Bishop street, where he will reside with his mother. —The production at the opera house to night is one of those kind of entertainments that do a man a great deal of good. It is full of genuine humor, an hour of rip roarious laughter. Go and see the "Two Johns" to-night. —The new Academy building is nearing completion and will make quite an imposing appearance. Its Corinthian pillars fronting the town and the corresponding architecture, will make the Academy an attractive sight capping its lofty eminence. —Mrs. C. M. Bower will have charge of exhibits of potted plants and cut flowers at the fair, the ladies of the county should join with her in the effort to secure a fine display of home grown plants and flowers. Anything may be entered; either for sale or competition. —The Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is still halted in its further erection, having only reached the first story. Available funds for its completion did not entirely meet expectations, and the delay occasioned thereby may cause a postponement towards completion until next spring. —A little sunbeam—a Ray of hope—came to the Brockerhoff House, on Monday morning that will be appreciated. The little Miss is a treasure worth more than all the automobiles ever built—not as noisy, not as troublesome, far less expensive and will outlast the best. Why should not our friend Ray rejoice and be glad? —Tuesday a team was driven up to the fountain, at the Court House, and the tongue jolted against the base. This caused the figure of the angel to topple and fall on the walk, breaking it in pieces so as to be beyond repair. The jolt was purely due to an accident, but some one put the figure on the pedestal, without bolting it down, and this negligence caused its destruction. —Up on Lamb street, as we are informed, there is a colored boy aged between 6 and 7 years, who evidently was born when toes were plenty. The youngster has six toes on each foot. On one of his hands he has five fingers and a thumb, and on the other paw four fingers and a double thumb. With such a supply of "implements" that youngster should get along in the world. —We had a short call from Edward Shannon, one of the veteran democrats from Snow Shoe. He reports republican prosperity all through that section. During the past summer the coal mines have been averaging one and two days a week—miners hardly made enough to keep body and soul together. He thinks greater distress will follow during the winter, and many families be dependent entirely upon charity. —Mr. Loder, of Howard, tarried an hour in our sanctum in pleasant conversation. He thinks the canning factory is a great benefit to that vicinity. It gives farmers a home market for truck. The factory buys pumpkins at $3 per ton, and is now canning those and apples. He tells us last week's frosts did great harm to tomatoes and sweet corn which will deprive the factory of some stock depended upon for canning.

—Centre County Fair comes next week. —Warm shoes for cold feet. Yeager & Davis. —Schofield's Harness Sale on Saturday, October 1st. —"The King Best Flour;" look for the agency to be appointed. —The "Two Johns" will be at the opera house this evening. —Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker went to Ebensburg to attend the funeral of Edward B. Kittel. —Miss Carrie Boes, of Howard, was a Bellefonte visitor on Saturday and made a pleasant call in the Democrat sanctum. —Wm. Frank, one of the reliable democrats of Rush township, paid us a call on Tuesday while here on business. —J. B. Gentzel has bought a carload of coils which were shipped on Wednesday, to arrive here Friday. Will be sold privately. —Our stalwart farmer friend, Isaac Frain, returned from his ten days' outing at the grange picnic, refreshed and in best of spirits. —The Misses Emma and Vera Snook, the well known dressmakers, moved this week to Philadelphia, where they will make their future home. —Rev. W. A. Houck, pastor of the Methodist church at Williamsport, is visiting Bellefonte friends this past week. He was located here several years ago. —Mrs. H. T. Kurtz left Tuesday for Wyncote, Montgomery county, Pa., where she will spend the winter with her cousin, Judge Campbell and his family. —Edward Carper, of Linden Hall, was in town on Wednesday morning enroute for Clairton, Pa., near Pittsburgh, where he has a position operating a stationary engine. —James Reed Jr., who was arrested on suspicion of stealing a robe from some parties was discharged as there was no evidence whatever to connect him with the crime. —They still keep going and coming—the visitors to and from the St. Louis Fair, and all report it too big a thing to be seen all over, with no regrets for having been there. —A valuable horse belonging to Alf Baum, died on Tuesday near Linden Hall. The mate is 5 years old, weight 1300 lb. brown mare which he will sell or trade and is a good one. —Miss Lulu Meek left last Thursday for Atlantic City, accompanied by her nurse Miss Snyder and her sister Miss Mary Meek. About two months ago Miss Meek's health gave way from overwork. —Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hoffman, of