

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—William D. Dukeman, of Winburne, was visiting Bellefonte friends. —S. W. Seibert, of Newport, Pa., was a guest of his brother, Dr. J. L. Seibert. —M. F. Rossman, one of Tusseyville's representative citizens, gave our sanctum a call. —Mrs. J. S. Woodcock, of Scranton, Pa., is visiting friends and relatives in this place. —Dr. S. S. and Mrs. McCormick, of Hubbersburg, were pleasant callers in our sanctum. —Mrs. Blair Gates and little daughter Ruth, of Gatesburg, inspected the Democrat office the other day. —Mrs. Amos Mullen is off on her annual visit to friends in Lancaster, York and Columbia counties. —Hon. James A. Beaver called on President Roosevelt at the White House the other day and invited him to one of the State College functions next spring. —An interesting service was held in St. John's Reformed church Sunday morning when the pastor, the Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, baptized nine infants. —Henry Quigley, Esq., who has been ill the past two weeks, with pneumonia, is slowly convalescing and on a fair way to recovery. He was in a critical condition for some time. —The Holy Communion will be celebrated in St. John's Reformed church next Sunday morning and evening. Special services Thursday and Friday evenings at 7:30 and Saturday afternoon at 2:30 pm. —Sunday morning the fire alarm sounded. The fire proved to be in a defective flue in John Keichline's property on east Bishop street on the side occupied by J. S. McCargar. No damage was done. —Morris Yeager returned home on Wednesday from Jacksonville, Florida, where he had gone on a business trip selling swings. He sold a large lot of his swings in that section, but still thinks old Pennsylvania is good enough. —Hallow'en was quiet in our town, save a little throwing of corn. We heard of no unseemly conduct on the part of the boys so usual upon the evening of all Hallow's. On the whole, Bellefonte does not have any very mischievous boys. —There will be a recital and literary entertainment given by the Epworth League of the M. E. church this Thursday evening, Nov. 3. Some of the best local talent has been secured. There will be an admission fee of 10 and 15 cents charged. —Paul Royer, aged 8 years, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Royer, of North Water street, was taken to the Bellefonte Hospital Monday morning to undergo an operation. He has been suffering from pleuro pneumonia caused, it is said, by an accident which he received while playing at school. —Last Sunday an invitation was accepted by the editor and Sheriff Taylor to take dinner at the hospitable home of L. B. Bathurst, near Roland, where two steaming roasted wild turkeys, with other tempting dishes, were served. It was our threat to eat our friend out of house and home, but both fell short in the attempt. It was a royal repast that certainly was appreciated. —A sack of choice Paragon chestnuts from the cultivated orchard of C. K. Sober, of Lewisburg, was received the past week and they certainly were enjoyed by us. The fruit is almost the size of a walnut and of a delicate flavor. He states that his crop this year exceeded 1500 bushels and had a demand for all. He is more than pleased with the result of his venture along this line. —Monday a hunting party left this place for Beaver Mills, in the Allegheny mountains, back of Julian where they will remain until Saturday. In the party are Bruce Garman, Jacob Barlet, Ed. Harper, Alex. Archey and Geo. McElhatten the latter will have charge of the culinary department which is well stocked. They promise much, from a grizzly bear down to a piney. All the boarders at the Garman House are banking on a game dinner for Sunday. —Work on the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium was resumed on Friday last, by the bricklayers to finish up their part of the job. If the weather does not interfere the roof is likely to be the next step and that will permit work to go ahead on the interior during the winter. Financial stress caused the work to stop several months ago, but we learn that the needful has been assured to a sufficient amount to continue the work on the gymnasium to its completion next summer. —The new walk and improvement of the street from the Nittany valley railroad station up to near the big spring, was expensive, but the citizens approve of it as good job and necessary, and it is a credit to the town. It now forms a delightful and pretty promenade, and along it strangers can see the speckled beauties sport in their native element and the angler, in season, can throw in his fly and haul out whoppers right in the heart of the borough without stepping from the walk. In short, "it is a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

GATHERED OVER THE COUNTY.

Pork is reported plenty this fall and is likely to be some lower in price. A baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fye, Pottery Mills, Oh, Fye. Last week the Boalsburg postoffice was moved from the Ishler and Harrison store to the residence of Mrs. Mary Woods. Mr. Zimmerman last week sold his saw mill outfit in the Shingletown Gap to a Mr. White of Lock Haven, who intends running it. Last Tuesday was a big day at the Royer and Reish cider mill at Strubles when sixty thousand and seventy gallons of cider was made. Lee, the second son of Wm. Noll, of Axemann, was shot in the leg while out Hallow'en. The wound, while not serious, is very painful. The infant child of Frank and Ida Confer died Sunday night 23, at the home of his father at Woodward and was buried Wednesday morning. Last Saturday Harry Pifer gave a large dinner at his home below Abdera, as a birthday surprise party for his wife, Roast bear was one of the principal delicacies for the event. Rev. J. H. Higby, of Kittanning, has received a unanimous call to become pastor of the Baptist church, at Philipsburg, succeeding Rev. A. Z. Myers, who recently removed to Hazelton. On the sick list are Mrs. G. W. Garbrick and Mrs. Henry Fredericks of Boalsburg and George Johnson and John Arthey of Graysville are suffering from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. Wild turkeys are being bagged right along by hunters, according to accounts from all sections of the county, and wild turkeys and squirrels seem to be plenty enough to give each sportsman a mess or two. She was born October 17th, 1815, in Centre county, Pa., and went west sixty-three years ago. A surprise was given for Michael Smith, of Pottery Mills, by his family and many others, mostly relatives. He reached his fifty-second birthday, and it was to celebrate this event that his friends congregated unknown to Mr. Smith. Thursday, October 20, was the eighty-third anniversary of Mrs. J. P. Rishel's birth, and the event was properly celebrated in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. A. Rockey, at Tylerville. The relatives brought Mrs. Rishel appropriate gifts. The Fleetfoot Hunting Club of Pine Grove Mills, State College and Rock Springs brought in one deer, shot by George Rossman. The Riley Club of Boalsburg were more fortunate. They captured three deer. Robert Gilbreath shot one and Calvin and Edward Riley each one.

