PENNSYLVANIA LANDSLIDE.

Indications of a Republican Plurality of Over 335,000.

Returns received up to last night indicate a Republican plurality of not less than 335,000 on the national ticket in Pennsylvania, with that party's entire state ticket well up toward these figures.

The distinct surprises in the state, so far as the national ticket is concerned, come from Allegheny county with its plurality of from 50,000 to 60,000 for the Republicans, and from Lancaster, where, though Roosevelt has a clear lead of about 15 000, the Independent county swept the entire country like an ava. and Congressional ticket came very near

The remains were identified as those of a man named Albert Johnson, but nothing is certain regarding his place of residence. John Confer, the undertaker at Snow Shoe, took charge of the remains, placing them in a box brought for the purpose, and giving him the necessary burial.

Good Crop Report.

Benjamin Limbert of Gregg can go up head for good crops. He thrashed out and received 276 bushels of barley from four acres, by weight, an average of 69 bushels to the acre; and oats 280 bushels from four acres, an average of 70 bushels to the acre. The name of the oats is Gold Nugget. Mr. Limbert would be pleased to hear from some one that has a larger yield.

THE defeat of J. W. Kepler for reelection to the legislature comes as a surprise to the democrats and many others. In the last session he made a good record and served this county most
