Hurrah for Parker, Davis and Orvis.

C. M. Parrish Says.

I never tire talking about Vin-te-na. The great work it is doing simply astonishes every one. I do not believe that indigestion or dyspepsia can exist when Vin-te-na is taken for a short time. So strongly do I believe that it will relieve all forms of stomach trouble that I am willing to run all of the risk in the matter and will return the money if you take Vin-te-na and are not satisfied. Come in and get a bottle to-day.

A man can't fish without getting bait, but he can bait without getting fish.

UNIONVILLE.

There is not a pauper in the Union township poor house. Before they purchased the farm for that purpose they had as many as 17 paupers to keep. Who says it does not pay to keep a home for the poor?
Quite a number of wild turkeys were shot during the last week. Charley Holtzworth shot two on Saturday. They are not plenty.
Andrew Rowan is seriously ill, caused by constipation of the bowels and indigestion.
Say, Charley, I had a most remarkable dream. I thought or dreamed that Jim O'Brian, (you know Jim, he used to live in Bellefonte) and I were sailing up the valley on an automobile. The day was fine, the road smooth and we glided along as if we were sailing through the air. At Julian we stopped to wind up our machine when a crowd of curious people surrounded us and before we were ready to proceed a cry came from the crowd "O'Brian" then the whole crowd cried out "O'Brian, O'Brian." I said to him, "Jim they think you are Wm. Jennings Bryan, they want you to make a speech." Whereupon James stood up on the seat and held that crowd spell-bound for about five minutes and when he had finished they asked him what side he was on. Ira Davis junior said that it was a Love speech, Jim Murray said it was in favor of Orvis, when the whole crowd began to jangle over it. They finally concluded to take a vote as to which side he spoke on, which resulted in favor of Orvis by a majority of 3 to 1; then the crowd cheered for Orvis. As we proceeded on our way Jim took a good laugh over it and said "the boys guessed right; I intended that for an Orvis speech." Our next stop was at Port Matilda; the first person we encountered was Housat Osman, he was sitting on the door sill of the post-office. Great tears as large as horse-chestnuts were wearing a channel down his cheeks, we asked "my good old friend, why art thou so sorrowful, and why this waste of brine?" He boo-hooed right out and said between sobs that he was afraid Roosevelt would be defeated and he would lose the postoffice. "Well, well" we said "don't worry over it you will be able to find it again down at Aaron Reese's store." We then went across the street to Pringle's store, a beautiful young lady was in and we inquired of the proprietor, "well you see, it looks to me as if Parker was going to be elected and I thought I would prepare in time for my trip up Salt River, and as the water in the river is so low I concluded to go on wheels. Then he pulled out his bandana and wiped away a big jewel that was slowly rolling down his cheek. At the close of his remarks Jim gave me a poke in the ribs which awakened me. "Well! I saw to myself what silly dreams one will have some times."

PERILS OF LAND AND SEA.

Captain Willnef's Remarkable Escape Shows What to do in Time of Trouble.
For many years, Captain Willnef, says the Times of Gloucester, Mass., was one of the best known seamen in the Gloucester Fleet. The sea and its dangers had no terror for him, but the catarrhal troubles with which he suffered for fifteen years made him dread the nights at sea, for he had to walk the cabin floor, being unable to lie down and sleep on account of the constant catarrhal droppings.
Captain Willnef went to two different hospitals for treatment, but could get no lasting benefit. He constantly raised yellow and green phlegm and his trouble became so undurable and nauseating that he was ashamed to go out in company. When despairing of ever getting relief, his wife purchased a Hyomei outfit for him, and trying it before going to bed, he enjoyed the first whole night's sleep for ten years. Captain Willnef says: "I have used less than two bottles of Hyomei and have been cured by the remedy. My friends ask me what is responsible for my improvement, and I tell them Hyomei, which has given me full and complete recovery."
Captain Willnef's experience shows our readers what to do in time of catarrhal trouble—use Hyomei. This remarkable treatment kills the germs of catarrh and makes lasting and permanent cures. S. Krumrine sells Hyomei under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

IS YOUR BACK ALLRIGHT?

If It Isn't the Chances Are That Your Kidneys Are Calling For Aid.
The kidney's are the most important of all the organs; they have more work to perform than any other, hence the necessity of heeding the first symptoms of their derangement. They filter or strain the blood, thus removing the impurities and poisons from this vital fluid. By keeping these greatest of Blood Purifying organs in good health, many diseases are prevented.
Pains in the back and joints are evidence that the kidneys are affected, and they in return will affect the Nerves, causing nervousness, sleeplessness, restlessness, irritability, etc. Infrequent or too frequent urination, excessive, painful or scanty urinary passage are all conclusive proof that the kidneys need assistance.
For any of these troubles Krines Kidney Pills are a positive cure and for them to fail to do what they were designed to do would be like reversing the law of cause and effect. These pills are sold and guaranteed at Krumrine's Drug store. If you are not benefited you get your money back by asking for it.