Pleasantville, Pa., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker on East Linn St. Clarence Hoffman, editor of the Lewistown Free Press, spent Sunday with them. —On account of the Fair next week we would ask all our correspondents to send in their items a little earlier than usual. Some of our correspondents who have not written for some time should let us hear from them. —The coming of that funny musical farce, "The Two Johns" will surely be regarded as a most welcome event amongst our theatre-goers, and it is safe to predict that a crowded house will receive it at the opera house. —O. P. Maxwell, chemist for the West Virginia Pulp & Paper Co., at Piedmont, West Virginia, is visiting Mrs. Henry Robb and family of East Bishop street. He was formerly chemist at the Nittany Iron Furnace at this place. —Clay Reesman, a baggage man on the Penna. R. R., located at Pittsburgh, was in town on Wednesday being on a vacation to his home at Centre Hall. He expects to be transferred to the New York Division at Philadelphia. —Earl Tuten lost his English bull terrier; it answers the name "Dixie." The finder will be rewarded. How an editor can afford a bull terrier is past finding out. Earl occasionally loses his head, but he misses this dog Dixie more. —A special meeting will be held in the Salvation Army Hall at 8 o'clock this Thursday evening, which will be addressed by Major Frank Waite, of Buffalo, New York, an eloquent speaker and officer in charge of this district of the Salvation Army. —Last Thursday afternoon a lady lost a pocketbook at the station that contained $49.39. Rex Barlett, the boy at Garman's store, found the pocketbook and returned it to the owner. A reward for his honesty a five dollar bill, was given him. That was a square deal all around. —The town clock was on a kantic the past while and now it is undergoing repairs. The clock was installed in 1858 and consequently is worn and needs repairs. Mr. Blair is doing the work. He will put an attachment on by which at the hours of 9 and 12 the clock will strike until it is repaired. —The filling of Water street from the bridge to near the water works is completed and one blemish is turned into a "thing of beauty." It is top-dressed with crushed stone. The walk will soon be put down and will be of stone. This will be the finish of a nice promenade from the water works to the Nittany valley railroad station, along Spring creek where large trout sport and can be watched by pedestrians as they pass along. What other town can brag of as much?

GATHERED OVER THE COUNTY. There are rumors of Philipsburg having another bank. You must pay your taxes before October 8th if you want to vote. Farmers institutes will be held in Centre county as follows: Hubersburg, January 30 and 31; Philipsburg, February 1 and 2. John J. Confer, of Mill Hall, and Miss Margaret Dress, of Mackeyville, were united in marriage, Sept. 22, by H. I. Crow, of Hubersburg. Hiram Lee, who last spring moved from near Bellefonte to Iola, Kansas, has located at Milroy, and next year he will engage in truck farming. John J. Confer, of Rosecrans and Margaret E. Davis of Mackeyville, were married Thursday at Hubersburg, Centre county, by Rev. H. I. Crow. A convention of the Epworth Leagues of the fourth Altoona sub-district, will take place on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 29nd and 30th at Pleasant Gap. The corner stone of the new Lutheran church at Penn Hall will be laid on Oct. 9th. Rev. F. L. Bergstresser, of Tyrone will officiate, assisted by the pastor Rev. E. R. N. Shreeder. Centre county has a large crop of potatoes and thus it is in all parts of the state. Prices are falling in all the markets; some places quote them at 25 and 30 cents per bushel. Farmers from all parts of the county inform the Democrat of corn, tomatoes, and garden truck in general, along with outdoor plants, being badly cooked by the two heavy frosts of last week. Samuel, a six-year-old son of Abner Noll, at Pleasant Gap, fell out of a second floor door, at their ware-house on Tuesday afternoon. His arm was broken above the wrist and other injuries were sustained. The following is a revised list of the school teachers at Blanchard: Principal High school, Prof. Fletcher; grammar, Mrs. Rebecca F. Glossner; intermediate, Miss Martha D. Johnston; primary, Miss Mary Johnston. The Snow Shoe base ball team having defeated the Lock Haven team Saturday Sept. 19th, they now hold the championship of Clinton and Centre counties. Those Snow Shoe rooters are a smooth lot. Anyone who runs up against them wants to keep his eyes on the indicator. The County Grange, at its encampment last week, passed a fitting tribute to its deceased Lecturer, Col. James F. Weaver, whose soul was wrapt in the interests of Pomona grange, of which he was a member from its organization some thirty-five years ago and never missed its annual outings. Benj. Lambert, of Gregg, has returned from a five weeks' visit to friends in the west and took in the St. Louis fair, which he pronounces a big thing—too big to see it all. Not counting