THE COST OF LIGHT.

On March 3, 1897, the day before Grover Cleveland left the White House, the Standard Oil Trust was selling refined petroleum in cases at seven cents per gallon. On Sept. 28, 1904, it was selling the same article at 10 1/2 cents—an increase of over 52 per cent. These figures help to show why the Standard Oil, like other trusts, is "satisfied with existing conditions," and render entirely superfluous any official denial of the yarn that Mr. Rockefeller and his associates are putting up money for the election of Judge Parker.

No matter what may be said to the contrary, it was largely due to the untiring efforts of Hon. J. W. Kepler that the Bellefonte and Philipsburg hospitals received such handsome appropriations. He is deserving credit for this, and it merits your hearty support. The Slavesh Independent Club was organized at Snow Shoe last Saturday evening with 27 members of which Geo. Katchik is president, Wm. Tokash secretary, and Mike Tobietz treasurer. Like good citizens they are a patriotic class of men who are taking an interest in all public questions.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Albert Garbrick . . . State College Tillie Jordan . . . " Boyd Whitman . . . Hubbersburg Minnie Kern . . . " NO SENSATION. This is the last issue of this paper in the judiciary fight, in which we have taken an active part. We have no sensations to spring, no new charges to bring forth, no late cards, nothing of the kind, for the reason that it would be unfair in not giving ample opportunity for a reply, from the opposition who are entitled to fair play. The reasons why we have opposed the re-election of Judge Love have been fully given weeks ago, the evidence is all in and the verdict only remains to be given by the public. The duty now remains with you to vote as you think will best serve the interests of the public. THE LAST MOVE. During the past week an attempt was made to rally Judge Love's forces. All the politicians began saying "Love's chances are growing stronger," "Love is gaining ground." It seemed to be a concerted move but soon was dropped. Now comes the effort to set the balance of the democratic ticket against Orvis. All sorts of imaginary stories are afloat to cause such a difference. The candidates on our ticket can not be made believe them and their friends are hereby cautioned not to give them passing note. This scheme went save Love, he is hopelessly gone. Re-opening Day. On November 6, 1904, the U. B. church at Paradise will be re-opened and the following program will be rendered: At 9:30 a. m. praise service; at 10:30 preaching service. Special music will be rendered by the choir. In the evening: At 7 p. m. song service; 7:30 the platform meeting with addresses by the following persons: Rev. A. Davidson, Rev. May Whitehead, Rev. D. J. Davis, pastor; a solo by Miss Emma Lytle. A large attendance is expected at these services. Beef Trust for Roosevelt. The beef trust magnates are outspoken in their support of Roosevelt. When questioned concerning a report that he was going to vote for Roosevelt, John Cudaly, the packer, a staunch Democrat for many years, said: "You bet I am. Roosevelt is all right. I believe in letting well enough alone. I am thoroughly convinced that the business and other interests of this country would not benefit by a change."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

A GOOD POINT.

To the Editor of the Centre Democrat. Sir—This is sent to you because our republican papers will not publish it. The leaders of our party are building big on the fact that we are so much afraid of losing a vote for Roosevelt, that we will not think of cutting our ticket. This is their hope of saving Judge Love, so they say. On this I, a Republican, want to say a word to Republicans. First—This does not show much faith on the part of the leaders of our party in the intelligence and integrity of the rank and file of our party. Surely the people of either party in Centre county are as intelligent as the people of Clearfield county. A year ago they defeated a judge by a majority of two thousand or more, who, like our own, had meddled much in politics after he was on the bench. Second—If you will consider, Republicans, for just a moment, you will clearly see that Roosevelt will carry Pennsylvania by a very large majority, even though he did not receive a single vote in Centre county. On this point you need have no fear. Do not therefore be scared by the cry of the leaders. They are only attempting to needlessly scare you into the support of an objectionable candidate, while they cast reflection on your integrity. A REPUBLICAN. Will Judge Love also deny that he appointed his mutual friend Joe Rightmout constable of the North Ward, Bellefonte, about a year ago? It will be amusing to read the account of the republican rally at this place, on Tuesday evening, in our republican papers. You will find a sample ballot on page 8 and valuable information regarding election laws on page 6 of this issue. There will be lots of spare time after the election for Joe and the judge to go fishing. "This is for me and the judge, we are going fishing." Don't let a single vote remain away from the polls. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it to be curable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh U. S. E., manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J.