this trip via Niagara Falls, Mr. Lambert has already crossed the Allegheny mountains thirteen times in visits to the west, and thinks he may not want to make more trips west. We note the age of two citizens who are well up in the patriarchal line. The venerable George Miller, of Linden Hall, who will reach his 93 year next March. Mr. Miller's life was one of hard laboring. Many years ago he lived at Aaronsburg, and at that time there were quite a number of the Dunkard church in that part of the county and he was one of the preachers in that church. He is still fairly well preserved mentally and physically. Perry Steele, of Axe Mann, is also among the aged, and will shortly round out his ninetieth year. He is quite active for one of his age and his mind is unimpaired. —The Bilt-Well $2.50 shoe for men is just as good as any $3 shoe made. Sold by Yeager & Davis. But Little Oil at St. Mary's It is reported that the third oil well has been drilled in at St. Mary's and that it has turned out to be a duster. The first two wells which were reported as being such large ones are now producing a barrel or two barrels a day. Thus the St. Mary's oil field comes down with a dull, sickening thud. —Seven piece white enameled bed room suit $15. Direct Supply Co., Bellefonte, Pa. Big Crop of Chestnuts. This fall will be the greatest season for chestnuts in several years. The trees in the rural districts are groaning with their heavy weight of chestnut burs. The frost the last few mornings assisted much in cracking the burs and another similar cold spell will open them sufficiently to make the harvest easy. —A seven piece oak bed room suit only $15. Direct Supply Co., Bellefonte, Pa. Weather Report. Weekly report—Bellefonte Station. The quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Centre Co. was held in its office in the Reynolds bank building on Monday. A full board was present with one vacancy by the death of H. C. Campbell, the vice president. Risks were taken on applications amounting to $149,571. Cash premiums received, $623.12, and premium notes received to amount of $12,342.76. The president announced the death of H. C. Campbell, many years a valued director of the company and vice-president for a long period of years, and appointed the following committee to draft resolutions of respect, viz: W. F. Reynolds, George B. Haines and Frank Fisher. The committee's report was ordered to be spread upon the minutes and a copy engrossed and sent to the bereaved family. Jacob Bortorf, of Lemont, was elected by acclamation to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the vice president. Mr. Bortorf is an old member of the board and the choice was a merited one for the interest he had taken in the prosperity of the company. Kisses Are Rare. Pottstown, Pa., girls have formed an anti-kissing club under the name of the Four-leaf Clover Club. While the club is of a social nature, the principal obligation which each member takes is to refrain from kissing any one, either male or female, except near relatives. This is the pledge: I pledge myself to never kiss any one except father, mother, brothers, sisters, husband and children. I pledge myself further never to kiss my betrothed until I become his wife. Promiscuous kissing, the club members declare, as a silly and unsanitary practice. When you hear of two souls with but a single thought, the single thought is to double up. —Men's good working shoes ten inch tops $2. Yeager & Davis. A MATTER OF HEALTH ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure HAS NO SUBSTITUTE A PRETTY HOME WEDDING. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nason, at Julian, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Thursday, Sept. 22, 1904, the contracting parties being their grandson James C. Andrews to Miss Elva Weiss. The ceremony was performed in the pink parlor precisely at eleven o'clock, by the groom's uncle, Squire O. H. Nason, followed in prayer by Rev. John Talhelm, U. B., in the presence of about seventy-five invited guests; after they received the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends they were led to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served, consisting of all the delicacies that could be had for such a happy occasion. The bride was gowned in cream albatross neatly trimmed in imported drop trimming and shirtings of white taffeta ribbon and wore a beautiful bridal veil. The groom wore the conventional black. The rooms were beautifully decorated in the season's choicest flowers, while the outside of the home was festooned in mountain spruce—the pride of the Alleghenies. They received many beautiful and valuable presents from friends both present and absent. After a short visit among friends and relatives the happy couple will go to house-keeping in the home which has been newly repaired and furnished for their reception. The young people come from the best families of our valley, and we all join in wishing them a long and happy life. —Ladie's if you have trouble with your feet hurting you come to us we have the kind of shoes that do not hurt the feet.
